This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.

+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.

+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.

+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

Cincinnati Conference

of the Methodist Episcopal Church,

for

The Year 1864.

Home Life Insurance Company,

MUTUAL.

No. 258 BROADWAY, NEW YORK.

Assets,	$2,000,000
Assured Members,	10,000

THIS Company, established and conducted by a Board of Directors, composed of men well and favorably known for wealth and commercial, financial, and social standing, offers to effect insurance on life by any of the forms of Policies known in the business; to issue ample Endowments to be paid to children, or other dependents, at any specified age, or to grant annuities.

ADVANTAGES OF THE HOME.

IT IS A MUTUAL COMPANY—ALL THE NET PROFITS GO TO THE ASSURED.

It declares and pays dividends to its Policy-holders annually on all Policies four years old, at the Dividend periods—May 1st—here two last year, based on the contribution of each member to the surplus.

It has declared and paid a Dividend every year since its organization.

It issues to its members participation of the Premium as a Permanent Trust.

It affords every facility in making proofs in case of death, and in payment of its losses.

Its Assets are kept most carefully invested, and are as large in proportion to its liabilities as any other Company.

Its Policies are all non-forfeiting; that is, its members will, under any circumstances, get all the insurance that they paid for.

Its Policy-holders are free to reside or travel in any part of the world, without special permit or extra charge.

It numbers among its officers and members many of the best-known members of the Methodist Church. Rev. Thomas Carlton, D. D., is one of its Directors, and a member of the Executive Committee. Bishops Janes, Simpson, and Kingsley, and several hundreds of the Preachers are among its assured members.

It makes a liberal discount from its Table of Rates to Ministers of the Gospel.

OFFICERS.

WALTER S. GRIFFITH, Pres't.
GEORGE C. RIPLEY, Secretary.
I. H. FROTHINGHAM, Treasurer.
W. J. COFFIN, Actuary.

GENERAL AGENTS.

DOUGHTY & BREUHL, 25 Third-Street, Cincinnati.

GOOD LOCAL OR SOLICITING AGENTS Wanted on Liberal Terms.

Address the GENERAL AGENTS or THE HOME OFFICE. Pamphlets and all required information will be sent by mail to any one who requires it.

The Rules of Order of the last session were adopted.

Half-after eight o'clock was fixed as the time of opening, and a quarter before twelve the time of adjourning, the morning sessions of Conference.

Reports from the Book Concern at New York were received and placed on file.

Circulars from the Sunday School Union and Tract Society were referred to the committees on those subjects respectively.

Circulars from the Garrett Biblical Institute were referred to the Committee on Education.

S. D. Clayton was appointed Conference Postmaster.

J. F. Conrey moved that half an hour of each morning session be devoted to religious services. Carried, and the first half hour of the session was fixed upon as the time.

A. Lowrey moved the appointment of a special committee of three to inquire whether we are legally bound to pay five thousand dollars to the Hillsboro College.

On motion, adjourned, with the benediction by Dr. Moody.

Second Day—Thursday Morning, August 27, 1868.

In accordance with the resolution of yesterday, the first half hour of the session was spent in religious exercises, led by Bishop Clark and brothers J. F. Conrey, Meharry, Clayton, Yourtee, and Braden.

Our venerable Senior Bishop Morris delighted the Conference with his presence this morning.

On motion, the names of the absentees at the time of the roll-call yesterday were called, and the following brethren answered to their names: James C. Bontecou, Wm. Herr, Levi P. Miller, David Warnock, M. P. Gaddis, Andrew Murphy, M. G. Baker, Michael Kauffman, W. L. Hypes, Isaac Neff, M. P. Zink, John F. Marlay, Thomas Collett, J. M. Sullivan, John C. Deem, G. M. Edgar, H. M. Keck, J. P. Shultz, and William Runyan.

The minutes of the previous session were read and approved.

Documents from the Church Extension Society were referred to the committee on that subject.

A communication from the Trustees of the Ohio Wesleyan University was referred to the Committee on Education.

A. Lowrey renewed the motion of yesterday, in reference to the appointment of a committee to inquire into the financial obligations of the Conference to the Hillsboro College. L. F. Van Cleve moved to lay on the table. Lost. The motion of Dr. Lowrey carried, and J. W.

Weakley, L. F. Van Cleve, and A. B. Wambaugh were appointed said committee.

On motion of W. Fitzgerald, James F. Chalfant and J. F. Loyd were added to the committee.

Certain documents were referred to the Committee on Education.

Dr. L. D. M'Cabe was added to the Committee on Education.

On motion, the same instructions were given to the Conference Stewards as have heretofore governed them.

Dr. Weakley presented a paper from the Linden Hill Academy, which was referred to the Committee on Education.

W. Runyan was substituted for J. Gatch on the Committee on Tract Cause.

The eleventh question, "Are all the Preachers blameless in life and conversation?" was taken up. The presiding elders of all the districts except Ripley, represented their respective districts, the preachers in charge reported their Missionary, Fifth, and Educational collections, and the characters of all the effective elders in those districts were approved. (See answer to the Eleventh Disciplinary Question, page 21.)

J. G. Black, presiding elder of Ripley district, being sick and absent, was favorably represented by his preachers, and his character passed. The effective elders of that district then reported their collections, and their characters were approved.

On motion, W. X. Ninde was granted a supernumerary relation without appointment.

Brothers Travis and Mellender, of South-Eastern Indiana Conference, were introduced.

J. F. Hull was substituted for F. Hypes on the Church Statistics Committee.

J. Vance was authorized to pay certain funds, for the education of Freedmen, to J. F. Larkin, Treasurer of the Conference Centenary Society.

On motion, brethren were authorized to pay moneys for the Memorial Window of the Metropolitan Church to brother Moody.

The seventh question, "Who are the Supernumerary Preachers?" was taken up, and the names of James Manning, W. J. Thurber, W. I. Ellsworth, D. H. Sargent, G. W. Fee, J. W. M'Gregor, and M. J. Cramer being called, their characters were passed, and their relation was continued without appointment. S. Brown's character was passed, and he was continued in the supernumerary relation with appointment.

The characters of R. S. Rust and C. M. Giffin were passed, and they were made effective.

The eighth question, "Who are the Superannuated Preachers?" was taken up, and the names of J. Barton, J. W. Stone, J. W. Keely, Arza Brown, C. W. Swain, D. D. Davisson, J. M'D. Mathews, A. W. Musgrove, W. S. Hartley, B. Glasscock, W. N. Maxey, J. Botkin, D. Callahan, A. Murphy, E. H. Field, R. Brandriff, J. Boucher, and W. S. Hartley being called, their characters were passed, and they were continued in a superannuated relation. P. A. Ogden's character was passed, and he was changed from the supernumerary to the superannuated relation.

J. F. Chalfant asked to be released from the Committee on Hillsboro College, and moved that T. J. Harris be substituted in his place. It was moved as a substitute that T. J. Harris be added to the committee.

The substitute prevailed.

G. Moody and J. Armstrong presented a law question for the decision of Bishop Clark, respecting the disciplinary obligation of stewards to respect and provide for a regularly appointed pastor's claim for traveling expenses, incurred in attending Conference, and in the discharge of his regular ministerial duties.

As the question was one involved in the present administration on Williamsburg circuit, Bishop Clark was requested, by vote of the Conference, to give his decision. (See page 28.)

W. I. Fee presented a paper signed by A. B. Wambaugh, Jas. F. Chalfant, and himself, moving that, as a Conference, we do most cordially invite the resident evangelical ministers of this city to seats with us within the bar during our sessions. The motion was adopted. Revs. Sweet, of the Nebraska Conference, and Kirby, of the North Indiana Conference, and Talford, pastor of the Baptist Church of this city, were introduced to the Conference.

L. F. Van Cleve presented a paper relating to certain proposed changes in the charter of the Ohio Wesleyan University, which was referred to the Committee on Education.

After the giving of notices, the Conference adjourned with the benediction by C. W. Swain.

Third Day—Friday Morning, August 28, 1868.

The religious services were opened by Rev. Dr. Geo. C. Crum, with reading the thirty-fourth Psalm, singing the two hundred and seventh Hymn, and offering prayer.

Hymns were sung, and Revs. J. J. Hill and Wm. Young led in prayer. At the special request of J. F. Conrey, Rev. W. Simmons led in prayer in behalf of Rev. J. G. Black, now sick at home.

Our venerable senior Bishop Morris, aided in the chorus by the Conference, sang the hymn beginning "My latest sun is sinking fast." The effect on the Conference was most thrilling and hallowed.

The minutes of the second session were read, amended, and approved.

Bishop Clark announced the transfer of L. H. Bugbee and J. L. G. M'Kown to this Conference.

J. F. Chalfant presented the application of Wm. G. Steward, a deacon of one year, from the Protestant Episcopal Church, for reception into our Church, with a view to his transfer to the Tennessee Conference.

Brother Steward was introduced to the Conference, and Bishop Clark proposed to him the usual questions to candidates for deacon's orders, which were satisfactorily responded to. Brother Chalfant represented him, and he was admitted into the traveling ministry.

Revs. Thomas Lodge, of the New York Conference, and De Hass, of the Baltimore Conference, were introduced to the Conference.

I. Neff reported his collections, and his character was passed.

Conference gave leave to withdraw the Report of the Committee to procure certain changes in the charter of the Ohio Wesleyan University, from the Committee on Education.

Brother Van Cleve read the Report, and on motion of brother Moody it was again referred to the Committee on Education.

On motion, a Committee to arrange a programme for the Conference exercises of next year, was ordered. A. B. Wambaugh, J. P. Shultz, M. P. Gaddis, J. W. Cassatt, J. W. Fowble, S. D. Clayton, and J. M. Sullivan were so appointed. J. W. Weakley requested a Committee of five on the case of Palmer Chapel. Wm. Simmons, J. L. Grover, A. B. Wambaugh, Wm. Young, and J. S. Pumphrey were appointed said Committee. On motion, T. J. Harris was added to the Committee.

The fifth question, "Who are ordained Elders this year?" was taken up. J. F. Hull, M. A. Richards, D. C. Vance, and J. B. Porter, being satisfactorily represented by their presiding elders and the Examining Committee, were elected to elder's orders. Brothers Hull, Richards, and Vance, having been in charge, reported their collections.

On the call of the Bishop for recommendations for local elder's orders, the name of Henry Work Leever was presented by L. F. Van Cleve, and being duly represented and recommended, he was elected to local elder's orders.

A. Lowrey presented the recommendation of E. Owen, from the Methodist Protestant Church, for recognition of orders as an elder. J. F. Chalfant raised the question, whether such a recommendation, not signed by the Secretary of the quarterly conference, is valid.

The Bishop decided that, as the recommendation had the signature of the presiding elder, it is valid. On motion, his orders were recognized.

In the absence of the presiding elder of the Ripley district, the Secretary called the list of appointments for that district, for recommendations for local elder's orders. There were none presented.

A. B. Wambaugh presented the case of J. W. Gunn, and the Conference ordered that the Secretary furnish a certificate of his having been elected to elder's orders at the last session of the Conference.

Revs. Kennedy, of the Central Ohio Conference, Johnson, pastor of the Protestant Episcopal Church, Dr. Davidson, pastor of the United Presbyterian Church, of this city, and brother B. Sells, financial Steward from the Ripley district, were introduced to the Conference.

S. Weeks, Secretary of the Board of Stewards, read, for the first time before the Conference, the estimates of the Board.

M. Dustin moved to change the relation of T. A. G. Phillips, from the supernumerary to the superannuated. Carried.

G. Moody offered a resolution relating to the action of the last General Conference on the subject of lay representation, and favoring its provisions. The resolution was adopted. (See Resolutions, page 26.)

A. B. Wambaugh presented a resolution regarding the appointment of visitors to the literary institutions under our patronage. Adopted. (See Resolutions, page 26.)

On motion of brother Williams, a Committee was ordered on the Observance of the Sabbath. W. S. Studley, C. W. Ketcham, M. Kauffman, J. C. Bontecou, T. S. Cowden, J. Shinn, and J. Armstrong, were appointed said Committee.

On motion of J. W. Weakley, J. S. Pumphrey was released from the Committee on Palmer Chapel.

Leave of absence was granted brother Clemens.

Brother Moody presented the matter of the Memorial Window of Judge M'Lean, in the Metropolitan Church, in Washington City, and, on motion, Dr. F. De Hass was invited to address the Conference in relation to the subject, which he did, in a manner highly interesting.

At the close of the address of Dr. De Hass, a collection was taken for the object, amounting to about $225.

On motion of G. Moody, it was resolved that subscriptions for this object be taken, payable in thirty days. Brothers Moody, M'Hugh, Lowrey, and Cowden were appointed Tellers.

The Bishop presented the credentials of John Park, an expelled local preacher, of the Hillsboro district, to be deposited in the archives of the Conference.

Conference being adjourned by expiration of time, after the giving of notices, the benediction was pronounced by Dr. J. F. Wright.

Fourth Day—Saturday Morning, August 29th.

The religious services were opened by Rev. A. Meharry, who read the one hundred and twenty-first Psalm, and announced the seven hundred and twelfth Hymn, and offered prayer.

Hymns were sung, and Revs. M'Cabe, Tibbits, J. J. Hill, Dr. Merrick, and J. Vance led in prayer.

The Journal of yesterday was read and approved.

C. W. Swain moved, that it is the sense of the Conference, that brethren who voted in the affirmative on the resolution respecting Lay Representation, in the session of yesterday, pledged themselves to nothing more than an earnest effort to secure a full and fair vote of the Church upon the question. Carried. (See Resolutions, page 27.)

Question third, "Who are admitted into full connection?" was taken up. The class, comprising F. M. Clemens, Merrick A. Head, John W. Peters, Randolph E. Smith, Alonzo D. Raleigh, and Andrew Hamilton, came forward at the call of the Bishop, who announced the two hundred and sixth Hymn, and requested Dr. Moody to lead in prayer. After the prayer of Dr. Moody, and the singing of "Rock of Ages" by the Conference, the Bishop solemnly and impressively addressed the class, and they took the vows of ordination.

Brothers Clemens, Head, Smith, Raleigh, and Hamilton, having been favorably represented by their presiding elders and the Examining Committee, and those in charge having reported their collections, were admitted into full connection, and, excepting brother Clemens, who had been previously ordained, were elected to deacon's orders.

The case of John W. Peters having been fully inquired into, and he having also been represented by his presiding elder and the Examining Committee, was received into full connection and elected to deacon's orders.

Robert M. Thompson was discontinued at his own request.

In response to the Bishop's call, for recommendations for local deacon's orders, Edward Thompson Wells, from East Pearl-Street charge, East Cincinnati district; S. N. Marsh, from Tremont circuit, Springfield district; Wesley Rector, from Catawba circuit, Springfield district; Joseph I. Taggart, from Crum Chapel, Hillsboro district, were presented and elected.

On motion of L. F. Van Cleve, it was resolved that candidates defective in the studies of one year, should be required to pass an examination on them in the next year.

Rev. John S. Inskip, of the New York Conference, and Dr. S. M. Merrill, editor of the Western Christian Advocate, were introduced to the Conference.

Rev. brother Adams, of the Colorado Conference, addressed the Conference relative to a Church enterprise within his work.

The Conference being adjourned by expiration of time, after the giving of notices, the benediction was pronounced by Rev. M. Dustin.

Fifth Day—Monday Morning, August 31st.

The arrival of the moment for opening the session found a most interesting prayer meeting in progress, led by Rev. J. S. Inskip, of the New York Conference.

The first half hour of the session was occupied most profitably in singing, prayer, and the recital of Christian experience, chiefly with reference to the blessing of entire sanctification.

The journal of Saturday morning was read and approved.

Bishop Clark presented certificates of the ordination to deacon's and elder's orders. (See page 22.)

A draft upon the Chartered Fund for twenty-seven dollars was announced by Bishop Clark, and ordered by the Conference.

J. F. Chalfant presented the Report of the Committee on Missions, which was adopted.

Brother Ernshaw, of the Tennessee Conference, and Chaplain of the Soldiers' Home, at Dayton, was introduced.

Leave of absence was granted to Revs. J. Verity and D. Whitmer.

The fourth question, "Who are the Deacons?" was taken up, and E. House, not having been before the Examining Committee, was continued at his own request.

The names of Bernard Kelly, John Pearson, Samuel W. Carey, James

Murray, Adam Bowers, and N. C. Parrish were called, and being represented by their presiding elders and the Examining Committee, and reporting their collections, their characters were passed and they were advanced to deacons of the second class.

Bishop Kingsley, being present, took the chair at the request of Bishop Clark.

On motion, leave of absence was granted to J. W. Cassatt, on account of sickness.

The second question, "Who remain on trial?" was taken up, and Edward T. Wells, Carey T. Crum, F. G. Mitchell, and Charles Gowdy, being represented by their presiding elders and the Examining Committee, were continued on trial.

Dr. Reily, of the Kentucky Conference, was introduced.

A. Meharry presented a resolution referring to Dr. J. F. Wright, which was adopted. (See Resolutions, page 25.)

J. M. Sullivan presented a resolution in relation to the obituaries of the wives and widows of ministers, which was adopted. (See Resolutions, page 27.)

Leave of absence was granted to the Committee on the State of the Country.

Dr. M'Cabe asked a reconsideration of the resolutions already passed in relation to visitors to the literary institutions under our patronage.

They were reconsidered, and on motion, it was recommended that two instead of three visitors and examiners be appointed. (See Resolutions, page 26.)

J. M. Sullivan presented the report of the Committee on the Bethel cause. Adopted. On motion, the appointment of T. Lee, as district Superintendent of the Bethel work, was recommended.

Dr. M'Cabe offered a resolution in relation to the inscription of the name of Bishop Morris on the Memorial Window taken by the Cincinnati Conference in the Metropolitan Church.

J. F. Conrey moved to amend by substituting that the committee be instructed to leave a place in the window for the insertion of the name of Bishop Morris. Carried. (See Resolutions, page 27.)

J. F. Conrey presented a paper requesting the Bishops to appoint alternately, to stations in Delaware, ministers from the patronizing Conferences of the Ohio Wesleyan University. The resolution was adopted. (See Resolutions, page 25.)

A. B. Wambaugh moved the reconsideration of the vote by which the Committee on Programme was appointed. Carried.

Brother Conrey moved that the resolutions appointing the Committee on Programme be laid on the table. Carried. On motion, the Committee on Programme was discharged.

Dr. Walden presented the Statement of the Western Methodist Book Concern, which was referred to the Committee on Periodicals.

J. F. Wright presented the Report of the Committee on Finance. Dr. Lowrey presented an amendment, which was accepted and the report as a whole was adopted.

Leave of absence was granted to the Committee on the Hillsboro College.

Brother Lowrey moved that the editor be requested to publish the Report of the Committee on Finance in the Western Christian Advocate, and that the Committee forward a copy for this purpose. Carried.

Brother Van Cleve moved that it is the sense of the Conference that all money collected for Educational purposes, and undesignated, be paid to J. F. Chalfant, for the Hillsboro College. Carried.

The Committee on Temperance was granted leave of absence.

C. W. Ketcham presented the Report of the Committee on Parsonages, which was adopted.

Dr. Crum moved, at the request of the mother of the late Rev. A. T. Thompson, that his parchments be given to her by the Conference, as a memento of her departed son. After kind and affecting remarks by Bishops Clark and Kingsley, the request was granted.

J. L. Grover presented the Report of the Committee on the Bible Cause. Adopted.

Thomas Lee presented the Report of the Treasurer of the Centenary Fund, which was referred to the Centenary Committee.

J. Kendall presented the name of C. Polly for readmission into the traveling connection. He was readmitted.

On motion, the Treasurer of the Conference Missionary Society was authorized to pay two hundred and fifty dollars to the Secretaries for the publication of the Detailed Missionary Report in the Conference Minutes.

J. F. Chalfant presented a Report of the moneys paid to him for Hillsboro College.

Brother Spruill, of the Kentucky Conference, was introduced.

On motion of L. F. Van Cleve, a quarter-past eleven o'clock was fixed as the time for determining the seat of the next Conference.

S. Weeks presented the final Report of the Board of Stewards, including Estimates and Resolutions. Adopted.

The Secretary reported that there were some four hundred copies of the Minutes of last year which were sent out in accordance with the direction of the Conference, and which the brethren to whom they were sent refused to pay for, on the ground that they had not received them; and he further stated that unless they were paid for a personal loss would be incurred by the Secretary.

On motion, they were required to pay for the Minutes sent them. A motion to reconsider was lost.

On motion of J. F. Conrey, J. F. Loyd was requested to correspond with certain Conference claimants as to the relinquishment of their claim.

Rev. Jackson, pastor of the colored church in Hamilton, and brother Coussens, President of the Board of Trustees of Wilberforce University, were introduced.

T. Collett presented the Report of the Committee on the Church Extension Society, which was adopted.

The order of the day was taken up, and brother Sutherland nominated Greene-Street, Piqua. Brother Dustin nominated Dayton. Brother Kendall nominated Hillsboro; and brother Clayton, in appreciation of the generous hospitalities extended to the Conference by its citizens, nominated Hamilton as the place of the next session of Conference.

The different places were represented in the order of their nomination, and on motion of W. H. Sutherland, the vote was taken affirmatively on each of the places; and Hillsboro receiving the largest vote, was chosen.

On motion, the choice was made unanimous.

Bishop Clark resumed the chair, and decided the Law Question referred to him by the Conference. (See page 27.)

On motion, the publication of the Bishop's decision was ordered in the Minutes, and in the Western Christian Advocate.

On motion, a collection was ordered, and taken by brothers Williams, Loyd, Clayton, and Conrey, amounting to one hundred and twenty-eight dollars and eighteen cents, for the benefit of Rev. J. G. Black.

Conference being adjourned, by expiration of time, notices were given, and the benediction was pronounced by Rev. W. Herr.

Sixth Day—Tuesday Morning, September 1st.

The religious services were led by Revs. Loyd, Starr, Pearson, and Chalfant.

The journal of yesterday was read and approved.

Brother Fowble presented a resolution, which was adopted. (See Resolutions, page 25.)

Brother Bontecou requested for himself a superannuated relation, and made some interesting remarks with reference to his early ministerial experience and labors; and after some very touching remarks by Bishop Clark, called out by the allusions of brother Bontecou, his request was granted, and a resolution expressive of the high regards of the Conference for him, offered by Dr. Lowrey, was adopted, by a rising vote.

W. Herr, in behalf of the Preachers' Relief Society, presented its request for the appointment of M. P. Gaddis as its special agent, and moved the recommendation of his appointment. Carried.

Brother Van Cleve moved the appointment of one to preach the Conference sermon. Carried. On motion, John G. Black was appointed, with J. C. Maddy as alternate.

Leave of absence was granted E. M'Hugh, on account of sickness in his family.

Question first, "Who are admitted on trial?" was taken up.

The recommendation of Henry Miller, from the quarterly conference of Mainville circuit, East Cincinnati district, was presented. The Committee of Examination and his presiding elder, represented him, and he was introduced to the Conference and received on trial.

The recommendations of Nathan H. Prince, from King's Creek circuit, Springfield district; of Harrison Wren, from Mechanicsburg station, Springfield district; of J. Raper Hunter, from Trinity charge, Xenia district, and of Alphonso E. Higgins, from Hamersville circuit, Ripley district, were presented, and, after being introduced and represented by their presiding elders and the Examining Committee, they were also received on trial.

On motion, the presiding elder and the preacher in charge of the circuit or station where the candidates reside were appointed to examine candidates for admission on trial.

The Bishop presented a paper containing the appointments for the Examining Committees, and the Missionary Sermon for next year. (See page 22.)

On motion, brothers Clayton, Parrott, J. Vance, and S. Bennett took a collection, amounting to twenty-nine dollars and eighty-eight cents, for the sexton.

Brother Clayton reported the collection, and paid it over to the proper person.

The Bishop announced the transfer of Rev. Geo. Parrott to this Conference, by Bishop Morris, from the Indiana Conference.

Dr. Weakley presented a resolution in relation to the transfer of Rev. J. M. Robinson to the Des Moines Conference, which was adopted. (See Resolutions, page 25.)

J. F. Loyd presented a Law Question, which was referred to the Bishop for decision, by vote of the Conference. The Bishop answered in the affirmative. (See page 27.)

A. B. Wambaugh presented the Report of the special Committee on Hillsboro College, which, on motion of L. F. Van Cleve, was adopted.

W. Fitzgerald presented the Report of the Committee on Education. On motion of L. F. Van Cleve, that part relating to the Ohio Wesleyan University was adopted.

The Report of the Agent of the University was read.

On motion, the second resolution of said report was adopted. The first resolution was amended by inserting "as far as practicable" and by striking out "short time." The resolution as amended was adopted.

That part of the Report of the Committee on Education referring to the Linden Hill Academy was adopted.

That relating to Xenia Female College was read. Dr. Weakley moved to amend by striking out the word "new." Carried. This item was adopted. Dr. Weakley was added to the Board of Visitors to this institution.

That part relating to Hillsboro Female College was read. L. F. Van Cleve moved to amend by adding S. Weeks, G. M. Edgar, and S. D. Clayton to the Committee of Examination. It was so ordered. The following were elected Conference Trustees of the College: Revs. A. Meharry, C. Ferguson, J. F. Chalfant, L. F. Van Cleve, James Kendall, J. F. Marlay, and laymen John T. Wilson and I. H. De Bruin.

The collection taken for the Rev. J. G. Black was sent to him, with the greetings of the Conference, by the hands of brother Simmons.

That part of the report relating to the Springfield Female College was read and adopted.

The item in relation to the Garrett Biblical Institute was read and adopted.

The part relating to the Cincinnati Wesleyan Female College was read. Dr. Moody moved to amend by inserting "as in the past." Adopted, and the whole item, as amended, was adopted.

The part relating to the Wilberforce University was read. The last item was adopted, and the report, as a whole, was adopted.

On motion, the session was extended to twelve o'clock, and it was resolved, that when we adjourn, we adjourn to meet at two o'clock, P. M.

Dr. Lowrey asked a supernumerary relation for D. Warnock. Granted.

Leave of absence was granted to Wm. Young.

J. Stephenson read the Report of the Committee on Periodicals, which was adopted.

Brother George Parrott asked a supernumerary relation, without appointment. Granted.

J. F. Loyd, Treasurer of the Board of Stewards, reported the distribution of funds. (See Stewards' Report.)

The Conference was adjourned by expiration of time, and the benediction was pronounced by Rev. J. C. Bontecou.

Sixth Day—Tuesday Afternoon, September 1st.

Conference met according to adjournment, at two o'clock, P. M.

Rev. J. W. Fowble, by appointment of Bishop Clark, occupied the chair.

Dr. J. F. Wright opened the session by reading part of the fourth chapter of Philippians, singing the five hundred and fifty-third Hymn, and offering prayer.

The Journal of the morning session was read, amended, and approved.

Brother Simmons presented the Report of the Committee on Palmer Chapel, which was adopted.

M. P. Gaddis presented a resolution tendering the thanks of the Conference to the citizens of Hamilton for their generous hospitalities. Adopted, by a rising vote.

S. B. Smith presented the Report of the Committee on Tract Cause, which was adopted.

W. Herr presented the Report of the Centenary Committee. Adopted.

J. Kendall asked for J. G. Black a superannuated relation, which was granted.

Wm. B. Moler, Statistical Secretary, submitted his Report, which was adopted and placed on file.

J. F. Chalfant, on behalf of the Committee on Missions, moved that Finley Chapel, Cincinnati, be placed on the list of missions. Carried.

W. S. Studley presented the report of the Committee on the Observance of the Sabbath. The Report was adopted.

A. W. Tibbits presented the Report of the Committee on Temperance, which was adopted.

Brother Adams, of the Colorado Conference, addressed the Conference with reference to his Church enterprise.

Dr. Moody, Chairman, announced that the Committee on the State of the Country was ready to report, and that they had two reports. Brother Swain moved that the reports be received without reading. The motion did not prevail.

Brother Simmons read the report of the majority. M. Kauffman, with some explanations, read the minority report.

On motion of Dr. Moody, the minority report was adopted with great unanimity, and ordered to be published in the Western Christian Advocate.

S. L. Yourtee read the Report of the Committee on the Freedmen's Aid Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church. Adopted.

Wm. Herr read the Report of the Board of Conference Trustees. On motion, the report was received.

On motion, it was moved to strike out Relief Society from the report, and substitute the Board of Conference Stewards, carried; and the twenty-five dollars from the Kessler fund were directed to go to brother E. H. Field.

On motion of G. Moody, the Conference concurred with the Trustees of the Ripley church in the sale of their old church property, and that the proceeds thereof may be devoted to their new church.

Dr. Lowrey moved that the Trustees of Wayne-Street charge, Piqua, be authorized to sell their church property. Carried.

J. Kendall moved the same privilege of selling church property be granted to the Trustees of Lynchburg church, Lynchburg circuit. Carried.

On motion of J. Pearson, the officers of the Conference Tract Society were appointed. (See page 23.)

Dr. Moody offered a resolution, regarding in complimentary terms the presidency of Bishop Clark at our Conference. The resolution was unauimously adopted by a rising vote. (See Resolutions, page 26.)

On motion of M. P. Gaddis, the officers and managers of the Conference Sunday School Union were re-elected. (See page 23.)

The permanent Sunday School Committee was constituted. (See page 22.)

On motion of J. F. Conrey, it was ordered that the Secretary be instructed to inform the Bishops of the Ohio, North Ohio, and Central Ohio Conferences, at their approaching sessions, of the action of this Conference in reference to the appointment of ministers to the churches in Delaware.

The Secretary called the roll to ascertain the number of subscriptions for Conference Minutes, and by vote of the Conference they were ordered to be left at the Book Room, subject to the orders of subscribers.

The Secretaries were authorized to send Minutes to preachers not subscribing, according to their best discretion.

By a rising vote Conference returned thanks to the Churches and pastors of Hamilton for courtesies, and also to the railroads for accommodations.

A motion was offered requesting the Bishops to fix a later time for the meeting of Conference, but it was tabled.

The journal was read and approved. A motion to adjourn was carried.

After the singing of the two hundred and fourth Hymn by the Conference, and prayer by Dr. G. C. Crum, Bishop Clark made some appropriate and affecting remarks.

The appointments were read, and after singing the doxology, and the benediction by the Bishop, the ministers separated to their respective fields of labor.

RESOLUTIONS OF CONFERENCE.

Conference Stewards' Resolutions.

WHEREAS, God has said "the laborer is worthy of his hire;" and, whereas, our fathers in the ministry gave their all to the Church, too often to the neglect of personal pecuniary interest, trusting to the honor of the Church the welfare of themselves and their families, expecting nothing more than a bare support, and yet depending upon the good faith of the Church to perpetuate such support in the dark hours of age and feebleness in themselves, and the darker hours of the widowhood and orphanage of their wives and children; therefore,

1. Resolved, That we recognize their claims as righteous.

2. Resolved, That a sum equivalent to ten per cent. of the salaries paid in each presiding elder's district shall be the amount expected from the same, and the District Stewards are hereby requested to distribute the same to the respective charges, according to the ability of each.

3. Resolved, That we hereby pledge ourselves to present this claim to our people as early in the year as practicable, giving it that prominence its merits demand.

4. Resolved, That in the passage of character, each pastor shall be requested to report the amount of his collection, and in case of failure to meet the reasonable expectations of the Conference, shall be expected to give satisfactory reasons for such failure.

5. Resolved, That any pastor who may neglect to present this claim to his charge, or shall lightly excuse himself therefrom, will thereby expose himself to just censure.

6. Resolved, That Rev. J. F. Loyd be authorized by the Conference to correspond with the pastors of the various charges, and suggest such measures with regard to increasing the collection as he may deem judicious.

T. J. HARRIS, Chairman.

S. WEEKS, Secretary.

Directions to Conference Stewards.

Resolved, That the Stewards of the Conference be directed to observe the following order in the transaction of their business:

1. That after obtaining all the information practicable for an equitable distribution of the funds, they shall proceed to make the estimate, and report the same to the Conference at as early a day as possible.

2. That on the first reading of the report aforesaid no objection shall be made by any member of the Conference.

3. That the report shall remain in the hands of the committee, who shall appoint another meeting, of which they shall give public notice in Conference, and any brother who objects to any portion of said report shall appear before the committee to state his objections.

4. After hearing objections, and conforming the report to any new facts or information that may be elicited, the committee shall make their final report, which shall be presented for final adoption or recommitment.

5. That the Stewards report to the Conference the amount of salary allowed, amount received, and house rent from each charge.

6. That the Stewards be, and hereby are instructed to make their estimates for Conference claimants strictly conform to the section in the Discipline on support of superannuated preachers, which contemplates the amount necessary to assist such claimant to obtain a comfortable support.

Transfer of Rev. J. M. Robinson.

Whereas, the Rev. J. M. Robinson has been transferred to the Des Moines Conference; therefore,

Resolved, That if at any future time he may desire to return to our Conference we will give him a cordial reception.

Rev. J. S. Inskip.

Resolved, That we hereby cordially and affectionately invite our former fellow-laborer, Rev. J. S. Inskip, of the New York Conference, to return to this Conference whenever his convictions of duty and the judgment of the Bishops shall justify his transfer.

J. W. FOWBLE,
S. D. CLAYTON.

Rev. J. F. Wright.

Whereas, Rev. J. F. Wright, D. D., now in the fifty-fourth year of his uninterrupted, active, and laborious ministry—a ministry which has brought him into personal acquaintance and Christian sympathy with almost every charge within our Conference limits, as well as largely throughout the State of Ohio—a ministry eminently fruitful in saving many from the errors and service of sin in this world, scores of whom, we doubt not, are in "glory now;"

And whereas, we believe that, in these late and closing days of his eventful life, the Churches would be greatly benefited and built up by his fatherly visits, counsels, prayers, and apostolic labors:

Therefore, Resolved, That we recommend our presiding Bishop to appoint our venerable father, J. F. WRIGHT, to travel at large throughout our bounds the ensuing year, choosing for himself his own particular fields of labor from time to time; and we hereby commend him to the kindly and Christian hospitalities and co-operation of all who love our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

Appointments to Delaware.

Whereas, it is desirable for the interests of the University at Delaware, and the patronizing Conferences, that the appointments to the stations of that city shall be made alternately from the preachers of those Conferences; therefore,

Resolved, That the Bishops be requested to appoint to the stations in Delaware, Ohio, ministers from the patronizing Conferences of the Ohio Wesleyan University, alternately, and that they present the matter to the Ohio, Central Ohio, and North Ohio Conferences at their next sessions, for their concurrence.

Visitors to Literary Institutions.

Resolved, That we instruct the Committee on Education to nominate for our appointment at least two visitors and examiners, with their alternates, to each Literary Institution under our patronage; and that one or more of said nominees shall be selected from the laymen of our Church.

WM. YOUNG,
A. B. WAMBAUGH.

Presidency of Bishop Clark.

Resolved, That we acknowledge, with the highest satisfaction, the wisdom and efficiency of our presiding officer, Bishop D. W. Clark; and believing his familiarity with the work within our bounds enables him to dispose of it to the mutual interests of pastors and Churches, and to the glory of the Head of the Church, we will welcome his return as presiding officer as early and as frequently as the general interests of our Church will allow.

G. MOODY,
M. A. RICHARDS.

Thanks to Churches and Railroad Companies.

Resolved, That the thanks of the Conference are hereby tendered, by a rising vote, to the pastors and officers of the Baptist and other Churches of Hamilton, for the use of their pulpits and churches, so kindly tendered us, and to the various railroad companies, for the facilities they have afforded us in attending Conference.

G. MOODY,
W. H. SUTHERLAND.

Thanks to the Citizens of Hamilton.

Resolved, That the sincere thanks of the Cincinnati Conference be tendered to the citizens of Hamilton for the very kind and hospitable manner in which they have entertained the members and visitors of the Conference during its session.

JAS. F. CHALFANT,
W. HERR,
M. P. GADDIS.

Lay Representation.

Whereas, the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, at its session in Chicago, in May, 1868, approved and submitted a plan for the introduction of lay representation into the councils of the Church; therefore,

Resolved, That we approve the action of the General Conference, and pledge ourselves to do what we can to secure a full and fair expression of opinion on the subject of lay delegation, from the members of our several charges.

WM. YOUNG,
GRANVILLE MOODY,
J. F. MARLAY,
W. S. STUDLEY.

Memoirs of Ministers' Wives.

Resolved, That hereafter when the wife of any member of this Conference, or the widow of any deceased member, shall die, the Committee on Memoirs shall furnish an obituary to the Conference, as in the case of a minister, to be published in the annual Minutes of the Conference.

WM. N. WILLIAMS,
S. A. BREWSTER.

Bishop Morris's Tablet.

Whereas, the senior Bishop of our Church, Rev. Thomas A. Morris, during his long and efficient itinerant life, has been connected with this Conference; therefore,

Resolved, That we instruct the Committee to leave a space for it, that his name, which has been so intimately identified with the history of Western Methodism, may be inscribed on the Memorial Window taken by the Cincinnati Conference, in the Metropolitan Church, at the capital of the United States.

G. C. CRUM,
L. D. M'CABE.

Lay Representation.

Resolved, That it is the sense of the Conference that the members who voted in the affirmative on the resolution respecting Lay Representation, pledged themselves to nothing more than an earnest effort to secure a full and fair vote of the Church upon the subject.

C. W. SWAIN,
WILLIAM SIMMONS.

Law Questions.

When two preachers connected with this Conference, and serving the same charge, fail to receive their full salaries as estimated, yet one of them receives more and the other less than his proportion of the funds raised, can the Conference order a pro-rata distribution of such funds, according to the respective estimates of such preachers?

J. F. LOYD,
M. KAUFFMAN.

ANSWER. I unhesitatingly reply, Yes. D. W. CLARK.

Are the Stewards of our Church bound to respect and provide for the claim of a regularly appointed pastor for traveling expenses to and from Conference, and for expenses necessarily incurred in the discharge of his regular ministerial duties?

GRANVILLE MOODY,
JAMES ARMSTRONG.

ANSWER. The Discipline provides that the traveling and moving expenses of the preachers shall not be reckoned as a part of the estimate "for salaries," "but shall be paid by the Stewards separately." In this provision of the Discipline, "traveling" expenses are distinguished from "moving" expenses. And, though it does not specially determine what shall constitute traveling expenses, it obviously includes the traveling expenses necessarily incurred in the performance of his duties, as a member of the Annual Conference, and preacher upon the circuit or station. Long-established usage in the Church, as well as the obvious interpretation of the law, recognizes the necessary expense incurred in going to and returning from the Annual Conference, as a part of the claim of the preacher for traveling expense, and the Stewards have no right to disallow it. D. W. CLARK.

RULES OF ORDER.

1. AFTER the usual opening religious exercises, the Secretary shall read the minutes of the previous session.
2. No motion shall be entertained by the Conference till such motion shall have been seconded.
3. All motions shall be reduced to writing, if desired by any member of the Conference.
4. Every member desiring to speak on any subject before the Conference, shall rise and address the President.
5. The member who first rises and addresses the President shall be entitled to the floor.
6. No member shall speak more than once on the same subject till all who may desire to speak shall have spoken; nor more than fifteen minutes at a time without leave of the Conference.
7. All questions of order shall be decided by the President, subject to an appeal to the Conference, without debate.
8. When any question is under debate, no motion shall be received but to adjourn, to lay on the table, to postpone, to commit, or to amend; but a motion to adjourn shall always be in order; and this, as well as a motion to lay on the table, shall be decided without debate.
9. If the question before the Conference be capable of division, upon the call of any member, such question shall be divided.
10. The business of the Conference shall be conducted with open doors, unless otherwise ordered by the Conference.
11. Any question may be reconsidered on the motion of any member who may have voted with the majority.
12. If any member call for the previous question, and such call be sanctioned by a two-thirds' vote of the Conference, the main question shall then be put.
13. Each Committee of the Conference shall choose its own chairman, unless the chairman be designated by the Conference or the President in the appointment of the committee.

14. The members of the Conference shall assemble in the Conference-room punctually at the hour to which the Conference adjourned, and no member shall absent himself from the place of Conference session without leave of absence.

15. In all practicable cases, when charges are preferred against a member of Conference, notice shall be given to the President on the first day of the session, that, if it be judged proper, his name may be called, and the case referred to a committee.

PART II.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES.

HAMILTON, OHIO, SEPTEMBER 1, 1868.

I HEREBY certify that the following Reports were adopted by the Cincinnati Annual Conference at its session in 1868.

WILLIAM H. SUTHERLAND,
Secretary of Cincinnati Annual Conference.

REPORT ON EDUCATION.

YOUR Committee on Education, having heard from the Trustees, the Visiting and Examining Committees, of those literary institutions under the patronage of the Cincinnati Annual Conference, and having examined and faithfully considered the reports and documents presented by said Boards and Committees, would respectfully present the following as their Report in regard to said literary institutions:

Ohio Wesleyan University.

For about twenty-five years this institution has been steadily increasing in importance and influence, and we may reasonably hope for its prosperity in the future, as in the past.

It is eligibly situated, occupying beautiful grounds, which are becoming more attractive every year. It has a Museum of rare value, a well-selected Library, which is continually increasing. It is crowded with students, and has a Faculty of competent and successful teachers.

The Catalogue gives the number of students for the year as 438. Since the foundation of the institution, about 6,000 young men have been in attendance. This year the senior class graduated 45, of whom 38 have completed the classical course.

The whole number of Alumni is more than 300. The influence, social, commercial, political, literary, and religious, which such a school is destined to exert, is of incalculable importance to the nation and the Church.

Yet, notwithstanding all these elements of success, our noble University suffers much for lack of a strong, a liberal endowment, and we hope every proper effort will be employed till this valuable object shall be obtained.

The financial basis of this institution is in a fair condition, as the following exhibit will show:

University Grounds and Buildings		$75,000 00
Library, Cabinet, and Apparatus		19,500 00
Permanent Fund	$137,689 88
Railroad Bonds	14,150 00
Notes and Subscriptions	48,355 00
Real Estate	2,500 00
In the Treasury	2,833 76
		$205,528 64

General Fund, namely:

Notes, Subscriptions, and Real Estate	$11,110 00
In the Treasury	1,414 64
		$12,524 64
Grand Total		$312,553 28

Your Committee would respectfully present the following for adoption:

1. Resolved, That we request the reappointment of Rev. L. D. M'Cabe as Professor of Philosophy in said University.

2. That Rev. George C. Crum, D. D., and Rev. J. F. Marlay, A. M., be appointed the Visiting and Examining Committee for the ensuing year, and that Rev. James F. Chalfant and Rev. J. F. Conrey be the alternates.

3. That we recommend the Trustees of said University, at their next annual session, to accept the provisions of the law lately made and provided, with special reference to this institution.

4. That we highly approve of the action of the Trustees, in ordering the erection of an additional college building, at the estimated cost of $40,000, to be used as an Alumna Hall and recitation rooms.

5. That we cordially recommend the Biblical department of this institution to the patronage of any of our young men who contemplate entering the ministry, as a means of qualifying them for the important work of the same.

6. That we heartily commend this institution, in all its departments, to the liberal patronage of all our people, and we also cordially invite Rev. C. C. M'Cabe to travel in the bounds of our Conference, promising to co-operate with him in the interests of the institution, whenever he shall visit our fields of labor respectively.

Linden Hill Academy.

About one year ago the Trustees of this Academy employed Professor L. H. Darling to take charge of the institution, at a salary of $1,200, and under his direction its literary interests have been advanced.

The receipts from tuition and all other sources amount to about $700, leaving a balance of debt on the institution of about $500. The Trustees, to liquidate this claim, ask your body to grant to them the privilege of borrowing the money and giving a mortgage on the property for the payment of the same.

But your Committee, believing that this principle can not be adopted with safety to any of our literary institutions, and believing also that this Academy can be more successfully conducted and more extensively patronized under the sole control of the Trustees and the community where it is located, than under the patronage of this Conference, would respectfully recommend that your body propose to the said Trustees to relinquish all responsible connection with and jurisdiction over this Academy, and that a committee of three be appointed, consisting of the presiding elder of the Xenia district, the preacher in charge of the New Carlisle circuit, and the Rev. John W. Fowble, for the purpose of presenting said proposal to the Trustees, and that this Committee report to your body the result, at its next annual session.

Xenia Female College.

This institution occupies a commanding eminence in the beautiful and healthy city of Xenia, which is accessible by railroads from all parts of the State. The grounds are ample for exercise, and are sufficiently shaded with forest trees and shrubbery. The buildings are commodious and well furnished, and from their situation, pupils have the fresh air, quietness and scenery of the country, with the privileges of the city.

Here the religious as well as the intellectual culture of the pupils is cared for, they being required to attend public worship on the Sabbath at such church as their parents may designate. There are two meetings in the College, during each week, for prayer and religious conversation. Here the young Methodist lady is encouraged to attend faithfully the class meeting, and retain the ardor of Christian zeal, as an essential element of future usefulness.

Several having their daughters educated here send their sons also; hence, a few boys and young men have been received as day scholars. This has not been known in the history of this institution to result in any dissatisfaction. The young ladies have always been noted for good behavior here, and never more so than during the past five years.

This school is conducted by a most competent corps of instructors, and is very largely patronized, as the following statistics will show: Graduates in special studies, 2; Seniors, 18; Juniors, 10; Second Year, 16; First Year, 22; Teachers' Course, 17; Music, Drawing, and Painting, 18; Preparatory, 34; Gentlemen in the School, 38. Total, 175.

Your Committee respectfully recommend that the following persons be appointed the Committee of Visitation for the ensuing year, namely: The presiding elder of Xenia district, pastors of the Methodist Episcopal Church in Xenia and Dayton stations, also of Jamestown and Union circuits, with Messrs. Dr. Spahr and Joseph Sexton, Esq.

Resolved, That we cordially commend this College as worthy of the patronage of a Christian public every-where.

Hillsboro Female College.

This institution remains under the care of Rev. David Copeland, President, and his efficient corps of instructors. Its patronage, during the last year, has more than doubled, and the prospects for the future are brighter than ever before. This institution has a spacious and elegant building, and beautifully located grounds, in a most healthful town 60 miles east of Cincinnati. Its social, literary, and religious character is of the highest order. Among the young ladies there is a missionary and Sunday school organization. In view of the above facts, your Committee present the following resolutions:

1. That we rejoice in the prosperity of this institution, and most heartily approve the Rev. David Copeland as an able and most competent educator, and recommend that he be reappointed to the Presidency of said College.

2. Resolved, That we heartily recommend this institution to the confidence and patronage of the Church and public as second to none.

3. Resolved, That the funds from the regular Educational collections be appropriated to the payment of the debt resting on this College, till the whole shall be liquidated.

4. Resolved, That the presiding elder of the Hillsboro district, the stationed preacher in Hillsboro, and John Dill, Esq., be the Visiting and Examining Committee, and that the pastors on Highland circuit, with Mr. J. C. Norton and Mr. John Barrere, be the alternates.

Springfield Female College.

This College is located in the beautiful city of Springfield, and on the most eligible site in that city. The building is a capacious and commodious one, overlooking the city and the beautiful country far beyond.

This school is under the control of Rev. James H. Herron, himself the son of one of Ohio's best educators, Mr. Joseph Herron, Esq., late of Cincinnati, and was brought up under the strict school discipline of his father for many years.

This school is in a very prosperous condition, and bears an excellent character, both moral and literary. Though the house is spacious and the rooms numerous, yet it is to be regretted there are not more rooms for the still better accommodation of the numerous students who throng its halls. Here, too, the moral cultivation of the pupils is cared for, for every Sabbath may be seen Professor Herron and his students in the Sabbath school, where he instructs them in the principles of our holy religion, and all are required to attend the public worship of God in some of the churches. There has been some increase in the number of students during the past year, and several graduates at the close of last session.

Your Committee present the following resolutions for adoption:

1. That we commend this institution to the full confidence and liberal patronage of the Church.

2. That Rev. J. H. Herron be reappointed as the president of the same.

3. That the presiding elder of Springfield district, and pastors in Urbana and Springfield, and Mr. William Warnock, Esq., be the Visiting and Examining Committee, and that the pastors of Grace Church, Dayton, of Troy, and of Piqua, be the alternates.

The Garrett Biblical Institute.

Your Committee respectfully present the following for adoption:

1. Resolved, That we affirm this year, as we did last, that the speedy organization of a Ministerial Education Society, to educate needy young men, whom God shall call to the office and work of the ministry, is highly important, and its necessity deeply felt by us as a Church, and that steps should be taken to organize such a society as soon as practicable.

2. Resolved, That we heartily approve the Garrett Biblical Institute; that we are in full sympathy with its designs, and earnestly recommend our young men who propose to enter the ministry to avail themselves of its facilities when in their power to do so.

3. Resolved, That Rev. G. Moody, D. D., and Rev. W. S. Studley, be appointed the Visiting Committee to attend the anniversary of this institution, which will occur October 27th and 29th, inclusive, of the present year.

Cincinnati Wesleyan Female College.

This is one of the most commodious and perfect structures and college edifices of the West. Its length is one hundred and seventy-two feet, its depth sixty and ninety feet, and four stories in hight above the basement. The stories of the family part of the building are fourteen feet high. The chapel is fifty-six feet square and thirty-five in hight, and will seat five hundred persons; it is to be finished in a superior manner, with elegant memorial windows. The appearance of the whole building is that of strength and beauty. The building alone, with its furniture, will cost $130,000, the lot on which it stands is valued at $60,000, making the entire property worth $190,000.

This institution, founded in 1842, will open its new and elegant buildings for the reception of pupils on Wednesday, September 30, 1868. The regular exercises of the College have been suspended for the past two years in order to the projection and consummation of the enlarged and munificent plans of the Trustees in the present enterprise.

The Trustees have called to the Presidency Rev. Lucius Bugbee, A. M., recently President of the North-Western Female College, at Evanston, Illinois, who has the reputation of being an experienced and eminently successful instructor.

Your Committee respectfully resolve for your adoption,

1. That we heartily recommend this institution to the patronage of our Church as one expected to stand prominently among the literary institutions of our country.

2. That the presiding elders of the East and West Cincinnati districts, Rev. A. B. Wambaugh, Rev. C. Ferguson, and Rev. W. S. Studley, be appointed as the Visiting and Examining Committee for the ensuing year.

3. That we request the presiding Bishops to appoint the Rev. Lucius H. Bugbee to the Presidency of said College.

Wilberforce University.

Whereas, the whole enterprise of Wilberforce University was commenced under the auspices of the Cincinnati Annual Conference, and transferred by sale to the African Methodist Episcopal Church; and

Whereas, after the transfer was made, the valuable edifice, with all its furniture, was destroyed by fire on the 14th of April, 1865; and

Whereas, the Board of Trustees are now engaged in an effort to rebuild, but find themselves straitened for means to accomplish the good work, and have applied to this Conference for its influence, counsel, and sympathy; therefore,

Resolved, That now, as in the past, we highly estimate the value and importance of such an institution, and we cheerfully lend our influence to open the way to its agents in their efforts to raise the necessary means whenever they may come within our respective charges.

All of which reports and resolutions are respectfully submitted.

Report of Special Committee on Hillsboro Female College.

The Committee to whom was referred the question, "What is the relation or liability of the Cincinnati Conference to the Hillsboro Female College, and its indebtedness?" present the following Report:

The first action of this Conference material to the question we find was at its session in Springfield, September 4, 1861. We extract from the printed Minutes, page 12:

"That our ministers be required, at all their appointments, . . to open a subscription for an annual donation to the cause of education, or take up a collection, as they may deem best. . . .

"This sum shall be forwarded to and placed in the hands of a disbursing committee, to be applied to the immediate relief of the most needy institution under our patronage.

"We instruct this disbursing committee to apply the first one thousand dollars for the relief of Hillsboro Female College, and any additional money, if any, upon the accruing interest upon the balance of five thousand dollars, which we purpose, as a Conference, to endeavor, in good faith, to liquidate, provided that no money be paid on interest or principal till unmistakable guarantees be furnished by the Trustees of said College that the balance of the indebtedness will be met; that no interest is to be paid, from year to year, unless there is a corresponding payment of interest by the Trustees on the balance of their obligations."

A reviewing and disbursing Committee was appointed. At page 9 of Minutes of Conference at Morris Chapel, Cincinnati, September 3, 1862, we find stated:

. . . "The indebtedness is said to be provided for on condition that the Conference comply with the resolution of last year, to collect the sum of five thousand dollars. The attention of the Conference is asked to this proposition."

At page 14, Minutes of Conference at Xenia, September 2, 1863, we find:

"No relief has been afforded this institution by the educational plan adopted by this Conference in 1861. In consequence of this the creditors have pressed their claims, and the Trustees have sacrificed their property in liquidation of the debt by them assumed, as well as the five thousand dollars expected from this Conference.

"Now, in order to relieve the suffering brethren by the payment of the five thousand dollars expected from us, we offer the following resolutions, which, in the opinion of the Trustees, as well as ourselves, embodies the only feasible plan for its accomplishment; namely:

"1. That the presiding elder of Hillsboro district be appointed agent for the College.

"2. That the preachers of Hillsboro district be earnestly requested to co-operate with the presiding elder in the plans he may adopt for the financial relief of the College.

"3. The agent shall be at full liberty to operate throughout this Conference.

"Whereas, the plan for raising educational funds, adopted at the Conference of 1861, provides that the first money raised be paid toward the liquidation of the debt upon the Hillsboro Female College, provided unmistakable guarantees be furnished by the Trustees of said College that the balance of the indebtedness over and above the five thousand dollars be paid; and whereas, such guarantees have been furnished by said Trustees;

"Resolved, That Rev. James F. Chalfant, the Treasurer appointed by this Conference for the educational fund, be and is hereby instructed to pay over what money he may have received to the Treasurer of the Trustees of the Hillsboro Female College.

"And whereas, the educational plan adopted in 1861 provides that a collection be taken for educational purposes; and whereas, the first five thousand dollars thus to be raised is now claimed by the Hillsboro Female College, they having complied with the provision made in the educational plan as printed in the Minutes of 1861; therefore,

"Resolved, That the various pastors are hereby instructed to take up a collection in their charges during the month of October, and forward immediately to Rev. J. F. Chalfant, and by him to the Treasurer of the Trustees of the Hillsboro Female College."

At the Conference at Greenfield, September 8, 1864, at page 14 of Minutes, it is stated:

"The College is financially embarrassed, and all aid promised from this Conference has failed, except one thousand dollars paid by Hillsboro station, and two hundred and sixty-four dollars received from other points. This failure on the part of the Conference to provide for the payment of five thousand dollars, as the friends of the institution were led to infer the Cincinnati Conference would do, from resolutions adopted by that body in 1861–1863, has somewhat embarrassed the Trustees.

"Resolved, That we heartily concur in the plan of the Trustees of the Ohio Wesleyan University—to take up annually an educational collection, equal to at least ten cents for every member and probationer, one-half to be paid to the Treasurer of Trustees of Ohio Wesleyan University, and the other half to the Hillsboro Female College."

From Minutes of Conference at Troy, August 30, 1865, page 24, we find:

"In looking into the condition of the Hillsboro Female College, we are satisfied that we have never sustained any legal relation to the College, from the fact that there never has been a legal organization of the Board of Trustees under the provisions of the charter; therefore,

Resolved, That the Conference send a Commission of four to inquire into the condition of the College, and to ascertain what has been the action of the Conference concerning it. That as soon as the Trustees organize under the charter, the Commissioners are authorized to signify the willingness of the Conference to continue a patronizing relation to the College, and as soon as the charter is changed, so that Trustees elected, being members of the Cincinnati Conference who are not stockholders, may serve, the Commissioners are instructed to act as Trustees till the next session of this Conference.

"Commissioners were so appointed."

From Minutes of Conference at Ripley, August 29, 1866, page 32, we find:

"With regard to its financial condition and the relation of this Conference thereto, the Committee (Commission) appointed to visit the College, by this Conference, . . . report that they did so, and found the financial condition of the institution embarrassed, but, after considerable effort, effected the release of a large amount of said debt upon it, on condition that this Conference provide for and pay the balance of the five thousand dollars, which it pledged itself to do at its meeting in 1861.

"This your Commissioners accepted, and renewed the pledge of this Conference, by promising to pay said sum sometime in October, 1866. In order to provide for the foregoing action we offer for adoption the following: That this Conference appoint a Commission to go to Hillsboro and ascertain the exact amount, including interest, which as a Conference we are thus bound to pay. That when the amount is so ascertained the Commission is hereby instructed to apply to the Centenary Committee of this Conference to pay said amount out of the unspecified funds in their control to the Treasurer of the Trustees of the College. That this Conference recommend the preachers to make a special application to our people for the benefit of this College during the balance of the Centenary year."

From Minutes of Conference at Urbana, August 28, 1867, page 30, we find:

"The Commission appointed by this Conference in 1866 to ascertain the sum due on the pledge of $5,000, made in 1861, and reindorsed in 1863, report the following payments"—a total of $1,837.46.

"There remains due on the amount pledged $3,162.54, on which sum the Commission recommend the payment of six per centum interest, from September 25, 1865"—total liability of the Conference to September 25, 1867, $3,553.43.

"Resolved, That the amount due on the pledge of five thousand dollars to the Hillsboro Female College be apportioned to the several charges in the Conference on the basis of five per centum on the preachers' salaries for 1866."

From the foregoing compilation from the records of this Conference, and from all the points brought to our knowledge in the premises at this time, we are of the opinion that there rest upon this Conference "unmistakable" moral, equitable, and legal obligations, such as may be enforced upon it, to meet its first overtures to Hillsboro College in 1861, to pay the sum of five thousand dollars.

Respectfully submitted.

J. W. WEAKLEY, Chairman.

A. B. WAMBAUGH, Secretary.

Report of the Agent of the Ohio Wesleyan University.

It seems proper for the Agent of the Ohio Wesleyan University to make a report of his labors to this Conference.

During the year John R. Wright, of Cincinnati, P. P. Mast, of Springfield, and D. J. Cory, of Findlay, have each subscribed $10,000 to the Permanent Fund.

The net proceeds of the year's labor will amount to $35,000.

It is my habit to give receipts for all moneys that come into my hands, and I desire the members of the Conference to forward all such receipts to President Merrick, who, as Auditor of the Board of Trustees, will audit my account.

Ninety ministers have pledged continuous and earnest effort for the University till each shall have raised and forwarded one thousand dollars. Twenty-five of these are members of this Conference, some of whom have already partially fulfilled their pledge.

Many gentlemen of wealth are thinking earnestly of numbering the University among their heirs, and assurances have been given by persons, whose names I am not at liberty to mention, that they have decided the question in favor of the University.

Permit me to recommend the passage of the following resolutions:

Resolved, That we will this year collect or secure by note, as far as practicable, all subscriptions due the Ohio Wesleyan University within our bounds.

Resolved, That we will use all diligence, consistent with other obligations, to direct the attention of men of wealth to this great enterprise.

TRUMAN S. COWDEN.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON FREEDMEN.

YOUR Committee, having considered the Freedmen's Aid Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church in all its relations and efforts, respectfully submit the following as their Report, namely:

We regard the Freedmen's Aid Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church as a special instrumentality in the providence of God for the accomplishment of a specific work, which work will probably be wrought out, in its present form, during the next quadrennial, and therefore we reiterate the views expressed in the Report made to this Conference a year ago, and incorporate the action of the last General Conference on this subject, namely:

Whereas, the Freedmen's Aid Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church, organized to advance the cause of education in the South, and having the approval of the Annual Conferences and the Board of Bishops, has been received with favor by our members, and has been a faithful almoner of their contributions, and is promoting the highest interests of the communities where it has located schools and maintained teachers, and has gained the confidence of the officers of the Freedmen's Bureau and of the loyal people, without distinction of color, and has effectually supplemented the work of the Missionary and Church Extension Societies by meeting a pressing demand for which no other provision was made, and is contributing to the spread of religion, and especially to the signal progress of our Methodism in the South; and whereas, through the overthrow of slavery, God, in his providence, has opened before our Church an extended and unparalleled field of usefulness in the South, to the cultivation of which we are impelled by the strongest convictions of duty, and by every humane, patriotic, and Christian sentiment, and a field where the school and Church must be planted together, and the minister and teacher must labor side by side; therefore,

1. Resolved, By the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, that we hereby recognize the Freedmen's Aid Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and sanction its organization, and approve of its objects, and earnestly commend it to the liberal support of our people every-where, and to the co-operation of our ministers and members in the South.

2. Resolved, That we recommend our Annual Conferences to place this Society on the list of annual collections, and urge our ministers to use their influence to secure to its treasury all the contributions of our people designed to promote the specific work in which it is engaged.

3. Resolved, That we recommend the appointment of Rev. R. S. Rust as Corresponding Secretary of the Freedmen's Aid Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON CHURCH EXTENSION.

YOUR Committee having considered the work and claims of the Church Extension Society, respectfully submit the following report, namely:

That we are deeply convinced there never has been a time, or a field, in which liberal sowing would yield so rich a harvest; and there is not now an agency through which the Church can accomplish greater and more permanent good than it can through the Church Extension Society. Therefore, we recommend for your adoption the following resolutions:

1. Resolved, That the Church Extension Society is entitled to, and shall receive our most cordial and earnest co-operation.

2. Resolved, That in accordance with the action of the last General Conference, the following persons be appointed to constitute a Board of Church Extension for this Conference. (See list of officers, page 23.)

3. Resolved, That the presiding elders be instructed to apportion the amount for which the General Committee may ask this Conference, among the several districts and pastoral charges for collection, and that each preacher in charge shall report to our next session, along with his missionary collection, the amount asked and received for Church Extension.

4. Resolved, That we recommend that, so far as practicable, this collection be taken in the month of November, 1868.

Respectfully submitted. J. C. DEEM, President.
T. COLLETT, Secretary.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON FINANCE.

THE Committee on Finance recommend to the Conference, for its adoption, the report of last year, slightly amended, and suggest its publication in the Western Christian Advocate immediately after the adjournment of Conference.

1. It shall be the duty of the last quarterly conference of each year to fix the time and place of holding the financial meeting for the next ensuing year, to which the Estimating Committee shall present their estimate for the pastor's support. The meeting shall be composed of the preacher or preachers of the charge, the stewards, leaders, and Estimating Committee. The meeting shall then apportion the amount to the several classes according to their numbers and financial ability.

2. After the amount estimated by the Committee shall have been apportioned to the members, the stewards shall ask each member to accept said apportionment, or a modification of it if necessary, to be paid in four equal quarterly installments, ten days prior to each quarterly conference. Such apportionment and accepted sum shall be entered upon a suitable book and collected promptly by the stewards and class-leaders.

3. We earnestly urge our stewards to use such diligence that no arrearages shall be carried from one quarter to another, thereby burdening the close of the year with embarrassing deficiencies. As sons of Wesley, we should do this, as every thing else, "at the time."

4. In the judgment of the Conference, the obligation to pay the preacher's salary in full is as binding on the congregation and its individual members, as the payment of promissory notes in banks, and should be met as promptly.

5. The presiding elders shall present this plan at their first quarterly conference, and shall cause it to be read to the congregations of the first quarterly meetings, and on circuits the stewards shall cause it to be read, as soon thereafter as possible, in every congregation.

6. The Estimating Committee shall consult with the preachers as to the amount necessary for their support, and the presiding elder shall inquire, at the first quarterly conference, before putting the estimate of the Committee on its passage, if such consultation has been had.

7. We earnestly recommend to ministers and members to take up the Conference collections as early in the year as possible, distributing them at proper intervals, so that they will not be crowded together, or embarrass the close of the year.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON OBSERVANCE OF THE SABBATH.

THE Committee on the Observance of the Sabbath beg leave to report the following resolutions:

1. Resolved, That we, the Cincinnati Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, hereby renewedly avow allegiance to the Sabbath of our fathers—the Sabbath of rest from secular labor and from worldly recreations; the Sabbath of Divine worship and moral and spiritual culture; that Sabbath which has done so much to make the American people whatever they are that is just, or right, or pure, or true.

2. Resolved, That we deplore the tendency among so many of our adopted fellow-citizens to disesteem this bulwark of religious faith and virtue in our republic, thereby weakening the moral power of a land whose rich civil blessings they have been invited to share so freely.

3. Resolved, That we hereby express regret that the Senate of the United States should so far disregard the prevailing sentiment of the Church of Christ among us as to hold a business session on the Sabbath, when no public exigency required such service; and we not only trust that such an occurrence will not be repeated, but that all good citizens, official or otherwise, will hereafter unite in outward respect, at least, for the Lord's day.

4. Resolved, That we will consider, prayerfully, whether it is promotive of the maintenance of the Christian Sabbath for the Church of God to hold camp meetings on that day in neighborhoods where there are other and ample facilities for public instruction and worship.

Your Committee, from an examination of the Treasurer's account, find, after paying the expenses necessary in conducting the Centenary movement, that there remain in the treasury $1,528.46, and of this amount there are two items, to wit, "Local Fund, $87.50," the "Undesignated Fund, $339.05," which they recommend shall be disposed of as follows:

1st. That the "Local Fund, $87.50," be appropriated to the Preachers' Relief Society.

2d. That the "Undesignated Fund, $339.05," be appropriated to the cancellation of the debt assumed by the Conference in behalf of the Hillsboro Female College; and

3d. That the balance, $1,101.91, the Treasurer be authorized to pay over pro rata to the several objects to which the funds respectively belong.

Your committee further find, that the Treasurer holds several notes, amounting in the aggregate to $345, which they recommend shall be left with him, using reasonable diligence to collect when due, and that the proceeds shall be paid over to the objects for which they are designed.

The foregoing results of the Centenary movement call for devout thanksgiving to Almighty God, and impose on the entire Church in the bounds of the Cincinnati Conference, increased zeal and fidelity in the service of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. May his richest benediction ever be vouchsafed unto us, and lead us in the present century to more glorious moral and spiritual achievements!

REPORT ON TEMPERANCE.

YOUR Committee would make the following report:

While we are alarmed at the amount of money, the talent, the persevering energy that is now being used to corrupt the public mind, even demoralizing our highest legislative bodies in our land, and carrying ruin and disgrace through every part of our beloved country, yet we rejoice that there are signs of hope; there is a waking up on this subject by the evangelical ministry of our country; and Christians are beginning to work earnestly to stop this stream of death. This was seen in the National Temperance Convention recently held at Cleveland, where five hundred ministers met to consult on this question. They are the right men for this work. If it is not carried forward by them, and those that work with them, it must fail, for they are God's appointed reformers for all the sins that afflict our race. Your Committee can but lament that many of our pulpits are still silent on the evils of wine-drinking and fashionable tippling, and that men of influence are allowed openly to drink without rebuke; the wine is passed at the social gathering, while the pulpit is silent, and the rules of the Church are broken with impunity. The power of the pulpit brought to bear on this subject would soon drive this evil from us, and what we lost in number and means would be made up in purity and the smile of God. We believe if all the ministers of our country would but do their duty on this question, a single year would not pass till every drinker would be outside of the Church, where they belong; and the woe of putting the bottle to his neighbor's lips would be removed from professing Christians.

The formation of the Temperance Alliance is one of the hopeful signs of the times. Its object is to furnish facts for the people by spreading documents and putting speakers into the field.

It has been a habit of late years to pour all our anathemas on the head of the seller, while the buyer has been held up as a victim, a martyr, till many of the drinkers feel that they are simply unfortunate victims, not sinners. A moment's thought will show us that the seller and the buyer are partners, yea, willing partners in the traffic. We should bring out the truth, that the man who drinks alcoholic poison, in health, is a sinner, a willing, deliberate sinner against God, against his soul and body, his family and the community.

We again lift up our voices with all the concern that a growing, threatening danger impels, against native and home-made wines. They are not innocent, but filled with danger and death. The cry comes from the wine-producing parts of California that wine is making whole communities drunkards, male and female; and many have emptied their casks to save their families, but it is often too late. Will we not warn our people of their danger!

Is it not high time that we let the political parties know that if they want our suffrage for any office, they must present us with strictly temperance men? If this were done it would not be long till the reproach of having laws passed or defeated by whisky would be known only in history, and it could not be said that guilty criminals escaped justice through its influence.

Are we willing to have the Senate of our nation disgraced by the presence and performance of drunken Senators? If not, let petitions go in from every Church and temperance society for their expulsion if they do not reform. Let it not be said that even a partisan press leads the Church in morals. Let it no longer be said, while we have at home driven the traffic behind screens and into cellars, that it can stalk unblushing through the halls of our highest legislature. Therefore,

Resolved, That we will help forward, by all the means in our power, the temperance reform, especially the Temperance Alliance that is being formed for the purpose of agitating this great question before the people.

Resolved, That we heartily indorse the action of the National Temperance Convention recently held at Cleveland, and that we recommend our members to study these resolutions, and carry them into practice, that were adopted by that body and published in the Western Christian Advocate.

Resolved, That the pastor who does not warn his people against the danger of wine-drinking and tippling, and carry out the provisions of our Discipline against those that violate its rules on this subject, is recreant to his solemn ordination vows, and will find the blood of lost souls required at his hands.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON AMERICAN BIBLE SOCIETY.

THE Committee on the Bible Cause submit the following report:

The American Bible Society still enjoys the undiminished confidence of the public. The Christian looks to the circulation of the Scriptures as one of the great agencies of the world's conversion. While other organizations may complete their work and cease to be, this Society has a mission to perform that will not be accomplished till the knowledge of God covers the earth. It therefore commends itself to the prayers, benefactions, and hearty co-operation of the Christian public.

The past year, like the other fifty-two of the existence of this Society, has been one of increasing effort and success in publishing and distributing the Word of God. In our own country the work of re-supplying every destitute family is being vigorously prosecuted. During the past year no less than 655,356 families have been visited, and 83,380 supplied with a Bible. The number of volumes printed at the Bible House during the year ending in May last is 1,121,961. The receipts of the Society from all sources for the same period amount to $723,106.68, reaching well up to a million dollars—the sum needed for the present year to meet the pressing demands upon the Society. The object for which the Society is laboring is to place the Bible in the hands of every human being, and it proposes to labor on till the work is done.

Aside from the operations of the Parent Society, it is gratifying to look at the success of the Bible Cause in the South-Western District of Ohio, a field embracing almost the entire territory of our Conference, occupied by one of our own members. This District is composed of twenty counties, having 38 auxiliary societies with 366 branches. During the year the Agent visited 119 of these societies, delivered 147 sermons and addresses—nearly three per week—and traveled a distance of 4,930 miles. With the aid of his assistants 38,505 families were visited, and 4,004 destitute families furnished with the Scriptures. The whole number of volumes distributed was 27,201, and the cash receipts from all sources $24,876.98. The results of the year have been most encouraging in this field, and the cause commends itself to the continued patronage of our people.

In conclusion the Committee submit the following resolutions for adoption:

Resolved, That we have undiminished confidence in the American Bible Society and the officers and agents by whom it is managed.

Resolved, That we will cordially co-operate with the accredited agent in our respective charges, and in his absence attend to the collection, as far as may be, in harmony with the time of the anniversary of the respective Auxiliary Societies.

Resolved, That the Bishop be requested to reappoint Rev. Wm. Herr Agent of the Society for the South-Western District of Ohio.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON PARSONAGES.

THE Committee on Parsonages beg leave to report that there are, within the Cincinnati Conference, sixty-five parsonages, valued at about $150,000, and forty-four charges with no parsonage. Hence, about one-half of our preachers are under the necessity of renting such houses as may be vacant, well located or not, with or without any of the conveniences of life.

We believe every charge in this Conference is abundantly able to have at least one parsonage, and it well furnished, with heavy furniture, which would add greatly to the comfort of the preachers, without impoverishing the people.

In Cincinnati alone we have fifteen churches with no parsonage, and these charges, with less than three thousand members, are under the necessity of paying about $3,000 annually in rent for houses for their pastors. Now we submit, whether it be a wise financial policy to continue to rent, and pay out more money every ten years than would be required to buy or build parsonages in all those charges.

Preachers especially should feel interested in this matter, for every respectable charge will pay about as much salary with a parsonage as without one. Hence the house-rent really comes out of the preacher's pocket. We recommend, therefore,

1. That all those charges unprovided with parsonages proceed at once to secure them, and also that all our parsonages be furnished, at least with heavy furniture.

2. We believe that a suitable effort on the part of preachers will soon accomplish the work. Our people are able, willing, and interested in this matter.

3. The official members of every charge ought to see to it that their pastor has as comfortable a home, if not as costly, as they themselves occupy.

4. We recommend that presiding elders urge this subject upon the attention of all the quarterly conferences in their districts, at the first quarterly meeting of the year.

Respectfully submitted.

REPORT ON THE TRACT CAUSE.

TRACT distribution has several advantages as a means of publishing evangelical truth.

The most important subjects are selected, and treated with special reference to the most forcible impressions. Being brief, they are likely to secure a careful reading. Being on detached subjects, they may be distributed according to the respective wants of individuals. Being carried to the people, many receive the truth who would not seek it.

In the distribution Christian tract visitors are brought into personal contact with the people, whereby an opportunity for personal religious labor is afforded, by which both the giver and receiver are benefited.

Besides tracts on general religious subjects, are good collections on Temperance, Sabbath schools, and for children. We would recommend that each preacher examine the catalogue of publications, to ascertain on what subjects Tracts are issued.

There are three methods of obtaining Tracts for distribution.

By purchase from our Publishing House. Every pastor of a self-sustaining Church, who will pledge himself to take a collection for the treasury of the Tract Society, on application, will be furnished with all the Tracts and "Good News," needed by his Tract Committee.

Pastors of Mission Churches can obtain five dollars' worth or more, if necessary, without such pledge.

We would recommend increased diligence in this work, by a more general taking of the Tract collection, and in the circulation of tracts in all our charges, in city, town, and country.

Respectfully submitted.

REPORT ON PERIODICALS.

As an agency in the dissemination of Gospel truth the religious press of our Church must be considered second only to the living ministry. A good paper or magazine, containing articles on the evidences of Christianity, on Christian experience, or on themes calculated to awaken the consciences of sinners, may find its way into families where the preacher can not go, and become instrumental in the salvation of souls.

Every minister among us knows that those members of our Church who carefully read our periodicals manifest more interest in the preaching of the Gospel than those who do not read them. They are more in sympathy with the great movements of the Church, and are more liberal in their pecuniary contributions for its advancement.

The question, therefore, How can we obtain a sufficient amount of the best quality of religious periodical literature? is next in importance to the question, How can we have the most effective preaching?

We rejoice at the success of our Western Christian Advocate. It has hitherto been conducted with ability, and having had for some years an extensive circulation, it has been a great power for good in our land. We welcome to its editorial chair the newly appointed editor, Rev. S. M. Merrill, D. D., whose first ripe fruits encourage us to anticipate great future harvests of thought, which will fully sustain the high standard of the paper. We highly appreciate the services of Rev. E. House, A. M., and recommend his reappointment as Assistant Editor of the Advocate.

Your Committee would respectfully suggest to the Agents that the Advocate might be improved by leaving out many of its advertisements—especially those of wonderful cures,- and filling the space occupied by them with religious articles and fresh, soul-stirring sermons.

We heartily approve the action of the late General Conference in authorizing the Agents in Cincinnati to publish a first-class illustrated magazine for the youth of our country. The want of such a publication, of the highest literary excellence, combined with the purest morals, has long been felt among our people, and those of other communions. We believe that the Cincinnati Book Agents, with their facilities, can produce the Youth's Magazine required by the times, and we pledge ourselves to promote its circulation as largely as possible.

It is hardly necessary to say any thing about the "Ladies' Repository," as it speaks for itself, and for its able editor, in so many families. Long may it live, and retain the title which is now generally given to it—"The Queen of the Monthlies!"

Your Committee deem it appropriate, in this Report concerning our publishing interests, to make suitable mention of the great loss which the Church has sustained in the death of Rev. Adam Poe, D. D., for so many years connected with the Western Book Concern as Agent. As an upright Christian gentleman, and a faithful servant of the Church, true to every trust reposed in him, his name will ever be revered.

We extend a hearty welcome to the newly elected Assistant Book Agent, Rev. J. M. Walden, D. D., of this Conference, and shall always be glad to see him among us as the representative of the Western Book Concern.

MINORITY REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE STATE OF THE COUNTRY.

YOUR Committee has duly considered the subject referred to it, and respectfully report as follows:

Whereas, the Church of God, being "the light of the world and the salt of the earth," holds the high responsibility of teaching the morals of Christianity, which embrace all the relations which men hold to men—civil, social, and religious; and

Whereas, politics, as defined by Webster, is the science of government—that part of ethics, or morals, which consists in the government and regulations of a nation or State, comprehending the protection of its citizens in their rights, with the preservation and improvement of their morals; and

Whereas, our excellent Discipline teaches that it is the "duty of Christians, and especially of all Christian ministers, to be subject to the supreme authority of the country where they reside, and to use all laudable means to enjoin obedience to the powers that be, and to behave themselves as peaceable and orderly subjects;" and

Whereas, it is of vital importance to both Church and State that our rulers should be men "fearing God and working righteousness," and that every citizen should obey Christ's injunction to "render unto Cæsar the things that are Cæsar's;" and

Whereas, both civil and ecclesiastical authorities are delegations of power from Almighty God, and, with his all-comprehending providential operations, are the agencies by which he governs the world; and whereas, each of these agencies must be deeply affected by the condition of the other; therefore,

1. Resolved, That by teaching the morals of the Christian religion, we shall best succeed in training up our people into an appreciation of the high responsibility which rests upon them as citizens of this great Republic, in its mission of justice, liberty, and progress.

2. That the ministry should enforce the teachings of the Bible relating to citizens and rulers, that every member of the Church of Christ may understand that his primary duty to the civil government is loyalty, and that every ruler may be reminded that he should govern in righteousness.

3. That we owe it to God, our country, and humanity, to use all our influence in elevating to office only men having a good moral character.

4. That we will lift up our voices against the sins so prevalent in our nation, such as Sabbath-breaking, profanity, intemperance, lewdness, polygamy, and divorce, and all other practices which tend to public or private demoralization.

5. That we render hearty thanks to the God of our Fathers, that it has pleased him that our national oneness should be preserved, that freedom and citizenship should be given to all those who were in bonds, and that so many of the late rebellious States have returned to their normal position in the Government.

6. That we deplore the spirit which still exists in many parts of the States lately in rebellion, rendering life and property insecure, retarding the return of peace, prosperity, and vital piety.

7. That we deeply sympathize with the loyal men of the South who are suffering so much for their patriotism, and that we urge the Government to exert its utmost power for their protection from wrong and outrage, without distinction of color.

8. That the honor, stability, and prosperity of our Republic depend upon preserving inviolate and inviolable the public pledges of its faith, and in duly regarding its laws.

9. That the recent desecration of the holy Sabbath by the Senate of the United States, in the transaction of secular business on that sacred day, merits the most decided disapprobation of all good citizens, and renders us obnoxious to the displeasure of "the Lord of the Sabbath day."

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE BETHEL CAUSE.

THE Society known as the "Western Seamen's Friend Society" has been in existence over twenty years, and during that period has received the sympathy and support of the different Churches of the land. The special field of the Society is among the seamen of the lakes, the boatmen of the rivers, and the poor and destitute classes who crowd the lake and river towns and cities of our rapidly growing country; and we are glad to be able to state, after having examined the history and progress of the Society, that its labors have been blessed of God in the elevation and salvation of thousands who, in the absence of this agency, might never have been reached by evangelical labor.

As evidence of permanent results we find the Cincinnati Union Bethel, the Cleveland Union Bethel, the Milwaukee Bethel Home, Missions among the fishermen of Washington Islands, Lake Michigan; at Pittsburg, Erie, Toledo, Detroit, the upper Mississippi, Chicago, and St. Louis. Nearly all these stations are filled by ministers of our Church, who are doing a good work in carrying the Gospel to sinners, and relieving the wants of the poor and destitute.

In view of the above facts, and of the action of the last General Conference—

Resolved, That we heartily sympathize with the Bethel Cause in its work of faith and labor of love, and will continue to invoke upon it the blessing of Almighty God.

Resolved, That we recommend the appointment of Rev. Thos. Lee to the Bethel work.

REPORT OF SPECIAL COMMITTEE ON PALMER CHAPEL.

THE Committee appointed to investigate the legality of the removal of the materials in Palmer Chapel Building, Fairfield circuit, Xenia district, to Osborn, a preaching appointment on the same circuit, would report as follows:

That it is clearly their judgment that under the provisions of the Deed of Trust made by Charles Slagle and wife to Noah Fidler and others, Trustees, in trust for the use of the Methodist Episcopal Church, dated February 17, 1845, by which the present church was built, that the materials now composing said Palmer Chapel building can not be removed from the lot on which they stand, nor any part of them, till the provisions of said Deed of Trust are literally complied with. Your Committee would advise the preacher in charge of Fairfield circuit, to call a meeting of the Palmer Chapel Society as soon as practicable, and proceed to elect a Board of Trustees, according to the terms of the said Deed of Trust, and if in the godly judgment of a majority of the said Trustees, the materials of said Palmer Chapel ought to be removed to Osborn, or any other point on Fairfield circuit, and can be without incurring legal liability, that they proceed to remove the same at once, to be used in the erection of a meeting-house, under the control of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and for no other purpose.

REPORT OF SPECIAL COMMITTEE ON PALMER CHAPEL.

THE Committee appointed to investigate the legality of the removal of the materials in Palmer Chapel Building, Fairfield circuit, Xenia district, to Osborn, a preaching appointment on the same circuit, would report as follows:

That it is clearly their judgment that under the provisions of the Deed of Trust made by Charles Slagle and wife to Noah Fidler and others, Trustees, in trust for the use of the Methodist Episcopal Church, dated February 17, 1845, by which the present church was built, that the materials now composing said Palmer Chapel building can not be removed from the lot on which they stand, nor any part of them, till the provisions of said Deed of Trust are literally complied with. Your Committee would advise the preacher in charge of Fairfield circuit, to call a meeting of the Palmer Chapel Society as soon as practicable, and proceed to elect a Board of Trustees, according to the terms of the said Deed of Trust, and if in the godly judgment of a majority of the said Trustees, the materials of said Palmer Chapel ought to be removed to Osborn, or any other point on Fairfield circuit, and can be without incurring legal liability, that they proceed to remove the same at once, to be used in the erection of a meeting-house, under the control of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and for no other purpose.

CINCINNATI

WESLEYAN FEMALE COLLEGE.

THIS College will enter upon the Twenty-Seventh year of its history on Wednesday, the 30th day of September, 1868.

The new edifice is the most commodious and perfect college structure in the Church. The buildings and grounds are worth $200,000.

Faculty.

The Faculty has been made up with great care, and will comprise Instructors in all the branches of a Solid and Ornamental Education. The Annual Catalogue—which will be issued at the close of the College Year, in June—will give full particulars as to Faculty, Courses of Study, and General Plans.

Departments.

There will be three—Preparatory, Academic, and Collegiate—accommodating all grades of pupils.

Courses of Study.

Besides the Preparatory and Academic, there will be, in the College proper, three Courses of four years each. The completion of either of the first two Classical Courses will entitle the student to the regular degree of Baccalaureate in Arts, the completion of the third to the degree of Baccalaureate in Science.

Expenses.

FOR BOARDERS—ANNUAL EXPENSE.

Board, use of furnished room, fuel, lights, and washing—one dozen pieces per week.....$230 00

One-half of this amount must be paid upon the entrance of the pupil, and the balance at the beginning of the second session.

TUITION PER SESSION.

Preparatory Department	$20 00
Academic Department	35 00
Collegiate Department	45 00

Terms of payment as above.

Deduction.

There will be a deduction of fifteen per cent. from the Boarding expense and twenty-five per cent. from the Tuition expense to the daughters of ministers.

Extra Expenses per Session.

TUITION IN INSTRUMENTAL AND VOCAL MUSIC.

Lessons on the piano in Normal department—two per week	$50 00
Lessons on the piano in Academic department—two per week	40 00
Lessons on the piano in Preparatory department—two per week	30 00
Lessons on the Organ	50 00

(Instruction in classes—vocal—free to the regular pupils.)

Lessons in special vocal culture	50 00
Use of piano—two practice hours per day	6 00
Lessons in French	15 00
Lessons in German	15 00
Lessons in oil painting	30 00
Lessons in colored crayon	24 00
Lessons in advanced drawing	15 00
Lessons in beginning drawing	10 00

Terms and Vacations.

There will be two sessions per year. The first session of this year will open on Wednesday, September 30, 1868, and close on the 4th day of February, 1869. The second session will open Wednesday, February 8th, and close Thursday, June 24th. Vacation of two weeks at the holidays. The next year will open a week earlier.

Applications and letters of inquiry may be addressed to REV. BISHOP CLARK, 260 Eighth-street; to DR. WILEY, at the Book Concern, corner Main and Eighth streets; to JOHN M. PHILLIPS, 19 West Third-street, Cincinnati, or to REV. LUCIUS H. BUGBEE, A. M., President of the Faculty.

THE

Eclectic Educational Series,

PUBLISHED BY WILSON, HINKLE & CO.,

137 Walnut-Street, Cincinnati.

THE following testimony is corroborative of the fact, now generally admitted by our most intelligent and successful teachers, that the Eclectic Series of School-Books, embracing M'GUFFEY'S NEW READERS and SPELLER, RAY'S ARITHMETICS, ALGEBRAS, and GEOMETRY, and PINNEO'S GRAMMARS, are among the best and most popular ever issued.

These books are more extensively introduced than any other Series published in America, and have successfully stood the severest tests of the school-room, winning the warmest approval of thousands upon thousands of our best educators.

From Bishop D. W. CLARK, D. D., Late Editor of the Ladies' Repository, and of Books at the Western Book Concern.

I have had frequent occasion, during the past few years, to examine and re-examine the ECLECTIC EDUCATIONAL SERIES OF SCHOOL-BOOKS. Taken as a whole, it is unquestionably the best series issued by any house in America.

Prof. Ray was a mathematician of high order. His practical good sense, and his large and successful experience as an educator, as well as his enthusiastic devotion to the science of mathematics, eminently fitted him for the production of text-books in this department; and his Arithmetics and Algebras form a regular and complete series, beginning with the elements, and ascending to the higher principles of the science. I regard this as the best mathematical series extant.

M'GUFFEY'S NEW SERIES OF READERS, ascending from easy lessons in spelling and reading to the highest forms of rhetorical delivery, making seven successive gradations in the art of reading and delivery, must satisfy every reasonable demand in this department. In the range of the series, in the care of selection and adaptation, in the explanations and illustrations, as well as in the high moral and religious sentiment pervading the work, we have evidence of the fidelity and ability of the author.

In DR. PINNEO'S PRIMARY AND ANALYTICAL GRAMMARS there is remarkable simplicity of arrangement and clearness of definition. The Primary is admirably adapted to the beginner. It will enable him to understand the science. The Analytical, designed for more advanced students, is unsurpassed in its complete adaptation to its design. The popularity enjoyed by these works rests upon the substantial basis of merit.

PART I.

FIRST DAY.

Wednesday, August 25, 1869.

THE CINCINNATI ANNUAL CONFERENCE of the Methodist Episcopal Church began its eighteenth session in Hillsboro, Ohio, this morning, at 8 o'clock; Bishop Edward R. Ames presiding; our venerable Senior Bishop Morris being also present.

After a prayer-meeting of half an hour's continuance, in which brothers Wright, Armstrong, Simmons, and Young led in devotions, the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper was administered to the ministers and laity.

The Secretary of the last session called the roll, and one hundred and nine members responded to their names. W. H. Sutherland was re-elected Secretary, and Geo. H. Dart, D. J. Starr, and D. C. Vance were re-elected Assistant Secretaries. Wm. B. Moler was re-elected Statistical Secretary.

J. J. Thompson and J. Pearson, being members of the Conference, were appointed its Reporters.

Standing Committees were constituted as follows:

On Public Worship—The Presiding Elder of the Hillsboro district, the Pastor of Hillsboro station, and Prof. Copeland.

On Missions—The Presiding Elders.

On Education—A. B. Wambaugh, C. W. Ketcham, T. J. Harris, W. L. Hypes, Prof. Copeland, W. W. Ramsay, and W. H. Lawder.

On Temperance—C. Ferguson, J. Murray, A. W. Tibbits, E. Kirk, S. F. Conrey, G. M. Edgar, and A. N. Spahr.

On Parsonages—W. J. Quarry, W. E. Hines, J. B. Ellsworth, W. B. Jackson, T. Head, W. Webster, and C. Kalbfus.

On Church Statistics—A. Bowers, D. C. Vance, S. W. Carey, D. Whitmer, J. S. Pumphrey, J. H. Middleton, and R. E. Smith.

On Sunday School Statistics—W. Runyan, N. C. Parrish, E. P. James, J. C. Deem, M. A. Head, T. E. Fidler, and R. K. Deem.

On Periodicals—J. Stephenson, S. B. Smith, A. U. Beall, J. F. Conrey, J. W. Fowble, H. M. Keck, and J. M. Sullivan.

On Post-Offices—J. Shinn, E. F. Hill, J. P. Shultz, H. Wren, J. Verity, J. L. Gregg, and A. Hamilton.

On New York Accounts—S. D. Clayton.

On American Bible Society—J. W. Peters, S. L. Yourtee, W. W. Ramsay, W. Fitzgerald, J. W. Mason, M. G. Purkhiser, and C. F. Thomas.

On Bethel Cause—J. C. Maddy, T. Lee, G. H. Kennedy, C. T. Crum, J. Vance, N. M'Donald, and W. Routledge.

On Tract Cause—E. House, B. Kelley, Geo. W. Kelley, H. M. Curry, E. M'Hugh, I. Neff, and H. C. Middleton.

On Sunday School Cause—S. A. Brewster, S. B. Smith, M. G. Baker, T. Collett, J. G. Black, S. D. Clayton, and R. K. Deem.

On Freedmen's Aid Society—R. S. Rust, L. Clark, T. S. Cowden, J. W. Cassatt, W. Young, M. P. Zink, and W. T. M'Mullen.

On Finance—J. S. Peregrine, C. W. Rowland, W. I. Fee, H. DeCamp, F. Hypes, J. Chambers, J. F. Hull, E. G. Dial, Philip Lauman, A. M. Griffith, J. L. Gregg, Samuel Hitchcock, A. N. Spahr, and J. Hall.

On motion, the Committee on the State of the Country was omitted.

The following brethren were appointed Conference Stewards:

W. N. Williams, J. S. Perkins, J. F. Loyd, J. Polkinhour, A. Meharry, H. E. Parrott, E. T. Wells, S. W. Hitt, J. T. Bail, H. C. Weakley, S. Weeks, Judge Meek, J. M. Sullivan, and John Hall.

On Printing the Conference Minutes—The Secretaries.

On Church Extension—W. Q. Shannon, M. J. Cramer, E. H. Field, F. M. Clemens, N. M'Donald, S. W. Edmiston, and M. A. Richards.

On the Observance of the Sabbath—J. M. Walden, W. Herr, W. Simmons, and W. N. Williams.

The Rules of Order and the rules governing the Stewards of last year were adopted.

Dr. Walden moved to amend the Rules of Order so as to require that, upon the call of fifteen members, the vote on any question shall be taken by Ayes and Noes. Carried.

Bishop Ames announced that the Conference was authorized to draw on the Chartered Fund for thirty dollars, and the draft was ordered.

The greetings of the Conference were extended to Bishop Morris. Brother Gardiner, of the Detroit Conference, brother DeHass, formerly of the Baltimore Conference, and brother Frame, formerly of the Tennessee Conference, were introduced.

On motion, the north side of the third window from the pulpit was designated as the Bar of the Conference.

L. F. Van Cleve moved the appointment of a postmaster for the Conference. The motion carried, and W. B. Jackson was so appointed.

The eighth question, "Who are the Superannuated Preachers?" was taken up. The names of J. Barton, J. W. Stone, J. W. Keely, C. W. Swain, D. D. Davisson, J. M'D. Mathews, A. W. Musgrove, B. Glasscock, W. N. Maxey, J. Botkin, A. Murphy, E. H. Field, R. Brandriff, P. A. Ogden, J. Boucher, and T. A. G. Phillips were called, and their relation was continued.

On motion, J. C. Bontecou was made effective. J. G. Black was also made effective, and on motion of J. F. Conrey the Conference Stewards were instructed to make as full an appropriation as they justly can to brother Black for one quarter of the year.

The seventh question, "Who are the Supernumerary Preachers?" was taken up. J. Manning's relation was continued without an appointment.

W. I. Ellsworth was given a superannuated relation, and made a claimant for the past year. D. H. Sargent, M. J. Cramer, S. Brown, and George Parrott were continued in their present relation without appointment. W. X. Ninde, G. W. Fee, and J. W. M'Gregor were made effective.

The Second Question, "Who remain on trial?" was taken up.

On motion, Henry Miller was discontinued at his own request. Nathan H. Prince, J. Raper Hunter, Harrison Wren, and Alphonso E. Higgins, having passed satisfactory examinations, were continued on trial.

The Report of the Trustees of the Ohio Wesleyan University was received, and referred to the Committee on Education.

On motion, 8 o'clock was designated as the time of opening, and 11½ o'clock as the time of closing the morning sessions.

On motion, it was resolved to hold a prayer-meeting half an hour before the opening of Conference.

After the giving of notices the Conference adjourned, with the benediction by brother E. H. Field.

SECOND DAY.

Thursday, August 26, 1869.

In accordance with the resolution of yesterday, the half-hour previous to the session was spent in religious exercises, led by Rev. S. D. Clayton, who gave a deeply interesting and suggestive account of the great revival of religion in his charge at Greenfield.

At 8 o'clock Bishop Ames took the chair, and the Journal was read and approved.

The Secretary called the roll of absent members, and twenty brethren answered to their names.

J. S. Perkins was substituted for J. Brooks, and J. Polkinhour for S. Faulkner, as Conference Stewards.

S. A. Brewster was substituted for W. X. Ninde on the Sunday School Committee.

J. Hall was substituted for J. Bennington on Finance Committee.

Rev. G. Moody, D. D., of the Kentucky Conference, was introduced, and make some remarks. Brother DeHass, of the Baltimore Conference, brother R. A. Arthur, of the West Virginia, and brother Shultz, of the Ohio Conference, were also introduced.

Brothers H. DeCamp, J. Hall, J. Cochnower, L. Hitchcock, Judge Meek, Jacob Chambers, and J. S. Perkins, of the Conference Committee, were also introduced.

D. Warnock was granted a supernumerary relation without appointment, and was made a claimant on the Conference funds for the past year.

The Secretary read communications from the Ohio and Central Ohio Conferences in reference to alternate appointments in Delaware from the patronizing Conferences of the Ohio Wesleyan University.

The Conference passed a resolution, signed by C. Ferguson, Wm. Young, and Wm. H. Sutherland, requesting the Bishop to transfer to this Conference Rev. Richard A. Arthur, whenever, in his judgment, the interests of the work will justify it. (See page 22.)

Bishop Ames announced his transfer.

M. Dustin was added to the Committee on Memoirs in the case of sister M. Smith, and brother Gaddis in case of sister Thurber.

The Conference requested the Bishop to transfer to this Conference Rev. F. S. DeHass, of the Baltimore Conference. (See Resolutions, page 22.)

The Conference passed resolutions signed by brothers M. P. Gaddis, A. Meharry, and W. I. Fee, requesting brother Simmons to preach a semi-centennial sermon at the next session of the Conference, and assuring him of our affection and prayers, that he may be spared to complete his fiftieth year in the itinerancy. (See Resolutions, page 23.)

W. E. Hines, who was yesterday granted a superannuated relation, addressed the Conference, and asked leave of absence, which was granted.

A. Lowrey presented a resolution expressing the regret of the Conference at the necessity for brother Hines's retirement, and assuring him of the sympathy and prayers of his brethren. The resolution was adopted and a collection of $86.60 was taken for the benefit of brother Hines.

The third question was taken up, and the Class of the Second Year, consisting of Edward T. Wells, Carey T. Crum, Frank G. Mitchell, and Charles F. Gowdy, came forward; having been examined and satisfactorily represented, and having answered the usual questions, they were very impressively addressed by Bishop Ames, and were received into full connection.

Brothers Crum, Mitchell, and Gowdy were elected to deacon's orders, brother Wells having been previously ordained.

Rev. Dr. Steele, pastor of the Presbyterian church of Hillsboro, Rev. J. Braden, of the Tennessee Conference, and Revs. C. C. M'Cabe and Dr. Byers, of the Ohio Conference, were introduced.

An invitation from President Copeland to visit the Hillsboro Female College was presented to the Conference and accepted.

Resolutions signed by J. M. Walden, W. N. Williams, and J. M. Sullivan, were adopted by the Conference: rejoicing in the success of Rev. W. G. W. Lewis in the new field of labor to which he was transferred from this Conference, and promising him a cheerful and cordial welcome should he at any time desire to return. (See Resolutions, page 23.)

On motion, J. F. Chalfant was relieved from the Presidency of the Church Extension Society of the Conference, and W. H. Lawder was appointed in his stead.

Rev. J. Braden having been invited, addressed the Conference in relation to his work in Tennessee.

The fourth question, "Who are the Deacons?" was taken up.

F. M. Clemens, having been afflicted in health, was not examined on the course of study, but presented a sermon, and his character passed.

M. A. Head, A. D. Raleigh, J. W. Peters, Randolph E. Smith, and A. Hamilton having been favorably represented by their presiding elders and examiners, and those in charge having reported their collections, their characters were passed.

Bishop Morris took the chair, and the Conference Stewards made their preliminary report.

Rev. Dr. Walden, Agent of the Western Book Concern, addressed the Conference in relation to the interests of the Concern.

After the publication of notices, Conference adjourned with the doxology, and benediction by Rev. W. N. Williams.

THIRD DAY.

Friday, August 27, 1869.

After a season of prayer and spriritual refreshing, in which the devotions were led by Rev. Wm. Simmons, at 8 o'clock Bishop Ames took the chair.

The further call of the roll was dispensed with, and the Secretary read the Journal of yesterday, which was approved.

Brother Herr informed the Conference that, at a meeting of the Conference Trustees, brothers Moody and Lowrey had resigned, and, on motion, A. B. Wambaugh and W. L. Hypes were elected to fill their places in the Board.

On motion of J. F. Loyd, the avails of the Mears Legacy were ordered to be paid to the Conference Trustees.

The fifth question was taken up, and the characters of E. House, B. Kelley, J. Pearson, S. W. Carey, James Murray, A. Bowers, and N. C. Parrish were passed, and after the representations of their presiding elders and examiners, those in charge having reported their collections, they were elected to elder's orders.

On motion, M. J. Cramer was appointed Conference Treasurer to receive funds for the Church Extension Society, and hand them over to J. F. Larkin.

On motion, S. A. Brewster was appointed to receive funds for the Mission-House at New York.

Rev. W. I. Fee presented a paper relating to the sore bereavement and severe affliction of brother Moses Smith, which was read by the Secretary. After the reading and some remarks by brothers Fee, Lowrey, Gaddis, Kendall, and others, a collection was taken for the benefit of brother Smith, amounting to one hundred and five dollars; and brothers W. I. Fee, R. S. Rust, and John W. Fowble were appointed to forward the same to brother Smith, and to assure him of our sympathies, affections, and earnest prayers that God may restore him to health and usefulness among us; or if in his wisdom God has otherwise determined, that He would grant him a triumphant entrance into that heavenly world whose glories brother Smith in his ministry has so effectively portrayed.

The Report of the Book Committee, and the Exhibit of the Book Concerns, were presented and read, and the Exhibit was ordered to be published in the Minutes.

A statement from the Book Agents at New York and Cincinnati, regarding the circulation of the Quarterly Review was presented, and referred to the Committee on Periodicals.

The Report of the Church Extension Society was presented, and read by the Secretary.

Brother Chalfant, from the Committee, reported, recommending the appointment of the following brethren on Memoirs:

In case of brother J. M. Gatch, L. F. Van Cleve and M. P. Gaddis.
In case of Arza Brown, W. Herr and J. F. Wright.
In case of W. S. Hartley, J. F. Chalfant and J. W. Mason.
In case of sister G. R. Jones, John F. Wright.
In case of sister Yourtee, M. P. Gaddis and J. S. Peregrine.
In case of sister Fee, W. I. Fee.
In case of sister Deem, James Armstrong.
In case of sister Clark, James F. Chalfant.
In case of sister Thurber, A. Meharry.
In case of sister Rowe, Wm. H. Lawder.
In case of sister Smith, J. W. Fowble and W. L. Hypes.

L. F. Van Cleve presented the request of the Trustees of Union Chapel, asking that the Conference approve of the sale of their church property, in order that the proceeds may be invested in the St. Paul's Church. On motion, the Conference sanctioned the sale.

Brother Loyd presented the request of the Trustees of Carr-Street Church, asking that the Conference approve of the sale of their church property, in order that the proceeds may be used in the erection of a new church on Clark-street. The Conference sanctioned the sale.

On motion, brother Ramsay was appointed to fill Dr. Crum's place on the Committee on Education, in his absence.

On motion, the brethren in charge were requested to report their collections for Conference claimants, in connection with their report of the missionary collections.

The eleventh question was taken up, "Are all the Preachers blameless in life and conversation?" All the presiding elders having represented their districts, and the preachers in charge therein having reported their Missionary and Fifth Collections, the characters of all the effective elders of those districts were approved. (See Question 11, page 19.)

Dr. J. F. Wright favored the Conference with an interesting account of his labors during the year as Conference Evangelist.

J. L. Grover was granted a supernumerary relation without appointment, and W. E. Hines, D. Kemper, and Moses Smith were granted a superannuated relation.

J. Kendall offered resolutions in relation to Rev. Dr. Moody, which were adopted. (See Resolutions, page 26.)

The post-office blanks were referred to the Committee on Post-Offices; and after the giving of notices, Conference adjourned with the doxology, and benediction by Bishop Morris.

FOURTH DAY.

Saturday, August 28, 1869.

After the usual exercises of the prayer-meeting, led by Rev. W. H. Lawder, at 8 o'clock Bishop Ames took the chair.

The Journal of yesterday was read and approved.

On motion, M. P. Gaddis was added to the Committee on Memoirs, in the case of sister Deem.

J. F. Chalfant, from the Committee on Missions, reported the appropriations. The report was adopted.

On motion, D. Callahan was continued in a superannuated relation.

The Conference Stewards presented their final report of estimates for claimants, which was approved.

S. D. Clayton presented a resolution requesting the Bishops to so arrange their work as to provide for the holding of this Conference, hereafter, as late as the last week of September. The resolution was adopted.*

Dr. W. L. Harris, J. M. Phillips, Esq., and Dr. I. W. Wiley and Dr. S. M. Merrill, Editors of the Repository and Advocate respectively, and brother Lawton, of the California Conference, were introduced.

Brothers Thomas, Cramer, and Walden were granted leave of absence.

The Trustees of Boke's Creek Church asked leave to sell their church and divide the proceeds between two other churches. On motion, the Conference approved of the sale.

J. W. Weakley offered a resolution, signed by twenty-two members, providing that when the Conference vote on Lay Delegation, the vote shall be taken by ballot. (See Resolution, page 25.)

A. U. Beall moved as a substitute that the vote be taken by ayes and noes. The substitute was lost.

J. F. Marlay moved to call the ayes and noes on the vote on the resolution. On motion of M. Dustin, the motion of brother Marlay was laid on the table, and the original resolution prevailed.

L. F. Van Cleve moved the appointment of a committee of three to prepare the form of the submission of the question of lay delegation to the Conference, and the form of the ballot.

The Bishop appointed M. Dustin, J. M. Walden, and J. F. Conrey said committee.

Recommendations for local deacon's orders were called for, and Abner L. Howren, from Camden circuit, Dayton district; Wm. W. Locke, from New Carlisle circuit, Xenia district; Samuel T. Anderson, from Hillsboro station, Hillsboro district; David Wright, from New Lexington circuit, Hillsboro district; Nathan H. Prince, from Madisonville circuit, East Cincinnati district; James H. Thompson, from Batavia circuit, Ripley district; David Dailey, from Hamersville circuit, Ripley district, and David Gaddis, from Ripley station, Ripley district, having been properly recommended by their respective quarterly conferences, and satisfactorily represented by their presiding elders and the Examining Committees, were elected to deacon's orders.

The seventeenth question was taken up, and the Conference proceeded to fix the place of the next session. Greene-Street, Piqua, and Grace Church, Dayton, were nominated by their respective pastors. After full representations of the respective places, Greene-Street, Piqua, was selected. Time not given.

Dr. W. L. Harris, Corresponding Secretary of the Missionary Society, addressed the Conference in relation to the interests of the great missionary cause.

The Committee appointed to prepare a form for taking the vote on lay delegation reported, recommending, That the members of the Cincinnati Conference, voting in favor of the changes in the Second Restrictive Rule and the Discipline, Part II, Chapter I, Section I, Answers 1 and 3, proposed in the plan for lay delegation, submitted by the General Conference of 1868, shall vote by ballot as follows:

"FOR CHANGE OF RULE,"

and that those voting against the proposed changes shall vote by ballot as follows:

"AGAINST CHANGE OF RULE."

The Report was adopted.

On motion, the time of the session was extended until the vote could be taken and counted. The Secretary was ordered to call the roll, and members came forward at the call of their names and deposited their ballots. There were one hundred and thirty one (131) present and voting, ninety-three (93) ballots being cast for, and thirty-eight (38) against, a change.

After the giving of notices the Conference adjourned with the benediction, by J. C. Bontecou.

FIFTH DAY.

Monday Morning, August 30, 1869.

After the usual religious exercises of the prayer-meeting, led by brother Armstrong, Bishop Ames took the chair at 8 o'clock.

The Journal of Saturday was read and approved.

The Bishop announced the transfer of Rev. C. H. Lawton from the California to the Cincinnati Conference, by Bishop Kingsley.

Bishop Ames certified to the ordination of Erwin House, Bernard Kelley, John Pearson, Samuel W. Carey, James Murray, Adam Bowers, and Nathaniel C. Parrish to the order of elders in the Methodist Episcopal church, at Hillsboro, August 29, 1869. (See page 20.)

Bishop Morris also certified to the ordination of Carey T. Crum, Frank G. Mitchell, Charles F. Gowdey, Abner L. Howren, Wm. W. Locke, David Wright, Samuel T. Anderson, Nathan H. Prince, James H. Thompson, David Dailey, and David Gaddis, as deacons in the Methodist Episcopal church, at Hillsboro, Ohio, August 29, 1869. (See page 20.)

H. C. Middleton presented and read the Report of the Tract Committee, which was adopted.

W. W. Ramsay presented and read the Report of the Committee on the Bible Cause, which was adopted.

T. J. Harris presented and read the Report of the Committee on the case of Palmer Chapel, which was adopted.

E. H. Field presented the Report of the Committee on the Church Extension Society. On motion, it was amended by the substitution of J. J. Thompson for J. F. Larkin, as Treasurer, and the Report was adopted after remarks by Bishop Ames and C. C. M'Cabe.

Leave of absence was granted to the Committee on Education, and to the Managers of the Missionary Society.

Fifteen dollars in the hands of W. Webster, for the Bethel Cause, were ordered to be paid over to T. Lee, to be forwarded to the Society.

W. Young presented a resolution expressing the sympathy of the Conference with and their indorsement of the Soldiers' Orphan Home, recently established at Xenia. The resolution was adopted. (See Resolutions, page 24.)

W. Herr, Secretary of the Conference Centenary Committee, made a report of the Centenary funds in his hands, and was authorized to pay them over to S. A. Brewster, Treasurer, and his report was adopted.

On motion, the Treasurer of the Conference Missionary Society was authorized to pay to the publishing Committee two hundred and seventy-five dollars, ($275,) or as much as may be necessary for the publication of the Detailed Missionary Report.

S. B. Smith presented and read the Report of the Committee on Periodicals, which, after some discussion, was adopted.

Bishop Morris, Dr. Wiley, Editor of the Ladies' Repository, Dr. Merrill, Editor of the Western Christian Advocate, and Dr. Walden, addressed the Conference in regard to the interests of our periodicals.

L. F. Van Cleve presented a resolution, which was adopted, urging upon our Book Agents increased efforts to collect all outstanding accounts. (See Resolutions, page 24.)

After the calling of the roll, to obtain the subscriptions of the members for the Conference Minutes, the Secretaries were authorized to use their best judgment in the number of Minutes to be supplied to the brethren not subscribing.

On motion, the Publishing Committee were authorized to leave the Minutes at the Book Concern, in Cincinnati, in packages, for the members of Conference.

The Bishop called for the recommendations of persons to be received on trial, and after the presentation of their recommendations, and satisfactory representations by their presiding elders and examiners, Oliver A. Brown, from the quarterly conference of St. Paul's Church, Delaware, Ohio; T. D. W. Peak, from New Market circuit, Hillsboro district; Noah Marsh, from Tremont circuit, Springfield district; Edmund Burdsall, from Marathon circuit, Ripley district; Wm. A. Robinson, from Maineville circuit, East Cincinnati district, and Abner L. Howren, from Camden circuit, Dayton district, were introduced to the Conference and received on trial.

Brother Fowble presented a resolution expressing that it is the sense of this Conference that Boards of District Stewards should appropriate for the support of presiding elders an amount equal to the average salary of the pastors where they live. The resolution prevailed. (See Resolution, page 24.)

On motion, the time was extended twenty minutes, and the Committee on Education presented their report in part, through C. W. Ketcham. The section referring to the Ohio Wesleyan University was read and adopted. The section referring to the Cincinnati Wesleyan Female College was read, and after being amended, by laying the third resolution on the table, was adopted.

Leave of absence was granted to C. H. Lawton, and after the giving of notices, Conference adjourned with the benediction by Rev. M. P. Gaddis.

SIXTH DAY.

Tuesday Morning, August 31, 1869.

After the usual exercises of the prayer-meeting, led by Rev. W. Young, Bishop Ames took the chair at 8 o'clock.

The Journal of yesterday was read and approved.

Rev. J. D. Blain, of the California Conference, was introduced.

C. W. Ketcham read a second part of the Report of the Committee on Education, and those sections relating to Xenia Female College, Springfield Female College, and Linden Hill Academy were adopted.

L. F. Van Cleve announced the death of Rev. Moses Smith, D. D., and moved the appointment of W. I. Fee to prepare his memoir. Brother Fee was appointed, and on motion of brother Chalfant brother Fee was requested to furnish a copy for publication in the Minutes, and to forward a copy to New York for publication in the General Minutes. Brother W. I. Fee presented resolutions in reference to the death of brother Smith, which were adopted. (See Resolutions, page 23.)

J. S. Peregrine presented the Report of the Committee on Finance, which was adopted. Dr. Weakley moved that A. Lowrey, J. F. Chalfant, J. F. Wright, A. N. Riddle, and F. S. DeHass be appointed to take charge of the subscription for the Metropolitan Church within the bounds of this Conference. They were so appointed.

The Bishop announced the Examining Committees for next year, and the appointees for the missionary sermon. (See page 20.)

A. W. Tibbits read the Report of the Committee on Temperance, which, after amendment, was adopted.

L. P. Miller, A. B. Wambaugh, and M. G. Purkhiser, were granted a supernumerary relation without appointment.

The final item of the Report on Education, relating to the Hillsboro Female College, was presented, and, in accordance with its provisions, on resolution by Dr. Weakley, (see Resolution,) the Secretary was instructed to proceed to a call of the roll, and the members of the Conference, and the generous laymen who were present, responded with a subscription on behalf of themselves and the churches which they represented, which covers the entire obligation of the Conference to the Hillsboro Female College. This item of the Report was adopted, and the Report as a whole was then adopted.

On motion of W. Young, J. F. Chalfant was appointed Treasurer of the Cincinnati Conference Educational Fund.

On motion of W. H. Lawder, the Secretary was instructed to furnish each presiding elder, after adjournment, with the names of the preachers of his district not subscribing to the Hillsboro College Fund, and the presiding elders were authorized to obtain the subscriptions and co-operation of such brethren in raising the amount of the Hillsboro College claim.

J. Pearson offered two resolutions respecting the manner of paying the above subscriptions, which were adopted. (See Resolutions, page 24.)

Dr. R. S. Rust read the Report of the Committee on the Freedmen's Aid Society, which was adopted.

On motion of J. F. Chalfant, it was resolved that when we adjourn it shall be to meet at 2 o'clock, and that the reading of Memoirs and services appropriate thereto be the order of the day at that hour.

The Conference Stewards made their final Report and distribution of funds to Conference claimants, and they were ordered to give fifty-five dollars surplus funds to C. W. Swain, and the remaining twenty dollars to Geo. W. Roe. The Board of Stewards presented resolutions respecting the collections for next year, which were adopted. (See page 24.)

Dr. Weakley presented resolutions justly complimentary to Revs. Thomas Head and M. A. Head, who had been transferred from the Cincinnati Conference, which were adopted.

Conference was adjourned by the expiration of time, and was dismissed with the benediction by Dr. J. F. Wright.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

Tuesday, August 31, 1869.

Pursuant to adjournment, Conference met at 2 o'clock, P. M., Bishop Ames in the chair. The usual religious exercises were conducted by Dr. A. Lowrey.

The Journal of this morning's session was read, amended, and approved.

The order of the day was taken up, and the memoir of Rev. Arza Brown was read by brother Herr. Remarks were made by brothers Dustin, Lowrey, Thompson, Rust, Simmons, Gaddis, Mason, and Moody. The Conference sang "There 'll be no more sorrow there," and the memoir was approved.

Rev. L. F. Van Cleve read the memoir of Rev. Joseph M. Gatch. Chaplain M'Cabe sang "How sweet 't will be in that beautiful land!" Brothers Mathews, Williams, Meharry, J. F. Conrey, and Simmons made appropriate remarks, and his memoir was approved.

Rev. J. F. Chalfant read the memoir of Rev. Wm. S. Hartley, and after another sweet song by Chaplain M'Cabe, and deeply affecting remarks by brothers M'Cabe, Moody, Thompson, Dart, Starr, and Clayton, the memoir was approved.

In consequence of the very recent decease of Rev. Moses Smith, it had not been found practicable to prepare his memoir; but, at the suggestion of Bishop Ames, interesting remarks were made by brothers Van Cleve, Meharry, Fowble, Lowrey, and W. L. Hypes; and Chaplain M'Cabe sang "Shall we gather at the river?" with thrilling effect.

Rev. J. F. Wright read the memoir of Ruth Jones, widow of Rev. Greenbury R. Jones; Rev. A. Meharry read the memoir of Frances Kirk Thurber, wife of Rev. W. J. Thurber; Rev. M. P. Gaddis read the memoir of India Goodrich Deem, wife of Rev. R. K. Deem; Rev. J. F. Chalfant read the memoir of Mary Elizabeth Morris Clark, wife of Rev. Lucian Clark; Rev. J. J. Thompson read the memoir of Mrs. Sarah Rowe, widow of J. W. Rowe; and Rev. W. H. Sutherland read the memoir of Jennie F. Fee, wife of Rev. Geo. W. Fee.

On motion, brother Dustin was granted further time to prepare the memoir of sister Smith for the Minutes.

On motion of brother Simmons, the Report of the Committee on the Freedmen's Aid Society was ordered to be published in the Western Christian Advocate.

Brother M'Donald presented the Report on the Bethel Cause, which was adopted.

Rev. J. R. Stillwell was granted a location.

Rev. S. B. Smith presented the Report of the Committee on the Sunday School Cause, which was adopted and ordered to be published in the Western Christian Advocate.

On motion, the officers of the Conference Sunday School Union and Tract Society of the past year were re-elected.

On motion, the Treasurer of the Conference Educational Funds was instructed not to pay over the funds subscribed this morning until a Committee appointed by the Conference shall certify to him that the Hillsboro Female College will then be free from debt.

On motion, brothers Van Cleve, Dustin, J. F. Marlay, A. B. Wambaugh, and A. Lowrey were appointed a Committee for that purpose.

On motion, the Trustees of Hillsboro Female College were re-elected.

Brother Herr read the Report of the Committee on the Observance of the Sabbath, which was adopted.

Brother Moler, Statistical Secretary, reported; reading to the Conference the footings of the statistics for the year.

A collection was taken for the Sexton amounting to sixteen dollars and twenty-five cents.

On motion, it was ordered that the Constitution, and an abstract of the funds of the Preachers' Relief Society, be published in the Minutes, the Society to pay the expense of publication.

Brother Kauffman presented the Report of the Committee on Parsonages, which was adopted.

Brother Cowden presented his report as Treasurer of the Sunday School Union, which was adopted.

Resolutions expressive of the grateful regards of the Conference to Bishop Ames, were adopted by a rising vote. (See Resolutions, page 25.)

Resolutions commendatory of Rev. J. H. Herron, recently transferred from this Conference, were passed, and ordered to be published in the Western Christian Advocate. (See Resolutions, page 22.)

Resolutions of thanks to railroads that have favored the Conference in the matter of transportation; and to the citizens of Hillsboro for Christian hospitalities; and the Churches of Hillsboro for courtesies, were adopted with great heartiness.

On motion, Rev. E. F. Hill was granted further time to prepare the Post-Office Report for the Secretary.

On motion of M. Kauffman, the resolution requesting the Bishops to change the time of our session, was reconsidered, and the Bishops were requested to make no change from the present time of session.

The Journal of the afternoon session was read and approved.

The Bishop then very briefly and happily addressed the Conference, after which he read the appointments. The Conference, having enjoyed a most pleasant and profitable session, united in singing the doxology, and were dismissed to their various fields of labor, with the benediction by Bishop Ames.

RESOLUTIONS OF CONFERENCE.

Transfer of Rev. Richard A. Arthur.

Resolved, That we request the Bishop to transfer Rev. Richard A. Arthur to this Conference, whenever in his judgment the interests of the work will justify it.

C. FERGUSON,
WM. H. SUTHERLAND,
WM. YOUNG.

Transfer of Rev. F. S. DeHass.

Resolved, That the Bishop of this Conference be and is hereby requested to transfer Rev. F. S. DeHass from the Baltimore to the Cincinnati Annual Conference.

Transfer of Rev. James H. Herron.

Whereas, Rev. James H. Herron, for five years past President of the Springfield Female College, has been transferred to the Erie Conference, and elected to the Presidency of Willoughby College; therefore,

Resolved, That we highly appreciate the Christian and ministerial character, and superior ability as a teacher, of President Herron, and tender him our earnest wishes for his success in his new position; and that should he at any time in the future desire to return to the Cincinnati Conference, we will give him a cordial welcome.

WM. H. SUTHERLAND,
A. LOWREY,
JAS. F. CHALFANT.

Transfers of Revs. Thomas and M. A. Head.

Whereas, Brothers Thomas Head and M. A. Head have taken transfers to the Central Illinois Conference; therefore,

Resolved, That we assure them of our continued love, and of our prayers for their success in their new fields of labor.

Resolved, That we commend them to the confidence of the Central Illinois Conference, as faithful and efficient laborers in the vineyard of our common Lord.

Resolved, That should they ever desire to return to the Cincinnati Conference, we will give them a cordial welcome.

J. W. WEAKLEY, J. W. FOWBLE,
J. KENDALL, A. LOWREY,
JAS. F. CHALFANT, WM. YOUNG.

Complimentary to Rev. W. G. W. Lewis.

Whereas, when our beloved brother W. G. W. Lewis was transferred from this to the New England Conference, there was an unintentional neglect to make such record of the matter as our feelings would have prompted; therefore,

Resolved, That should our brother Lewis at any time desire to return to our Conference, we will cheerfully and cordially welcome him.

Resolved, That we rejoice in the measure of success that has attended his labors in his new field, and pray that the blessing of the Master may abide upon him and his family.

J. M. WALDEN,
W. N. WILLIAMS,
J. M. SULLIVAN.

Semi-Centennial Sermon by Wm. Simmons.

Whereas, our esteemed and much beloved Father William Simmons will, if God spares his life another year, have served half a century in the itineracy; therefore, be it

Resolved, That as a mark of the high esteem in which he is held by his co-laborers in the work of the Master, he be requested to preach a semi-centennial sermon at the next annual session of our Conference.

Resolved, That our prayer to Almighty God is, that he may be spared to fill the appointment.

M. P. GADDIS,
A. MEHARRY,
W. I. FEE.

Death of Rev. Moses Smith.

Whereas, it has pleased the Great Head of the Church to remove our beloved fellow-laborer, Rev. Moses Smith, D. D., from the Church on earth to his reward in heaven; and, whereas, he has left four orphan children to mourn the loss of both father and mother; therefore,

1. Resolved, That while we deeply feel the death of our beloved brother, we acknowledge the wisdom of this dispensation, and bow with resignation to it.

2. Resolved, That we place a high estimate upon the talents, piety, labors, and success of our deceased brother, and doubt not that thousands will call him blessed.

3. Resolved, That we, as a Conference, deeply sympathize with his bereaved children, and we hereby tender them our heart-felt sympathies and fervent prayers in this fearful trial.

4. Resolved, That it is the duty of our Conference to adopt them, and others in like condition, as the children of the Conference; and that a committee of three be appointed, whose duty it shall be to present to them all possible sympathy and counsel, and, as far as possible, to supply the place of their departed parents.

W. I. Fee,
C. Ferguson,
W. L. Hypes.

Appropriations for Support of Presiding Elders.

Resolved, That it is the sense of this Conference that the boards of District Stewards should appropriate for the support of the presiding elders an amount equal to the average salaries of the regular pastors where they reside.

J. W. Fowble,
W. L. Hypes,
Wm. Young.

Soldiers' Orphan Home.

1. Resolved, By the members of the Cincinnati Annual Conference, in Conference assembled, that it is with profound pleasure we learn that "A Soldiers' Home" for Ohio has recently been established in the vicinity of Xenia, under highly encouraging auspices.

2. Resolved, That this truly philanthropic and justly merited institution has our most unqualified indorsement, and that as we prayed for the patriotic fathers while battling for the nation's life—now that they have fallen—we will extend to their orphan children our most ardent sympathy and support.

Wm. Young,
J. W. Fowble,
J. W. Weakley,
M. P. Gaddis,
W. Herr.

Hillsboro Female College.

Resolved, That that part of the Report which refers to the indebtedness of the Conference to the Hillsboro College be adopted, and that the Secretary proceed to call the roll, that each preacher may respond, by assuming such part of the debt as he is willing to collect, or failing to collect, will himself pay.

J. W. Weakley.

1. Resolved, That the subscriptions of the preachers to the Hillsboro Female College be paid in three annual payments, with interest from date, at six per cent. per annum.

2. Resolved, That these subscriptions be paid to Rev. James F. Chalfant, Treasurer of the Cincinnati Conference Educational Society, to be by him paid to the Treasurer of the Hillsboro Female College.

J. Pearson.

Collection of Book Accounts.

Resolved, That we, as a Conference, unite to urge upon the Book Agents increased effort to collect all outstanding accounts, and will afford them all proper aid in so doing.

Railroads.

Resolved, That, for facilities of travel extended to the members and visitors of the Cincinnati Conference, we hereby tender our most cordial thanks to Little Miami, Cincinnati & Xenia, Dayton & Xenia, Cincinti, Hamilton & Dayton, and Dayton & Michigan, and Cincinnati, ichmond & Chicago, and Marietta & Cincinnati railroads.

WM. H. SUTHERLAND,
D. JUDSON STARR,
G. H. DART.

Citizens of Hillsboro.

Resolved, That we extend to the Churches and citizens of this place ır hearty thanks for their generous hospitality and kindness shown us ıring the session of our Conference.

JAMES F. CHALFANT,
R. S. RUST.

Presidency of the Conference by Bishop Ames.

Resolved, That we hereby express our admiration of the ability and urtesy with which Bishop Ames has presided in our Conference, and knowledge our high appreciation and rich enjoyment of his public inistrations. We assure Bishop Ames of a cordial welcome whenever ır Conference shall be assigned to him, and from the hallowing effect ıich, we learn, attended his preaching and conversation at the Urbana mp-meeting, and in Springfield recently, we beg him to repeat his sits to our people as often as practicable.

A. LOWREY,
J. F. CHALFANT,
WM. HERR,
J. W. WEAKLEY,
W. H. SUTHERLAND.

Change of Rule.

Resolved, That the members of the Cincinnati Conference, voting in ror of the changes in the Second Restrictive Rule and Discipline, Part , Chapter I, Section I, Answers 1 and 3, proposed in the plan for Lay legation submitted by the General Conference of 1868, shall vote by llot, as follows:

"FOR CHANGE OF RULE," d that those voting against the proposed changes shall vote by ballot, follows:

"AGAINST CHANGE OF RULE."

M. DUSTIN,
J. M. WALDEN,
J. FORD CONREY.

Transfer of Rev. Granville Moody, D. D.

1. Resolved, That, as Rev. Granville Moody, D. D., has been transferred from this to the Kentucky Conference, we will welcome his return whenever, in the judgment of the appointing power of the Church, he can be returned without detriment to the interests of the general work.

2. Resolved, That we take great pleasure in meeting, at the present session, this, our highly esteemed and long-tried friend; who has been identified with every enterprise of the Conference calculated to benefit mankind and advance the interests of Christ's kingdom, and invite him to participate in our deliberations. J. KENDALL.

RULES OF ORDER.

1. AFTER the usual opening religious exercises, the Secretary shall read the minutes of the previous session.

2. No motion shall be entertained by the Conference till such motion shall have been seconded.

3. All motions shall be reduced to writing, if desired by any member of the Conference.

4. Every member desiring to speak on any subject before the Conference, shall rise and address the President.

5. The member who first rises and addresses the President shall be entitled to the floor.

6. No member shall speak more than once on the same subject till all who may desire to speak shall have spoken; nor more than fifteen minutes at a time without leave of the Conference.

7. All questions of order shall be decided by the President, subject to an appeal to the Conference, without debate.

8. When any question is under debate, no motion shall be received but to adjourn, to lay on the table, to postpone, to commit, or to amend; but a motion to adjourn shall always be in order; and this, as well as a motion to lay on the table, shall be decided without debate.

9. If the question before the Conference be capable of division, upon the call of any member, such question shall be divided.

10. The business of the Conference shall be conducted with open doors, unless otherwise ordered by the Conference.

11. Any question may be reconsidered on the motion of any member who may have voted with the majority.

12. If any member call for the previous question, and such call be sanctioned by a two-thirds' vote of the Conference, the main question shall then be put.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES.

HILLSBORO, OHIO, AUGUST 31, 1869.

I HEREBY certify that the following Reports were adopted by the Cincinnati Annual Conference at its session in 1869.

WILLIAM H. SUTHERLAND,
Secretary of Cincinnati Annual Conference.

REPORT ON EDUCATION.

YOUR Committee on Education would respectfully submit the following Report in regard to the literary institutions under the patronage of the Cincinnati Annual Conference:

Ohio Wesleyan University.

From the Report of the Secretary of the Board of Trustees we have the following Financial Exhibit for June 20, 1869:

I. ASSETS:
University Grounds and Buildings		$100,000 00
Library, Cabinets, and Apparatus		27,000 00
Permanent Fund—
Money Invested	$134,369 00
Notes and Subscriptions	49,784 00
Railroad Bonds	15,657 00
Real Estate	2,500 00
In hands of Treasurer	9,349 00
		$211,659 00
General Fund—
Notes, Subscriptions, Bequests, and Real Estate		30,100 00
Total		$368,759 00
II. INDEBTEDNESS:
Due Treasurer on Income and General Fund		$9,349 00
III. EXCESS OF ASSETS		$359,410 00

Your Committee would recommend for your adoption the following resolutions:

1. That John R. Wright, of Cincinnati, be elected by this Conference to fill the vacancy in the Board of Trustees, caused by the resignation of Rev. James M. Jameson, of the Ohio Annual Conference, for the short term of one year, the Board having reorganized under the general law of the State.

2. That the presiding Bishop be requested to reappoint Rev. L. D. M'Cabe, D. D., professor in said University.

3. That Revs. Wm. H. Sutherland and J. F. Loyd be the Visiting and Examining Committee to the University for the next year, and Revs. W. X. Ninde and James Stephenson be the alternates.

4. That we do not concur in the recommendation of the Board of Trustees that an invitation be extended to the Kentucky Annual Conference to become a patronizing Conference to this University, in the absence of all evidence of any desire or request coming from said Conference to be thus related to this institution.

5. That we feel an undying interest in the prosperity of this University, and most heartily recommend it to the liberality and patronage of the friends of Methodism in Ohio. Its history thus far has been a marked success—God's blessing has rested richly upon it, and a large proportion of its students have been converted to God, and have gone forth to bless the Church and the world. Its central position, ample grounds, commodious building, able Faculty, thorough instruction, and high moral and religious tone, all commend it to the confidence and support of our people. To increase its facilities and put it beyond all embarrassment, it needs an addition of at least half a million to its endowment fund. This the wealthy men of our Church in Ohio could give it with ease, and doubtless would do it at once if they would stop and think seriously and prayerfully of its importance. Ohio Methodism ought to make this University second to no other institution of learning in the land.

Cincinnati Wesleyan Female College.

This oldest of our Female Colleges, after a suspension of about two years, for the erection of a new edifice on more ample grounds, reopened September 30, 1868, under the Presidency of Rev. Lucius H. Bugbee, D. D.

During the year there have been two hundred and twenty-six pupils in attendance. It has the most beautiful and complete edifice of any Female College in the land. Its property is valued at some $200,000, with an indebtedness of less than $30,000.

Your Committee offer for your adoption the following:

1. That this institution is every way worthy of the confidence and patronage of our people. Located in the Queen City of the West, it ought to receive a support that will make it the leading Female College of the Mississippi Valley.

2. That we request the presiding Bishop to reappoint Rev. Lucius H. Bugbee, D. D., to the Presidency of said College.

Xenia Female College.

This institution, under the Presidency of Wm. Smith, A. M., is enjoying increasing prosperity. The number of pupils in attendance the past year is one hundred and ninety. The instruction is thorough, the facilities good, and the College is justly entitled to the hearty support and patronage of the Church, and of a generous public.

We would suggest that the Conference appoint the presiding elder of Xenia district, the preacher in charge of Union circuit, and the stationed preachers of Xenia and Lebanon, and the pastors of Grace Church and Raper Chapel, of Dayton, a Visiting and Examining Committee for the next year to said institution.

Hillsboro Female College.

This institution we find to be in a healthy and encouraging condition, having increased the number of its pupils the past year over forty-five per cent. It has many advantages in its location in the healthful, beautiful, and moral city of Hillsboro. Its building is substantial and commodious, its grounds large and inviting, its Faculty thorough and efficient. The religious influence of the institution is marked. During the year a large number of the pupils have been converted. It justly claims, and may reasonably expect, a large share in the patronage of the Church.

Your Committee would recommend that the presiding Bishop be requested to reappoint Rev. David Copeland as President.

2. That the presiding elder of Hillsboro district, and Revs. J. F. Marlay and S. D. Clayton, be the Visiting and Examining Committee for the coming year.

3. That the resolution of last Conference be reaffirmed; namely, "That the funds from the regular Educational Collections in the Conference be appropriated to the payment of the debt resting on this College till it be liquidated."

4. Your Committee find this debt to be at the present time $4,200. We also find that Mr. Thompson, who claims to have sacrificed his property to satisfy the claims against the College, and now to represent the Board of Trustees in this affair, has generously, from time to time, relinquished of his claims to the amount of $2,200, and now offers to relinquish $700 more, leaving a balance of $3,500 of debt, provided the Conference will at once secure this balance, and will pay it in three equal payments, with interest.

We therefore recommend that this proposition be accepted, and that this amount be secured by the personal pledges of the members of this Conference, on the call of the roll, to collect from our charges or pay ourselves whatever amount we pledge. And in the event of the failure to secure this money by any and all the means tried by the next session of our Conference, we then give up all our right in the College, and surrender it back to the Trustees and stockholders, on condition the money paid heretofore from collections be refunded to the Conference.

Springfield Female College.

We learn that Rev. J. H. Herron, the former President of this institution, has resigned, and as yet the vacancy is not filled.

No report from the Trustees or Visitors being before the Committee, we can only recommend that the presiding elder of Springfield district, and the pastors of Springfield and Urbana, be the Visiting and Examining Committee for the next year.

Linden Hill Academy.

The Committee appointed at the last session of this Conference, consisting of Revs. J. W. Weakley, J. W. Fowble, and J. Vance, report that the Trustees of this academy are willing to release the Conference from all connection with the institution. We therefore recommend that the above-named Committee be continued, and directed to complete the re-transfer of the property to said Board of Trustees.

1. In conclusion, your Committee would call the attention of preachers in charge to the rule of Discipline, requiring an annual educational sermon in every charge, and that a collection be taken for this cause.

2. That we can not approve of the practice of some of our people patronising other institutions of learning, to the detriment and injury of our own, when equal, if not superior facilities are offered by our own.

3. That we protest, in the name of Methodism and of a pure Christianity, against Methodists and Protestants sending their daughters or sons to Catholic institutions, under the false notion that they offer superior advantages and more thorough instruction. It is only necessary to make the investigation to see the falsity and absurdity of the plea.

In some cases, by reason of the fact that their teachers are paid nothing for their services, it may cost less money in their colleges, but what are a few dollars compared with principle and religious destiny? They would move heaven and earth, compass sea and land, to proselyte our daughters, while they are comparatively indifferent about the enlightenment of their own people. We should preach against this evil, and our people should be awake on this subject if they would save their children from the curse of Catholicism.

Respectfully submitted. WM. H. LAWDER, Chairman.
C. W. KETCHAM, Secretary.

REPORT ON FREEDMEN'S AID SOCIETY.

THE Committee on the Freedmen's Aid Society respectfully submit the following Report:

The emancipation of four millions of people by the especial interposition of Almighty God, opened a vast field of Christian effort in the South, both for missionaries and teachers.

Our Church entered upon this work at an early hour, and her efforts have been crowned with the happiest results. Finding it to be impossible to realize the highest success in our missionary work without the co-operation of teachers and schools, the Freedmen's Aid Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church was organized to supplement with schools the enterprise so successfully inaugurated by our missionaries. During the past year one hundred Christian teachers have been employed by our Society in teaching and elevating the freedmen in connection with our missionary work. Many of these teachers are preachers, and teach during the week and preach on the Sabbath. Through their instrumentality hundreds have this year been led to Christ and a higher life.

Government has duplicated every dollar raised by our Society in the establishment of literary institutions of a high grade for the training of teachers and preachers. This is the great want of the South at the present crisis; it must have schools in which to train the young for the education of this long-neglected and degraded race. Teachers for the freedmen must be prepared among themselves; we can not much longer furnish the means to send them from the North, and, in case the Bureau should be discontinued during the year, it will greatly embarrass our movements in the South, and lessen our ability to sustain the educational department of our work.

Especial attention has been devoted by the Society during the year to the establishment of institutions of an elevated grade for the training of teachers and preachers. We have six of these schools, located at central places in the South, and hundreds of the young have been prepared for teachers and preachers in them, and are now engaged in this noble work. We have an institution at Nashville, Tenn., worth $40,000, more than half of which was contributed by the Bureau. We have another at Holly Springs, Miss., another at New Orleans, La., another at Huntsville, Ala., another at Atlanta, Ga., another at Orangeburg, S. C., to each of which, except at Atlanta, Government has liberally contributed. Our Society has sustained the professors in these normal schools and Biblical institutes in which our best teachers and preachers have been trained, and so much good accomplished. The work of educating the young in these higher schools must be sustained, or our mission in the South can not be successfully carried forward. An ignorant ministry can not represent our Church. We must aid these schools for the present, and educate our ministry. We submit the following resolutions:

Resolved, That in our judgment the Freedmen's Aid Society, of our Church, meets a great want in our Southern work, and its continuance for the present is imperatively demanded.

Resolved, That we highly approve of the policy of the Society in establishing normal schools for the training of teachers, and Biblical institutes for the preparation of those young men called of God to preach the Gospel.

Resolved, That we will present the claims of this Society to our people, and take a collection in its behalf during the year, or allow the agent of the Society to do so.

Resolved, That the Bishop be requested to appoint Rev. Wm. Simmons agent.

Resolved, That the Bishop be also requested to appoint Rev. R. S. Rust, D. D., Corresponding Secretary of the Society.

WM. YOUNG, President.

R. S. RUST, Secretary.

REPORT ON CHURCH EXTENSION.

BEING fully convinced of the fact that the Church Extension Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church has a claim upon our sympathy, prayers, and substantial support equal to that of our Missionary Society, we recommend the following resolutions for your adoption:

1. Resolved, That we, as a Conference, shall give the Church Extension Society our earnest co-operation.

2. Resolved, That in accordance with the action of the last General Conference, the following persons be appointed to constitute a Board of Church Extension for this Conference, namely: President, Rev. J. F. Chalfant, Cincinnati; Vice-President, brother John Dubois, Cincinnati; Corresponding Secretary, Rev. W. L. Hypes, Xenia; Recording Secretary, brother J. W. Dale, Cincinnati; Treasurer, Rev. J. J. Thompson, Cincinnati; Managers—Ministers—Rev. J. M. Walden, Cincinnati, Rev. L. F. Van Cleve, Cincinnati, Rev. F. S. DeHass, Cincinnati; Laymen—J. S. Perkins, Cincinnati, Prof. B. Starr, Seven Mile, O., Prof. J. P. Patterson, Xenia, S. Hitt, Urbana.

3. Resolved, That the presiding elders be instructed to apportion the amount for which the General Committee may ask this Conference among the several districts and pastoral charges for collection, and that each preacher in charge shall not only collect, but also report to our next session, along with his missionary collection, the amount asked and received for the Church Extension Society.

4. Resolved, That the Secretary of this Conference be instructed to publish in our Conference Minutes Circular No. 4, transmitted to this Conference by the Secretary of the Parent Church Extension Society at Philadelphia, Penn., namely:

Church Extension Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

Office, No. 1018 Arch-Street, Philadelphia, Penn.

OFFICERS.

Bishop Simpson, D. D., President; Alpha J. Kynett, D. D., Corresponding Secretary; Charles C. M'Cabe, A. M., Agent; A. H. DeHaven, Esq., (No. 40 South Third-Street,) Treasurer.

ORGANIZATION.

The Church Extension Society was organized by direction of the General Conference of 1864, and was incorporated by the Legislature of Pennsylvania, March 13, 1865. On recommendation of the Board of Managers, the Constitution was revised, and the Society more closely identified with the Church by the General Conference of 1868. The Charter was revised to correspond, by the Legislature of Pennsylvania, March 11, 1869.

The Society embodies

1. THE GENERAL COMMITTEE ON CHURCH EXTENSION.—This meets in Philadelphia in November of each year, and determines, for the year ensuing:

(1.) The amount the Church shall be asked to contribute through the regular collections;

(2.) The amount that may be appropriated by donations and loans; and,

(3.) The distribution of both collections to be made and appropriations authorized, among the Conferences severally.

Composed of one member from each Episcopal district, acting jointly with the Bishops and Managers, this Committee is well calculated to secure an equitable distribution of the burdens and benefits of the Society.

2. THE PARENT BOARD OF MANAGERS.—This is charged with "the management and disposition of all the affairs and property of the Society." But in making appropriations it must recognize the limits fixed by the General Committee.

3. IN EACH CONFERENCE, THE CONFERENCE BOARD OF CHURCH EXTENSION.—This "has charge of all the interests and work of Church extension within the bounds of the Conference." It should see that the amount asked of the Conference is distributed for collection among the several districts and pastoral charges, and carefully examine and determine upon all applications for aid from within the Conference recommending appropriations, only within the limits fixed by the General Committee.

INCOME.

This is derived from two sources:

1. From Annual Collections, creating

THE GENERAL FUND.—The amount desired, each year, for this fund, of the several Conferences, districts and pastoral charges, is indicated to each in the manner above described. It is by the Discipline made the duty of each pastor to "preach a sermon on this subject in each congregation once in every year, and solicit contributions from each in aid of the Church Extension Society." It is expected that each congregation will contribute the amount that has been indicated, and that the Parent Society will thereby receive the aggregate amount asked for by the General Committee, Bishops, and Managers. The Parent Board keeps an accurate account with each Conference, and each Conference Board with every pastoral charge. The Annual Report of the Parent Society will contain an exhibit of the amount asked and received of each Conference, and that of the Conference Board of the amount asked and received of each district and pastoral charge.

2. From special donations and bequests, creating

THE LOAN FUND.—There are a multitude of cases, too weak to build within themselves, that would soon become strong by building a suitable church. If such could be aided by a temporary loan, bearing little or no interest, they would build at once, thereby securing large increase of strength, and in a few years would cheerfully return the amount borrowed, to be loaned again to others in like manner. To meet cases of this kind the Loan Fund is proposed under the following provisions:

"First, no part of said Fund shall ever be donated for any purpose, or used for current expenses; but shall be preserved, without diminution, a perpetual fund.

"Secondly, said Fund may be loaned to any Church or society, without interest, in small sums, in no case exceeding five thousand dollars, or with interest, as occasion may require, and the Board shall from time to time determine, in aid of the objects of the Church Extension Society.

"Sums of five thousand dollars and upward, contributed by any one person, Church, or Conference, shall be named by the contributor, and shall constitute a separate Loan Fund, and the Corresponding Secretary shall report annually the investment thereof, and the work accomplished thereby."

In this connection provisions are made that those who may have means to be devoted to religious uses, but who may need or desire the income from the same during their life-time, shall receive an annuity equal to a reasonable interest on the amount they may contribute to "Loan Fund;" the said annuity to be paid annually, semi-annually, or quarterly, as the contributor may desire.

If placed here, their means, besides procuring at least the ordinary income, will, as their representative, be constantly doing a work of the first importance to the Church, and, under the general provisions for the administration of the Loan Fund, will report results every year.

APPROPRIATIONS.

Appropriations, by donation or loan, are made upon application by, or in behalf of, the Trustees of the Church seeking aid. The application should be upon blank forms furnished by the Parent Board, and must contain the information therein provided for. Appropriations are made only by the concurrent action of both the Conference and Parent Boards, and nothing less than this constitutes an obligation against the Society.

BEQUESTS AND DEVISES TO THE CHURCH EXTENSION SOCIETY.

Persons desiring to make bequests to the Society by will, are requested to observe the following form:

I give and bequeath to the "CHURCH EXTENSION SOCIETY OF THE METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH," incorporated by the Legislature of the State of Pennsylvania, the sum of , and the receipt of the Treasurer thereof shall be a sufficient discharge to my executors for the same.

FOR DEVISE OF LAND.

I give and devise to "THE CHURCH EXTENSION SOCIETY OF THE METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH," incorporated by the Legislature of the State of Pennsylvania, the following land and premises, that is to say: (describe land) to have and to hold the same, with the appurtenances, to the said Society, its successors and assigns forever.

For further information, see Discipline of 1868, p. 247, the last Annual Report of the Society, in the same volume with the Missionary and other Reports, or address the Corresponding Secretary, at No. 1018 Arch-street, Philadelphia.

REPORT ON FINANCE.

THE Committee on Finance beg leave to report, that having examined the plan adopted at your last session, they are persuaded that it contains the elements of a complete financial system.

To work this plan till its defects may appear in a practical way, will, in the opinion of your Committee, be better than to modify what they apprehend has been but slightly tested. To this end your Committee incorporate the following, which, with slight alterations, will be seen to be the report already matured and adopted by the Conference:

1. It shall be the duty of the last quarterly conference of each year, to fix the time and place of holding the financial meeting for the next ensuing year, to which the Estimating Committee shall present their estimate for the pastor's support. The meeting shall be composed of the preacher or preachers of the charge, the stewards, leaders, and Estimating Committee. The meeting shall then apportion the amount to the several classes according to their numbers and financial ability; or, where it is preferred, provide for the circulation of subscription lists.

2. Where the amount estimated by the Committee shall be provided for by apportionment, the stewards shall ask each member to accept such apportionment, or a modification of it, if necessary, to be paid in four equal quarterly installments, before or at each quarterly conference. Such apportionment and accepted sum shall be entered upon a suitable book and collected promptly by the stewards and class-leaders.

3. We earnestly urge our stewards to use such diligence that no arrearages shall be carried from one quarter to another, thereby burdening the close of the year with embarrassing deficiencies. As sons of Wesley we should do this, as every thing else, "at the time."

4. In the judgment of the Conference, the obligation to pay the preacher's salary, in full, is as binding upon the congregation and its individual members, as the payment of promissory notes in banks, and should be met as promptly.

5. The presiding elders shall present this plan at their first quarterly conference, and shall cause it to be read to the congregations of the first quarterly meetings; and on circuits the stewards shall cause it to be read, as soon thereafter as possible, in every congregation.

6. The Estimating Committee shall consult with the preachers as to the amount necessary for their support; and the presiding elder shall inquire, at the first quarterly conference, before putting the estimate of the Committee on its passage, if such consultation has been had.

7. We earnestly recommend to ministers and members to take up the Conference collections as early in the year as possible, distributing them at proper intervals, so that they will not be crowded together, or embarrass the close of the year.

After emphasizing particularly those parts of the report which require it to be brought before the first quarterly conference by the presiding elder, and which urge the pastors to take all the Conference collections, commencing so early in the Conference year as to have them separated by uniform intervals, instead of crowding them into the latter part of the year, we offer the following:

Resolved, That the report on finance adopted at the last Conference, and, with slight modifications, incorporated herein, be reaffirmed, and that we affectionately but earnestly urge upon pastors and official boards carefully to observe its provisions.

A. N. SPAHR, Chairman.

J. S. PEREGRINE, Secretary.

REPORT ON THE OBSERVANCE OF THE SABBATH.

THE Committee on the Observance of the Sabbath beg leave to recommend the reaffirmation of the sentiment of the Conference, as expressed in the following resolutions:

1. Resolved, That we avow allegiance to the Sabbath of our fathers—the Sabbath of rest from secular labor and from worldly recreations; the Sabbath of divine worship and moral and spiritual culture; that Sabbath which has done so much to make the American people eminent for justice, purity, and freedom.

2. Resolved, That we deplore the growing tendency among so many of our adopted fellow-citizens to overthrow this bulwark of religious faith and virtue in our republic, thereby weakening the moral power of a land whose rich civil blessings they have been invited to share so freely.

3. Resolved, That we deprecate the transaction of any public business by civil officers, National or State Legislatures, the review of troops in time of peace by either the President or any subordinate officer; and we not only trust that such occurrence will not be repeated, but that all good citizens, official and otherwise, will hereafter unite in outward respect, at least, for the Lord's day.

4. Resolved, That we will consider, prayerfully, whether it is promotive of the maintenance of the Christian Sabbath for the Church of God to hold camp-meetings on that day, in localities where there are other and ample facilities for public instruction and worship; and we most solemnly deplore and deprecate the running of railroad trains on the Sabbath in connection with religious meetings, recommending all the people of our pastoral charges, rigidly and conscientiously, to abstain from countenancing or patronizing such violations of the law of the Christian Sabbath.

Respectfully submitted.

W. N. WILLIAMS, J. M. WALDEN,
W. SIMMONS, W. HERR.

REPORT ON TEMPERANCE.

YOUR Committee have had the subject under consideration, and must say that they find much in the signs of the times to encourage the hearts of temperance men. The Church is again waking up to the importance of this great work, and girding herself for this great conflict; the ministry and membership are earnestly taking hold of this great work for God and humanity, and are making the subject of temperance contribute to the advancement of the cause of God, instead of being a weapon used against our Christianity; we hold that God's ministers are the true and proper leaders in every moral reform that is calculated to bless mankind.

It is admitted by all intelligent observers that moderate drinking leads to drunkenness. What, then, shall be said of those professing Christians that indulge in wine and beer-drinking, because it is fashionable in the circles "in which they move?" We believe such circles to be circles of death and hell.

We are clearly of the opinion that the great danger to the cause of God and humanity, yea, and to our country, is in the wine and beer-drinking customs of fashionable society; already many sons and some daughters of these circles have become drunkards, by the habits formed at home and at their parties—and many of the parents have gone and are going to ruin. Will we, as God's ministers, be as honest with the rich as we are with poor men! Shall we hold our peace because these violators of the laws of God and the Church are rich and fashionable?

Your Committee would earnestly urge a hearty co-operation with the State Temperance Alliance, and all other temperance organizations having the same object in view, as calculated to unite the workers of the various temperance organizations, and the temperance sentiment of the different religious denominations of the State into one body, till all the temperance power of the good of this great State can be concentrated and brought to bear on the giant evils that curse our State.

Resolved, That while we rejoice at the great temperance awakening in our country, we will redouble our efforts to push forward the temperance reform, till the sale of liquors as a beverage shall be classed in the laws of the State with counterfeiting, theft, and robbery.

Resolved, That we will do all in our power to break down the wine and beer-drinking customs that now prevail in fashionable circles; and that we will not deal with any man that violates the rules of the Church by drinking wine or beer as a beverage, or a social drink.

Resolved, That we will co-operate with the Ohio State Temperance Alliance, and all other temperance organizations having the same object in view, as far as we have opportunity to do so.

Resolved, That we recommend the pastors to form juvenile temperance societies in all our Sunday schools.

Resolved, That our diplomatic representatives in foreign countries should be exponents of our temperance principles and practices.

A. W. TIBBITS, Secretary. C. FERGUSON, President.

REPORT ON THE AMERICAN BIBLE SOCIETY.

THE American Bible Society still enjoys that prosperity which has attended the former years of its existence.

Since its organization, it has circulated the Scriptures in seventy foreign tongues, and has distributed in our land more than twenty-five million copies. Its noble aim is to place the Word of God in every home. To the rich it sells, and to the poor it gives—not forgetting the black man who so recently has exchanged his fetters for the alphabet, among whom a number of colored colporteurs has been successfully employed by the Society.

No period of our history has demanded a greater urgency in pressing the claims of the Bible, or more untiring vigilance in maintaining its elevated position in the home and the school. Rationalism would explain it away, and Romanism would hide it away; but in the work of this Society is a common ground, upon which, with the whole evangelical Protestant Church, we may stand, and with the advantage secured by unity of effort, oppose a common enemy. It is, therefore, with pleasure we review the history and mark the prosperity of this Society.

During the year it has visited 647,733 families, of which 64,113 were found without the Scriptures. 37,720 were supplied, besides 15,939 individuals, 10,866 soldiers and sailors, and 1,558 Sabbath and mission schools. Of the preceding 53 years, but one has exceeded the receipts of the past, which sums up $731,734.73, while its circulation has been 1,386,611.

We are pleased especially to note that part of the work within our Conference lines known as the South-Western District of Ohio, under the supervision of a member of this Conference, to which the general report makes this reference: "The work in this district is carried forward with admirable system, and the results of the year bear high testimony of the conscientious fidelity of the honored agent, and his well-tried helpers."

Since the last report he has visited 115 auxiliary and branch Societies, attended 104 anniversaries, delivered 110 Bible sermons and addresses, and, with his assistants, has visited 32,378 families, more than one-sixth of which were without the Scriptures. Of these, 1,701 were supplied, while 3,017, the majority being Romanists, refused the Bible. In addition, 485 destitute persons and 92 destitute Sabbath schools were supplied. In view of all which your Committee would submit the resolutions adopted in the report of 1868:

Resolved, That we have undiminished confidence in the American Bible Society, and the officers and agents by whom it is managed.

Resolved, That we will cordially co-operate with the accredited agent in our respective charges, and in his absence attend to the collection, as far as may be in harmony with the time of the anniversary of the respective auxiliary Societies.

Resolved, That the Bishop be requested to reappoint Rev. William Herr Agent of the Society for the South-Western District of Ohio.

REPORT ON PARSONAGES.

THE Committee on Parsonages beg leave to report there are, within the Cincinnati Conference, one hundred and ten separate charges. Of these forty-four are without parsonages. In Cincinnati alone there are fifteen charges without a parsonage. Within the presiding elders' districts there is not a single presiding elder's parsonage in the Conference. Thousands of dollars are paid every year as rent, for houses for the preachers; and the question comes up, as one of more than ordinary importance, is it wise to pay out more money every ten years than would be required to buy or build parsonages in all the destitute charges? We submit, therefore, for adoption, the following:

1. That all charges without a parsonage should proceed at once to secure one.

2. That a combined effort of preachers and people, in our opinion, would soon accomplish the object.

3. That the presiding elders be, and are hereby requested to urge this subject upon the attention of all the charges without parsonages, at their several quarterly conferences.

4. That the several districts should, as early as possible, procure a comfortable residence for the presiding elder, to be located at a central point in his work.

REPORT ON TRACT CAUSE.

THE facts contained in the last published report of the Tract Society, of the Methodist Episcopal Church, show that the tract may be made an efficient agent in awakening and leading souls to Christ.

Being brief, and on detached subjects, written in an attractive and pungent style, and being carried to the people, many will receive the tract who would not seek it.

Your Committee recommend that tracts, not only on general religious subjects, but also those relating to Temperance, the Sabbath school, and adapted to children, be regularly and intelligently distributed.

They also recommend the Good News as especially adapted to circulation in the Sunday school and family.

They would also suggest that an issue of a two-page and a five-page tract, with a plain or ornamental border, and of size such as could be slipped into the ordinary letter envelope, would be very desirable.

Tracts may be obtained, 1st. By purchase from our Publishing House; 2d. Every pastor of a self-sustaining Church, who will pledge himself to take a collection for the Treasury of the Tract Society, will, on application, be furnished with all the tracts and Good News needed by his Committee; 3d. Pastors of Mission Churches can obtain $5 worth or more, without such pledge.

The Committee observe with regret that so few charges take collections for the Tract Society.

They recommend that each pastor preach on the subject at least once a year, and that increased and more earnest attention be given to the collection. Signed by Committee.

REPORT ON PERIODICALS.

WHAT we urge in character and life depends upon the ideas received from the various sources of instruction.

Among the most influential channels of communication is the Periodical Literature of the country. The importance of this method of operating upon the public mind for good, can not be overestimated, as the amount of evil caused by a vicious literature is beyond computation. Great attention should, therefore, be given to the character and circulation of the issues from our religious press.

We are confident that our various periodicals are powerful agencies for good, both to the cause of Christ and to the interests of the Church.

"The Sunday School Advocate," for the children; "The Golden Hours," for the youth; the "Western Christian Advocate," for the people; "The Ladies' Repository," for our families; "The Teacher's Journal," for Sunday school teachers; and "The Methodist Quarterly," for the preachers and laymen, are well adapted to the several classes for whom they are specially intended.

It is our decided opinion that the publication of sermons of the first class, from living ministers, in the "Advocate," would be eminently wise. It seems to us a matter of surprise that it has not been done before.

These publications are arteries to our ecclesiastical body; and necessary to its unity and edification. For this reason, they should be made soon to reach all the new accessions to our Church.

The pastors are the legally constituted agents for their circulation, as the membership are the reasonably expected patrons.

A bare notification from the pulpit that subscriptions will be received is by no means the full measure of the pastor's duty. He should canvass his charge, with a specimen copy of each periodical in his hand, and press the importance of a general patronage. It is for his interest, as well as that of the people, to secure a large subscription list.

These silent messengers are his efficient auxiliaries in his religious labor. The most intelligent in regard to the enterprises of the Church are also most liberal in their support. This course pursued, and the circulation of our periodicals would soon be doubled.

While we indorse a liberal expenditure for special correspondence, we would urge the importance of securing voluntary contributions from our brethren of the patronizing Conferences. This would increase the interest of our people in our publications, and serve to develop the literary talents of our brethren.

We would call especial attention to the "Quarterly Review." Of our 17,000 ministers, itinerant and local, only one in five receive it. To our young preachers it will be particularly useful for theological instruction and literary cultivation.

We cheerfully indorse the general administration of our publishing interests, as conducted by our editors and agents, and we hereby pledge more vigorous endeavors to extend the circulation of all our periodicals.

Respectfully submitted.

REPORT ON THE BETHEL CAUSE.

THE Cincinnati Union Bethel, under the superintendence of Rev. Thomas Lee, is accomplishing great good in the city. We find the following departments in successful operation, namely:

1. The Sunday school with a maximum number of two thousand, two hundred and fifty scholars; 2. The Church with regular religious services; 3. The News-boys' Home, where destitute newsboys are cared for; 4. The free Reading-Room; 5. The Temperance Dining-Hall, where hundreds of the laboring class and poor of the city are supplied with cheap meals.

We take pleasure in commending this institution to the sympathies and prayers of the Churches, and recommend the reappointment of brother Lee as superintendent of the work, in accordance with the request of the Board of Directors. Respectfully submitted.

REPORT ON SABBATH SCHOOLS.

THE religious education of the young is one of the most vital interests of the Church. For this purpose the Sabbath school is instituted. The chief features of importance in this institution are the subject-matter of instruction and the time of life in which it is communicated. The Word of God is the most important of all knowledge, and youth is the most impressible and receptive period of life. This simple statement is all that is needful to show the importance of the Sabbath school, as on this point there is no controversy. We will only suggest a few thoughts for the better promotion of this great interest:

1. Let the lesson be the central object of the school, and all other exercises but adjuncts. Scripture teaching is the real design of the institution. From this source we must look for interest as well as profit to the school. It is the heart out of which are the issues of life. The influence of picnics, and prizes, and banners, and tickets is temporary; this is permanent. To draw this interest from the truth, teachers should master the lesson, that they may communicate it with clearness and vivacity. The scholars should also study the lesson, so as to be prepared to recite with readiness and interest; and at the close of the exercises the lesson should be reviewed by general questions by the pastor or superintendent. This review will give prominence to the Scripture lesson and make a permanent impression on the minds of the learners.

2. Let the Sabbath school be a tributary to the Church. Separate it, and like a severed member of the body, it is useless, if not injurious. It may become a rival. This rivalry practically exists when the importance of the Sabbath school is magnified beyond that of the Church, when those attending the school absent themselves from the services of the sanctuary, or when the Sabbath school literature is either unevangelical or excessive in stimulating fiction. Much of this latter evil comes from selecting library books without sufficient care, from lists not gotten up with reference to the religious wants of the young, but are purchased because they are cheap or entertaining. Even Sabbath school publications need to be selected from with discrimination. But the evil most to be deplored is non-attendance at the Church service, and it is increasing. Not only are such as neglect the sanctuary deprived of its influence, but they are growing up without Church-going habits. When these habits crystallize with age, what must we expect? A non-Church-going people.

What is the remedy? So far as possible, let parents attend the Sabbath school with their children, and then take their children with them into the congregation. If it be necessary, to effect this, let the Sabbath school session be held in the afternoon; and rather than spare the children from the congregation, concentrate the Sabbath service in the two sessions; namely, the Church service in the morning and the Bible service in the afternoon, omitting the evening meeting. The separation of the sheep and lambs of our flocks is unnatural and injurious to the children, the adults, and the preacher. With the children in the congregation, let not the preacher forget them, but give to each class "a portion of meat in due season."

Finally, the efforts of both officers and teachers should be directed with reference to the conversion of the precious youth under their care. Pre-occupy the mind with truth and the heart with love, and many will be saved from sin and ruin by prevention.

Let us renew our zealous efforts in this glorious field of Gospel labor, than which none is more promising, and the presence and blessing of Christ will be upon those who obey his command to his disciples, "Feed my lambs."

Respectfully submitted.

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE BOOK COMMITTEE.

To the Annual Conferences of the Methodist Episcopal Church:

REVEREND FATHERS AND BRETHREN,—The Book Committee convened in annual session at 200 Mulberry-street, New York, February 11, 1869. The various interests committed to their supervision were as carefully inspected by them as the circumstances would admit.

A survey of the premises of our Book Concerns at New York and Cincinnati were made, the former by the whole Committee, and the latter by members of it on their way to the annual session. We find these premises in many respects unsuitable, and inadequate to the enlarging demands of our publishing interests, and sympathize with the Agents in looking out for new quarters.

The Agents at Cincinnati have secured grounds and buildings on Fourth-street, which we are persuaded will enable that Concern to provide all the facilities required for its efficient workings, and also place it in more immediate contact with the business community, and greatly increase its retail trade.

The Agents at New York, in connection with the Commission appointed by the last General Conference, are about to make a purchase in a central position for the accommodation of the Book Concern and Missionary Society.

The Committee take great pleasure in reporting to the Annual Conferences that they find the interior of our Book Concerns, as to neatness, economy, and management, such as to reflect great credit on the ability, care, and taste of the Agents and their subordinate co-laborers in the several departments of business. We find the buildings in good repair and well protected. The machinery keeps pace with the improvements of the age, as do also the economy and classification of labor.

We believe the style and finish of the books published to be unsurpassed by any other publishing houses of the land. The Agents wisely forecast the market in the purchase of the materials, and their books and accounts present the appearance of neatness, thoroughness, and accuracy.

We find that our periodicals are receiving a liberal and increasing patronage. The Committee have made liberal provision by which our Editors can command for their respective journals the best of correspondence, and we believe the prospects of our Church journalism were never brighter than at present.

The Quarterly Review, never more ably conducted than now, ought to be doubled in its circulation, and we recommend to each Annual Conference to appoint an agent to attend to its subscription list within its bounds.

We beg also to say that the near position in which we are placed enables us to bear testimony to the laborious and untiring zeal of the Editors of our periodicals. Their positions are not only honorable as the chief leaders of the thought of the Church, but are arduous and responsible, and should receive the fraternal sympathy and prayers of the whole Church.

We especially call attention to the importance of a renewed effort in placing our periodicals and books in the familes and Sunday schools of the connection. We are deeply impressed with the fact, daily becoming more apparent, that the contest now is for the mind of the youth of the land, and hence the necessity of placing within the easy reach of this class an attractive and pure literature. We earnestly point to the expediency of placing the Golden Hours, our various Sunday-school papers, and the Lesson Leaves in all our families and Sunday schools.

The Agents will present herewith reports of their respective departments and the details of their business, which we believe you will find correct and encouraging.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON PALMER CHAPEL.

YOUR Committee, having carefully examined the papers and facts involved in the matter of Palmer Chapel, report:

Your Committe find, 1st. That the land on which said Chapel is located was deeded by John Slagle and wife, January 1, 1822, to certain persons in trust, for the uses and purposes of the Methodist Episcopal Church; to have and to hold the same, for the special purpose of erecting a house of worship thereon, for the said Church, according to her form and Discipline.

2. That subsequently, to-wit, on the 21st of June, 1830, Jacob Palmer, of Miami county and State of Ohio, made and executed his will, by one of the items of which he bequeathed a certain sum of money to the society worshiping in Palmer Chapel, for the purpose of assisting in building a new house of worship, or in repairing the old one, for the use of said society, and under the sole superintendence of the trustees of said Palmer Chapel. This devise was made simply to aid Palmer Chapel Society in the improvement of the property conveyed by John Slagle and wife, and in no wise conflicts with said Slagle's deed or conveyance. This will was duly probated January 6, 1831, and the money therein devised was used by the trustees as specified by the testator.

3. That on the 17th of February, 1845, Charles Slagle, son of John Slagle, first named, and his wife, made and executed a deed of trust conveying to certain persons the land described in the deed of John Slagle, together with other land, and specifying certain instructions for the election of trustees and their successors, for the governing of said Palmer Chapel property, and carrying out the purposes of the trust. The deed of Charles Slagle makes special reference to the deed of John Slagle, and does not, and can not, nor does it purport, either expressly or by implication, to rescind it.

Your Committee are asked:

1. What is the legal status of the Palmer Chapel property?

2. And who are the lawful controllers of the same?

Under the existing state of facts, your Committee are clearly of the opinion, that the Palmer Chapel property, as conveyed by the deed of John Slagle and wife, and by the will of Jacob Palmer, is the sole and absolute property of the Methodist Episcopal Church, according to the terms and provisions of the said deed and will.

And further, that the trustees of Palmer Chapel, duly elected by the fourth quarterly conference of Fairfield circuit, last year, which circuit had full jurisdiction of said Palmer Chapel Society, have full control of all property belonging to Palmer Chapel, for the sole use of the Methodist Episcopal Church, according to the terms and provisions of the deed of John Slagle and wife, and the Discipline and usages of said Church.

Your Committee, having been informed by competent authority, that Palmer Chapel has become part of a new work for the ensuing Conference year, would recommend to the preacher in charge of said work, that he proceed as early as possible, to elect a board of trustees for the control of Palmer Chapel for the coming year. MEMOIRS.

REV. ARZA BROWN.

THE holy life and triumphant death of the follower of Christ furnish the most convincing demonstration of the divinity of Christianity. This sentiment is in harmony with the declaration of the apostle, "Ye are our epistle, known and read of all men. Forasmuch as ye are manifestly declared to be the epistle of Christ, written not with ink, but with the Spirit of the living God; not in tables of stone, but in the fleshly tables of the heart." Among the great multitude who have illustrated on earth the elevating and purifying influence of divine grace, and passed triumphantly to heaven, the subject of the following memoir stands conspicuous:

ARZA BROWN was born in Hampton, Mass., August 13, 1792. His religious impressions began at a very early period of his life, and so thorough were the operations of the Spirit on his heart that he ever cherished the belief that he had experienced the renewing power of divine grace. In 1805, his father and family moved to Plattsburg, N. Y., where, amid the absence of moral and religious privileges and the temptations of a comparatively new country, young Arza relapsed into the neglect of duty and wandered from God. Subsequently, in 1816, the Holy Spirit revisited his heart, and, at a prayer-meeting, January 9, 1817, he was reassured of pardon and divine acceptance. This work was so thorough, pervading his entire nature, and developing in the actions of his life, that a glorious revival ensued, resulting in the conversion of a number of souls, who were formed into a class, of which Arza was appointed leader. Such was his growth in grace, and so clearly was the indication of the Great Head of the Church of his call to a higher and wider field of usefulness, that he was first licensed an exhorter, and subsequently a local preacher. In the mean time, in 1819, he moved to Sandusky City, O., and then, in 1820, to Licking county, O.

In 1822, convinced that it was the privilege of the believer to enjoy a richer baptism of the Spirit, even to "know the love of Christ, which passeth knowledge, and be filled with the fullness of God," he earnestly sought the attainment of that blessing, and became the happy recipient of a living witness of the truth, "the blood of Jesus Christ, his Son, cleanseth from all sin." Under this divine influence he entered his life-work, first as a local preacher, and subsequently, September 2, 1824, he was received on trial in the traveling connection by the Ohio Conference. During the early part of his ministry he enjoyed the society of Jacob Young and Russel Bigelow as presiding elders, by whose wise counsels and holy lives he profited greatly. His itinerant ministry began on Zanesville circuit, and his subsequent fields of labor were the following: 1825, Straight Creek circuit; 1826–27, Sandusky circuit; 1828–29, Detroit station, Michigan, then in the bounds of the Ohio Conference. Of the high estimate in which brother Brown was held while stationed in Detroit, it is sufficient to remark that, unsought on his part, he was elected chaplain of the Territorial Legislature, then in session in that city.

August 12, 1830, he was married, by Rev. L. Scott, to Miss Mary, daughter of Joel Hyde, of Farmington, Trumbull county, Ohio, a lady eminently qualified, by mental culture and grace, for the position of a minister's wife. For nearly thirty-nine years the now bereaved wife contributed, by her wise counsels, faithful labor, and purity of life, to the successful ministerial efforts of her husband.

Brother Brown's itinerant career covered a large extent of territory, as will be manifest, not only from a survey of the appointments mentioned above, but more particularly from those which follow; namely: 1830, Oakland circuit, Detroit district; 1831, Columbus circuit, Ohio: 1832, Dayton station; 1833–34, Piqua; 1835, Xenia; 1836–37, Marietta; 1838–39, Athens; 1840, Chillicothe; 1841, West Union circuit; 1842, Greenfield; 1843, Frankfort circuit; 1844, Parkersburg, Va.; 1845, Barlow circuit, Ohio; 1846–47, Hamilton; 1848–49, Christie Chapel, Cincinnati; 1850–51, South Charleston; 1852, North Bend circuit; 1853–54, Lockland; 1855, Raper Chapel, Cincinnati. He was elected a member of the delegation of the Cincinnati Conference to the General Conference which sat in Indianapolis, May, 1856. For thirty-one consecutive years he sustained an effective relation in the ministry, but, prostrated by protracted illness and infirmity, he was finally compelled to request the Conference, at its session in Ripley, O., October 1, 1856, to grant him a superannuated relation, which he sustained the balance of his life. From this period—1856—the pen of an intimate and long-tried friend has faithfully sketched the remainder of his labors with a thrillingly joyful narrative of the closing scene of his earthly pilgrimage:

"In 1857 he removed to Chicago, and settled in the West Division, on West Indiana-street. He served, by the appointment of the presiding elder, the West Indiana-Street for three years, with great usefulness.

"In 1863 he and his wife were appointed as delegates, by the Christian Commission, to labor among the soldiers in the army. They went first to Nashville, Tenn. In 1864 he was authorized to open a branch of the Christian Commission in Natchez, and for two years and a half labored among the soldiers in the camps and hospitals, and then among the freedmen in Natchez, Vicksburg, and Baton Rouge.

"In the Spring of 1868 he greatly enjoyed the company of many of his old companions whom he met during the session of the General Conference in Chicago, Ill.

"In the Fall of 1868 he went South again, and spent some time in labor in New Orleans. In January last he and his wife left New Orleans and went to the St. Mary's Parish, on the Teche, and labored in the Orphan's Home. Here he was able to do but little.

"He had a settled conviction, from the first attack, that he would never recover, and greatly desired to return to his home in Chicago to die. He was conveyed on his bed from the Orphan's Home to the boat by four colored men, who loved him dearly. Carried by strangers from the boat to the cars, he found his way home.

"Shortly after his arrival home, he, feeling that his time was short, asked to have a number of the ministers invited, and with them once more to celebrate the holy sacrament of the Lord's Supper. Bishop Thomson conducted this service.

"For eight months he was not able to help himself in the least, and yet from his lips escaped no complaint. He rejoiced continually in the Lord, even in the midst of the greatest agony.

"He had asked an old friend, whom he had known since 1825, to be with him in his last hour, to close his eyes and comfort his family. This friend watched with him during the last night, and whenever the name of Jesus or heaven was mentioned, his face would light up, and he would exclaim: 'Precious Jesus! Glorious heaven!' Toward morning his daughter said: 'Father, do you feel that you are going?' He answered: 'Not now, but I shall go very soon;' and then continued: 'The blessed Savior said: "If I go away, I will come again and receive you to myself; that where I am, there ye may be also." O, how blessed it will be to be with Christ; to see him as he is, and more blessed to be like him!' He then added: 'I am all ready, waiting the descent of the chariot of the Lord, to go home to heaven.' He lingered until noon.

"He and his wife had often talked about the possibility of seeing Jesus before the soul left the body, and she asked him, in some way, when first he saw the Savior, if he did so before he left the body, to let her know. Just before the last, and as he was reclining upon his pillow, with eyes closed, he exclaimed, with a full voice: 'Life! life!' and his spirit departed. May it not be that this was the signal given when first he saw, with unveiled vision, the blessed Jesus?

"Thus died Rev. Arza Brown in the 77th year of his age, the 53d of his Christian life, and the 45th of his ministry. As a preacher, he was eminently practical and useful. He was loving and gentle in his life, kind and affectionate in his family. His whole life was a pure commentary upon the Gospel he so loved to preach."

Appropriate funeral services were observed at the Indiana-Street Church, Chicago, Ill., Monday, August 2, 1869, and thence he was borne to his final resting-place, his body sleeping in Jesus and awaiting the resurrection morn. Precious is the memory of the departed who sleep in Jesus!

REV. WM. S. HARTLEY.

Rev. William S. Hartley was born in the city of Cincinnati, on the 8th day of March, 1833. There was nothing remarkable in his early history or education. Growing up amid influences of city life, his mind seems not to have been very early aroused to the consideration of his obligations to God and his relations to society.

It was under the ministration of Rev. Arza Brown, while stationed at Christie Chapel, that young Hartley's heart was first deeply moved with religious emotions. He then joined the Church, and subsequently was converted at the mourner's bench, side by side with Rev. John W. Mason, now an effective member of the Cincinnati Conference.

Soon after young Hartley's conversion he felt moved by the Holy Spirit to preach the Gospel. But to mere human vision there seemed to be insurmountable obstacles in his way. He was naturally of a modest and retiring disposition; he felt the want of an education necessary to fill successfully so important a position, and he was without pecuniary means with which to obtain such an education. These, added to the fear of doing wrong in assuming the obligations and responsibilities of so sacred a calling, all greatly disturbed and oppressed his mind. Said his brother Robert to the writer, "Never did a man try harder to get rid of preaching than William." But his convictions followed him, and increased in clearness and force from month to month, until he consented to be obedient to the heavenly calling; saying with Paul, "Though I preach the Gospel I have nothing to glory of: for necessity is laid upon me; yea, woe is unto me if I preach not the Gospel." 1 Cor. ix, 16. Having once obtained the consent of his mind, he immediately set about the work of preparation, and was soon at Delaware University. He received his first license to preach from Carr-Street quarterly conference, then under the Ladies' Home Mission, and was subsequently recommended to the Cincinnati Conference by the same quarterly conference, as a suitable person to be received into the traveling connection. His first field of labor was a supply on Lewisburg, Dayton district, in the year 1855.

His name first appears in the Minutes of the Conference held at Ripley, October 1, 1856. In answer to the first question, "Who are admitted on trial?" the following names are given: Henry Krill, George Schwinn, George Reiter, Evan P. James, George H. Dart, John P. Waterhouse, Milton Keck, John W. Mason, John Gregg, Wm. S. Hartley, Wm. B. Moler, Jno. S. Jackson, Ed. M'Hugh, Jno. H. Middleton, Jno. G. Black. It appears from this list that brother Hartley is the second one that has fallen, brother John S. Jackson having died March, 1858. At the above-named Conference brother Hartley was appointed assistant preacher on Concord circuit, Dayton district, with Rev. M. Marlay, presiding elder, and Rev. Thomas W. Tipton, now United States Senator, from Nebraska, as preacher in charge.

In 1857 he was sent to Red Lion and Germantown, with Rev. Wesley Webster as preacher in charge, and Rev. John P. Waterhouse as one of the assistant preachers. In 1858 he was appointed to Winchester circuit, with Rev. Isaac Neff as preacher in charge. In 1859 he was stationed at Raper Chapel, Cincinnati. In 1860 he was stationed at Cumminsville. In this appointment God owned and blessed his labors in a very remarkable manner. For months together he preached to crowded houses, and on almost every occasion God was manifest in saving power. In 1861 he was appointed assistant preacher at Port Union circuit, with Rev. George W. Fee as preacher in charge. In 1862 he had charge of North Bend circuit, W. G. W. Lewis as an assistant. In 1863 he was stationed at Finley Chapel, Cincinnati. In 1864 he was stationed at Eaton, Ohio. In 1865 his declining health required he should take a superannuated relation. In 1866, having somewhat recuperated by a year's rest, he was appointed to Columbia and Pendleton. In 1867 he was again compelled to take a superannuated relation, having suffered from a severe hemorrhage of the lungs during Conference. During 1868, however, such was his desire to work for his Master, to the extent of his physical strength, that his presiding elder and the preacher in charge of North Bend circuit, Rev. B. Kelley, made an arrangement for him to preach, at stated times, at Cheviot, and this he did with acceptability until the close of the Conference year.

As the session of the Annual Conference approached his desire to be put upon the effective list increased, and he often talked with the writer on the subject. He earnestly pleaded if it was possible, without injuring the work, to have some work given him. For himself he seemed to have little thought — he was all absorbed in the thought of saving others. Few ministers, if any, ever had a more burning desire to preach Christ with their latest breath than William S. Hartley. More than once the writer has seen his eyes overflow with tears, and his feelings overcome him, as he would talk of his want of physical strength to labor for the salvation of souls as he once did.

It was immediately preceding the Annual Conference of 1863, on the 31st of August, that he was married to Miss Lizzie Luckey, of Fairmount, who now, with two beautiful and interesting boys, respectively five and three years of age, survives to mourn his early death. On Friday, preceding his death, which occurred about 4, P. M., Sabbath, the 7th of February, 1869, he sent for the writer to administer to him the sacrament of the Lord's Supper, and to dedicate, in the ordinance of baptism, his last-born to God. On this occasion his soul was wonderfully drawn out in spiritual worship, and greatly rejoiced, as prayer was offered at the conclusion of the sacramental service. He gave every assurance of his entire preparation for the change. Sweet tempered in life, he was doubly so in death.

An incident occurred only a few days before he was taken down with his last illness, which beautifully illustrates the impression brother Hartley left on the minds of those making no profession of religion, in the several fields of labor where he had preached during the twelve years of his ministry. One of the present United States Assessors for Ohio was one of his hearers for one year, and so favorably was he impressed with our deceased brother's manly bearing and integrity, that immediately on learning he was unable to preach, he offered him an appointment in his department; but it was too late, death had marked him for a victim, and only a few hours elapsed between the reception of his commission and his departure to a better land and a better service.

Brother Hartley was a man of high-toned principle, amiable and cheerful in disposition, a true friend, a devout Christian, an earnest and faithful preacher, a considerate and affectionate husband and father.

His death was quiet and peaceful as one passing into a sweet sleep. Mr. Wesley said our people die well. Brother Hartley's death is an illustration of what the writer has observed as a fact for at least twenty-five years past; namely, our preachers die well. To the protection of a kind Providence and an appreciative Church we commend his sorrowing widow and children. JAS. F. CHALFANT.

REV. JOSEPH M. GATCH.

REV. JOSEPH M. GATCH was born near Milford, Ohio, June 30, 1821, and died at the parsonage of his native place, on the 13th day of February, 1869.

He was the son of Conduce and Margaret Gatch, who carefully guarded the steps of his youth, and taught him the way of salvation. Having been educated in the Methodist Episcopal Church, he early in life sought the pardon of sin in the blood of Jesus. He was led to repentance by the ministry of Rev. John A. Baughman when only ten years of age.

On the 17th of May, 1842, he was licensed to preach at a quarterly meeting for Milford circuit, held at Zoar meeting-house, by Rev. Wm. H. Raper, and by the same quarterly conference three months afterward was recommended as a suitable person to be admitted into the traveling connection in the Ohio Annual Conference, and was accordingly admitted the September following, and appointed to Georgetown circuit, with Rev. John W. Clark preacher in charge. The next year he traveled Batavia circuit, with Rev. Greenbury R. Jones for his colleague.

In 1844 he was ordained and set apart to the office of deacon, received into full connection in the Conference, and appointed, with Rev. Levi White, to North Bend circuit. The year following he traveled Frankfort circuit, and in September, 1846, was ordained an elder and appointed to Jacksonville circuit, which he traveled for two years. He subsequently filled, in the order named, the following appointments; namely: Milford, Amelia, and Madisonville circuits.

When the Ohio Conference was divided into the Ohio, Cincinnati, and Kentucky Conferences, brother Gatch fell into the last named, and was appointed to Covington station for two years consecutively. He afterward served the Maysville station and Orangeburg circuit, in the Kentucky Conference, and was transferred to the Cincinnati Conference and appointed to the Highland circuit. He was next appointed to the Hillsboro station, afterward to New Lexington, Maineville, Madisonville, New Richmond, and Bethany.

He was then employed as agent for the Western Seaman's Friend Society, and finally, in the Fall of 1867, stationed at Milford, Ohio, where, surrounded by friends, relatives, and familiar scenes, he closed his laborious and useful life, and, with his body lying upon the very spot where he had been converted to God, his funeral was preached by the presiding elder of the district, from the draped desk from which he had lately descended to die.

In the year 1843 he was united in marriage to Miss Sarah Mitchell, who, with three children, survives him.

In the domestic relations he was kind and indulgent, yet earnestly solicitous for the salvation and the exalted Christian character of his household. His ministry was of the mild, persuasive order rather than boisterous and denunciatory, and his gentle words and manner in his sermons, or his sweet, melodious voice employed in holy song, came stealing over his congregations like a baptism of love, and led many penitent and inquiring souls to Jesus. While others preached the terms of the broken law of God, and drove wretched sinners to the judgment-seat, brother Gatch waited about Gethsemane and Zion until he moved his hearers to repentance by the soft, sweet pathos of the garden and the cross.

He fully consecrated himself to God and daily experienced the approving smile of Heaven. He was a faithful minister of Jesus Christ, who rightly divided the word of truth, and made the chosen work of his life a happy success.

Although he was a man of comparatively little physical strength, he was faithful in his pastoral work, and carefully instructed the children in every place, and did not cease until about ten weeks previous to his death, when infirmity had laid him upon his dying bed.

During his affliction he often gave utterance to his intense desire to be again in the pulpit to preach Jesus and the resurrection, and it was long before he could realize that he was not to be thus gratified. Yet, when he became fully aware of the fact that he was on the margin of the cold, mysterious river that forms the boundary of time, he did not fear or tremble, but enjoyed many assuring foretastes of the bliss upon which he was soon to enter.

Two days before his death he said to some of his brethren in the ministry, with rapturous emotion: "I am on the rock, the everlasting rock, and I have been wonderfully sustained."

The Saturday on which he died was bright and cheerful, and as he looked out in the morning and saw the smiling sky, he said, "What a beautiful day God has given me on which to go home!"

Having called his family around his bed, he summoned what strength he had and gave to each his dying charge; sent messages to several friends who were absent; gave directions for his funeral, selecting the 26th verse of the 86th Psalm for the text, the 1,070th hymn,

> "Joyfully, joyfully, onward I move, > Bound for the land of bright prospects above;"

named the preacher who should officiate, the place where the service should be held, and where his remains were to be buried; then turning upon his side he closed his eyes to earth, and fell asleep in Jesus as gently as the pause of the slightest breeze, or the hush of the wave that dies along the shore, illustrating the Scripture assertion: "Mark the perfect man, and behold the upright, for the end of that man is peace."

MRS. MARY ELIZABETH CLARK.

MARY ELIZABETH MORRIS, wife of Rev. Lucien Clark, of the Cincinnati Conference, was born in Lebanon, Ohio, October 19, 1839. Her parents, Robert and Jane Morris, were members of the Methodist Episcopal Church. Hence, from her infancy, she was taught, by precept and example, the doctrines of the Christian religion. But it was not until she was fifteen years of age, that she was enabled to clearly see that a change of heart was absolutely necessary to bring her into fellowship with God, and to fit her soul for the inheritance of eternal life. At this period, she was at Yellow Springs, Ohio, where she had gone to perfect her education. While pursuing her studies, a gracious revival of religion occurred in the Methodist Episcopal Church. During this revival, Miss Morris was powerfully awakened, and clearly converted.

Her life, after conversion, was always consistent; her piety deep and uniform; her labors abundant.

It was under the ministration of Rev. S. A. Brewster, while pastor of the Church at Yellow Springs, that our sister became convinced that it was her privilege to enjoy, by a more perfect consecration of herself to God, a higher state of grace, than simply regeneration. In accordance with this conviction, she commenced immediately, intelligently, and earnestly, to seek for the fullness of the blessing of God in Christ Jesus. And it was not long until she realized the truth of God's word: "That if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship one with another, and the blood of Jesus Christ, his Son, cleanseth us from all sin."

In the faith and enjoyment of this great blessing, our sister lived and died; and her now bereaved and faithful husband's testimony is, that she not only professed, but that she possessed and lived this blessing in every-day life. Quiet and unassuming in her manners, she was not forward to proclaim the enjoyment of this higher spiritual life; and yet she was not reluctant, on suitable occasions, to glorify God in the acknowledgment of it.

On the 11th of October, 1864, she was joined in marriage to Rev. Lucien Clark, then stationed at Lebanon, Ohio, and who now survives to mourn her early loss. This holy union then bid fair to be of long duration, and fruitful in happiness and good works. Congenial spirits, they readily molded into one, and were helpmates indeed to each other. Smoothly and beautifully flowed the stream of their married life, as they with united effort sought to fill the holy mission to which God had called them. But, alas! how soon a shadow fell on their path! About two years previous to her death a severe hemorrhage of the lungs announced the presence of that insidious and fatal disease that bears annually so many Americans, young and old, male and female, to the grave.

Slow, but steady and sure were the steps, gaining more and more power over its victim, until, for three months previous to her death, she was confined to her room.

During this time she was visited by many of the ministers and members of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and to one and all the same testimony of uniform joy, peace, faith, and hope, was clearly given. Not one who visited her would hesitate to pronounce her ready for death. To her husband, when lamenting her sufferings, she said, "You ought to be thankful when this poor body is at rest! O, when shall this poor, tired body be at rest?" Again: "What a sweet release I will have from all this suffering when I am called home!" On another occasion, she said, "It is hard work for these poor bodies to wear out. It takes all the grace I have to bear it. Why should I be discouraged? I must suffer it out. I know, in all probability, this will end in death; but I have no fear." To the Rev. J. J. Thompson, Bishop Clark, Rev. C. W. Ketcham, and the writer, she expressed herself in the clearest terms as being fully prepared.

After she was herself convinced that she could not recover, she was very anxious that before her departure she might receive an extraordinary blessing on her soul. She longed and prayed for this. The day before her death she said to her husband, "I have had some doubts." He spoke words of comfort to her, and commenced repeating the 23d Psalm: "The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want. . . . Thou anointest my head with oil." At this point she took up the language and exclaimed, "My cup runneth over." From this time there was no doubt, no shadow, nothing but peace and joy. Without losing her sight, or having any wandering of mind whatever, she called her husband; and saying, "Good-by, sweet babe, good-by, precious husband," departed to be with God.

Thus died our sister, on the 18th of February, 1869, aged 29 years and 4 months. Peace to her memory! Happiness to her husband and child!

JAS. F. CHALFANT.

INDIA GOODRICH DEEM.

INDIA GOODRICH DEEM was born in Winchester, Indiana, April 19, 1840. Her father, the late Judge Goodrich, was a very devoted Methodist, but at his death the family were left to struggle with many privations during their minority. But, notwithstanding this, sister Deem obtained a good education, and early devoted herself to the work of teaching school. In this department of labor she was eminently successful. In her fifteenth year she was converted to God and joined the Methodist Episcopal Church, and on the 20th of June, 1867, was united in marriage to the Rev. R. K. Deem, of this Conference. To this new relation she brought a rich Christian experience, a well-cultivated mind, a hopeful disposition, and an ardent desire to be useful. Although she always manifested a lively interest in all the enterprises of the Church, yet for the Sabbath school cause she evinced the deepest sympathy, and in it she labored with great zeal and eminent success. For the moral and intellectual training of children she had a peculiar adaptation, and in this department of Christian effort took great delight, until failing health compelled her to desist. Notwithstanding she was an invalid most of the time from her marriage, yet she evinced an ardent zeal for the salvation of souls, and a willingness to share without complaint in all the toils and trials of the itinerancy. She was never afraid of doing a little for Jesus because she was unable to do much, but while the day lasted did what she could; and when restrained by a painful and lingering illness, submitted to the discipline with cheerful obedience, and like the Captain of our salvation, "was made perfect through sufferings." She always took delight in the Scriptures, and searched them daily; but during her last sickness she read with an increased devotion, especially the twenty-third Psalm and the fourteenth chapter of John. While conversing on the subject of her departure, she was told that she could not possibly live until morning. The intelligence was received with great calmness; and after a short pause a heavenly smile lighted up her dying face, and she said, "In my Father's house there are many mansions; if it were not so I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you," when her voice suddenly failed. Her husband repeated, "And if I go and prepare a place for you I will come again and receive you unto myself, that where I am there ye may be also." Having recovered her strength a little, she replied, "O, yes, that is it! O, how precious!" When she felt that she had actually entered the valley and shadow of death, she commenced repeating her favorite Psalm, "The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want;" but her voice again failed. But, blessed be God, when the dark valley was nearly past, she was permitted to signal back to her weeping husband that "all was well." Thus died, January 25, 1869, the young itinerant's wife.

"Weep not for her; there is no cause of woe;
But rather nerve the spirit that it walk
Unshrinking o'er the thorny path below.
. . . Victorious over death to her appears
The vista'd joys of heaven's eternal years.
Weep not for her."

MAXWELL P. GADDIS, SEN.,
JAMES ARMSTRONG.

MRS. RUTH JONES.

RUTH JONES, widow of Rev. Greenbury R. Jones, was born near Brownsville, Pennsylvania, November 6, 1787, and died in Cincinnati at the residence of her son-in-law, Mr. William Sackett, December 18, 1868. Her parents, Amos and Eliza Hough, were members of the Society of Friends. At the age of thirteen she was left an entire orphan, her father and mother having both been removed by death. In her twentieth year she was married to Mr. James Ross, and for nine years they resided in Steubenville, Ohio. On the morning of July 2, 1816, she awoke with an unusual class of feelings. She told her husband "that it was impressed upon her mind that if they did not turn to the Lord and live a more pious life some heavy judgment would come upon them." That day, while preparing to start to Pittsburg, her husband was suddenly seized with such violent pain in his side that it was with difficulty he reached his house. Several physicians were called, but with no favorable result. His impressions were that the attack would have a fatal termination, and now informed his wife that he had been under the power of awakening grace for three weeks. She proposed that a minister be sent for, to which he readily assented. She immediately sent for Rev. James B. Finley, then stationed in Steubenville, who promptly came, conversed and prayed with him, and encouraged him to hope for mercy in the pardon of sins. He lingered about two weeks, was visited daily by brother Finley, realized the washing of regeneration, and died in the triumph of faith July 17, 1816. Though thoroughly awakened to a sense of her guilt and danger, she did not at that time give her heart to Jesus. In the following Spring she removed with her four children to Hamilton, where her brother and other relatives resided. In the Spring of 1819 she moved to Chillicothe, where in June of that year she united with the Methodist Episcopal Church. She always regarded brother Finley as her spiritual father, and, although under his labors she had been convinced of her need of a Savior, she had for three years hesitated and failed to give her whole heart to Christ. She now set about seeking pardon and the renewing of the Holy Ghost more earnestly, and after three weeks found a change of heart accompanied by the witness of the Spirit, and she was happy. She moved again to Hamilton in 1821, and three years later she settled in Monroe, Ohio. Here she found a small class, which had during the previous year—1823—been taken into Miami circuit. They had no church, but had week-day preaching in the schoolhouse, and class meeting on Sunday evenings in a carpenter shop. But the Master met with them, and they soon increased to four classes, having a comfortable church and preaching on the Sabbath. We infer that this signal success was attributable largely to the zeal, labors, and influence of this devout Christian woman.

In 1834 she was happily married to Rev. Greenbury R. Jones, a minister of the Ohio Conference, and with him shared the toils and privations of an itinerant's life for ten years. In 1844, while attending the session of Conference at Marietta, brother Jones was taken suddenly and dangerously ill. His wife was sent for, and the messenger, Rev. A. Meharry, found her looking for his return, as he had been absent two weeks. She hastened to Marietta and found him suffering much, and with no hope of recovery. He had prayed earnestly that his life might be spared until her arrival, and now he rejoiced that God had granted his request. Four days later he passed to his home in heaven. She now returned with a heavy heart to her home at Bethel, Clermont county, feeling that her only source of support and comfort under this severe bereavement was God and his religion.

For some years previous to her death she lived with her daughters, one of whom, Mrs. Sackett, lived in Cincinnati, and the other, Mrs. Boyd, in Middletown, Ohio. Sister Jones was an earnest, consistent, and devoted Christian. In the whole circle of her acquaintance she was highly esteemed and loved. And it is generally believed she came very near a full compliance with that important injunction of St. Paul, "Rejoicing in hope, patient in tribulation, continuing instant in prayer." Truly she endured as seeing Him who is invisible, and has left an example worthy of imitation.

In her diary, which she kept for nearly fifty years, the last entry bears date, Middletown, Ohio, July 19, 1868, and is as follows: "Yesterday our quarterly meeting commenced, but I have not strength enough to attend it; and while others are worshiping in the sanctuary, I am confined at home by affliction; but my Father knows my heart, and is able and willing to bless me here alone. O, my Savior,

'Thy presence makes my paradise,
And where thou art is heaven.'"

Rev. John F. Loyd visited her frequently in her last illness, and says "he always found her with a firm trust in God and a lively hope of heaven;" and Rev. J. F. Wright, who also visited her in her last years, testifies to the same facts in her case. Her end was peace. Her body sleeps in the cemetery at Hamilton; her spirit triumphs among the redeemed on high.

FRANCES KIRK THURBER.

FRANCES KIRK THURBER was born in the city of Zanesville, Ohio, December 22, 1825. She was the daughter of the late William Kirk, of Piqua, Ohio, and brought up in the "nurture and admonition of the Lord," and at the early age of fifteen gave her heart to Jesus and experienced the renewing power of the Holy Ghost. During the powerful revival of religion in Green-Street charge, Piqua, she united with the Methodist Episcopal Church under the ministry of Rev. Maxwell P. Gaddis, Sen., in 1852, and the following December was united in marriage by the same to Rev. William J. Thurber, of this Conference. For sixteen years past she learned to endure hardness as a good soldier of Jesus Christ.

During her entire life in the itinerancy she cultivated a cheerful submission to the will of God in all things, and in seasons of discouragement and disappointment cheered on her husband by her noble example of patience and self-sacrifice. She was a woman of great purity of heart and rectitude of purpose, in spirit sweet and gentle, in manners affable and engaging; dignified and exemplary in all her deportment. Like her departed father, who, for more than fifty years, was a successful class-leader, she was greatly attached to this means of grace, and what she had at first, for conscience' sake, borne as a heavy cross, she at length learned to appreciate as a delightful privilege, and never was absent from the class-room when her health permitted her to attend. In the absence of her husband she never allowed the hallowed fire to go out on the family altar. She died of pulmonary consumption at Gratiot, Licking county, Ohio, May 5, 1869, and was buried at Piqua, Ohio.

During her protracted sufferings she was patient and resigned, willing to live and suffer in the vineyard, yet more desirous still to depart and be with Christ, which was far better. As might have been expected, "her last end was peace." When her departure drew near she called her husband and three children one by one around her dying bed, and ıve them each a parting kiss and her dying benediction, and "entered ıto the joy of her Lord,"

"Where none with fruitless labor sigh,
And care awakes no lingering groan,
And grief no agony."

A. MEHARRY,
MAXWELL P. GADDIS, SEN.

MRS. SARAH ROWE.

MRS. SARAH ROWE, widow of the late Wesley Rowe, of the Cincinnati nference, died September 23, 1868.

She was the daughter of Mr. John Hitch, of Clermont county, Ohio. er education was strictly religious, her parents being both members of e Methodist Episcopal Church, and their house the home of the itiner- t. At an early period of her history she was made the subject of con- rting and regenerating grace, at a camp-meeting held at Olive Branch. She was united in marriage with brother Rowe, September, 1844, d took upon herself the sacrifices and responsibilities of an itinerant e; and well did she meet those responsibilities, and cheerfully make ose sacrifices. With her husband she was a faithful colaborer in e Lord's vineyard.

When, in 1862, brother Rowe was called from labor to reward, she e left, with slender means and feeble health, to provide for the nily, consisting of several children, some of them quite young and lpless. To be the better able to do this, she removed to Cincinnati, d opened a boarding-house, where, with unremitting diligence and l, she sought and obtained but a meager subsistence. But the burden s too great, the toil too exhaustive. She soon broke down, and was npelled to seek a place in which to pine and die. Such a place she nd in the comfortable home of her brother, Mr. Nelson Hitch, of w Richmond. Here, after a few weeks of patient suffering, she ntly fell asleep.

Her sufferings were not only patiently, but cheerfully endured. In- d, she was often very happy. When about to enter the cold waters Jordan, her countenance bright with unearthly joy, she exclaimed:

"Jesus, lover of my soul,
Let me to thy bosom fly;
While the nearer waters roll,
While the tempest still is high,
Hide me, O my Savior, hide,
Till the storm of life is past;
Safe into the haven guide;
O receive my soul at last.
Other refuge have I none;
Hangs my helpless soul on thee;
Leave, O leave me not alone;
Still support and comfort me;
All my trust on thee is staid."

ıre, in a paroxysm of great pain, her voice was hushed. For a few ırs before her departure she had a season of rest from suffering, during which she talked freely with her friends, and counseled her children. Then she said, "I am ready to go;" and, folding her cold and emaciated hands upon her dying breast, she fell serenely asleep in Jesus.

WM. H. LAWDER.

MRS. ELIZA JANE SMITH.

WIFE of Rev. Moses Smith, D. D., of the Cincinnati Conference, was born in Cincinnati, March 13, 1829; and died, in great peace, in Dayton, Ohio, March 26, 1869.

The writer is in possession of but few facts in relation to her early life. It may be safely inferred, however, from the character of her excellent mother—Mrs. Isaac Demarest—that Mrs. Smith was early instructed in the doctrines and duties of Christianity. Religious culture, wisely directed, never fails to produce its desired results. Inspiration has so declared. A child trained in the way "he should go" will not "depart from it."

This is illustrated in the life of the subject of this memoir. At the age of fifteen, under the pastorship of Rev. J. W. Weakley, D. D., she gave her heart to the Savior, and united with the Methodist Episcopal Church. In February, 1847, she became the wife of Rev. Moses Smith. Her cheerful disposition, sound judgment, and Christian activity, eminently fitted her for the position which she had assumed. For twenty-two years she shared with her devoted husband the labors, sacrifices, and successes of our itinerant ministry. Last year her health was greatly impaired while nursing her husband through a long and severe attack of fever. Early in the Winter the symptoms indicated the presence of consumption. Steadily the disease progressed, until, in a few weeks, she was confined to her room, and then to her bed. During her last sickness she had, as is usual, some severe contests with the enemy; but soon she triumphed, and triumphed completely. Stronger expressions of confidence in Christ I never heard than those that were uttered by Mrs. Smith. "I trust only in Jesus," said she. And again: "All is right, and all is bright." On the Wednesday morning before her death, while her friends were sitting quietly by her bedside, she exclaimed: "O the beautiful, beautiful sunlight! Do n't you see it? But no, you can 't see it, and will not until you are called—I see the morning—it is all light!" While she spoke her countenance was all aglow with celestial light and joy. At another time the glories of heaven seemed to be unveiled to her vision, and she said she saw her father and sisters, and also her child, who, but a few days before, had been called home. When near the last struggle she said: "It is not hard to die—Christ is so precious!"

M. DUSTIN.

MRS. JENNIE F. FEE.

SISTER JENNIE F. FEE was born in Brown county, Ohio, in the year 1839. When quite young, being piously educated, she gave her heart to the Savior and united with the Methodist Episcopal Church, under the ministry of Rev. Truman S. Cowden, in Georgetown, Cincinnati Conference. She was married June 20, 1861, to our dear bereaved brother, Rev. George W. Fee. With flattering prospects she entered the itinerant field with her companion, joyfully to endure the privations, toils, and sacrifices incident to such a life. She rejoiced greatly in the prosperity of the Church of God, and dearly loved the means of grace. Often while worshiping in the congregation tears would flow from her eyes. Her piety was deep, uniform, and sincere. Her health became precarious, and during a great portion of the last six years of her life she suffered great bodily pain, so much so that her husband was forced to desist from his regular ministerial work. In all her severe afflictions the grace of God wonderfully sustained her. Though the providence of God seemed dark and mysterious, she could say, "Thy will be done." Sister Fee was a woman of more than ordinary intelligence, and amiable in disposition. She greatly endeared herself to those with whom she mingled. Though it cost her a hard struggle to resign her companion and babes, yet she triumphed at last, gloriously. After lingering for many weeks in great weakness and pain, on the 17th of July last she closed her eyes on earthly scenes, and went to join her sainted mother and kindred spirits on the other shore. May that kind Being who tempers the wintery blast to the shorn lamb, take care of the stricken ones!

CONFERENCE STEWARDS' RESOLUTIONS.

1. Resolved, That a sum equivalent to ten per cent. of the salaries paid in each presiding elder's district shall be the amount expected from the same, and the District Stewards are hereby requested to distribute the same to the respective charges, according to the ability of each.

2. Resolved, That we hereby pledge ourselves to present this claim to our people as early in the year as practicable, giving it that prominence its merits demand.

3. Resolved, That in the passage of character, each pastor shall be requested to report the amount of his collection, and in case of failure to meet the reasonable expectations of the Conference, shall be expected to give satisfactory reasons for such failure.

4. Resolved, That any pastor who may neglect to present this claim to his charge, or shall lightly excuse himself therefrom, will thereby expose himself to just censure.

5. Resolved, That Rev. J. F. Loyd be authorized by the Conference to correspond with the pastors of the various charges, with reference to this collection, and make such suggestions as he may deem judicious.

6. Resolved, That Estimating Committees, in complying with the Discipline, page 270, be requested to furnish a statement of the resources of claimants, together with their estimates.

W. N. WILLIAMS, President.

S. WEEKS, Secretary.

COMMON-SENSE BOOK

FOR THE PEOPLE,

ON THE NEW TREATMENT

FOR

Diseases of the Nose, Throat, and Lungs,

BY MEDICATED INHALATIONS.

CONSUMPTION, ASTHMA, BRONCHITIS, NASAL CATARRH, AND LOSS OF VOICE are diseases of the air-passages, and have no connection whatever with the stomach. You can not cure them, therefore, by pouring medicines into the stomach, because they never reach the seat of the disease. These diseases can be cured, however, if you can get the medicines to act directly upon them. This you can do by reducing the medicines to a condition of vapor, and breathing them as you do common air. Such medicated air should neither be hot nor moist, and none but an educated specialist should attempt to administer them in this way. I have been practicing this system of treatment for twenty years, twelve of which I have been located in Cincinnati, and have with it cured thousands of cases of Consumption, Asthma, Bronchitis, Nasal Catarrh, Loss of Voice, and every other form of disease of the Nose, Throat, and Lungs, after all other tried means had failed.

I have published a book called "COMMON-SENSE BOOK," explaining this whole system of treating diseases of the Lungs by inhaling medicated air, which I will send to any person in any part of the United States or Canada, on the receipt of 25 cents to pay postage, and the name of the applicant, with post-office address. To persons who are sick and unable to pay the postage I will send the book without charge, and pay the postage myself. Do n't hesitate to send for this book, as it will be sent cheerfully on the above terms to all parts of the United States. In the providence of God it may do good and alleviate suffering. Send for it at once.

THE GREAT AMERICAN CONSUMPTIVE REMEDY.

Dr. Wm. Hall's Balsam for the Lungs,

Consumption, Decline, Asthma, Bronchitis, Wasting of Flesh, Night-Sweats, Spitting of Blood, Hooping-Cough, Difficulty of Breathing, Cough, Colds, Croup, Influenza, Phthisic, Pain in the Side, and all Diseases of the Throat and Lungs.

DR. WM. HALL'S BALSAM FOR THE LUNGS strikes at the root of the DISEASE AT ONCE, and such is its speedy effect that any one using it freely, according to directions, for twenty-four or forty-eight hours, will be entirely satisfied with its merits. The most distressing cough is frequently relieved by a single dose, and broken up in a few hours' time. The afflicted do not have to take bottle after bottle before they will find whether this remedy will afford relief or not. Searching analysis has enabled FRAUDULENT IMITATORS to gain an imperfect knowledge of some of its ingredients, but has failed to give them that HAPPY COMBINATION which is its peculiar excellence and the source of its great HEALING POWERS in all Lung diseases. No higher proof of its intrinsic value as a medicinal agent can be given than the fact that others attempt to deceive the public with their BALSAMS BY FALSE AND WICKED REPRESENTATIONS that they are similar in composition to DR. WM. HALL'S BALSAM FOR THE LUNGS.

Notwithstanding CONSUMPTION has been regarded as almost inevitably fatal, it is now a well-established fact in medical science that the Lungs have been healed up after extensive disease and ulceration had existed. There are well-authenticated cases on record occurring in dissections in hospitals, and in post-mortem examinations in private practice, in which the Lungs have revealed scars or cicatrices, showing conclusively that at one time there had existed ulcers or ulcerous cavities in the Lungs, which had become healed up either through the favorable influence of remedies or the curative process of Nature. These instances are sufficiently numerous to encourage both the medical profession and the unfortunate victims of this fatal disease not to yield too hastily to the suggestions of despair, but to persist in the use of remedies of acknowledged excellence as long as there is life.

But, independent of what medical science has discovered upon the subject, we think that DR. WM. HALL'S BALSAM FOR THE LUNGS has furnished conclusive evidence that tuberculous disease of the Lungs, or CONSUMPTION, can be cured, and that, too, after it has made considerable progress toward a fatal termination. It is impossible to resist the overwhelming testimony that has come to us from all parts of the country in proof of the great curative powers of this remedy for CONSUMPTION. It is incredible that so many disinterested persons, who have voluntarily testified to this fact, should be deceived with regard to the nature of their disease; and not only they, but their physicians; for in most cases they say their medical attendants had given them up as hopeless, under the belief that their Lungs were almost entirely gone. The evidence upon this point has now been accumulating for nearly a quarter of a century, and would fill a small volume. It can not be doubted that DR. HALL'S BALSAM FOR THE LUNGS has cured CONSUMPTION in hundreds of cases, unless you suppose that a vast number of persons, including eminent physicians, have been mistaken in their diagnosis, and supposed their disease to be Consumption, when it really was a different affection. It is not rational to conclude that so many persons would be deceived with regard to the nature of their disease, and also that their physicians—intelligent and of large experience, in many instances—should be mistaken.

We select the following testimonials from a vast number in our possession in proof of the unrivaled merits of HALL'S BALSAM:

MR. JAS. D. LANE and MR. ROBT. W. LANE send us the following statement from Madison, N. Y.:

"In the year 1862, Mrs. Mary E. Baily, residing near Glen Arbor, Michigan, was sick with Consumption, and confined to her bed with pain in her lungs, side, and back, cough, night-sweats, and all the symptoms of deep-seated Consumption. It being in the Winter season, and one hundred and fifty miles from public conveyance, her eastern friends had given up all hope of seeing her again; and they having known of the salutary and healing effects of DR. WM. HALL'S BALSAM FOR THE LUNGS, sent her a quantity, in sealed cans, by mail, and on her taking it as prescribed, the effect exceeded all expectations, so that she was raised up from a bed of sickness, and was enabled to visit her friends in the East. We think it was a remarkable cure, and give it for the benefit of the afflicted. Our brother walked one hundred and fifty miles in Northern Michigan to take her a quart of the Balsam."

Allen Curtis, Justice of the Peace, Madison, N. Y., testifies to the reliability and veracity of the Messrs. Lane.

MR. ZIMRI PERRIGS, JR., Murray, Orleans county, N. Y., makes the following statement:

"Some four years ago I was taken with Hemorrhage of the Lungs. I bled very freely, and became very low. My physician, after trying some time, concluded he could do me no more good. I was induced to try your DR. WM. HALL'S BALSAM FOR THE LUNGS, and before I had used the first bottle I was able to walk about the house. By persevering in its use, it finally effected a permanent cure."

REV. WM. M. OSBORNE, Lisbon, Maryland, minister of the Baltimore Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, writes us:

"I have used DR. WM. HALL'S BALSAM FOR THE LUNGS for a bronchial affection, during the last three or four years, with the most beneficial results, and do not hesitate to commend it to all who may be suffering from irritation of the throat and lungs as a medicine worthy the confidence of a discriminating public. A thorough and persevering trial of DR. HALL'S BALSAM will seldom fail of giving permanent and satisfactory relief."

DR. WARREN'S TONIC CORDIAL,

THE GREAT INVIGORATOR,

For Exciting the Appetite and Promoting Good Digestion, and for the Cure of Dyspepsia, Fever and Ague, Biliousness, Constipation, Chronic Diarrhea, Heartburn, Flatulence, Acid Eructations, Nervous Debility, Hypochondria, Sallowness of the Complexion, and a General Prostration of the Physical Powers.

THIS valuable preparation is purely a medicinal compound, and not a "bitters," and is intended to supply a want long felt, by furnishing an agreeable and efficient TONIC and INVIGORATOR as a substitute for those Bitter Stomachics with which the country is flooded, and are only suited to the depraved taste of the habitual drinker, and are too repulsive to the palate and debilitated stomach of the invalid and convalescent. It is composed of the most efficacious tonics and alteratives known to the materia medica. These are so combined with grateful aromatic tonics as to furnish a remedy of remarkable efficacy, and at the same time as agreeable to the taste as the most delicious beverage. It has no superior in its power to bring out the latent vigor of the constitution, to develop its stamina, to call its vitality into full play, and thoroughly arouse the vis medicatrix naturæ, the power of throwing off disease, by which the system is braced up and fortified against unwholesome influences. Owing to this great virtue, it will prove valuable as a preventive of Fever and Ague, Intermittent and Bilious Remittent Fevers, and all the diseases incident to a malarious climate. The dyspeptic will find it a sure relief for his painful and harassing disease, and all those consequent disagreeable affections which imbitter his existence and render life a burden. In CHRONIC DIARRHEA and DYSENTERY, after inflammation is subdued, it will have the most beneficial influence, and yields to no remedy in its curative power in these diseases. TONIC CORDIAL has proved remarkably efficacious in the COLIC and DIARRHEA of young children. To clergymen, lawyers, merchants, and all persons engaged in sedentary pursuits, DR. WARREN'S TONIC CORDIAL will prove a never-failing source of relief from the overpowering sense of exhaustion, from which they too often suffer. It will revive the fading spirits, quicken the dull and clouded intellect, and impart new life and vigor to the worn-out and exhausted physical powers.

Delicate females will find it a pleasant and decidedly efficacious remedy for nervousness, languor, and debility, and those peculiar affections under whose baneful influence the whole system becomes enervated, the nervous energy is exhausted, the strength declines, the form is attenuated, and the skin becomes sallow and the blood impoverished. The free use of it in such cases will drive away lassitude and ennui, by an increased flow of animal spirits, impart cheerfulness and buoyancy to the feelings, awaken new life and energy in the whole body, and by strengthening the nutritive functions and enriching the blood, will beautify the form and suffuse the complexion with the delicate bloom of youth and health. From its peculiar alterative effect upon the skin, it will prove superior to any mere cosmetic in removing those disagreeable and unsightly pimples and blotches that mar the beauty in the skin of so many persons.

In short, the TONIC CORDIAL will prove a valuable remedy in all diseases characterized by debility and want of power, and in all states of the constitution where the vital forces are held in abeyance for want of sufficient stimulus to force them into action.

Circassian Hair Restorative.

The Most Successful Discovery of the Age for Restoring Gray Hair to its Original Color, for promoting a Healthy and Luxuriant Growth, and imparting a Soft, Silken, and Lustrous Appearance to this Crowning Beauty of the Person.

THE successful use of this preparation for many years has demonstrated beyond a doubt its great superiority as a HAIR RENEWER and HAIR RESTORER. It is complete in itself, combining all the essential requisites of a HAIR RENEWER and INVIGORATOR, a HAIR RESTORER, and a HAIR BEAUTIFIER and DRESSER. It is not a dye, and is entirely free from mineral caustic, which is instantaneous in its effects, and destroys the vitality of the hair, leaving it wiry, harsh, and disagreeable. It keeps the scalp clean and entirely free from scurf and dandruff, and drives away humors and eruptions of every kind, prevents the hair from falling out, and restores gray hair to its original color. It is not only harmless in its effects, but, on the contrary, exercises a healthy influence upon the scalp and its tissues, and imparts life, beauty, and luxuriance to the hair. It is highly perfumed, and is cleanly to use, as it will not stain the skin or the finest cambric. The CIRCASSIAN HAIR RESTORER comes nearer perfection than any other preparation of the kind before the public. It has been subject to tests that conclusively prove that nothing yet discovered surpasses it as a HAIR DRESSER and HAIR RENEWER. For all the purposes for which it has been recommended it has not been excelled. Inquire for the CIRCASSIAN HAIR RESTORATIVE, and do not suffer the dealer to palm any other preparation on you in its place, by saying it is the same thing or is just as good. Read the subjoined testimonials of its unrivaled excellence:

MRS. ELLIE J. KIRK, Forestville, Bucks county, Penn., writes us January 27, 1867:

"While on a visit in Ohio, last Summer, a friend recommended your CIRCASSIAN HAIR RESTORATIVE very highly. I procured a bottle, and having found, by using it, that it surpasses any hair-dressing I have ever used, I am very anxious to get more. Mr. Kirk has frequent calls for it in his store, and desires to know if you have an agent in Philadelphia where it could be had at wholesale."

MRS. T. SOMERLOTT, West Fayette-street, Baltimore, writes us, March 31, 1868:

"My brother has tried your CIRCASSIAN HAIR RESTORATIVE, and finds it to be as good, in every respect, as is recommended. He speaks so highly of it—as my hair is getting thin—I have come to the conclusion to give it a trial. I want you to send me six bottles as soon as possible."

Dr. Mott's Vegetable Liver Pills.

THE BEST CATHARTIC OF ANY AGE OR COUNTRY.

THESE Pills are free from calomel or any of the salts of mercury, and composed entirely of the active principles of vegetable substances. They are made of extracts and resino-extractive substances, each having its specific effect, and therefore fulfilling a different indication, and yet their relative proportions so combined as to produce a general and harmonious action throughout the whole alimentary canal, entirely free from nausea, vomiting, and griping pains, those disagreeable concomitants of most cathartics. They are superior to any other cathartic in respect to the strength and medicinal virtues of these ingredients. Through the curative influence of some one of these ingredients every functional disorder of any of the digestive or assimilative organs is reached and corrected. They have the same alterative effect upon the Liver and biliary organs as calomel and blue pills, without the deleterious consequences to the system that too often result from the use of these dangerous minerals. Through their penetrating power they cleanse every part of the abdominal viscera. They purge the bowels of their vitiated contents, restore the secretions, and remove obstructions. They promptly relieve inactivity of the Liver and torpidity of the Bowels, the frequent causes of DYSPEPSIA, with all its distressing accompaniments of heartburn, flatulence, sick headache, variable and uncertain appetite, and vomiting up of the food. They strengthen and invigorate the system by straining out of the blood those impurities which deaden and benumb the vital energies. There is no subtile poison infiltrating the system that can elude the searching power of DR. MOTT'S LIVER PILLS. Their healthful and curative effects commence with the stomach and extend to the whole digestive and assimilative functions. They are equally adapted to the most delicate woman or child or to the strongest man. They can be advantageously substituted for any of the ordinary family purgatives, such as rhubarb, castor-oil, salts, senna, etc., from the fact that a compound, consisting of several purgatives—if they are judiciously selected and combined—will operate with greater power and efficacy, and with less pain than when any of them is taken singly. Their pre-eminent virtues are due to this skillful combination, and have been tried and acknowledged in thousands of instances. They are of universal adaptation to all the ailments that affect the human family. On account of their safety, mildness, and efficacy, we commend them to all who desire a reliable Family Pill. They should be found in every family and by the bedside of the sick throughout the land.

DR. BAKER'S PAIN PANACEA.

The Greatest Discovery of the Age for the relief of Pain.

IT IS USED BOTH INTERNALLY AND EXTERNALLY.

THIS valuable remedy is composed of those healing germs and essential vegetable oils which the experience of two thousand years in medical science has demonstrated to be the best for allaying pain and irritation. It is a healthy stimulant for wounds, bruises, and sores, a powerful rubefacient and counter-irritant, a superior carminative for removing flatulence, an excellent anodyne for quieting morbid irritability, and a reliable antispasmodic for the relief of local spasmodic contractions of the muscles. As an internal remedy it has never been excelled, owing to its healing, balsamic properties, and its powerful sedative influence upon the nervous system. It has been employed for many years by the afflicted in all parts of the country with unparalleled success. It has received the indorsement of eminent physicians, who have, unsolicited, testified to its superior excellence. DR. BAKER'S PAIN PANACEA has never been surpassed as a remedy for DIARRHŒA, CRAMPS, COLIC, and DYSENTERY. It should be taken internally, in doses repeated more or less frequently, according to the severity of the symptoms, and at the same time used externally by occasional frictions over the abdomen with a flannel cloth saturated with it. In rheumatism it will be found highly beneficial in relieving the swelling and acute pain, by bathing the affected parts with it. In the chronic forms of rheumatism it can also be given internally with great benefit, as the gum resins which enter into its composition have a specific curative influence upon the fibrous tissues. A dose or two of DR. BAKER'S PAIN PANACEA will generally relieve the severest attack of sick headache. It is admirably adapted to the relief of a wide range of diseases where pain is a predominant symptom. Its past triumphs, and what it is daily accomplishing in the cure of disease, invites the increased confidence of community, and is a sufficient warrant for those laboring under painful local diseases to give it a fair trial. It is an indispensable necessity in every family who desire to provide themselves with a reliable remedy for all ailments requiring a Pain Destroyer.

SCOVILL'S

COMPOUND EXTRACT SARSAPARILLA AND STILLINGIA, OR

BLOOD AND LIVER SIRUP,

Scrofula or King's Evil, White Swelling, Ulcers, Goiter or Swelled Neck, Chronic Rheumatism, Scrofulous Inflammations and Indolent Tumors, Mercurial Affections, Erysipelas, Dyspepsia, Epileptic Fits, Liver Complaint, Old Sores, etc.

A LARGE proportion of the chronic and obstinate diseases that afflict mankind have their origin in an impure state of the blood, or a depraved condition of the system, caused by some subtile virus that pervades and permeates every part of it, and poisons the very fountains of life, such as scrofulous, mercurial, and syphilitic poison. For these diseases Nature has bountifully provided in her great laboratory ample remedies. We make no unwarranted assertion when we say that SCOVILL'S BLOOD AND LIVER SIRUP is composed of the most powerful alteratives that the vegetable kingdom has yet furnished to the scientific discoveries and researches of the healing art. And from this class of remedial agents we have selected only those which the records and traditions of medical science have demonstrated to be the most successful in relieving inveterate diseases arising from impurities of the blood, or from a tainted and corrupted condition of the system transmitted from parents to their offspring. No trouble and expense has been spared in consulting the most authentic works in medicine, and availing ourselves of the practical information of the most skillful physicians and of the co-operation of competent chemists, to furnish the community a remedy superior to any ever before offered to their notice, and one that will not disappoint the just expectations of the afflicted. It is superior to all other remedies in eradicating that unseen scrofulous virus that is only recognized by its disastrous ravages upon the system. It exerts a powerful influence in reducing scrofulous tumors and enlargements which, if left to themselves, end in exhausting abcesses that sap the foundations of life. It has a magical power in purging the blood of all impurities. It has proven itself highly beneficial in all those multiform complaints in women resulting from female irregularities. It improves the complexion by driving away all pimples, blotches, and corruption of every kind. We confidently believe no other remedy of the same character has performed so many marvelous cures in the same time. No one suffering from chronic disease should rest satisfied till he has given it a full and fair trial.

Read the testimony of those who have witnessed the wonderful curative effects of the BLOOD AND LIVER SIRUP:

DR. J. W. STOUT, Elkader, Iowa, writes, and among other things says:

"I have practiced medicine for seventeen years. My rides embrace a circuit of twenty miles, and I am free to say I have never recommended any proprietary medicine except SCOVILL'S BLOOD AND LIVER SIRUP. Intimately acquainted with its constituents, and knowing it to be an excellent medicine, I have not only used it in my practice, but have recommended it in many instances, and it will be safe to say that it has been the means of doing more good than any other single preparation."

REV. WILLIAM LEIGH, Oneonta, N. Y., writes:

"With feelings of gratitude, I avail myself of the opportunity of returning you thanks for timely relief to my wife, who has been afflicted with—as my physician terms it—lumbar abcess, and was deemed incurable. For three years she has been unable to walk, when she was advised to try your BLOOD AND LIVER SIRUP, and judge of her surprise, as well as that of all her friends, that with the use of only five bottles, she is nearly well. She had been given up to die on two different occasions, but, thanks to a merciful Providence, she has, through the good effects of your invaluable medicine, been restored to health and strength."

REV. SAMUEL K. HOSHOUR, of Indianapolis, Ind., an eminent divine of the Christian Church, writes us:

"For a number of years I laborod under bodily debility, was reduced in flesh, and low in spirits. Accidentally one of your Almanacs fell into my hands, and in hastily glancing over its contents, your BLOOD AND LIVER SIRUP arrested my attention. I immediately resolved to procure a bottle and use it. I have consumed eight or ten bottles, and have received great benefit from it. My skin is much improved, my strength greatly increased, and my whole being, to a great degree, renovated. I do not hesitate to recommend it to all who need pure blood and invigoration of all their physical powers."

PART I.

FIRST DAY.

Wednesday, August 24, 1870.

THE CINCINNATI ANNUAL CONFERENCE of the Methodist Episcopal Church began its nineteenth session in Piqua, Ohio, this morning, at half-past eight o'clock; Bishop E. S. Janes presiding; our venerable senior Bishop Morris being also present.

After a prayer-meeting of half an hour's continuance, led by Dr. J. F. Wright, Bishop Morris read the fourth chapter of Second Corinthians, and announced the first hymn, after the singing of which he led the devotions of the Conference in prayer. Bishop Janes then took the chair, and the roll of the Conference was called by the Secretary of the former session, and the attendance of members was credited.

W. H. Sutherland was re-elected Secretary, G. H. Dart, D. J. Starr, D. C. Vance were re-elected Assistant Secretaries, and W. B. Moler was re-elected Statistical Secretary.

It was ordered that the daily sessions of the Conference begin at 8 o'clock, and close at 11½, A. M., and that a morning prayer-meeting be held at 6 o'clock.

T. Lee was elected Reporter for the Cincinnati Commercial, and J. F. Loyd for the Cincinnati Enquirer. S. Scott was recognized as Reporter for the Dayton Journal, also J. B. Quinby for the Cincinnati Times, and Charles Orr for the Cincinnati Gazette.

It was resolved that the Managers of the Preachers' Relief Society and Conference Stewards hold joint meetings at their own discretion.

W. I. Fee, W. Simmons, and M. P. Gaddis were appointed a Committee on the Work of Local Preachers, and documents relating to the subject were referred to them.

On motion of Dr. Lowrey, a Committee was ordered on the Moral Character and Tendency of County and State Fairs and Popular Amusements.

W. Fitzgerald, A. U. Beall, J. T. Bail, J. F. Marlay, L. Clark, C. W. Ketcham, S. D. Clayton, Jacob Chambers, H. De Camp, and C. W. Rowland were appointed said Committee.

The Rules of Order of the last session were adopted.

Dr. Lowrey moved to instruct the Committee on Church Extension to consider the practicability of doing something to aid the Grace Methodist Episcopal Church of this city. Carried.

J. W. Weakley moved a Committee on Sunday-School Psalmody. On motion of L. F. Van Cleve, the subject of Psalmody was referred to the Committee on Sunday-Schools.

The Committee on Public Worship announced that Wm. Simmons would preach a Semi-centennial sermon at 3 o'clock this afternoon, and that W. X. Ninde would preach this evening.

Certain papers on the subject of the Soldiers' Orphan Home were referred to the Committee on Sunday-Schools.

Certain documents were also referred to the Committees on Education and Public Worship.

The Eleventh Question was taken up.

L. F. Van Cleve, presiding elder, represented the East Cincinnati district, and his character was passed.

The characters of C. Ferguson, C. W. Ketcham, D. C. Vance, J. W. Fowble, J. Stephenson, W. N. Williams, J. Murray, S. Weeks, W. Runyan, J. S. Peregrine, N. C. Parrish, J. J. Hill, W. Q. Shannon, J. F. Wright, R. S. Rust, J. M. Walden, E. House, F. S. De Hass, and C. A. Brooke were passed, the Bishop calling upon those in charge of appointments to report the amount of the collections taken for Missions, Conference Claimants, and Church Extension.

The characters of W. Routledge and S. L. Yourtee were passed, and they were granted a superannuated relation.

J. F. Chalfant, presiding elder, represented the West Cincinnati district, and his character was passed.

The characters of W. X. Ninde, J. J. Thompson, G. H. Dart, L. Clark, J. Pearson, A. Bowers, Wm. B. Moler, C. H. Lawton, J. S. Pumphrey, W. I. Fee, L. H. Bugbee, Thos. Lee, J. W. M'Gregor, B. Kelley, and M. P. Gaddis were passed, the brethren in charge reporting their collections.

E. F. Hill's character was passed, and he was given a supernumerary relation without work.

The Conference ordered a draft of $30 on the Chartered Fund.

J. Kendall, presiding elder, represented the Hillsboro district, and his character was passed.

The time of the session was extended for a special purpose.

Brother Kendall stated the case of J. L. Gregg, and, on motion, it was referred to a Select Number of nine, to be appointed by the Chair.

After the giving of notices, the Conference adjourned with the benediction by Dr. Lowrey.

SECOND DAY.

Thursday Morning, August 25, 1870.

Conference opened with the usual religious services, led by Rev. W. Simmons, who, at the request of Bishop Janes, took the chair.

On motion, the call of absent members was ordered.

On motion, it was ordered that the morning prayer-meeting be held at 7½ o'clock.

The Committee on Public Worship announced that W. W. Ramsay will preach the Conference Missionary sermon this afternoon at 3 o'clock.

The Second Question was taken up.

The characters of O. A. Brown, A. L. Howren, T. D. W. Peak, S. N. Marsh, E. Burdsall, and W. A. Robinson were passed, and they were continued on trial.

E. Burdsall and A. L. Howren having been reported deficient in some of their studies, they were requested to prepare for examination on such studies next year.

Rev. brothers Hall and Hopkins, of Piqua, and Donelson, Whitlock, Maltby, Ashton, and Wykes, of the Central Ohio Conference, were introduced to the Conference.

A resolution was adopted tendering the thanks of the Conference to the proprietor of the Adams County Mineral Springs, for his kindness to our late brother, W. S. Hartley. (See page .25)

Brother Ketcham presented a resolution relating to District Conferences, which was adopted. (See page 24.)

C. W. Ketcham, W. X. Ninde, A. U. Beall, J. F. Conrey, W. Young, S. D. Clayton, and W. J. Quarry were appointed a Committee on this subject.

Certain papers were referred to the Committee on Education.

The Third Question was taken up; H. Wren, N. Prince, J. R. Hunter, and Alphonso E. Higgins were called forward, and after suitable religious exercises, the Bishop asked the disciplinary questions, to which the candidates gave satisfactory responses. The Bishop then delivered an impressive address on the responsibilities and duties of the Christian Ministry, after which the reports of the Examining Committees and the representations of their presiding elders were made.

On motion of A. Meharry, the Bishop was requested by the Conference to question the candidates as to their use of tobacco. Three of them answered that they did not use it, and the fourth replied "not regularly." They were then admitted into full connection.

H. Wren, J. R. Hunter, and A. E. Higgins were elected to deacon's orders, N. Prince having been ordained. N. Prince was requested to present a sermon for this year, at his next examination.

The Fourth Question, "Who are the Deacons?" was taken up.

After the report of the Examining Committee and the representations of the presiding elders, in their cases, and those in charge having reported their benevolent collections, the characters of Edward T. Wells, C. T. Crum, F. G. Mitchell, and C. F. Gowdy were passed.

The Bishop announced the following members as the Select Number in the case of J. L. Gregg: W. Young, W. E. Hines, J. C. Deem, P. A. Ogden, H. Stokes, S. W. Edmiston, J. G. Black, A. U. Beall, and S. B. Smith.

W. H. Lawder was appointed to preside. A. M. Griffith was elected an Assistant Secretary, and assigned to serve with the Committee.

The Fifth Question, "Who have been Elected and Ordained Elders?" was taken up, and, after the reports of the Examining Committee and the representations of their elders, the characters of J. W. Peters, R. E. Smith, A. D. Raleigh, and A. Hamilton were passed, and they were elected to elder's orders. The character of F. M. Clemens was also passed; but he had been previously ordained an elder.

The Eleventh Question was taken up, and the characters of J. F. Marlay, G. M. Edgar, W. Webster, J. H. Middleton, S. D. Clayton, H. M. Keck, N. M'Donald, M. P. Zink, I. Neff, and N. Callender were passed. N. Callender was granted a superannuated relation. The characters of J. Armstrong and D. Copeland were also passed.

W. Webster requested and was granted a superannuated relation.

A collection was ordered and taken for Rev. N. Callender, amounting to $82.

The Eleventh Question was taken up.

A. Lowrey, presiding elder, represented the Springfield district, and his character and that of the following brethren was approved: S. A. Brewster, T. Collett, W. Fitzgerald, J. F. Conrey, W. H. Sutherland, T. J. Harris, J. G. Black, J. C. Deem, W. B. Jackson, D. Whitmer, H. M. Curry, L. D. M'Cabe, and J. Shinn.

M. Dustin, presiding elder, represented his district, and his character and that of the following brethren was passed: W. W. Ramsay, G. C. Crum, J. B. Ellsworth, G. H. Kennedy, T. S. Cowden, J. P. Shultz, G.

W. Kelly, E. P. James, A. U. Beall, M. A. Richards, S. B. Smith, D. J. Starr, C. T. Frame, S. W. Carey, H. Stokes, A. Meharry, F. Hypes, M. G. Baker, and W. Herr.

In all the foregoing cases the Bishop asked whether the Disciplinary rule on Missions had been observed.

S. Weeks, from the Board of Stewards, read the preliminary estimates of the Board for Conference claimants, and announced the time of the next meeting of the Board.

On motion of J. P. Shultz, the name of J. Boucher was added to the list of Conference claimants.

A communication in relation to J. W. Keely was read by the Secretary and referred to the Conference Stewards.

J. F. Wright represented to the Conference his work as its Evangelist.

J. F. Loyd presented a resolution relating to the holding of Sunday-school conferences, which was adopted. (See page 25.)

W. L. Hypes, from the Church Extension Committee, reported in relation to the assistance of Grace Church. The report was accepted, and so much of it as recommended that the Church Extension Board of the Conference appropriate to Grace Church, from the Church Extension funds, of which the Conference has a right to dispose, to the extent of one thousand dollars, was adopted.

At their own request the Committee on Church Extension was discharged, the Board of Church Extension being expected to transact all the business relating to that subject.

The Eighth Question, "Who are the Superannuated Preachers?" was taken up.

The characters of the following brethren were passed, and they were continued in the superannuated relation: J. Barton, J. W. Stone, J. W. Keely, D. D. Davisson, D. Kemper, J. M'D. Mathews, W. I. Ellsworth, B. Glasscock, W. N. Maxey, D. Callahan, A. Murphy, E. H. Field, R. Brandriff, P. A. Ogden, J. Boucher, T. A. G. Phillips.

The case of A. Murphy was referred to the Preachers' Aid Society.

W. E. Hines reported $42.57 Missionary money, his character was passed, and he was made effective.

The Seventh Question was taken up: "Who are the Supernumerary Preachers?"

The characters of the following brethren were passed and they were continued in a supernumerary relation: D. H. Sargent, M. J. Cramer, Geo. Parrott, M. G. Purkhiser, and James Manning.

The characters of S. Brown and L. P. Miller were passed and they were granted a superannuated relation.

The characters of D. Warnock, A. B. Wambaugh, and J. L. Grover were approved and they were made effective.

J. S. Peregrine was granted leave of absence.

On motion, the Conference proceeded to fix the place of its next session. Grace Church of Dayton, Middletown, and Eaton were each put in nomination. After representations of the different places, Grace Church, Dayton, was selected by vote of the Conference.

The time of the session was extended, and the call of the Conference roll was ordered to obtain subscriptions for Hillsboro Female College from those who did not subscribe last year. The roll was so called.

After the giving of notices, Conference adjourned with the benediction by Dr. J. W. Weakley.

FOURTH DAY.

Saturday Morning, August 27, 1870.

Conference was opened at eight o'clock, Bishop Janes presiding. R. A. Arthur read the 133d and 134th Psalms, and led the devotions of the Conference in prayer.

R. A. Arthur presented a resolution signed by seven members, asking the appointment of a committee to consider the propriety of establishing a Cincinnati Conference camp-meeting. The resolution was adopted, and C. Ferguson, J. J. Thompson, A. Meharry, W. H. Sutherland, M. Kauffman, S. D. Clayton, and R. A. Arthur were appointed said committee.

A resolution was adopted requesting Rev. W. Simmons to publish his Semi-Centennial Sermon delivered before the Conference, and pledging the members to assist in its circulation.

By request of the Secretary, a committee, consisting of S. Weeks, J. T. Bail, and L. Clark, was appointed to audit the Minutes' accounts of the Secretary.

C. W. Ketcham presented the report of the Committee on Fairs and Popular Amusements, which was adopted and ordered to be published in the Western Christian Advocate.

M. Dustin presented a resolution authorizing the Trustees of Casstown Church, Dayton district, to sell their church property. Adopted. (See page 22.)

On motion of L. F. Van Cleve, similar authority was given to the Trustees of the Walnut Hills Church with regard to their old church property, the proceeds to be applied to the new church.

On motion, the old Board of Church Extension was re-elected.

S. Weeks, from the Board of Stewards, read the second report of the estimates of the Board.

By action of Conference, the cases of N. Callender, D. Warnock, Mrs. Gatch, and J. Shinn were referred to the Board for the favorable consideration of their claims. L. P. Miller's name was ordered to be placed on their list as a superannuate.

J. F. Conrey presented a resolution requiring claimants on Conference funds to furnish a written statement of their financial condition. Referred to the Board of Stewards.

The Board of Stewards was granted leave of absence, and the time of their next meeting was announced.

Dr. Wm. Butler, Secretary of the American and Foreign Christian Union, Rev. L. H. Bugbee, D. D., and Dr. J. M. Trimble, were introduced to the Conference.

Dr. Rust presented the report of the Committee on Education. After reading, the parts relating to the different institutions were adopted, and the report, as a whole, was then adopted.

Dr. Trimble, by request, addressed the Conference in relation to the Ohio Wesleyan University. On motion of Dr. J. W. Weakley, Dr. Trimble was invited to visit the charges of the Conference in behalf of the University, assuring him of our co-operation.

J. W. Weakley moved the appointment of a committee to inquire into the condition of the Springfield High School, and report at the next annual session. Carried. J. W. Weakley, A. Lowrey, and J. F. Conrey were appointed said committee.

The call for recommendation of local preachers for deacon's orders being made, J. F. Chalfant presented the recommendation of George Warrington, from the quarterly conference of Finley Chapel, and of Henry Miller, from Cumminsville. After the reports of the Examiners and the representations of the elder, they were elected.

James Kendall presented the recommendations of Wm. Henry Cole and Jonah Cadwalader, who, after the reports of the Examiners and due representation, were elected.

W. Simmons moved that those of this class deficient in the disciplinary studies, be required to pass examination in such studies next year. Adopted.

Rev. Dr. Butler, on the invitation of the Bishop, addressed the Conference in relation to the purpose and operations of the American and Foreign Christian Union.

On motion, a committee, consisting of W. Fitzgerald, A. B. Wambaugh, and S. B. Smith, was appointed to confer with Dr. Butler on this subject.

Dr. Walden, Assistant Agent of the Western Methodist Book Concern, addressed the Conference in relation to our publishing interests.

The Board of Stewards presented their final report, which was adopted.

The session was extended for a special purpose.

The call of the Conference roll for subscriptions for Conference Minutes was had, and over nine thousand was subscribed for on condition that they could be furnished at five cents per copy.

On motion of M. Dustin, J. B. Ellsworth was granted a superannuated relation.

J. W. M'Gregor was given a supernumerary relation without work.

On motion of J. F. Conrey, it was ordered that suitable envelopes for the Missionary money of the Conference be provided.

The journal was read and approved, and after the giving of notices, Conference adjourned with the doxology and benediction by Dr. Moody.

FIFTH DAY.

Monday Morning, August 29, 1870.

Conference opened at 8 o'clock, Bishop Janes in the chair. The usual religious services were led by Rev. G. Moody, D. D.

The Eleventh Question was resumed.

The report of the Select Number in the case of J. L. Gregg, acquitting him of the charges presented against him, was read by the Secretary, and the character of J. L. Gregg was passed.

Dr. A. J. Kynett, Secretary of the Church Extension Society, addressed the Conference in relation to its interests, after which the report was adopted.

W. L. Hypes presented a paper providing that the apportionment of the $5,000, to be raised by the charges of the Conference for the Church Extension Society, be made by the presiding elders. Adopted. (See page 24.)

J. J. Thompson read the report of the Committee on Parsonages, which was adopted.

J. W. Fowble read the report of the disbursements of the Preachers' Relief Society.

On motion of J. F. Loyd, it was ordered to be published in the Minutes, with the report of the Stewards.

The report of the Committee on the Bethel Cause was read and adopted.

The report of the Committee on the Observance of the Sabbath was read and adopted.

The Committee on Sabbath-Schools presented their report, which, after being slightly amended, was adopted.

On motion of W. L. Hypes, the vote recommending the appropriation of Church Extension Funds to Grace Church, was reconsidered, and by vote of the Conference it was resolved that a collection for Grace Church be taken in our charges on the last Sabbath in September, or the first Sabbath in October.

Dr. Walden offered a resolution requesting the re-appointment of Dr. Rust to the Secretaryship of the Freedmen's Aid Society. Adopted. (See page 25.)

On motion, the Constitution and Treasurer's Report of the Preachers' Relief Society were ordered to be published in the Minutes.

J. F. Marlay presented the report of the Committee on Periodicals, which was accepted. Drs. Merrill, Wiley, and Walden, on invitation, addressed the Conference in relation to the subject, after which, and remarks from several brethren, the report was adopted.

A. U. Beall presented the report of the Committee on the Bible Cause, which was adopted.

Dr. Wright now called the attention of the Conference to a particular and very interesting item of business, and in behalf of the members of the Conference, addressed Dr. W. H. Sutherland, assuring him of the appreciation of his services by the Conference as its Secretary, and presenting him, as an expression of this esteem, a handsome silver service, this being the occasion of his silver wedding. The Secretary made brief but touching remarks of grateful acknowledgment.

The Committee appointed to audit the Minutes' accounts of the Secretary reported. Report adopted.

Rev. Dr. Merrick, President of the Ohio Wesleyan University, addressed the Conference briefly in relation to its interests.

On motion, the time was extended to hear the report of the Conference Stewards and attend to the distribution of its appropriations.

On motion of Dr. Walden, it was agreed that when we adjourn, we adjourn to meet at 2 o'clock, P. M.

Rev. brother M'Gaw, pastor of the Presbyterian Church of Urbana, was introduced to the Conference.

The Special Number appointed in the case of J. L. Gregg submitted their findings to the Conference as follows:

We find:

1. That the charges and specifications were not sustained.

2. That while nothing is sustained by the evidence implicating his moral or Christian character, we do find a want of caution in the business transaction in connection with which complaint is made, in that the conditions were oral, and other portions written. We therefore admonish him of the importance of greater care in the future.

S. W. EDMISTON, A. U. BEALL,
J. C. DEEM, P. A. OGDEN,
W. E. HINES, H. STOKES.
W. YOUNG,
S. B. SMITH, W. H. LAWDER, President.
J. G. BLACK, A. M. GRIFFITH, Secretary.

The journal was read and approved, and Conference adjourned with the benediction.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

Monday, August 29, 1870.

Conference opened at 2 o'clock, Rev. William Young presiding at the request of Bishop Janes. Rev. P. A. Ogden led the usual devotional exercises.

M. A. Richards read the report of the Committee on Finance, which was adopted.

S. D. Clayton presented the report of the Committee on Conference Camp-Meeting, the first resolution of which, on motion of J. J. Thompson, was laid on the table.

W. J. Quarry presented the majority report of the Committee on District Conferences. The minority report was presented by C. W. Ketcham, and on motion of J. J. Thompson, both reports were accepted. After discussion by the brethren, on motion of S. A. Brewster, the whole subject of District Conferences was laid over until next year.

On motion, it was ordered that both reports on District Conferences be published in the Conference Minutes.

On motion, it was ordered that the memoir of Rev. Moses Smith, D. D., prepared by W. I. Fee, be published in the Minutes.

W. I. Fee offered a resolution relating to the removal of the remains of Dr. Smith, which was adopted. (See page 23.)

The report of the Committee on Memoirs being called for, W. Herr read the memoir of Rev. C. W. Swain. After remarks by brothers Simmons, Fitzgerald, Meharry, and Tibbits, the report was adopted.

Rev. S. Conrey read the memoir of Rev. A. W. Musgrove, which, after remarks by brothers Fitzgerald and M'Donald, was adopted.

C. Ferguson, W. I. Fee, and J. W. Fowble were appointed by the chair a Committee to carry out the resolution relating to the remains of Dr. Smith.

Rev. Dr. J. F. Wright read the memoir of Rev. Jesse Botkin, which, after remarks by W. Simmons and W. I. Fee, was adopted.

Rev. M. P. Gaddis read the memoir of Mrs. Catherine Walker, widow of Rev. George W. Walker. After the singing of two appropriate stanzas, the memoir was adopted.

Rev. W. Herr read the memoir of Mrs. Elizabeth L. Murphy, wife of Rev. A. Murphy, which, on motion, was adopted.

W. Herr offered a resolution, which was adopted, providing for the collecting of materials for memoirs in case of the death of any subject of Conference memoirs. (See page 24.)

On motion of A. W. Tibbits, Secretary of the Committee on Temperance, it was agreed that the report on Temperance be published without reading.

R. E. Smith presented the report of the Committee on the Tract Cause, which was adopted.

On motion, the report of the Treasurer of the Tract Cause was ordered to be published in the Minutes, without reading.

J. J. Thompson presented resolution in relation to transfer of W. X. Ninde, which was adopted by a rising vote. (See page 25.)

Resolutions of thanks, presented by J. J. Thompson, were adopted by a rising vote. (See page 25.)

On motion of W. L. Hypes, it was ordered that Circular No. 4 of the Church Extension Society be published in the Minutes.

Resolutions commending the organization of the Itinerant Women's Union, and appreciative of the services of Mrs. J. F. Willing, were adopted.

W. I. Fee presented the report of the Committee on the Local Preachers' Association, which was adopted.

The report of the Trustees of the Cincinnati Conference was adopted, and, on motion, the names of the Board ordered to be published in the Minutes.

The collection taken for the sexton amounted to $28.20.

Dr. J. M. Walden presented a paper in reference to the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society, which was adopted and ordered to be published in the Minutes and in the Western Christian Advocate.

Dr. J. F. Wright presented the report of the Committee on the Freedmen's Aid Society, which was adopted.

J. F. Chalfant asked that the relation of J. W. M'Gregor be changed to effective. The request was granted.

M. P. Gaddis asked a change of relation from effective to supernumerary. On motion of J. F. Chalfant, his request was granted.

J. Kendall asked that the relation of W. E. Hines be changed from effective to superannuated. The request was granted.

On motion, the Bishop was requested to appoint the Examining Committees for the next year, and at his request J. F. Chalfant read the appointments.

On motion of J. M. Walden, it was declared to be the sense of the Conference that candidates for examination should be present at the time appointed by the Examiners.

W. B. Moler presented the Statistical Report and read the footings to the Conference. The report was adopted.

J. F. Chalfant presented the report of the Committee on Missions, which was ordered to be filed.

The First Question, "Who are Admitted on Trial?" was taken up.

L. F. Van Cleve presented the recommendation of Andrew J. Hanna, from the quarterly conference of Bromfield-Street Church, Boston, and after the representations of the Examining Committee and the presiding elder, he was received.

Henry Miller, recommended by the quarterly conference of Spring Grove charge, after the representations of the Examining Committee and presiding elder, was received.

David D. Cheney, recommended by the quarterly conference of William-Street charge, Delaware, was also duly represented and received.

William M. Boyer, recommended by the quarterly conference of Laurel circuit, was also represented, and admitted.

Elisha C. Smith, from the quarterly conference of Centenary circuit, was also recommended, represented, and admitted.

John Wilson, from the Ludlow quarterly conference of the Kentucky Conference; Alonzo F. Hixson, from the quarterly conference of Harrison station, and James S. Whitney, from the quarterly conference of Aberdeen circuit, were also recommended, represented, and admitted.

Rev. Thomas Jefferson Euans, from the Methodist Church, was, on resolution, received as an elder into the Cincinnati Conference.

A. B. Wambaugh read a paper relating to religious education in our common schools, which was adopted, and ordered to be published in the Western Christian Advocate.

The publication of the report on the Freedmen's Aid Society, in the Western Christian Advocate, was ordered.

A vote of thanks was tendered to Mr. D. M. Flemming, for furnishing gratuitously to the Conference printed lists of the appointments.

The journal of the afternoon session was read and approved.

The Bishop then read a portion of the 28th chapter of Matthew, and announced the 712th hymn, in the singing of which the large audience present joined heartily with the Conference, and Rev. Dr. Kynett led in prayer.

A resolution, expressive of appreciation of the excellent services of Bishop Janes, was adopted by a rising vote of the Conference. (See page 22.)

The Bishop then briefly addressed the Conference and read the appointments, after which Conference adjourned with the doxology, and benediction by Bishop Janes.

CONFERENCE RESOLUTIONS.

Respect to Bishop Janes.

Resolved, by the Cincinnati Conference, That we do very highly appreciate the faithfulness, uniform kindness, and great ability with which our beloved Bishop Janes has presided over the sessions of our body; that we are devoutly thankful to Almighty God, for bringing him to us again after the absence of twelve years; and that we will accompany him on his pathway of future usefulness and responsibility with our sympathy and prayers; and that we assure him of our most cordial welcome whenever he shall again be assigned to the presidency of our Conference.

JAS. F. CHALFANT, W. H. SUTHERLAND,
D. J. STARR, A. LOWREY.

Cass Town Church.

Resolved, That the Trustees of the Methodist Episcopal Church, at Cass Town, Dayton district, are hereby authorized to sell their old church property, for the purpose of purchasing a lot in another locality and building a church thereon. M. DUSTIN.

Conference Camp-Meeting.

Resolved, That a committee of one from each district be appointed to consider, and report to this Conference, the practicability of establishing a Conference Camp-Meeting within the bounds of the Cincinnati Conference.

J. M. WALDEN,
R. S. RUST,
C. F. THOMAS,
J. F. WRIGHT,
R. A. ARTHUR,
WM. H. SUTHERLAND,
C. FERGUSON.

Woman's Foreign Missionary Society.

Resolved, That we heartily approve the objects and organization of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and welcome it as an adjunct of great power and utility to our General Missionary Society.

Resolved, That we will cheerfully co-operate with the officers and laborers of the Cincinnati Branch of this Society, and will give it all possible aid in accomplishing its purposes.

Resolved, That we appropriate space in our Minutes to the report of the collections of this Society.

Resolved, That we commend, especially to the women of our Church, "The Heathen Woman's Friend," the monthly organ of this Society, published in Boston, as a well-conducted paper, furnishing just such information as should be possessed by every Christian woman.

J. M. WALDEN,
A. B. WAMBAUGH.

Rev. Wm. Simmons.

Resolved, That our venerable and much beloved father in Israel, Wm. Simmons, be requested to publish his semi-centennial sermon, recently delivered before the Cincinnati Conference, and that we aid him in its circulation.

M. P. GADDIS, SEN.

Grace Church, Piqua.

Resolved, That a collection be taken in our charges, on the last Sabbath of September, or the first Sabbath of October, for the benefit of Grace Methodist Episcopal Church, Piqua.

W. L. HYPES.

Itinerant Women's Union.

1. Resolved, by the Cincinnati Conference, That we hail with gladness the organization of the Itinerant Women's Union, and that we heartily tender it our encouragement and support.

2. Resolved, That we highly appreciate the visit and excellent services of Mrs. J. F. Willing, which we have been permitted to enjoy.

D. J. STARR,
A. MEHARRY.

Removal of Remains of Dr. Smith.

Whereas, The remains of our beloved fellow-laborer, Rev. Moses Smith, D. D., now lie in the State of Iowa, while his wife and other members of his family are interred in the Xenia cemetery; therefore,

Resolved, That a committee of three be appointed to confer with his friends, and if desired by them, to have his remains removed to Xenia, and placed by the side of his wife; and that the expenses of his interment be paid by this Conference.

W. I. FEE,
J. W. FOWBLE.

Report of the Ohio Methodist Convention.

Resolved, That we recommend our people to circulate as far as possible the Report of the proceedings of the Ohio Methodist Convention shortly to be issued by J. G. Adell & Co.

R. S. RUST, J. KENDALL,
J. T. BAIL, S. D. CLAYTON.

Church Extension.

Resolved, That the presiding elders be requested to distribute for collection the sum of $5,000 among the several districts and pastoral charges, for the Church Extension Society, and to notify the several pastors and the Treasurer of the Conference Board of Church Extension, and that the pastors report the amount at our next Annual Conference in connection with their report of the missionary collections.

W. L. HYPES,
J. J. THOMPSON.

Claimants on Conference Funds.

Resolved, That claimants upon the funds of the Conference be required to furnish to the Estimating Committee of the quarterly-meeting conference, and to the Board of Stewards of the Annual Conference, a full statement in writing, annually, of their financial condition, and that no claim be considered without such financial statement.

J. FORD CONREY.

District Conferences.

Resolved, That a Committee of one from each presiding elder's district be appointed to consider the subject of "District Conferences," and to report to this Conference upon their expediency or desirableness, and also upon the propriety of petitioning the next General Conference for their adoption.

C. W. KETCHAM, G. H. DART,
L. F. VAN CLEVE, C. FERGUSON.

Memoirs.

Resolved, That in future, when in the providence of God any member or widow of this Conference shall die, it shall be the duty of the pastor, within whose charge the deceased may have lived, to collect all the facts usually embodied in memoirs, for the use of the "Committee on Memoirs," which may be appointed from time to time during the sessions of the Conference.

W. HERR, JOHN J. THOMPSON,
JAMES STEPHENSON, JOHN F. WRIGHT.

Sunday-School Conference.

Whereas, At the last session of the Ohio State Sunday-School Conference its Constitution was so changed as to require quadrennial instead of annual sessions; and,

Whereas, Said Conference recommended to the Annual Conferences of Ohio to consider the propriety of holding Sunday-School Conferences annually within their bounds; therefore,

Resolved, That the Committee on Sunday-Schools be instructed to inquire into the propriety of holding such a Conference.

L. F. VAN CLEVE,
J. F. LOYD.

Rev. W. X. Ninde.

Resolved, That, in the transfer of Rev. W. X. Ninde from this to the Detroit Conference, we part with him with great regret; and while we pray for the blessing of the great Head of the Church upon him in his new relations, we will welcome him gladly whenever in the providence of God he may be returned to us.

J. J. THOMPSON,
C. W. KETCHAM.

Mineral Springs.

Resolved, That the sincere thanks of this Conference be tendered to Byington Salisbury, the gentlemanly proprietor of the Mineral Springs, of Adams county, Ohio, for his liberality and kindness to the late Rev. William S. Hartley, in donating his entire board bill of six weeks and all his incidental expenses during his stay at the Springs.

Rev. R. S. Rust, D. D.

To the Bishops and Members of the Cincinnati Annual Conference:

You are hereby respectfully requested to re-appoint Rev. R. S. Rust D. D., as Corresponding Secretary of the Freedmen's Aid Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

I. W. WILEY, Vice-President.
J. M. WALDEN, Recording Secretary.

Thanks.

1. Resolved, That the thanks of the Cincinnati Conference are heartily tendered to the citizens of Piqua and vicinity for their generous hospitality, and to the officers and pastors of the churches for Christian and ministerial courtesies.

2. Resolved, That the thanks of the Conference are hereby tendered to those Railroad Companies whose officers have afforded us transportation at half-fare.

3. Resolved, That we duly appreciate the enterprise of the Cincinnati and other papers who have furnished reporters and published our proceedings.

4. Resolved, That we thank the trustees of Greene-Street for the use of their beautiful and convenient church, and that a collection be taken to pay the sexton for his excellent services.

J. J. THOMPSON,
WILLIAM H. LAWDER,
D. J. STARR.

Conference Stewards' Resolutions.

1. Resolved, That a sum equivalent to ten per cent. of the salaries paid in each presiding elder's district shall be the amount expected from the same, and the District Stewards are hereby requested to distribute the same to the respective charges, according to the ability of each.

2. Resolved, That we hereby pledge ourselves to present this claim to our people as early in the year as practicable, giving it that prominence its merits demand.

3. Resolved, That in the passage of character, each pastor shall be requested to report the amount of his collection, and in case of failure to meet the reasonable expectations of the Conference, shall be expected to give satisfactory reasons for such failure.

4. Resolved, That any pastor who may neglect to present this claim to his charge, or shall lightly excuse himself therefrom, will thereby expose himself to just censure.

5. Resolved, That Estimating Committees, in complying with the Discipline, page 270, request claimants to furnish to the Estimating Committee appointed by the quarterly conference, and to the Board of Stewards of the Annual Conference, a full statement, in writing, annually, on the first day of Conference, of their financial condition, and that no claim be considered without such financial statement.

S. WEEKS, Secretary. W. N. WILLIAMS, Chairman.

RULES OF ORDER.

1. AFTER the usual opening religious exercises, the Secretary shall read the miuutes of the previous session.

2. No motion shall be entertained by the Conference till such motion shall have been seconded.

3. All motions shall be reduced to writing, if desired by any member of the Conference.

4. Every member desiring to speak on any subject before the Conference, shall rise and address the President.

5. The member who first rises and addresses the President shall be entitled to the floor.

6. No member shall speak more than once on the same subject till all who may desire to speak shall have spoken; nor more than fifteen minutes at a time without leave of the Conference.

7. All questions of order shall be decided by the President, subject to an appeal to the Conference, without debate.

8. When any question is under debate, no motion shall be received but to adjourn, to lay on the table, to postpone, to commit, or to amend; but a motion to adjourn shall always be in order; and this, as well as a motion to lay on the table, shall be decided without debate.

9. If the question before the Conference be capable of division, upon the call of any member, such question shall be divided.

10. The business of the Conference shall be conducted with open doors, unless otherwise ordered by the Conference.

11. Any question may be reconsidered on the motion of any member who may have voted with the majority.

12. If any member call for the previous question, and such call shall be sanctioned by a two-thirds' vote of the Conference, the main question shall then be put.

13. Each Committee of the Conference shall choose its own chairman, unless the chairman be designated by the Conference or the President in the appointment of the committee.

14. The members of the Conference shall assemble in the Conference-room punctually at the hour to which the Conference adjourned, and no member shall absent himself from the place of Conference session without leave of absence.

15. In all practicable cases, when charges are preferred against a member of Conference, notice shall be given to the President on the first day of the session, that, if it be judged proper, his name may be called, and the case referred to a committee.

16. The vote on any question shall be taken by ayes and noes, upon the call of fifteen members.

1. That John R. Wright, of Cincinnati, be elected by this Conference to fill the vacancy in the Board of Trustees, for the term of five years, made by expiration of the term of office which he had filled.

2. That John Davis, M. D., of Cincinnati, be also elected to fill the vacancy in the Board of Trustees, for the term of five years, to be made June 22, 1871, by expiration of his term of office.

3. That Phineas P. Mast, of Springfield, be also elected to fill the vacancy in the Board of Trustees, made by the decease of Adam N. Riddle, Esq., for the remainder of the term of office to which he had been elected, which will expire June 22, 1874.

4. That the presiding Bishop be requested to re-appoint Rev. L. D. M'Cabe, D. D., Professor of Philosophy in the University.

5. That Revs. Wm. Young and C. W. Ketcham be the Visiting and Examining Committee to the University for the next year, and Revs. A. B. Wambaugh and S. A. Brewster be the alternates.

6. That we heartily approve of the proposition of Dr. Trimble, in which he offers to be one of thirty to give one thousand dollars each, for the endowment of a chair to be styled the "Thomson Professorship," intended as a memorial of its lamented President, and we trust that this Conference will promptly respond by taking its proportion of the proposed endowment.

7. Your Committee has heard with great pleasure that the Rev. Joseph Creighton, of the Ohio Conference, having resolved to plant on the grounds of the University a specimen of every shrub and tree that will grow in this climate, has labored in this enterprise for several years at great expense and encouraging success, and that Mr. J. R. Wright and Mr. P. P. Mast have recently employed a scientific gardener to lay out walks, and ornament the grounds in the most approved style: we therefore recommend that the Conference express to these gentlemen its gratitude and high appreciation of the enterprise commenced, and thus far so successfully prosecuted.

8. We commend the Ohio Wesleyan University to our people, believing it to be worthy of the highest confidence and the most liberal patronage. God has placed the seal of his approbation upon it. Many noble young men have here been converted, educated, called of God, and consecrated to the work of the Christian ministry. We ask for the University and its Faculty the sympathies, the prayers, and the liberal contributions of the Church, that they may successfully accomplish the mission intrusted to their care.

Cincinnati Wesleyan Female College.

This institution is in a flourishing condition. Two hundred and seventy pupils have been in attendance the past year. Thirteen States have been represented. Twenty professors and teachers have been employed.

The instruction has been thorough. Each pupil is classified only upon examination. The marking system has been abolished, and such incentives to a high grade of scholarship have been instituted as have, with the modes of government and discipline adopted, resulted in excellent attainments and order. The Trustees and government of the College are seeking to supply to the public as thorough and extensive an education for young women as can be obtained by young men in our literary institutions, giving, for graduation in the courses of study in the College, the same degrees.

The edifice is unsurpassed by any other single educational structure in the Church. It has cost, with furnishment, $130,000; the grounds are valued at $95,000, making the entire outlay $225,000.

The Committee offer for adoption the following:

1. That the Wesleyan Female College is worthy of a large patronage, the hearty indorsement of the preachers and people, and should become, from its history and facilities, one of the leading Colleges for young women in our denomination.

2. That we request the presiding Bishop to re-appoint Rev. Lucius H. Bugbee, D. D., President of the College for the ensuing year.

3. That the presiding elders of East and West Cincinnati districts, and the stationed preachers in Cincinnati be the Visiting and Examining Committee for the next year.

Hillsboro Female College.

We find this institution in a prosperous condition. The College is increasing in patronage, and in all respects is rapidly advancing. The grade of scholarship is high, the instruction thorough, and the social and religious influence salutary. Its location is healthful, its building commodious, and its grounds large and inviting. An unusually large class was graduated at the last Commencement; a fact that speaks well for the institution. The debt being now removed, it commences a new year unincumbered, and with the brightest prospects. We heartily commend it to the patronage of the Church.

1. We recommend that the presiding Bishop be requested to re-appoint Rev. David Copeland, A. M., President of the College.

2. That the presiding elder of Hillsboro district, and the stationed preachers at Hillsboro, Greenfield, and Wilmington, be the Visiting and Examining Committee for the coming year.

3. Whereas, The Committee appointed at the last session of this Conference, have, in their Report to the Conference, assured us that the property of the Hillsboro Female College is now clear of all mortgages, judgments, and liens; therefore,

4. Resolved, That, having assumed the payment of $3,500 upon the condition that the College will then be free of debt, we renew our determination to collect from our charges or pay ourselves the sums we have severally subscribed, according to the terms agreed upon at the last Conference, and that Rev. brother Chalfant be instructed to pay over the money to the Treasurer of the Board of Trustees of Hillsboro Female College.

Xenia Female College.

This College has realized another year of real prosperity under the Presidency of Wm. Smith, A. M., an experienced and successful educator. Two hundred pupils, during the year, have enjoyed its advantages. Its excellent Board of Instruction, commodious buildings, beautiful grounds, and healthful location, entitle it to a generous patronage.

We recommend that the presiding elder of the Xenia district, the preachers of Xenia, Lebanon, and Yellow Springs, and Grace Church, and Raper Chapel, at Dayton, be a Visiting and Examining Committee for the next year.

The Committee recommend that Rev. J. M. Walden, D. D., be appointed a Visitor to the Garrett Biblical Institute.

Whereas, The Board of Education of the Methodist Episcopal Church have requested this Conference to approve of their decision to make no distribution of the income from the Educational Fund until said Fund shall amount to $100,000; therefore we recommend the passage of the following resolution:

Resolved, That we express to that body our approval of their action in the case.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

REPORT ON THE FREEDMEN'S AID SOCIETY.

THIS Society has nearly completed its fourth year's labor, and the last year has been one of great success. More than one hundred teachers have been sustained in the field.

The following table will indicate its work and growth:

YEAR.	RECEIPTS.	SCHOOLS.	TEACHERS.	SCHOLARS.
1867	$37,139 89	26	52	5,000
1868	50,167 24	49	72	7,000
1869	93,513 50	60	105	10,000

Of the collections last year over $8,000 were contributed by the freedmen to build and sustain their schools. Not a small portion of it also was appropriated by the Freedmen's Bureau to aid in building school-houses and supporting teachers. The Society has been instrumental in putting over $120,000 into Normal and common-school buildings in the South. These buildings also furnish preaching places for our ministers. The Sunday-schools held in them are, to a large extent, sustained by our teachers, and last year they enrolled over 8,000 scholars. The work still grows—it brightens in promise—but at the same time its wants increase.

The first effort of the Society was to establish common schools for the colored people, just then emerging from slavery. But it was not slow to discover that to provide common-school education for the masses was a work too great to be effected by benevolent collections. Experience also soon taught the Society that if they could educate colored persons, and prepare them to take the field as teachers, they would be largely sustained by their own people.

The same was true in regard to ministers. The Church could not send a supply from abroad that would come near being adequate to the vast necessities of the case. They must be raised up at home, and spring from the people they were to serve. But in the case of both teachers and ministers, not only was it necessary to give them the ordinary education, but also to implant in their minds and hearts more correct views upon morals and virtue than had been learned under the system of slavery. Our work could not be complete without some permanent provision for the education of teachers and the training of young ministers. Hence the necessity of the Normal and Biblical schools. There are already seven of them established at central points in the South. Among the number is Thomson University, Parish of St. Mary, Louisiana.

These institutions are already beginning to supply ministers for our Southern Conferences, and sending teachers into the field. They ought not, they must not, be allowed to fail for the want of help. Shall the teachers we have in the field be sustained, or shall they be recalled? This question is to be answered by the ministry and membership of the Church. So vital are the issues, so pressing this work of humanity and of God, the Society has not found it possible to sound the first note of retreat. Nor will its officers and managers order those teachers to cease their labors until the fountains of benevolence are dried up and the people decline to furnish the needed aid. Such are their clear convictions of the necessity and importance of this work that they dare not do it.

Schools are an essential accompaniment to our missions every-where, and we need not expect success without them. Nowhere are they needed more than among the colored people of the South. Nowhere else are their fruits so speedily realized, and so abundant. Let a united and strong effort be made this year to sustain our schools. God has greatly blessed our labors in the past. The openings of his providence, and the force of circumstances, now conspire to urge us forward in the prosecution of this Godlike work, which may ultimately, in its far-reaching influence and power, contribute largely to evangelize the unnumbered millions of Africa. Friends of a down-trodden race, nobly struggling to lift itself up, lend your aid! Men of means! will you not give something to this work? Men of wealth! will you not put this claim of Christian charity in your large and liberal giving? The fruit of such giving shall live forever! Now is the time to act.

We submit the following for consideration and action:

Whereas, The Freedmen's Aid Society has been a most valuable auxiliary in sustaining our mission work in the South; and, whereas, the continuance of our schools is imperiously demanded for its permanent success; therefore,

Resolved, That we will cherish an increased interest in this enterprise, present its claims to our people, and urge them to contribute liberally to its support.

Resolved, That the success which has attended our schools and colleges in preparing young men for the ministry and others for teachers, is a source of gratification to the Church and ground of thanksgiving to God.

Resolved, That we request the presiding Bishop to re-appoint Rev. R. S. Rust, D. D., Corresponding Secretary of the Society.

Resolved, That we request our Bishop to appoint Rev. William Simmons Agent of the Society, and that we will welcome him to our fields of labor, co-operate with the Agent in collecting funds, and if he should not visit us we will lift the collection for the freedmen's school ourselves.

?CH EXTENSION SOCIETY OF THE METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH.

Office, No. 1018 Arch-Street, Philadelphia, Penn.

Officers.

HOP SIMPSON, D. D., President; ALPHA J. KYNETT, D. D., Cording Secretary; CHARLES C. M'CABE, A. M., Agent; A. H. DE N, ESQ., (No. 40 South 3d-St.,) Treasurer.

Organization.

Church Extension Society was organized by direction of the Gen- onference of 1864, and was incorporated by the Legislature of ylvania, March 13, 1865. On recommendation of the Board of ers, the Constitution was revised, and the Society more closely ied with the Church, by the General Conference of 1868. The r was revised to correspond, by the Legislature of Pennsylvania, 11, 1869.

Society embodies

THE GENERAL COMMITTEE OF CHURCH EXTENSION.—This meets

in Philadelphia in November of each year, and determines, for the year ensuing:

(1.) The amount the Church shall be asked to contribute through the regular collections;

(2.) The amount that may be appropriated by donations and loans; and,

(3.) The distribution of both Collections to be made and Appropriations authorized, among the Conferences severally.

Composed of one member from each Episcopal district acting jointly with the Bishops and Managers, this Committee is well calculated to secure an equitable distribution of the burdens and benefits of the Society.

2. THE PARENT BOARD OF MANAGERS.—This is charged with "the management and disposition of all the affairs and property of the Society." But in making appropriations it must recognize the limits fixed by the General Committee.

3. IN EACH CONFERENCE, THE CONFERENCE BOARD OF CHURCH EXTENSION.—This "has charge of all the interests and work of Church Extension within the bounds of the Conference." It should see that the amount asked of the Conference is distributed for collection among the several districts and pastoral charges, and carefully examine and determine upon all applications for aid from within the Conference recommending appropriations, only within the limits fixed by the General Committee.

Income.

This is derived from two sources:

1. From Annual Collections, creating THE GENERAL FUND.

The amount desired, each year, for this fund, of the several Conferences, districts, and pastoral charges, is indicated to each in the manner above described. It is by the Discipline made the duty of each pastor to "preach a sermon on this subject in each congregation once in every year, and solicit contributions from each in aid of the Church Extension Society." It is expected that each congregation will contribute the amount that has been indicated, and that the Parent Society will thereby receive the aggregate amount asked for by the General Committee, Bishops, and Managers. The Parent Board keeps an accurate account with each Conference, and each Conference Board with every pastoral charge. The Annual Report of the Parent Society will contain an exhibit of the amount asked and received of each Conference, and that of the Conference Board of the amount asked and received of each district and pastoral charge.

2. From Special Donations and Bequests, creating THE LOAN FUND.

There are a multitude of cases, too weak to build within themselves, that would soon become strong by building a suitable church. If such could be aided by a temporary loan, bearing little or no interest, they would build at once, thereby securing large increase of strength, and in a few years would cheerfully return the amount borrowed, to be loaned again to others in like manner. To meet cases of this kind the Loan Fund is proposed under the following provisions:

"First, No part of said Fund shall ever be donated for any purpose, or used for current expenses, but shall be preserved, without diminution, a perpetual fund.

"Secondly, Said Fund may be loaned to any Church or society, without interest in small sums, in no case exceeding five thousand dollars, or with interest, as occasion may require, and the Board shall, from time to time, determine, in aid of the objects of the Church Extension Society.

"Sums of five thousand dollars and upward, contributed by any one person, Church, or Conference, shall be named by the contributor, and shall constitute a separate Loan Fund, and the Corresponding Secretary shall report annually the investment thereof, and the work accomplished thereby."

In this connection, provisions are made that those who may have means to be devoted to religious uses, but who may need or desire the income from the same during their life-time, shall receive an annuity equal to a reasonable interest on the amount they may contribute to the "Loan Fund;" the said annuity to be paid annually, semi-annually, or quarterly, as the contributor may desire.

If placed here, their means, besides procuring, at least, the ordinary income, will, as their representative, be constantly doing a work of the first importance to the Church, and, under the general provisions for the administration of the Loan Fund, will report results every year.

Appropriations.

Appropriations, by donation or loan, are made upon application by or in behalf of the Trustees of the Church seeking aid. The application should be upon blank forms furnished by the Parent Board, and must contain the information therein provided for. Appropriations are made only by the concurrent action of both the Conference and Parent Boards, and nothing less than this constitutes an obligation against the Society.

Bequest and Devises to the Church Extension Society.

Persons desiring to make bequests to the Society by will, are requested to observe the following form:

I give and bequeath to the "CHURCH EXTENSION SOCIETY OF THE METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH," incorporated by the Legislature of the State of Pennsylvania, the sum of , and the receipt of the Treasurer thereof shall be a sufficient discharge to my executors for the same.

For Devise of Land.

I give and devise to "THE CHURCH EXTENSION SOCIETY OF THE METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH," incorporated by the Legislature of the State of Pennsylvania, the following land and premises, that is to say: (describe land) to have and to hold the same, with the appurtenances, to the said Society, its successors and assigns forever.

For further information, see Discipline of 1868, page 247, the last Annual Report of the Society, or address the Corresponding Secretary, at No. 1018 ARCH-STREET, Philadelphia.

REPORT ON FINANCES.

THE Committee on Finance report that they have sought consultation with brethren who have complied with the financial plan adopted at the last Annual Conference, and find that in every instance it has worked well.

We believe that its important features, which we present in this report, are the best suggestions we can offer now compatibly with our system of voluntary contributions.

That plan, however, was not presented generally to our quarterly conferences and congregations as was contemplated; hence, we recommend that in each charge where there is not now a successful system of finance in operation, the pastor shall urge the adoption of the present one and see that its provisions are closely followed.

1. It shall be the duty of the last quarterly conference of each year to fix the time and place of holding the financial meeting for the next ensuing year, to which the Estimating Committee shall present their estimate for the pastor's support. The meeting shall be composed of the preacher or preachers of the charge, the stewards, leaders, and Estimating Committee. The meeting shall then apportion the amount to the several societies within the circuit. The stewards and leaders of each society in the circuit shall be a committee to apportion the claim upon that society to the individual members. If the charge be a station, the financial meeting shall directly assess the estimates upon the members according to their ability, severally. Or, if any society prefer, the stewards and leaders shall see that voluntary subscriptions are made by all the members.

2. When the estimates are provided for by apportionment, the stewards shall ask each member to accept such apportionment, or a modification of it if necessary, to be paid in four equal quarterly installments, before or at each quarterly conference. Such accepted sum shall be entered upon a suitable book and collected promptly by the stewards and class-leaders. We earnestly urge these collectors to such diligence, and the members to such promptness, as not to carry embarrassing deficiencies from one quarter to another. As sons of Wesley, we should do this as every thing else, "at the time."

3. The Estimating Committee shall consult the preachers as to the amount necessary for their support. And the presiding elder shall inquire, at the first quarterly conference, before putting the estimate of the committee on its passage, if such consultation has been had.

4. In the judgment of the Conference, the obligation to pay the preacher's salary in full is as binding upon the congregation and its individual members as the payment of promissory notes in banks, and should be met promptly.

5. We earnestly recommend to ministers and members to take up the Conference collections as early in the year as possible, distributing them at proper intervals, so that they will not be crowded together or embarrass the close of the year.

6. The presiding elders shall present this plan to the first quarterly conference in each charge, and shall cause it to be read to the congregations of the first quarterly meetings. And on circuits the pastors shall cause it to be read as soon thereafter as possible, in each of their congregations.

REPORT ON THE OBSERVANCE OF THE SABBATH.

YOUR Committee believe that it could be shown, on grounds independent of Revelation, that the body and mind of man each and both demand the Sabbath as a restorer of wasted vigor. The loss of many valuable lives, in the very prime of their days, can be traced in a great measure to the reckless disregard of regular and sufficient hours of rest. The man or the state that gives sacred observance to one day in seven is in the path of safety, while the man or the state that disregards this seventh day is in the path of inevitable danger or disaster. We submit the following resolutions:

1. Resolved, That the sacred observance of the Christian Sabbath is a Divine command, obligatory upon both the individual and society.

2. Resolved, That Sabbath desecration—whether it take the form of Sunday travel, Sunday social visiting, Sunday sacred concerts (so called), or Sunday processions with music and banners—is an evil so flagrant that the civil authorities, as well as individual action and combined Christian efforts, should be constantly invoked for its suppression.

3. Resolved, That Christian citizens have a right to undisturbed worship on the holy Sabbath, and that the running of cars, or any mere secular pursuits or amusements, on this sacred day, is an outrage upon the Christian civilization guaranteed by the laws of the land.

4. Resolved, That while with Christian and patriotic greetings we welcome to a home in this land peoples of all lands, we are deeply grieved with the frequent Sabbath desecration on the part of many of our adopted fellow-citizens, especially in the towns and cities, in open and defiant disregard of our civil and Protestant institutions.

REPORT ON TEMPERANCE.

YOUR Committee would say, in looking over the whole field, that there are many things that make the heart of every true lover of God ache as we see the devastations of intemperance; and there are some things that cheer the heart of every temperance man.

It is sad beyond expression that many women of wealth, influence, and, in other things, of refinement, use wines and strong drinks, and make tempters of themselves, to ruin sober men and boys.

How terribly sad that thousands that might be a great blessing to the world, if we can credit the public press, are becoming open drinkers of intoxicating liquors, and in spite of wealth, learning, and friends, are becoming drunkards! Is it not time to be alarmed and raise our voices like men of God in earnest?

It is openly and boastingly said by our enemies that professing Christians drink intoxicating liquors when from home on business, and on excursions that are so popular in these days. It is a great pity that so many professing Christians treat with so much lightness the drinking usages of society, and speak so disrespectfully of the efforts of temperance men. Is it strange that their friends and sons are out of the reach of temperance men? When we see so many young men out of Christian families who are becoming drunkards, should it not arouse us to earnest, persevering action for their salvation from a drunkard's grave or a drunkard's hell?

But while these dark, threatening clouds hang like a pall of ruin around us, there are signs of light and salvation. God is waking up his ministers and the conscience of the Church, giving her a sense of her responsibility in this matter. The time has come when, at every meeting of Evangelical ministers or members, the great question of temperance is a prominent topic of discussion.

I have noticed that at ten State Sunday-School Conventions, every one gave a prominent place to temperance; and the subject stirs the hearts of the public whenever it is honestly and candidly presented; and we must believe that if the Churches would take hold of this question with earnest heart and persevering zeal, it would not be long till the drinking usages of society would be very largely diminished in our large cities, and would be entirely driven out of all our villages and country places.

Therefore, we pledge ourselves, as ministers of the New Testament, to a renewed effort to create a right public conscience on this subject, and would recommend the adoption of these resolutions of last year:

Resolved, That we rejoice at the great temperance awakening in our country, and will redouble our efforts to push forward the temperance reform till the sale of liquors as a beverage shall be classed in the laws of the State with counterfeiting, theft, and robbery.

Resolved, That we will do all in our power, as ministers and citizens, to break down the wine and beer-drinking customs that now prevail in fashionable circles, and we will deal with any one that violates the rules of the Church by drinking wine or beer as a beverage or a social drink.

Resolved, That we earnestly recommend all the pastors to form juvenile temperance societies in all our Sunday-schools, and try to save the children.

REPORT ON THE AMERICAN BIBLE SOCIETY.

THE receipts of the American Bible Society during the past year have been larger than in any previous year, amounting to $747,058.69. Of these, $432,788.65 were derived from sales, $161,465.78 from donations, $116,985.35 from legacies, and $35,818.91 from rents of stores and offices in the Bible House.

Books printed at the Bible House, 1,126,318 volumes; printed and purchased in foreign countries, 311,401 volumes. Total, 1,437,719 volumes.

Books issued from the Bible House, 1,031,761 volumes, namely: 329,774 Bibles; 657,018 Testaments; 44,669 portions of the Bible; and 300 volumes in raised letters for the blind. Total value of these issues, $513,578.90.

The foreign distributions, exclusive of books granted from the Bible House, amounted to 298,870 volumes, in more than fifty languages and dialects.

Total number of volumes issued for distribution during the year, 1,330,640.

Entire number of volumes issued during fifty-four years is 26,572,371.

Efforts have been made to reach all classes of the population. Among the freedmen many thousands have been provided with the Divine Word, and their schools have been largely supplied. A careful distribution has been made along the entire line of the Pacific Railway. Some distribution has taken place among the Chinese, of whom there are probably 50,000 on the Pacific coast, and measures are in progress for a more thorough supply. An Agent of the Society is engaged in circulating the Scriptures in the Territory of Utah, where he has received a cordial welcome.

Recently, the agency department in this State was arranged as follows, to-wit: District of Northern Ohio, embracing all of the State north of the counties of Darke, Shelby, Logan, Union, Delaware, Licking, Muskingum, Guernsey, and Belmont, Rev. C. S. Martindale, Agent, and District of Southern Ohio, Rev. W. Herr, Agent.

In this connection, we give a résumé of the work accomplished during the period, between eight and nine years, of the agency in South-Western Ohio:

SUMMARY OF WORK FROM YEAR 1861 TO 1870.

Number of visits to auxiliaries and Bible meetings	1,010
Number of sermons and addresses in behalf of the cause	1,227
Number of letters and documents sent out	22,710
Number of miles traveled on Bible business	41,744
Number of families visited	284,866
Number of families found destitute of the Bible	20,971
Number of families supplied by sale and donation	15,240
Number of books distributed	208,912
Number of books furnished soldiers during the war	6,4758
Number of books furnished to Soldiers' Home	800
Number of Sunday-schools supplied	822
Total receipts from the field during the agency of Rev. W. Herr	$207,698 84

We realize, however, that it is not enough for us as a Conference to merely indorse in few or many words the operations of the American Bible Society within our bounds or elsewhere. It is our duty to know there never was greater need of the most efficient circulation of the Scriptures, never greater need of the most thorough diffusion of Bible truths among the masses than now, for never were the enemies of truth more active than now. We can not be blind to the fact that the leading opposition to the reading of the Bible in our public schools springs from real hatred of the Bible itself.

How we shall best succeed in getting the Word of God into the hands of every individual, continue it in all our schools, and above all, have it received by every one as the precious light to enlighten earth and lead to heaven, is a question we should be ever pondering.

Protestant Christianity has too tenderly in the past regarded the boundaries with which Romanism, infidelity, and extreme wickedness have hedged themselves in from Christian effort. We are satisfied that, as ministers and people, we must go more directly to the strongholds of error and sin, and with more of Jesus' love, and wield with greater skill "the sword of the Spirit which is the Word of God."

In our families, Sabbath-schools, and congregations, we must not rest until our children and people shall daily read and meditate in the law of the Lord, not only because they feel it their duty, but because of the love of the truth. Therefore,

Resolved, That while we are grateful to God for all past success in this cause, we will not cease our efforts for the more rapid and thorough diffusion of Scriptural truth.

Resolved, That we will cordially co-operate with the accredited Agent in our respective charges, and in his absence attend to the collection, as far as may be in harmony with the time of the anniversary of the respective auxiliary societies.

Resolved, That we request the re-appointment of Rev. W. Herr as Agent of the Society for the Southern District of Ohio.

Respectfully submitted.

REPORT ON PARSONAGES.

THE Committee on Parsonages beg leave to report that they have been unable to learn that there is any real change in the number or condition of parsonages within the bounds of the Conference.

We are deeply convinced that this is no time to abate effort in providing a larger number of parsonages. Large amounts of money might be saved, and great inconvenience be avoided, by so doing. We therefore submit for adoption the following resolutions:

1. Resolved, That all charges without a parsonage should proceed at once to secure one.

2. That the presiding elders be, and they are hereby, requested to urge this subject on the attention of the charges until their efforts in this direction are crowned with success.

REPORT ON TRACT CAUSE.

YOUR Committee having examined to a considerable extent the harmonious workings of the Tract Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and being assured that it is a growing power, promising much good, not only by building up the Church of Christ and establishing the wavering, but by bringing the wandering prodigal back to his Heavenly Father's house, beg leave to submit to your Godly consideration the following resolutions:

1. Resolved, That the Tract Society places within our easy reach a potential influence, of which Methodism, in her evangelizing work, can by no means afford to deprive herself.

2. Resolved, That we extend to the officers and managers of the Tract Society our warmest thanks for their earnest zeal and undaunted courage in laboring for the elevation and salvation of the iguorant and perishing millions of our fallen race.

3. Resolved, That we will take a collection at least once a year in all our charges for the benefit of this Society, that its sphere of usefulness may be enlarged, and that we will endeavor to impress more and more upon all our people the importance of a more general and systematic distribution of tract literature, especially among the poor and neglected portions of our fellow-beings.

Signed by the Committee. F. S. DE HASS, President.

REPORT ON PERIODICALS.

YOUR Committee deem it unnecessary to enlarge upon the power of the press. The founder of Methodism was one of the first to employ this mighty agency for the diffusion of religious truth, and the influence of his example has not been lost upon his successors and sons in the Gospel. We feel a just pride in our Great Central Book Concern at New York, with its branches and depositories in the principal cities of the East, and the Western Book Concern, with its branches in the West.

We recognise with gratitude the extent and general excellence of our periodical literature, but when we consider the unsurpassed facilities provided by our peculiar system of sustaining and circulating religious publications, it must occur to us all that "there remaineth very much land to be possessed," and that Methodism, with its unexampled opportunity, should furnish the best and cheapest religious literature in the world.

1. It is our judgment that the number of official papers should be reduced. Few persons are aware of the great cost attending the publication of a first-class weekly journal. While our Book Agents are required by the General Conference to publish so large a number of papers, some of which are sustained at a heavy loss to the Book Concern, it will be impossible to make any of them, in all their departments, equal to the demands of the times or the expectations of our people. With our present and prospective mail facilities, it seems a useless waste of funds to establish newspapers in all the great cities of the country. We believe that three great official newspapers, one in New York, one in Cincinnati, and one on the Pacific Coast, would be ample to meet the real wants of our Church.

2. We suggest, further, that, with this reduction of the number of official papers, there might be, and should be, increased appropriations of money for their proper support, with additional editorial force. No great publishing house in the world, probably, employs so few editorial pens on magazines or papers as do our publishing houses. Journalism has made wonderful progress in this country within a few years, and we have simply not kept pace with it. We not only expect one man to do the work of three or four, but also to spend two or three days of each week flying over the country to preach, lecture, and dedicate churches. Our editors should be allowed to give their entire time to the work for which they are appointed.

3. We believe that the frequent changes made in the editorial management of our periodicals is a serious evil, which should be corrected. Journalism is a profession which demands peculiar and versatile gifts and long experience. Our practice has been to take men out of this work about the time they learn to do it thoroughly, and fill their places with inexperienced writers. Our suggestion is, that when "the right man for the right place" in our literary work is found, his services should be retained. Quadrennial changes of editors must always necessitate a comparatively inferior journalism. If the practice of recruiting our Episcopacy from the pastoral office shall, in time, come into vogue, it will greatly tend to lessen the too frequent editorial changes of which we complain.

4. Our editors, it has seemed to us, would be justified in excluding from their columns a large proportion of the occasional, personal, and volunteer correspondence, which possesses only a local and limited interest, and substituting for it well-written articles on questions of general interest. We should be glad to see, in all our Church papers, a larger number of editorials on practical religion, and we doubt not that the publication of a good sermon, as often as once a month, would meet very general approval.

5. We would respectfully call the attention of our Missionary Board and the Book Agents to the Missionary Advocate as being in form and matter wholly inadequate to fitly represent so great an interest of the Church.

6. We express our hearty approval of the general, financial, and editorial management of our great publishing interests, our entire confidence in those who have them in charge, and we pledge ourselves, as a body, to renewed efforts to extend the circulation and usefulness of all our periodicals.

REPORT ON THE BETHEL CAUSE.

THE Cincinnati Union Bethel, under the superintendence of the Rev. Thomas Lee, is accomplishing great good in the city. We find the following departments in successful operation, namely:

1. The Sunday-school, with average attendance during the last year of over sixteen hundred. There are connected with the school about thirty-five hundred children and eighty teachers.
2. The Church, with regular services.
3. The Newsboys' Home, where destitute newsboys are cared for.
4. The Reading-Room.
5. The Temperance Dining-Hall, where hundreds of the laboring class and poor of the city are supplied with cheap meals.

We take pleasure in commending this institution to the sympathies and prayers of the Churches, and recommend the re-appointment of brother Lee as superintendent of the work, in accordance with the request of the Board of Directors.

Respectfully submitted.

REPORT ON SABBATH-SCHOOLS.

BELIEVING, as we do, in the primary importance of the Sabbath-school work, and feeling convinced that if we would secure that measure of success in this department of Christian labor that its importance demands, we must have a more thoroughly trained class of teachers; therefore, your Committee would present the following resolutions for your adoption:

1. Resolved, That a convention be held some time in the month of May of each year, composed of delegates selected from all the Sunday-schools within the bounds of the Annual Conference.

2. Resolved, That the officers of the Sunday-School Union, of the Conference, call this convention for the year 1871, fix the number of delegates each school may send to the convention, and arrange an outline of business for the same; also, fix the exact time and place to hold said convention.

3. Resolved, That a Sunday-School Institute be organized in each presiding elder's district, to be held once a year, or oftener, at such time and place as may be determined upon by said Institute; provided, that the first meeting for organization shall be called by the presiding elder of the district as soon after Conference as he may deem expedient.

4. Resolved, The President shall be the conductor of the Institute exercises, the object of which shall be to secure actual attainments in knowledge and methods of teaching, that we may obtain greater efficiency in all our Sunday-schools.

5. Resolved, That we recommend all our schools to adopt the uniform lesson system, and to this end we advise the Berean Series.

6. Resolved, That we recommend all our Sunday-schools to hold teachers' meeting every week, to thoroughly drill each teacher on the lesson for the ensuing Sabbath.

7. Resolved, That we urge greater care in the selection of Sunday-school libraries, believing that a pure and instructive literature should be furnished our children.

8. Resolved, That we respectfully petition the Secretary and other officers of our Sunday-School Union, to furnish the Berean Series in a more condensed form, printing each lesson of the scholar's leaf on a separate sheet.

REPORT ON AUDITING SECRETARY'S ACCOUNTS.

THE Committee appointed to audit the acts of the Secretary of the Cincinnati Conference beg leave to submit the following:

REPORT ON DISTRICT CONFERENCES.

Majority Report.

WE, the members of your Committee, beg leave to report the following:

Failing to see the practical utility of District Conferences, therefore,

Resolved, That we, as a Conference, do not advise the formation of district Conferences among us.

WM. J. QUARRY, Chairman.
J. F. CONREY,
WM. YOUNG,
L. CLARK.

Minority Report.

THE Committee on District Conferences would submit for your consideration the following report:

1. The subject is one to which, heretofore, we have given but little attention, and from our partial information and immature ideas, in the absence of any well-defined plan, are not prepared to pronounce dogmatically for or against it, yet we recommend the subject to your candid consideration.

2. We find it is receiving increasing attention in many parts of our own Church, and that it has been adopted by the Church South, and, so far as we can learn, is working well, and promises very beneficial results.

3. District Conferences, in some form, are not new in the history of our Church, and, as now thought of, do not contemplate any interference with the quarterly or Annual Conference.

4. We incline to favor their adoption by the Church as an additional and efficient agency for good for the following reasons:

(1.) The bringing together once a year of all the ministers—traveling and local—together with one delegate or more from each charge in each district, for consultation, for reports, and for devotional purposes, we think can not fail to be of great utility.

(2.) If these Conferences were to be attended and presided over by a Bishop whenever practicable, they would bring the Bishops into closer contact with the people, and thereby give them greater familiarity with the condition and wants of the work.

(3.) A more thorough inspection of the work in the several districts would be had by this means, and, doubtless, such a supervision of the work secured as would provide for those localities, now neglected and deserted, where once we had flourishing societies. We think it would bring about an aggressive policy rather than the contracting and defensive one, now so largely pursued, and would preserve intact and, indeed, give new vigor to the old itinerancy.

(4.) These Conferences would afford a better opportunity to work up the financial interests and collections of the Church.

(5.) Again, if to them were given supervision of the local ministry, with power to license and renew licenses, this arm of the service would be utilized and rendered much more effective than at present.

Respectfully submitted.

REPORT ON THE BIBLE AND PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

Whereas, The founders and fathers of our Republic esteemed their liberties safe only when based upon the intelligence and morality of all the people, and established its civil and educational institutions upon the fundamental principles of Christianity, and by the ordinance of 1787 declared, "Schools and the means of education shall be forever encouraged;" and, whereas, hence our American doctrine, "The State owes an education to all its children as an obligation, and not a charity," and every child has a right to demand of the State an ample and un-sectarian education to fit him for citizenship in this free Republic; and, whereas, in every country—as in Prussia, Switzerland, and the United States—where the State meets this demand, prosperity is ever on the increase; and in every country where secular education has been left to voluntary contributions, or to the Church—as in Mexico, Spain, and Italy—oppression, ignorance and bigotry, religious and political degradation, poverty and misery, prevail; and, whereas, as the result of a long-matured and deep-laid scheme, an alarming and determined effort has been, and is still put forth in different parts of our country, by a large body of our citizens, to withdraw the religious element from our system of popular education—an effort led by a well-trained priesthood, nearly all of whom were educated under an acknowledged allegiance to a foreign despotism—who also demand the destruction of our American free non-sectarian common schools, and instead thereof the sectarian charity system of Italy; and, whereas, a beginning in that direction has been made, by asking from the public treasury money to support their Church schools, and corrupt men in high places show a willingness to yield to the demand, and already their sect has abstracted from New York city treasury nearly half a million of dollars annually, besides having obtained from that city government over three millions' worth of property for its sectarian uses; and, whereas, these startling facts show that a new, a despotic, a foreign and distinctive element is being insinuated into the State and municipal legislatures of this country which, unless speedily rebuked, will overwhelm every part of it, and destroy our common schools, establish a State Church, and bring in a reign of ignorance, anarchy, and despotism; therefore,

1. Resolved, That we regard the continuance of our public schools upon their original basis essential to the unity, prosperity, and perpetuity, of our Republic.

2. Resolved, That any attempt to divide the school fund, or to appropriate the public money for sectarian institutions or purposes, shall always meet our unqualified disapprobation and opposition.

3. Resolved, That, as citizens, we demand liberty of private judgment for all the people in matters political and religious—a free Bible, open to all, to read in their own language as the Magna Charta of human freedom, and God's Bill of Rights given the peoples of the whole world.

4. Resolved, That, although perfectly confident and willing to abide the power of our Christian and civil institutions when so left free with the people, and in so far might be indifferent as to whether the Bible be a book in our schools or not, yet we accept the effort to exclude it from them as an insult offered the intelligence and liberty-loving spirit of the American people, coming from the well-known and ill-disguised enemies of religious and civil freedom, and, therefore, meriting the sternest rebuke as an attempt to withhold from the masses their book of reference, the Bible, the only standard from which there is no appeal in matters religious and moral.

5. Resolved, That we will more than ever instruct the people, and especially the youth under our care, to regard the Holy Bible as the corner-stone of our glorious Republic, the bulwark of our liberties, the basis for freedom of religious faith, and the protection of the rights of all.

6. Resolved, That we send to all Christians and good citizens greeting, and hereby request that in their conventions, conferences, or assemblies of whatever name, they give public expression to their opinions in regard to these things, that a suitable interest may be awakened and kept active in defense of questions so vital to our national existence and to the hopes of mankind.

REPORT ON LOCAL PREACHERS.

THE Committee to whom was referred the action of the Local Preachers' Association of Cincinnati Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, which met at Springfield, Ohio, August 20, 1870, beg leave to report that they have read with the deepest interest and the highest gratification the resolutions of the Convention. We hail their action as a new era in the history of our local preachers in the Cincinnati Conference, promising the most blessed results to all concerned. It promises to make them an element of power in extending our holy religion in city, village, and country, bringing them into active sympathy and effort with the pastors of the several charges in our bounds. Therefore,

1. Resolved, That we regard the local ministry as a necessity of our Church, and that we cherish them as beloved fellow-laborers in the vineyard of our common Master, and that we will most cordially unite with them in forwarding any measures which will promote their efficiency and success in their appropriate work.

2. Resolved, That we, as a Conference, will, as far as practicable, carry out the provisions of our excellent Book of Discipline in regard to our local preachers, especially in giving them work.

3. Resolved, That it is the duty of presiding elders and preachers in charge to aid them in their studies, and to see that the course of study laid down in our Book of Discipline be completed without reference to their ordination.

4. Resolved, That we most earnestly recommend to our quarterly-meeting conferences not to license, renew the license, nor recommend any local preachers for orders, who are unwilling to go out into the highways and hedges in search of opportunities to preach the Gospel of Jesus to the lost.

5. Resolved, That we hereby tender to the Association our thanks for their fraternal greetings, and we offer them our sympathies, prayers, and earnest co-operation in all their well-directed efforts to promote their efficiency and success in their work and labor of love.

6. Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent by the Secretary to the Association.

REPORT OF THE CONFERENCE TRUSTEES.

THE Trustees of the Cincinnati Conference met in the Methodist Episcopal Church, Piqua, Ohio, August 24, 1870, Rev. A. B. Wambaugh, President, in the chair. The following proceedings were had.

The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved.

The Treasurer, Rev. A. Meharry, reported that he had received a dividend from the Mears bequest amounting to $150.33, and, on motion, he was directed and authorized to pay the same to the Stewards of the Cincinnati Conference, to be distributed for the relief of necessitous superannuated preachers, the widows and orphans of the Conference.

The Treasurer also reported that he had in his hands upward of $100 accruing from the Kessler bequest, which, on motion, he was directed to pay over to the Treasurer of the Preachers' Relief Society, to be disposed of according to the intent and design of the donor.

The trusteeship of Rev. J. L. Grover having become vacant by his transfer to the Ohio Conference, John W. Dale, Esq., of Cincinnati, was nominated and elected to fill the vacancy.

The attention of the Board was called to the will of Robert Singleton, late of Urbana, Champaign county, Ohio, in which are bequests of several hundred dollars each to the American Bible Society, the Missionary Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church, American Tract Society, and the First Methodist Episcopal Church in Urbana, Ohio, whereupon, on motion, W. Herr was appointed to give such attention to said bequests as may be necessary to secure the payment of them to the Societies contemplated in the will.

The following constitute the Board of Trustees of the Cincinnati Conference for the ensuing year: A. B. Wambaugh, President; W. Herr, Secretary; A. Meharry, Treasurer; W. Simmons, W. L. Hypes, W. Young, W. H. Lawder, John W. Dale, Esq.

Respectfully submitted. A. B. WAMBAUGH, President.

W. HERR, Secretary.

REPORT ON THE AMERICAN AND FOREIGN CHRISTIAN UNION.

THE Committee on the American and Foreign Christian Union respectfully report:

Whereas, Roman Catholicism, always a system of seductive and wakeful activities, ruinous alike to civil and religious liberty, assumes even in these United States to demand political recognition and support in a way utterly at war with the most cherished foundation principles of this free and Christian Republic; and,

Whereas, Among other agencies by which to reach and save its misguided multitudes, and to protect institutions most dear to enlightened and good men, the American and Foreign Christian Union was established, a Society which may be defined: "Catholic Christianity, with an open and free Bible, against Roman Catholicism without the Bible and against the Bible;" therefore,

1. Resolved, That we most fully approve the grand purpose of said Union.

2. That we welcome Rev. Dr. Wm. Butler, its Secretary, and all duly authorized Agents of the same to our pulpits.

3. If our official Boards consent, we will take collections in aid of the Society.

4. That we especially commend to all people the publications of said Society for general circulation and reading.

A. B. WAMBAUGH,
W. FITZGERALD,
S. B. SMITH.

REPORT ON FAIRS AND POPULAR AMUSEMENTS.

THE Committee on County and State Fairs and Popular Amusements offer the following for your adoption:

1. Resolved, That we look upon County and State Fairs legitimately and properly conducted as worthy encouragements to the agricultural and mechanical industries and the stock-growing interests of the Commonwealth, and in no sense injurious to sound morality and religion.

2. Resolved, That we are deeply grieved at the growing demoralization of these Fairs, arising from racing, trotting, betting, drinking, etc., and we are fully satisfied that the interests of morality and religion demand that the race track and all its accompaniments should be banished from these Fairs.

3. Resolved, That we respectfully and earnestly request for this subject the attention and prayerful consideration of members of the Church of God who may hold office in these Societies, and consequently must be in some measure responsible for these things.

4. Resolved, That many of the so-called popular amusements, such as dancing, card playing, base-ball playing, etc., are injurious to sound piety, and are to be considered "such diversions as can not be used in the name of the Lord." They draw the attention from the truth, lead to a disrelish of spiritual things, and alienate the youth especially from God's service and favor.

5. Resolved, That the present is no time for compromise with the world. Jesus demands that we be self-denying and cross-bearing Christians. Let all good people, and especially Methodists, purge themselves from these evils, as we prize morality. Seek the salvation of souls, and love the Lord Jesus Christ.

Respectfully submitted. W. FITZGERALD, Chairman.

C. W. KETCHAM, Secretary.

MEMOIRS.

REV. MOSES SMITH, D. D.

REV. MOSES SMITH, D. D., was born in Chatham county, North Carolina, February 28, 1817, and died in Newton, Jasper county, Iowa, August 25, 1869. He was the son of Moses and Catherine Smith, who were devoted and exemplary members of the Methodist Episcopal Church. They removed in 1819 to Highland county, Ohio, and settled in the vicinity of Hillsboro. Here their cabin at once became the home of the weary "itinerant," and young Smith heard from their lips the Gospel of peace. From his very infancy his parents taught him to pray, and instilled into his mind the principles and duties of the Christian religion. He was a moral boy, and when in his seventeenth year he was deeply convinced of sin, and under the ministry of Rev. Henry Turner and Rev. Sam. Clarke, then on Hillsboro circuit, he united with the Methodist Episcopal Church and began in earnest to seek the salvation of his soul. For two whole years he sought God in great agony of spirit, and when on the brink of despair, he was happily converted in a grove near his father's residence. From this time his heart yearned over sinners, and he sought to bring them to Christ.

In order to prepare himself for usefulness he entered Augusta College, Kentucky, then the only Methodist College in the West. Here he remained for one year; his health failing, he returned to his father's and taught school for one year. His health being restored, he returned to Augusta College in 1838, and remained here till August, 1842, having completed the studies of the course and receiving the honors of the institution.

During his college life he was a model Christian, exemplary in all his deportment, and ready to labor or suffer for Christ. He was a man of wonderful power in prayer. In his room he had prayer night and morning, and at intervals he could be heard in earnest pleading with God. Prayer-meetings were held in his room, in which thirty or forty of his fellow-students were converted to God. He was superintendent of the Sabbath-school and a class-leader for years in Augusta. He was a power in the College and community. His piety and fervid eloquence gave him an influence but seldom equaled by any college student. The writer of this was associated with him, and knows whereof he affirms.

He was licensed to exhort in July, 1840, and preached his first sermon at the Concord Church, near Felicity, Ohio, which produced a wonderful effect. He was licensed to preach at Minerva, Kentucky, by Rev. Isaac Collard, then presiding elder of the Augusta district, January 31, 1842, with A. A. Morrison, W. C. Dandy, of Chicago, and W. I. Fee, of Cincinnati Conference. After completing his college course he went South, intending to teach in a seminary; but Providence interfered, and feeling that God called him to the work of the ministry, he joined the Ohio Conference on trial at Hamilton, September 27, 1842, and was appointed to Milford circuit, with Rev. W. H. Fyffe as preacher in charge. With burning zeal they entered upon their work. A glorious revival followed, and nine hundred additions to the Church, and as many conversions, were the result of their labors. In 1843 he was stationed on Eaton circuit, with Rev. G. W. Maley in charge. God blessed their labors, and brother Smith did the Church signal service by defending her cardinal doctrines against the assaults of her foes, and obtained much notoriety for the ability displayed. In 1844 he was received into full connection, and ordained deacon by Bishop Soule, and appointed to Finley Chapel station, Dayton. Here he spent two years, abundant in labors and successful in laying the foundation for the present flourishing charge (Raper Chapel). In 1846 he was appointed to Asbury, Salem, and Maley Chapels, Cincinnati, with W. H. Fyffe. This year he was happily united in marriage with Miss Eliza Jane Demorest, of Dayton, Ohio, a lady eminently fitted for the responsible position to which she had been called, and who now enjoys with him the reward of their labors in their heavenly home. In 1847 he was appointed with A. Meharry and L. F. Van Cleve to Augusta circuit, Kentucky. This was "border work," and a field of great magnitude and difficulty, but their labors were blessed. Four hundred and eighty-four were added to the Church, and our work in Kentucky was placed upon a permanent basis. In 1848–49, to Lebanon station; 1850, to Lancaster station; 1851, Bethel, Cincinnati; 1852–53, Troy station; 1854–55, Hamilton; 1856–57, Finley Chapel, Cincinnati; 1858–59, Xenia; 1860–61, Lockland station; 1862, Hamilton; 1863–64, Raper Chapel, Dayton; 1865–66–67, Hillsboro; 1868, Catawba circuit. This was his last appointment, and was intended to give him a better opportunity to educate his sons at the Ohio Wesleyan University. He entered zealously upon his work, but in a short time his health failed, and he was compelled to retire from the work to which he had devoted twenty-six years of his life. Afflictions now multiplied. First, his youngest daughter was taken from him. Then his faithful and devoted wife showed signs of failing health, and soon she was called to her reward. Then the eldest daughter, now stay of the family, a young lady of rare qualities and of great promise, fell a victim to disease, and joined her sainted mother in heaven.

This was too much for brother Smith. His already shattered constitution was now completely broken. Friends persuaded him to seek relief at the Springs in Adams county, but the effect was only partial. As a last resort he visited his sister, Mrs. Mary Duncan, in Newton, Iowa. He reached there in a prostrate condition. Such was the deep mental depression under which he labored that he said but little. In prayer and conversation he expressed the desire to preach the Gospel, but said: "The will of the Lord be done." When informed by his sister that the physician had but little, if any, hope of his recovery, he replied: "Then we must trust in God and await the result." The last week he sank rapidly. He took his son Angelo with him, and was anxious that he and his other sons should have a home in that beautiful country. When informed that his wishes would be gratified he was much pleased. On the night before he died, his sister said to him: "Does the Gospel which you have preached to others support you now, and do you feel that Jesus is with you now?" He bowed an affirmative assent, and looked upward. He then tried to ask if his sons had arrived (they were expected every hour). He was answered in the negative. He then extended his hand to Angelo, held him affectionately, and tried to speak but could not. A hymn was then sung, and he "sweetly slept in Jesus" on the morning of the 25th of August, the day that his brethren met in Conference.

He leaves three sons and one daughter to mourn their loss. In person he was tall and dignified. He possessed a voice of great compass and sweetness. His mind was somewhat metaphysical. He wrote and published a work on Mental Science, and also wrote a work on Moral Science, which has not yet been published. But when aroused he was surpassingly eloquent. At such times thousands would hang with speechless wonder upon sermons and exhortations. He was a "revival preacher." A divine unction accompanied his ministration. The terrors of the law and the melting scenes of Calvary were his favorite themes in the pulpit. For some time he was at the head of the temperance movement in the State of Ohio. He was twice elected a delegate to the General Conference, and enjoyed in an unusual degree the confidence and affections of his Conference and the Church and community at large. In almost every charge he had seals to his ministry, as his journal shows that three thousand were added to the Church during his entire ministry, and he traveled more than thirty thousand miles in the accomplishment of his work. "But he rests from his labors, and his works do follow him."

REV. CHARLES W. SWAIN.

Rev. Charles W. Swain departed this life, at his residence in Eaton, Ohio, on Monday morning, April 25th, at a quarter before seven o'clock, aged seventy-six years, six months, and three days. His disease was chronic affection of the liver, with an implication of other vital organs. He had been confined to his bed about three weeks, but had been laboring under disease for about three months.

He was the only son of Zaccheus and Rebecca Swain, and was born in New Bedford, Mass., October 22, 1793. At the age of ten he was taken by his father to England, where he remained in school for five years. After his return home his inclination was to follow the sea, for which he had acquired a fondness by being with his father, who owned two vessels and commanded one himself. From this, however, his father dissuaded him after he had gone a few voyages, but the desire never was conquered. Up to almost the day of his death, he had a passion for a seafaring life and vessels. He then entered a mercantile house in New York, but toward the close of the war of 1812 he entered the service of his country, as a Lieutenant, and was stationed at Fort Washington. After the war closed he returned to mercantile life, but soon came to Ohio, and purchased a farm twenty miles above Cincinnati. In the year 1814 he was married to Hannah Henby, of North Carolina, who still survives, who was the light of his home, and the joy of his heart during the toilsome life of an itinerant preacher for nearly twenty-five years, and altogether for fifty-six years.

Though he had purchased a farm and resolved to devote himself to agricultural pursuits, he found his early training had not fitted him for a rough pioneer life. Being a fine English scholar, he for a few years spent his time between school-teaching and learning to farm.

In August, 1819, he was awakened to a sense of his condition as a sinner, and converted to God under the labors of Rev. George C. Light, and united himself to the Methodist Episcopal Church in New Richmond, Clermont county, Ohio. A few years after, under a deep conviction that it was his duty to preach the Gospel, and the Church recognizing his call, authorized him to proclaim the great salvation.

In the Fall of 1831 he was admitted on trial in the Ohio Conference, and in due order was received into full connection, having deacon and elder's orders. As a matter of interest to his many friends, we give his fields of labors and his ministerial colleagues, most of whom have already preceded him to the enjoyment of the inheritance on high. During his ministerial labor up to the Fall of 1855, he was actively engaged in the regular work, except one year, when he acted as an agent for the Ohio Wesleyan University. His fields of labor and co-laborers stand in the following order:

Miami circuit, he was junior preacher under Dr. A. Poe; Wilmington circuit, junior preacher under Rev. W. D. Barrett; Oxford circuit, preacher in charge with Dr. Joseph Waterman; Eaton circuit, preacher in charge with Revs. D. Warnock and F. A. Timmons, for two years; Lancaster circuit, two years, preacher in charge with Revs. W. T. Hand and C. R. Lovell; Rushville circuit, one year, preacher in charge with Rev. W. T. Hand; Hamilton station, one year; Monroe circuit, preacher in charge two years with Rev. Stephen Holland; Union circuit, one year, preacher in charge with Rev. Joshua Boucher; Miami circuit, two years, preacher in charge with Revs. Joseph A. Reader and Henry Baker; Germantown circuit, two years, preacher in charge with Revs. D. D. Davisson and William Burriss; Monroe circuit, one year, preacher in charge with Rev. Charles Meredith; Vienna circuit, two years, preacher in charge with Revs. David Dryden and William M. Smith; Fairfield circuit, two years, preacher in charge with Revs. William Fitzgerald and Thomas Audas; Eaton circuit, one year, preacher in charge with Rev. N. Callender; Louisburg circuit, one year, preacher in charge with Rev. James Manning; Camden circuit, with Rev. George H. Kennedy. On this field he labored but a short time, when he was released at his own request by the elder, Dr. Marlay. At the ensuing Conference he took a superannuated relation.

Father Swain was abundant in labors and in fruits; hundreds were added to the Church and converted under his ministrations, a number of whom entered the ministry, and became traveling and successful preachers. He was punctual to meet his engagements, suffering nothing but sickness or death to detain him. During all these years of laborious and sacrificing toil, the highest salary he ever received was three hundred and fifty dollars, and mostly falling below three hundred dollars. But even with this pittance, blessed with a prudent, economical wife, he lived, entertained his friends, took in the stranger and fed the hungry, met all his obligations, and had something to give to benevolent causes.

When he superannuated he located in Eaton, where he resided until his death. Though he had no field of labor, yet he felt that he must not be idle, that his work could only end with his life. He was a regular attendant at the prayer and class-meeting, preaching to the poor at the county infirmary and at other points in the neighborhood, and assisting the ministers on the adjoining circuits. Thus he continued to do cheerfully the Master's work whenever opportunities offered. As a citizen of Eaton he at once made the interests of the community his own. He was public spirited and useful, in all enterprises taking an active part. He was a member of the School Board, visiting the school, lecturing to them, encouraging both teachers and pupils. Thus his time passed as long as he was able to be about.

Father Swain was, in many respects, more than an ordinary man. His views were large. The Church, his country, the world, all shared in his thoughts, prayers, and labors. Hence every thing which contemplated progress and human elevation, he at once identified himself with. He was an ardent temperance man, having been one of the principal actors in organizing a Temperance Society in New Richmond, Ohio, as early as September 1, 1829, which was the first organization of the kind west of the Alleghany Mountains. He was also an unrelenting opponent of slavery; hailed with profound pleasure the proclamation of the immortal Lincoln, that sundered the chains of slavery from 4,500,000 bondmen. He loved his country, believed in the perpetuity of its institutions, and had faith in its willinguess to meet its obligations. Thus he lived, full of hope for the future, abundant in labors, and happy in an abiding confidence that the right would prevail, that amid the strife of conflicting elements, and the agitation of innovation and revolution, the Government would live and the Church triumph.

His last sickness was very severe, yet through it all not a murmur fell ofom his lips. His expression at all times was, that he was ready to suffer the will of his Heavenly Father. Frequently his enjoyment was so great that he rejoiced exceedingly. On Friday preceding his death, he desired to have the sacrament administered, and arranged the order. His aged companion sat next to him; then his sister, two years his senior; then his only child, his daughter; then his granddaughters and other relatives, and a few friends, the Rev. A. Meharry officiating. It was an impressive and affecting scene. Heaven seemed to come down; the soul of the venerable man was filled; inexpressible glory rested on all. "Death," he said, "has no terrors for me," and exhorted all to meet him in heaven. On Sabbath morning, Dr. Weakley, his son-in-law, being requested to preach for Rev. A. Meharry, asked him if he could leave him to do so. He replied, after a few moments' pause, "Let the dead bury the dead; go thou and preach the Gospel." In the afternoon he was supposed to be dying. On being so informed by his son-in-law, looking heavenward he said, "John, dying! dying! this dying! Going! going! going!" and, with a heavenly smile upon his countenance, waving his hands, he said, "Peace! peace! I have nothing but peace." He then took leave of his family, with an appropriate word to each. To his son-in-law he said, "Preach! preach! preach!" He suffered intensely Sabbath night, but was not able to converse. On Monday morning early he was released, at last, falling as into a blessed sleep; without a struggle he was received into that heaven of eternal rest, of which he loved to sing and preach, and for which he lived and labored.

"Servant of God, well done!
Thy glorious warfare's past;
The battle's fought, the race is won,
And thou art crowned at last."

REV. A. W. MUSGROVE.

REV. A. W. MUSGROVE was born in Cincinnati, Ohio, May 29, 1811. At the age of five years he was deprived of his sight by a severe attack of measles.

His parents were professors of religion, and young Anthony was trained in the nurture and admonition of the Lord. He joined the Methodist Episcopal Church in his twelfth year. Soon after this he, with his parents, moved to Xenia, Ohio. Here, in his fourteenth year, he was happily converted. His devoted mother read to her blind boy God's holy Word, much of which he hid in his youthful heart. She also taught him English Grammar. Early in his religious life, brother Musgrove was impressed with the duty of preaching Christ. In the year 1830 he was licensed to preach by the quarterly conference of Union circuit. In 1838 he was employed by the presiding elder, Rev. James B. Finley, to serve the Oxford charge. So eagerly were his services sought for, that he continued in this relation about two years and a half. Here, not only the students, but also the Professors of the Miami University took a deep interest in the case of brother Musgrove, and ere he left Oxford he had made fine progress in the higher departments of literature.

In the Fall of 1840 the health of Dr. Owen, of Troy circuit, having failed, brother Musgrove was appointed to fill the vacancy, S. F. Conrey preacher in charge. Here he labored two years, and truly did God own his labors. He was next employed as assistant pastor in Dayton, Ohio, Rev. William Herr being preacher in charge. After this he was employed by the presiding elders on the following charges: Columbus, Lithopolis, Circleville, Eaton, and Addison. In 1852 he was received on trial; in due course of time, into full connection.

As a member of the Conference he received appointments as follows: In 1852, New Carlisle circuit; in 1853–54, New Lexington circuit; 1855, Lebanon station; 1856, South Charleston station; 1857–58, Union circuit; 1859, Vienna circuit; 1860, Fletcher circuit, and in 1861–62, Addison circuit. At the end of the year last named, being in impaired health, he received at the hand of the Conference a superannuated relation. He continued to reside in Addison the residue of his days. Rapid were the ravages that disease made on his manly form. His noble intellect also suffered a great shock. On the 19th of April, 1870, he was stricken to the ground on his own premises. After he was conveyed into the house, it was perceived that he had the power to move one hand a little, whereupon brother Jackson said to him, "Brother Musgrove, you can not speak to us now, but if Jesus is precious to you now signify it by pressing my hand." Instantly the desired signal was given, and after a few hours he passed from earth away.

Brother Musgrove was a man of a fine form and a good mind, a sound theologian and an able minister of Jesus Christ, and has gone, as we all fondly hope,

"To range the sweet fields on the bank of the river,
And sing of redemption forever and ever."

REV. JESSE BOTKIN.

JESSE BOTKIN was born November, 1807, in Clinton county, Ohio. His parents soon after removed and settled near South Charleston, Clarke county. His parents were Methodists, and reared him in the doctrine and discipline of the Lord. From childhood Jesse was remarkable for his love of the right and for his correct moral deportment.

In his twentieth year, at a camp-meeting near Jamestown, Ohio, he realized pardon and the washing of regeneration, and ever after lived a consistent Christian life. Having obtained a fair English education, he pursued the profession of school-teacher for several years. But having received a clear conviction that he was called of God to preach the Gospel, he was licensed as an exhorter in the Church in 1841. In 1842 he received a license as a local preacher, and in the Autumn of the same year was admitted into the Ohio Conference as an itinerant preacher, and appointed to Gallipolis circuit; 1843, to Piketon; in 1844 he was ordained deacon and appointed to Coal River, West Virginia. In 1845, Logan circuit, same State; in 1846 he was ordained an elder, and appointed to Coolville, Ohio; 1847, to Westchester; 1848, to Tremont; 1849–50, Concord; 1851, Lockport; 1852–53, Monroe; 1854, Goshen; 1855, Fairfield; 1856, Union; 1857–58, Jamestown; 1859–60, Hamersville; 1861, Bowersville; 1862–63, Raysville. In 1864 he received a superannuated relation, which was continued until his death. Brother Botkin was a good preacher of the Gospel, and did much hard service in the itinerant ranks. His sermons were practical and searching, and while he made the cardinal doctrines of Christianity and its duties his principal theme in the pulpit, he frequently preached against the manufacture, sale, and use of all intoxicating spirits as a beverage. And what he preached in the pulpit he felt it his duty to carry out in the practical application of the discipline of the Church. This, sometimes, gave offense on earth, but it may turn to his advantage in the day of judgment. In many of his pastoral charges his labors were blessed, and many souls were brought into the fold of Christ through his instrumentality, who will, doubtless, be stars in the crown of his rejoicing in heaven.

As a minister and associate laborer in his Master's vineyard, he enjoyed the confidence and esteem of his colleagues in the pastoral work, as well as that of his brethren of the Conference. All regarded him as a GOOD MAN, which is an important feature in the character of a minister. He had a remarkable gift in prayer, and seemed often to have much power with God in his petitions at the throne. His health became much impaired in the latter part of his itinerancy by several attacks of disease, until his once robust constitution finally gave way and he was superannuated. In 1864 he settled with his family in Piqua; four years later he removed near Washington, Iowa, and settled on a small farm. He seems to have been very happy in his new home in the West, and was delighted with the prospect of spending the afternoon of life with his family and new-made friends so comfortably. But, how uncertain is life! About the first of last October he began gradually to decline, until February 25th, when he closed his earthly pilgrimage, and passed from labor to reward. His disease was an abscess on the liver. He retained his faculties unimpaired to the last, and in his closing moments assured his family and friends that "all was well." His last words were, "Jesus is near. Blessed Savior, precious Jesus!" He left a wife and six children to mourn their loss, but comfortably provided for.

JOHN F. WRIGHT.

MRS. CATHERINE WALKER.

MRS. CATHERINE WALKER was born in Fleming county, Kentucky, January 18, 1808, and died at the home of General Moses B. Walker, in Findlay, Hancock county, Ohio, March 12, 1870.

We speak of all our dead tenderly—of many reverently; but it is with a peculiar feeling of tenderness that we speak of our departed sister, Catherine Walker. Those who knew her well need no words of commendation from us to render their recollection of her more sacred. To those who did not know her it will be impossible to describe adequately the "beauty of holiness" which spoke in all her utterances and shone in all her acts.

From her earliest youth the purest Christian influences surrounded her. Early taught of God by his Holy Spirit, she found, when only eleven years of age, the "pearl of great price." She thus early entered into that peace that "passeth understanding"—a peace which was never shaken, and which seems scarcely to have been clouded during her whole life. The home of her early childhood and womanhood was a scene of rare happiness—a place for the culture of the highest graces of the Spirit. The home of her later years with her husband, dearly beloved and eminently fitted for companionship, but seemed to develop and add to those graces.

On February 9, 1830, she was united in marriage with the late Rev. Geo. W. Walker. From that time during the long period of twenty-six years, she went with her husband to his different fields of labor in the itinerancy, often in physical weakness, always with great spiritual strength, holding up his hands and adding to his great efficiency by her own prayers and faith.

She was often, and for a long period, an invalid, and was thus shut out from many opportunities for active personal working in the vineyard of the Lord. But her afflictions seemed only to mature and make more powerful her Christian character. She was an influence for good wherever she went. With her, simply to be was to advance the cause of Christ. Every-where "she worked for God and good." While as Christians we do not lay too much stress upon acts, we lay too little upon character. It is seldom given to men or women to do great deeds. We often grow impatient of little monotonous daily duties. If those duties be accompanied by physical affliction the task becomes doubly difficult. It is necessary to fortify ourselves with much prayer and great faith, if we would keep the comforting thought in our own hearts that "Those also serve who only stand and wait."

To wait takes often more character than to act. It was often the lot of sister Walker to wait. The trial only left her character as refined gold.

I can not forbear introducing here a little poem written by Mrs. Walker in answer to her husband's question once on leaving her for a field of labor during a season of illness. It tells its own story:

"Yes, I can spare you; yes, my dear,
Go, preach the Gospel far and near;
Go, tell the wretched of mankind,

That they in Christ may mercy find.
And while you the glad tidings tell,
That sinners may be saved from hell,
May Heaven your labors own and bless,
And fill your soul with joy and peace!
And while you thus your work pursue,
I 'll humbly strive to pray for you,
That you may do the will of God,
And I resigned may kiss the rod."

I had a good opportunity soon after the death of her husband, while engaged in writing his biography, to become intimately acquainted with her beautiful traits of character. I had access to many of her productions. They all breathe the highest and purest spirit, the utmost faith and unwavering patience; and are the fruits not only of a high spiritual inner life, but unusual mental powers. She possessed fine poetical talent; and if all her poems were collected, they would make an interesting volume. One rarely meets a woman of so much ability in any of the walks of life. These gifts gave her peculiar fitness for filling her position as wife of a minister of the Gospel.

It can be truly said of her: "She used every gift for the glory of God." She experienced that "perfect love which casteth out all fear" in early life, and enjoyed and professed it in the class and love-feast whenever she was able to attend. Indeed, her experience in divine things was rich and varied.

"A long period of trial and affliction had, under the grace of God, wrought in her much patience and unfeigned humility. She was ever aspiring after higher attainments in the divine life, and often when I was conversing with her on the subject of 'perfect love,' which was always a precious theme with her, I have felt that I was but a child in religious experience, and needed her ripe experience as a help to me."

So said one of our ministers who was often in her sick-chamber at Findlay, Ohio. Her life was one of constant prayer and praise, and her Bible was never neglected so long as she had strength to read it. She had a word of encouragement for every human being that crossed her pathway, however poor and lowly. She was greatly beloved by all her relatives, who will long feel the power of her personal influence in the family circle. Her faithful efforts were many times crowned with success in bringing wanderers to the fold, and her fitly spoken words in social gatherings for Christian communion were with power in the quickening and comforting of souls. She cheerfully gave her ardent prayers and the light of her experience to the great help of many an anxious and troubled wife, who was striving to be a helpmeet to her husband in the ministry.

One thing that struck me forcibly while writing the life of her husband, was the pure love that existed between them. All their letters are uniformed with the high and holy love they bore one another. Their mutual sympathy widened and deepened as time wore on. The years drew them only closer together, and Christ was the bond between them. No love of youth was ever so beautiful, so holy, as the love of their ripe years, which had been tried by suffering, affliction, and loss, which acknowledged that the only true basis of earthly affection was "the love of God." No one can read their letters to each other without having the fountains of his soul stirred with sacred emotions, and no one can rise from their perusal without deep thankfulness that God permits such fullness of trust and happiness in an earthly union

Frail as our departed sister was in body, she saw one after another of her family—father, mother, brother, sister, and husband—pass away, while she survived them all. Her bereavements and afflictions were heavy, but the clouds were never so dark as to shut out the sunlight; she was only the more willing to go hence when her time came. A few weeks before she died, she said to her brother's wife, "Sister, I feel just as you do—as if my husband was soon coming home to me." She replied, "Perhaps you are going to him." She looked up, and sweetly smiled, and said, "O! do you think so?"

I saw her last Fall during the session of Conference at Findlay, low down by the margin of the "death stream," waiting to cross to the nether side. Her sick-room was the antechamber of heaven. In the center, over her head, hung the portrait of her husband; to the right the likeness of the "Old Chief," and on the left the portrait of the beloved Raper. While the venerable Bishop Morris was singing his favorite song,

"My latest sun is sinking fast,
My race is almost run," etc.,

she clasped her hands together, and praised the Lord for "redemption through Christ."

Her nervous system was powerfully shattered by disease, but her faith and hope stood firm, and she exclaimed in ecstasy, "I know that my Redeemer liveth, and shall stand at the latter day upon the earth!" In this happy frame of mind she continued until "The weary wheels of life stood still."

She seemed to have a clear vision of the better land. A few days before her death she shouted aloud, "Glory! Hallelujah! Glory! Hallelujah!" and in triumph she exclaimed, "O, what a beautiful city!" During the entire night previous to her departure she repeated, "O, precious Savior! Redeemer! Come! Come!" after which she gradually became unconscious, and died without a struggle, calm and peaceful. Her remains were brought to Germantown, where, at her own request, I preached her funeral sermon, and laid her to rest by the side of her beloved husband, in a vault prepared under her own supervision.

Need I attempt to point the moral of such a life as this? It is found in her words to her husband, almost the last time he left her before his death: "My dear, preach holiness!" Ah! the words he uttered, moved by that urgent appeal, were effectual, under the direction of the Spirit, in the conversion of many sinners. May her life, in which was exemplified the beauty of holiness, be effectual, through the blessing of God, to the conversion of sinners and sanctification of believers!

MAXWELL P. GADDIS, SEN.

MRS. ELIZABETH L. MURPHY.

THE subject of the following memoir was the daughter of David and Ellen Leeper, and was born in Cincinnati, O., September 9, 1816. Trained for God, and instructed in the principles of the Gospel, she gave her heart to the Savior, and at the early age of twelve years, under the pastorate of Rev. J. F. Wright, she united with what was then known as Fourth-Street Methodist Episcopal Church, subsequently known as Morris Chapel, and now St. Paul, Cincinnati. From that period she ever maintained a consistent Christian life, by not only availing herself of the public means of grace, but tri-daily in secret seeking Divine direction and support, and drawing spiritual food from the exhaustless store-house of God's Word, which she read through regularly every year. Thus replenished, no wonder that she was a growing and steadfast Christian, manifesting in the temper of her mind and daily walk the gentleness and meekness of Christ.

Such religious qualities needed a wider sphere of action than was afforded in the walks of private life, and God providentially opened the way for their development and exercise. Hence, on the 16th day of June, 1859, she was married by the late Dr. Adam Poe, to her now bereaved husband, Rev. A. Murphy, long and a highly esteemed member of the Cincinnati Conference. In this new relation she fully met every expectation of her husband, proving herself an affectionate companion, wise in counsel, patient in trials, encouraging and helpful amid the toils and sacrifices of the itinerant life, and exemplary in deportment among the membership of the Church. When the sad hour came, which compelled her husband, owing to increasing age and infirmity, to retire from the active duties of the itinerancy to the privacy and loneliness of a superannuated relation, the sweetness and cheerfulness of her piety tended far to lighten his pathway, and awaken the spirit of resignation to the allotments of Providence.

Thus, in sweet accord of sympathy and love they moved in the path of duty, fondly hoping that many years of mutual happiness would crown their life. But, alas! the destroyer came. On July 2, 1870, sister Murphy was summoned to her home in heaven. The daily preparations for heaven which marked her career, found her ready joyfully to obey the summons, and invested her dying moments with radiancy and triumph. Hence, when asked if she could give up her husband, the prompt reply was, "All for Jesus. I am going home to glory. Sweet Jesus—my heavenly home!" Again, when asked if she recognized him, she replied, "Yes, dear," and throwing her cold, icy arms around his neck, and giving expression to themost tender affection, she added, "I love Jesus!—Going home!" She enjoyed the ministrations of her pastor, Rev. J. Vance, at the closing hours, and while extending to the dying one the appropriate religious consolations, he enjoyed the reflex benefit of witnessing a scene of glorious triumph eminently calculated to strengthen his own faith in the Gospel, and quicken his zeal in his holy vocation. Thus, Mrs. Elizabeth L. Murphy, in New Carlisle, O., July 2, 1870, by the grace of God, passed from earth to participate in the raptures of the beatified in heaven.

The high esteem in which the departed was held in the community, was manifested by the large concourse attendant upon the solemn obsequies.

The painful bereavement of the husband can be compensated alone by the fact that "earth hath no sorrow that heaven can not heal," and the richer promise of the Gospel: "But I would not have you to be ignorant, brethren, concerning them which are asleep, that you sorrow not, even as others which have no hope. For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with him. For this we say unto you by the word of the Lord, that we which are alive and remain unto the coming of the Lord shall not prevent them which are asleep. For the Lord himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trump of God: and the dead in Christ shall rise first. Then we which are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air: and so shall we ever be with the Lord. Wherefore comfort one another with these words." W. HERR.

CONSTITUTION OF THE PREACHERS' MUTUAL RELIEF SOCIETY.

ARTICLE 1. This Society shall be called the Preachers' Mutual Relief Society of the Cincinnati Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, for the benefit of the worn-out and itinerant ministers, and the widows and children of the deceased members of this association.

ART. 2. The officers of this Society shall be a President, Vice-President, Secretary, Treasurer, Assistant Treasurer, and nine Trustees, who shall be elected annually, and shall hold their offices until their successors are appointed. These officers and Trustees shall constitute the Board of Managers of the Society.

ART. 3. It shall be the duty of the President, and, in his absence, of the Vice-President, at each session of the Cincinnati Conference, to call a meeting of the Society, and to preside at said meeting and at the meetings of the Board of Officers and Trustees, and to perform such other duties as the Board may direct.

ART. 4. It shall be the duty of the Secretary to keep a record of the proceedings of the Society, and of the Board of Managers.

ART. 5. It shall be the duty of the Treasurers to keep a faithful account of all money, legacies, and property received, and all money distributed, and report the same to the Society annually. They shall not pay out any money without an order from the Trustees, signed by the President or Vice-President, and approved by a majority of the members of the Society; nor shall they have power or authority to make investments or loans without the concurrence of the Financial Committee, as provided for in the sixteenth article of this Constitution.

ART. 6. Every preacher becoming a member of this association shall pay one dollar annually, to be funded by the Trustees as capital stock; and he shall solicit donations to increase said capital, and all annual subscriptions, donations, and bequests shall be safely funded, and the interest only paid out for the relief of claimants; and henceforth any minister failing to pay his annual subscription of one dollar, shall forfeit all claims on any interest arising from the corporate stock; provided, that in case any appropriation shall be made to such delinquent, all dues on membership or assessment shall be deducted from the amount appropriated, and in case a member fails for three consecutive years to pay his annual subscription, he shall forfeit his membership, and said membership can not be recovered without first canceling all claims held against him by the Society.

ART. 7. The payment of ten dollars by any member of the Conference, will constitute him a life member; and any member of our Church may become an honorary life member of the association by the payment of ten dollars to its funds, and shall be entitled to a certificate of such membership.

ART. 8. In addition to the foregoing provisions, we, the members of this association, do hereby mutually agree, that if any brother, member of this association, shall be in circumstances of need, this Society shall have power to levy at any annual meeting, a direct tax, not exceeding five dollars each, upon the members, by a majority vote of the members of the Society, and collect and pay over the same to the claimant or claimants.

ART. 9. If any member, at the close of a session of Conference, fails to pay all claims made on him by this Society, he shall not be released from his obligations, but shall be deprived of all claims upon the Society for himself and family, till such arrearages are fully paid, and such arrearages shall be paid at the earliest practicable moment; and in the event of non-payment extending through three years, at the expiration of said term his membership shall be forfeited, and can not be recovered again except on the conditions specified in article six of this Constitution.

ART. 10. No member of this Society shall forfeit any of his claims or rights in consequence of a transfer to another Conference, provided he continue to comply with the requirements of this Constitution.

ART. 11. Provides for a change of the Constitution.

ART. 12. All persons, on application to the officers of this Society to borrow money, shall secure the payment of the same by two responsible names as securities to each loan of any amount under one hundred dollars; and all sums over one hundred dollars shall be secured by mortgage on real estate, the cash value of which shall be double the amount loaned, and the product of which exceeds the interest; or the funds may be invested in United States stocks.

ART. 13. Any person may donate money exceeding twenty dollars to this Society, and after deducting all losses from said funds, and adding one per cent. annually to the capital funded stock, the donor, if he requires, shall receive the remaining interest arising therefrom during his life, and also his wife during her life or widowhood, or his child or children under eighteen years of age; but after all these conditions are met, all interest of said donation shall revert to this Society.

ART. 14. All expenses necessarily incurred by any officer or member of this Society, in the execution of any work authorized by the Society, shall be paid by the Treasurer upon the recommendation of the Board.

ART. 15. There shall be a Finance Committee, to consist of the President, Vice-President, and Secretary, whose duty it shall be to advise with the Treasurer and Assistant Treasurer, in regard to the safe and profitable investment of all funds belonging to the Society, or any other matter pertaining to its financial interests, and the Treasurers shall not have any authority to make investments or loans without the concurrence of a majority of said Committee.

ART. 16. The Treasurer of this Society shall give bond for the faithful discharge of his duties, said bond to be satisfactory to the Finance Committee.

The following persons were constituted honorary life members by the payment of ten dollars each, at the anniversary meeting held in Piqua, Ohio, August 25, 1870:

Mrs. Elizabeth Marlay, Mrs. Sarepta M. Baker, Mrs. Lizzie Hartley, Mrs. Mary Herr, Mrs. Hannah Reed, Mr. Joseph Young, Rev. Dr. Rush, and Rev. James Armstrong.

"COMMON-SENSE BOOK!"

(NEW EDITION.)

ON THE TREATMENT OF DISEASES OF THE

NOSE, THROAT, AND LUNGS,

BY MEDICATED INHALATION.

I TAKE this method of informing the public that I have just published a work with the above title, which should be in the hands of every one afflicted with either CONSUMPTION, ASTHMA, BRONCHITIS, HAY FEVER, NASAL CATARRH, SORE THROAT, LOSS OF VOICE, or any other disease of the organs of respiration.

The "Common-Sense Book" teaches that all medicines swallowed into the stomach do more harm than good to the pulmonary invalid; and that medicines can exert a healing influence in the lungs only when they are reduced to a condition of vapor, and inhaled with the common air we breathe.

If your Lungs are diseased, send for the Book!
If you have Bronchitis, send for the Book!
If you have Asthma, send for the Book!
If you have Nasal Catarrh, send for the Book!
If you have Sore Throat, send for the Book!
If you have Loss of Voice, send for the Book!
If you have Hay Fever, send for the Book!
If you have Cough, Short Breath, Palpitation of the Heart, Night-Sweats, or General Debility, send for the Book!

I will pay postage and send it to all parts of the United States for fifty cents a copy, or I will send it to clergymen and the poor for twenty-five cents a copy.

In the providence of God, this Book may save many valuable lives from the consumptive's grave.

I take the occasion to state to those interested, that I have been a resident physician of Cincinnati for fourteen years, my practice being exclusively confined to the treatment of pulmonary diseases by Medicated Inhalation, and extends to all parts of the United States. Persons who desire to consult with me in reference to their health, can do so without charge, either by letter or in person.

SCOVILL'S

Compound Extract of Sarsaparilla and Stillingia,

OR

BLOOD AND LIVER SIRUP,

IS THE

Great Blood Purifier,

Life Renewer, and Rejuvenating Elixir.

IT cleanses the blood from all impurities, repairs the wastes of the system with new and healthy constituents, and builds up with sound and healthy structure the various organs when they have become impaired by disease or wasted through premature decay. SCOVILL'S BLOOD AND LIVER SIRUP is composed of the most powerful of those medicinal agents of the Vegetable Kingdom that the scientific researches of the healing art have found most efficacious in purifying, enriching, and strengthening the Blood. The most enlightened chemical skill has been employed in extracting and combining their virtues, so as to produce a reliable remedy that will relieve all inveterate diseases arising from impurities of the Blood, and will eliminate from the system the various subtile poisons that give rise to Scrofula, Mercurial or Syphilitic diseases. It improves the complexion by enriching the Blood and exterminating those corruptions that give rise to pimples, blotches, and eruptive diseases. Scrofula, Glandular diseases, Nodes, Goiter, Erysipelas, and Skin diseases of every kind, Rheumatism, Kidney, Bladder, and Urinary affections, Female irregularities, Diseases of the Womb, Scrofulous Discharges from the Ears, Scrofulous Sore Eyes, Scald Head, Ring-Worm, and all diseases arising from impure blood, or from poison and corruptions lurking in the system, will yield to the powerful curative and healing influences of this unrivaled remedy.

SCROFULA OR KING'S EVIL.

This is the source of most of the chronic and inveterate diseases to which the human frame is liable. It has its foundation in a morbid condition of the whole system of nutrition, at the very fountain of life, as it were, and is the source of a numberless variety of very obstinate affections. When the system is once saturated with this subtile poison, there is not a tissue or component part of the human frame but what becomes liable to the deposit of tubercular matter, giving rise to corroding ulcers and exhausting discharges, and disfiguring the skin with an endless variety of disagreeable eruptions, and modifying, by its baneful influence, all other diseases, rendering them tardy, indolent, and difficult of cure. In the treatment of Scrofula it is of the very first importance that any remedy professing to cure should possess the power of eradicating that unseen virus which pervades the whole system, poisoning the blood and perverting those important functions upon which healthy growth and organization depends. Hundreds of cases of astonishing cures, by the use of SCOVILL'S BLOOD AND LIVER SIRUP, prove, beyond question, that it possesses the peculiar virtue of changing morbid and diseased action and growth into one of health and vigor, beyond any known preparation. There is no disease so deeply seated but what its searching and healing influence will reach. There is no latent poison lurking in the system, contaminating the blood and corrupting the sources of life, whether scrofulous, mercurial, or syphilitic, that can withstand the eliminating influence of this powerful agent. It stimulates the excretory functions of the various glands and organs of the system to throw off the effete and decomposing matters that engender diseases, and give place to life-giving elements and new and healthy structure. The BLOOD AND LIVER SIRUP exceeds all remedial agents yet discovered in the cure of Chronic Constitutional diseases, from whatever cause produced.

It cures Lumbar Abscess, arising from Scrofulous Disease of the Spine.

MR. W. T. DIMMICK, Uniondale, Penn., writes our Agent, Mr. S. G. Weaver, at Dundoff, in December, 1867:

"I was afflicted with spinal disease, which produced a large abscess on the small of the back, discharging nearly half a pint of matter, night and morning, when drawn off. My sides and back were so sore I could hardly lie down, and could not stand or sit without a support. I thought I must die, when my physician recommended SCOVILL'S BLOOD AND LIVER SIRUP. After taking eighteen or twenty bottles, the abscess has dried up, my sides and back are sound, and to my great joy I am now able to go about my business."

Price, $1 per bottle, or Six bottles for $5. Sold by dealers in Family Medicines every-where.

DR. ROGERS' INDIAN FEVER CURE.

THE WORLD'S GREAT REMEDY

For the Certain Cure of Fever and Ague, Chills and Fever, Intermittent Fever, Bilious Remittent Fever, Dumb or Masked Ague, Hemicrania, Brow Ague, Sun Pain, and Periodical Neuralgia of Every Kind.

IT is the most reliable ANTIPERIODIC ever discovered, and is a sure antidote to the morbific influence upon the system of that subtile, unseen, specific poison to which the term malaria, or marsh miasmata, has been applied. This poison is generated in low, marshy grounds, under the influence of the fervid heat of the Summer months acting upon the rank and decaying vegetation that abounds in such localities. It is the sole exciting cause of the bilious remittent and intermittent fevers which prevail so extensively in the low, moist districts of the tropical and temperate climates. All the various periodical diseases owe their origin to this peculiar miasm. To render the system proof against the attacks of this unseen malignant foe,

Dr. Rogers' Indian Fever and Ague Cure

Has no competitor among all the preparations which medical skill has devised to combat this powerful enemy. It not only speedily cuts short the paroxysms of ague, but it fortifies the system against that strong disposition to recur after a short respite, which these diseases manifest, especially upon exposure to the inclemencies of the weather, or to any unusual exertion. It is perfectly safe, and leaves the nervous system and general health unimpaired, being entirely free from those ordinary antiperiodics, such as quinine, arsenic, zinc, or other poisonous mineral agents, upon which most of the secret remedies for ague rely for their curative virtues. These active substances do not effect a permanent cure, but leave the "ague" hanging about the system for months, producing organic affections of the spleen and liver, and disorders of the stomach and bowels. This VALUABLE REMEDY, however, will invariably effect a permanent cure, and leave no disastrous effects upon the system. Our agents repeatedly write us that it never fails, and every mail brings us testimonials to its great virtues and permanent curative powers in ague and bilious fevers.

READ WHAT THOSE WHO HAVE TRIED Dr. Rogers' Indian Fever and Ague cure SAY ABOUT IT.

MR. B. F. JONES, California, Madison county, O., writes us, October 16, 1868:

"I take this opportunity to say that I have been using your DR. ROGERS' INDIAN FEVER CURE in my family, purchased of Mr. W. H. Hill, your agent here, and I have cured one of my daughters of a severe case of typhoid fever with it; and then my whole family took the ague, and I used one bottle and a half of your FEVER CURE, and it cured all of them in about two weeks. I consider it an invaluable remedy for these diseases."

MR. D. KELLY, JR., Montezuma, Mercer county, O., writes us, Sept. 11, 1869:

"I can recommend your DR. ROGERS' INDIAN FEVER AND AGUE CURE as the best remedy in use for the fever and ague. I bought a bottle for myself, and was cured before I had used up the bottle, and I afterward cured four others of the family with the same bottle. I would not be without it, and I advise all afflicted with that disease to give it a trial."

MR. F. FINGENBAUM, Waymansville, Bartholomew county, Ind., writes us, December 14, 1869:

"Please send me more of your DR. ROGERS' INDIAN FEVER AND AGUE CURE. The people begin to find out the great value of that medicine. It has cured the chills and fever in this neighborhood in numerous cases where other remedies have completely failed."

It can be found for sale at all the principal Druggists and Dealers in Family Medicines in the United States.

WHAT MINISTERS SAY OF

Dr. Jas. C. Kerr's Great System Renovator.

BURNET HOUSE, Cincinnati, August, 1870.

DR. JAMES C. KERR—Dear Sir,—During thirty-five years past I do not recollect a whole day in which I was entirely free from headache. Being in the habit of trying almost every thing recommended, I one day strolled into your office on Fourth-street, and asked the probability of getting relief from the medicine I saw placarded on the outside. You said it would cure me. I did not believe it, but thought, as I had tested so many humbugs, I would give this a trial also. I feel pleasure now in stating that to me, at least, your Great System Renovator has not proved to be a humbug. I believe it has made me what you said it would, namely, "A new man."

My whole system, which seemed to have been more or less out of order, has undergone a change. The acid stomach is now constantly sweet; the dull eye is now bright; the streaked, muddy-looking, jaundiced countenance is now clear and healthy looking; the labored, slow step is now lively and active, and the aching head, with throbbing temples—leading to confused thought—is now free from pain. All this is more than I ever expected in this world. I feel thankful to God, and I am certainly indebted, instrumentally, to your Great System Renovator for this great change.

I feel about twenty years younger than I was three months ago, and I fancy some of my old acquaintances will say that I have renewed my youth.

I shall feel great pleasure in recommending this medicine to any and every one with whom I may come in contact, and who may be heard complaining about ailments such as mine.

Dear Doctor, respectfully and thankfully yours, THOS. ATKINSON,

General Agent for Soldiers' and Sailors' National Orphans' Homestead.

[From the Logan (Ohio) Republican of August 25th.]

EDITOR REPUBLICAN, Logan, O.—I wish to say a friendly word for Dr. Kerr's System Renovator. My wife has been feeble for some fifteen years with a nervous prostration and general debility, together with palpitation of the heart. During that time I have employed various physicians of eminence, among them Prof. Hamilton, of New York city; Dr. James, Dr. Dickey, besides physicians in Cincinnati, Zanesville, Lancaster, and other places. Notwithstanding this, she grew steadily and slowly worse. Having seen Dr. Kerr's System Renovator advertised in your paper, I was induced to make a trial of it. The first bottle gave me great encouragement, and I immediately procured more, and am now happy in the belief that my wife is at last on the road to health. This is the first and only medicine I have ever found that has fairly reached her disease. I believe the Renovator will do all that is claimed for it, and cheerfully recommend it to the afflicted as well worthy of trial.

Circassian Hair Restorative,

The Most Successful Discovery of the Age for Restoring Gray Hair to its Original Color, for promoting a Healthy and Luxuriant Growth, and imparting a Soft, Silken, and Lustrous Appearance to this Crowning Beauty of the Person.

THE successful use of this preparation for many years has demonstrated beyond a doubt its great superiority as a HAIR RENEWER and HAIR RESTORER. It is complete in itself, combining all the essential requisites of a HAIR RENEWER and INVIGORATOR, a HAIR RESTORER, and a HAIR BEAUTIFIER and DRESSER. It is not a dye, and is entirely free from mineral caustic, which is instantaneous in its effects, and destroys the vitality of the hair, leaving it wiry, harsh, and disagreeable. It keeps the scalp clean and entirely free from scurf and dandruff, and drives away humors and eruptions of every kind, prevents the hair from falling out, and restores gray hair to its original color. It is not only harmless in its effects, but, on the contrary, exercises a healthy influence upon the scalp and its tissues, and imparts life, beauty, and luxuriance to the hair. It is highly perfumed, and is cleanly to use, as it will not stain the skin or the finest cambric. The CIRCASSIAN HAIR RESTORER comes nearer perfection than any other preparation of the kind before the public. It has been subject to tests that conclusively prove that nothing yet discovered surpasses it as a HAIR-DRESSER and HAIR RENEWER. For all the purposes for which it has been recommended it has not been excelled. Inquire for the CIRCASSIAN HAIR RESTORATIVE, and do not suffer the dealer to palm any other preparation on you in its place, by saying it is the same thing or is just as good. Read the subjoined testimonials of its unrivaled excellence:

MRS. ELLIE J. KIRK, Forestville, Bucks county, Penn., writes us January 27, 1867:

"While on a visit in Ohio, last Summer, a friend recommended your CIRCASSIAN HAIR RESTORATIVE very highly. I procured a bottle, and having found, by using it, that it surpasses any hair-dressing I have ever used, I am very anxious to get more. Mr. Kirk has frequent calls for it in his store, and desires to know if you have an agent in Philadelphia where it could be had at wholesale."

MRS. T. SUMERLOTT, West Fayette-street, Baltimore, writes us, March 31, 1868:

"My brother has tried your CIRCASSIAN HAIR RESTORATIVE, and finds it to be as good, in every respect, as is recommended. He speaks so highly of it—as my hair is getting thin—I have come to the conclusion to give it a trial. I want you to send me six bottles as soon as possible."

THE

CIRCASSIAN HAIR OIL:

One of the Finest Articles in the World for the Toilet, producing a Luxuriant Growth of the Hair, and rendering it Soft, Silken, and Lustrous.

THIS preparation is not a mere perfumed Oil, but an ELEGANT MEDICINAL COMPOUND AND DRESSING, possessing superior tonic qualities, which serve to counteract that strong tendency to baldness and premature grayness of the hair so prevalent in this country. It is cooling to the scalp, allays itching, removes dandruff, eradicates all eruptions and humors, and causes the young hair to grow by invigorating the skin, nerves, and blood-vessels, which supply the roots of the hair with nutriment and life.

No personal duty is more neglected than that which pertains to the caring for the growth and appearance of the hair, and, as a consequence, dandruff collects upon the scalp, closing up the pores, thereby retarding the growth, and checking the natural oily secretion, by which the hair is rendered soft, glossy, and luxuriant. The use of the CIRCASSIAN HAIR OIL will prevent all these evil consequences, and will promote the growth of a fine head of hair, at the same time imparting to it the richest luster.

Since we first prepared this HAIR OIL, we have so improved it, by the addition of active tonic ingredients, that it is now unequaled by any HAIR-DRESSING ever offered to the community, and is superior to any OIL or POMATUM, being entirely free from rancid animal or vegetable oils or from the parching and deleterious effects of alcohol. Its acknowledged excellence depends upon its highly invigorating qualities, and its healthy, stimulating effects upon the tissues of the scalp, thereby promoting that natural, oily secretion of the sebaceous follicles which imparts a far richer luster to the hair than can be obtained by the use of "pomades," at the same time maintaining the life and growth of this beautiful adornment of the person.

It can be found for sale at all the principal Druggists and Dealers in Family Medicines in the United States.

NORMAL SCHOOL,

LEBANON, WARREN COUNTY, OHIO.

TO ALL YOUNG PERSONS, OF BOTH SEXES, WHO DESIRE TO EDUCATE YOURSELVES

For any of the professions, or for business, I wish to say: This Normal School reduces the time and expense of a thorough education more than one-half, as compared with Colleges. The Course of Study, which in Colleges requires from five to six years, here requires from one and a half to two and a half years, while the Normal Course is more thorough, systematic, and energetic than the College Course, as generally pursued.

Such are the IMPROVEMENTS in methods of instruction, discipline, and management, that STUDY BECOMES A PLEASURE, while shirking and dissipation, so common in Colleges, are here almost entirely unknown.

In this school ECONOMY IN TIME AND MONEY IS REPUTABLE.

In Colleges waste of time, extravagance in expenses, recklessness in habits, find favor with the majority of students.

THE SPIRIT OF THE SCHOOL

Is honest labor, enthusiastic endeavor, and, of course, splendid results, both in the class-room and in after life. Most of our students are from country homes, and many are meeting their expenses from money which they have earned themselves.

COLLEGIATE DEPARTMENT.

The Classic Course, embracing instruction and practice in Higher Mathematics, Natural Sciences, Ancient Languages, and Metaphysics, with almost daily drill in Writing and Speaking on every variety of topics, extends over two years, of fifty weeks each.

The Scientific Course, including the same branches and drills, except Ancient Languages and Metaphysics, occupies one year.

The preparation in common branches, Algebra and Rhetoric, requires about six months.

COMMERCIAL DEPARTMENT.

Preparation for business in this Department, that is just as certain to give success as the Commercial Colleges are to insure failure, either in getting a situation or holding one after it is got, requires twenty-two weeks.

TEACHERS' DEPARTMENT.

Preparation for teaching a Public School, with wages from $2 to $3 per day, requires from eleven to twenty-two weeks.

Preparation for charge of High School or Academy, with salary from $800 to $1,500 per annum, requires from one to two years.

Many graduates of the Scientific Course are now occupying positions as teachers, with salaries of $1,000 and over, to the exclusion of numerous College graduates who made application for each place.

TEMPORARY ATTENDANCE.

The advantages for those who can only attend school for a term or two at a time, are fully attested by our large annual enrollment, increasing every year.

Attendance at any ordinary High School or Academy, with one or two teachers for forty or fifty pupils, is comparatively a waste of time. The large numbers here who have tried both plans, give but one testimony in this matter.

STATISTICS.

Enrollment last year over 1,200 different pupils; nine regular teachers; five in extra branches. Pupils received for eleven weeks at any time; bills commencing at time of entrance. Tuition, $1 per week; table board, $2 per week; self board, about $1 per week. Room plainly furnished, sixty cents per week to each pupil

PIEHL'S

IMPROVED SCHOOL DESK.

WE would respectfully announce to the Public, and especially to Superintendents, School Boards, Trustees, Teachers, and all others having control of the Graded or Free Schools throughout the country, that we have PIEHL'S IMPROVED SCHOOL DESK, Patented April 26, 1870, which, for Neatness, Cheapness, Strength, Durability, Simplicity, and Practical Utility, we feel perfectly safe in saying, is far superior to any thing of the kind that has ever been presented to the public.

It is a fact that there have been a great many School Desks made and sold recently, in different parts of the country, that have failed in point of convenience and durability, many of them giving more or less trouble and expense in less than one year's time, and it is readily conceded by competent and experienced men that our desks have decided advantages over all others in these important particulars. We manufacture six sizes to meet the requirements of any and all scholars. Call and see the latest and best improvements of the day. We are ready to attend to all orders.

THE GREAT AMERICAN CONSUMPTIVE REMEDY.

DR. WM. HALL'S

Consumption, Decline, Asthma, Bronchitis, Wasting of Flesh, Night-Sweats, Spitting of Blood, Hooping-Cough, Difficulty of Breathing, Cough, Croup, Influenza, Phthisis, Pain in the Side, and all Diseases of the Throat and Lungs.

ALTHOUGH Consumption has been regarded as almost inevitably fatal, it is now a well-established fact in medical science that the lungs have been healed up after extensive disease and ulceration had existed. There are well-authenticated cases on record occurring in dissections in hospitals, and in post-mortem examinations in private practice, in which the lungs have revealed scars or cicatrices, showing conclusively that at one time there had existed ulcers or ulcerous cavities in the lungs which had become healed up, either through the favorite influence of remedies, or the curative processes of Nature. These instances are sufficiently numerous to encourage both the medical profession and the unfortunate victims of this fatal disease not to yield too hastily to the suggestions of despair, but to persist in the use of remedies of acknowledged excellence as long as there is life. But independent of what medical science has discovered upon the subject, we think that DR. WM. HALL'S BALSAM FOR THE LUNGS has furnished conclusive evidence that the tuberculous disease of the lungs or consumption can be cured, and that, too, after it has made considerable progress toward a fatal termination. It is impossible to resist the overwhelming testimony that has come to us from all parts of the country in proof of the great curative powers of this remedy in Consumption. The evidence upon this point has now been accumulating for nearly a quarter of a century, and would fill a small volume. We think, therefore, the most skeptical can no longer doubt that DR. WM. HALL'S BALSAM has cured this fatal destroyer of the young, the gifted, and the beautiful. What it has done it is capable of doing again. At any rate, the evidence of its great virtues is so strong and so convincing that no consumptive should despair till he has given it a trial. Besides, it is not unreasonable to suppose that DR. WM. HALL'S BALSAM FOR THE LUNGS will cure Consumption. We have shown that dissections prove the fact that ulceration of the lungs is not necessarily fatal, but that these ulcers have been healed up and the lungs become sound and healthy. This has taken place under some remedial treatment. Why not, therefore, believe that Hall's Balsam will cause the tuberculous ulcers and cavities to heal up, when so many have testified that it did cure them, and that, too, after their friends and their physicians had pronounced them in the last stage of Consumption, and had given them up to die? We are constrained to think that no one is justified in maintaining his prejudices and his skepticism in the face of such incontrovertible evidence, and on account of these, in refusing to employ a remedy that might be the means of saving his life.

Read the following strong testimony to the great virtues of Dr. Wm. Hall's Balsam for the Lungs.

MR. JAMES D. LANE and MR. ROB'T W. LANE send us the following statement from Madison, N. Y., November 25, 1867:

"In the year 1862, Mrs. Mary E. Bailey, residing near Glen Arbor, Mich., was sick with consumption, and confined to her bed with pain in her lungs, side, and back, cough, night-sweats, and all the symptoms of deep-seated consumption. It being in the Winter season, and one hundred and fifty miles from public conveyance, her Eastern friends had given up all hope of seeing her again; and they having known of the salutary and healing effects of Dr. Wm. Hall's Balsam for the Lungs, sent her a quantity in sealed cans by mail, and on her taking it as prescribed, the effect exceeded all expectations, so that she was raised up from a bed of sickness, and was enabled to visit her friends in the East. We think it was a remarkable cure, and give it for the benefit of the afflicted. Our brother walked one hundred and fifty miles in Northern Michigan to take her a quart of the Balsam."

Allen Curtis, Justice of the Peace, Madison, N. Y., testifies to the reliability and veracity of the Messrs. Lane.

MR. ZIMRI PERRIGO, JR., Murray, Orleans county, N. Y., makes the following statement January 7, 1867:

"Some four years ago I was taken with hemorrhage of the lungs. I bled very freely, and became very low. My physician, after trying some time, concluded he could do me no more good. I was induced to try Dr. Wm. Hall's Balsam for the Lungs, and before I had used the first bottle I was able to walk about the house. By persevering in its use it finally effected a permanent cure."

It can be found for sale at all the principal Druggists and Dealers in Family Medicines in the United States.

THE

Eclectic Educational Series,

PUBLISHED BY WILSON, HINKLE & CO.,

137 Walnut-Street, Cincinnati.

THE following testimony is corroborative of the fact, now generally admitted by our most intelligent and successful teachers, that the Eclectic Series of School-Books, embracing M'GUFFEY'S NEW READER and SPELLER, RAY'S ARITHMETICS, ALGEBRAS, and GEOMETRY, and PINNEO'S GRAMMARS, are among the best and most popular ever issued.

These books are more extensively introduced than any other Series published in America, and have successfully stood the severest tests of the school-room, winning the warmest approval of thousands upon thousands of our best educators.

From Bishop D. W. CLARK, D. D., Late Editor of the Ladies' Repository, and of Books at the Western Book Concern.

I have had frequent occasion, during the past few years, to examine and re-examine the ECLECTIC EDUCATIONAL SERIES OF SCHOOL-BOOKS. Taken as a whole, it is unquestionably the best series issued by any house in America.

Prof. Ray was a mathematician of high order. His practical good sense, and his large and successful experience as an educator, as well as his enthusiastic devotion to the science of mathematics, eminently fitted him for the production of text-books in this department; and his Arithmetics and Algebras form a regular and complete series, beginning with the elements, and ascending to the higher principles of the science. I regard this as the best mathematical series extant.

M'GUFFEY'S NEW SERIES OF READERS, ascending from easy lessons in spelling and reading to the highest forms of rhetorical delivery, making seven successive gradations in the art of reading and delivery, must satisfy every reasonable demand in this department. In the range of the series, in the care of selection and adaptation, in the explanations and illustrations, as well as in the high moral and religious sentiment pervading the work, we have evidence of the fidelity and ability of the author.

IN DR. PINNEO'S PRIMARY AND ANALYTICAL GRAMMARS there is remarkable simplicity of arrangement and clearness of definition. The Primary is admirably adapted to the beginner. It will enable him to understand the science. The Analytical, designed for more advanced students, is unsurpassed in its complete adaptation to its design. The popularity enjoyed by these works rests upon the substantial basis of merit.

PART I.

FIRST DAY.

Wednesday, August 30, 1871.

THE CINCINNATI ANNUAL CONFERENCE of the Methodist Episcopal Church began its twentieth session in Grace Church, Dayton, Ohio, this morning at nine o'clock, Bishop Levi Scott presiding; our venerable senior Bishop Morris being also present.

Bishop Scott read the fourth chapter of Second Corinthians, and announced the seven hundred and seventh hymn, after the singing of which, Doctors J. F. Wright and L. D. M'Cabe led in prayer. The verse beginning was sung between the prayers, by the congregation kneeling.

"Come and possess me whole,"

The sacrament of the Lord's-Supper was then administered to the ministers of the Conference and a large number of the laity who honored us with their presence.

Bishop Scott then took the chair, and the Secretary of the last session called the roll of the Conference, and one hundred and two members answered to their names.

W. H. Sutherland was re-elected Secretary, G. H. Dart, D. J. Starr, D. C. Vance, and A. M. Griffith, Assistant Secretaries; Wm. B. Moler and J. R. Hunter Statistical Secretaries.

Bishop Scott presented the transfer of Rev. Dr. Moody from the Kentucky to the Cincinnati Conference. Dr. Moody briefly addressed the Conference.

Dr. M. C. Briggs was introduced as having been transferred from the California Conference.

Rev. R. R. Meredith was introduced as having been transferred from the Newark Conference.

Brother J. M'K. Shultz, transferred from the Ohio, and W. P. Jackson, transferred from the Holston Conference, were also introduced.

On motion of M. Dustin, Conference sessions were to begin at 8 o'clock, and close at a quarter before 12, A. M., daily.

On motion of Dr. Walden, the first half hour of each session was set apart for religious services.

The following brethren were appointed Conference Reporters: T. Lee for the Commercial, G. Parrott for the Times, J. Pearson for the Gazette and Dayton Journal, and J. F. Loyd for the Enquirer.

The Standing Committees were constituted as follows:

On Public Worship—The Presiding Elder and stationed pastors of Dayton, and Rev. W. Herr.

On Missions—The Presiding Elders.

After giving out notices, the Conference adjourned with the benediction by Dr. Walden.

SECOND DAY.

Thursday Morning, August 31, 1871.

Conference opened with a prayer-meeting of half an hour's continuance, in which Revs. G. Moody, S. D. Clayton, M. C. Briggs, A. S. Lakin, of Alabama, and Dr. Trimble, of the Ohio Conference, led the devotions of the Conference.

Bishop Scott then took the chair, and the Secretary called the roll of the Conference, after which the further calling of the roll was dispensed with for the session.

The minutes of yesterday's session were read and approved.

Revs. A. S. Lakin, of the Alabama Conference, and J. M. Trimble, of the Ohio Conference, were introduced.

On motion of J. F. Chalfant, M. A. Richards was appointed to receive the funds of the Church Extension Society, and D. Copeland the funds for the Hillsboro Female College.

Bishop Scott presented certain papers on Church Extension, which were referred to the Committee on that subject.

Also, a paper from the Garrett Biblical Institute, which was referred to the Committee on Education.

Also, a paper from the Managers of the Missionary Society, which was read by the Secretary, and referred to a special Committee, consisting of W. H. Lawder, G. Moody, and W. Young.

W. Herr offered a paper on the publication of the Detailed Missionary Report, which was referred to the above Committee.

Dr. Walden presented a paper relating to the expenses of the next General Conference, which was read by the Secretary, and on motion of W. Young, it was referred to the Presiding Elders.

Brother Young presented the report of the Visitors to the Ohio Wesleyan University, which was read by the Secretary, and referred to the Committee on Education.

Brother Van Cleve presented a paper, which was referred to the Committee on Education; and on motion, Dr. Briggs was added to said Committee.

Bishop Scott presented the New York Accounts, which were handed to Committee on that subject.

S. A. Brewster was appointed to sign the Missionary Certificates as President, in the absence of J. J. Thompson, who has been transferred.

Papers on the Sunday-School Union and Tract Cause were referred to the Committees on those subjects respectively.

Rev. brother Kemper, of the Presbyterian Church, was introduced to the Conference.

C. H. Lawton offered a paper on Fraternal Relations, recommending the appointment of Committees to bear the greetings of the Conference to other Evangelical bodies within our borders. The paper was adopted, and the following appointments were made to carry out its objects: To the Conference of the Methodist Church now in session at Bellebrook, Dr. J. F. Wright, Delegate; W. H. Lawder, Alternate. To the Conference of the African Methodist Episcopal Church, C. H. Lawton, Delegate; Dr. R. S. Rust, Alternate. To the Conference of the United Brethren Church, M. P. Gaddis, Delegate; M. Dustin, Alternate.

The resolution of last year, relating to the report of their Benevolent Collections by members of Conference, was re-adopted.

On motion, the Stewards were requested to use a wise discretion in the application of the rule adopted last year, requiring the presentation of a written statement from each claimant on the funds of the Conference, and to send a copy of said resolution to each claimant with the funds distributed.

The Second Question, "Who remain on trial?" was taken up.

The name of A. J. Hanna was called, and he was discontinued at his own request. The names of Henry Miller, Dennis D. Cheney, W. M. Boyer, J. S. Whitney, E. C. Smith, John Wilson, and Edmund Burdsall were called; the Examining Committee and presiding elders reported favorably, those in charge reported their collections, and they were continued on trial.

The Fourth Question, "Who are the Deacons?" was taken up.

The names of Harrison Wren, N. Prince, J. R. Hunter, and Alphonzo E. Higgins were called; the Committee on Examination and the presiding elders reported favorably in their cases, those in charge reported their collections, and their characters were passed.

On motion of M. Dustin, A. E. Higgins was granted, at his own request, a supernumerary relation, without appointment, that he might attend the Boston Theological Seminary.

The Fifth Question, "Who have been elected and ordained Elders this year?" was taken up, and the names of E. T. Wells, C. T. Crum, F. G.

Mitchell, and C. F. Gowdy were called; those in charge reported their collections, the presiding elders and Committee of Examination reported favorably in their cases, their characters were passed, and they were elected to elder's orders.

The characters of W. Webster and J. B. Ellsworth were also passed, and brother Ellsworth was returned to the effective list, and brother Webster was assigned a supernumerary relation with appointment.

On motion, ten o'clock to-morrow morning was fixed upon as the time for electing Delegates to the General Conference.

After the giving out of notices, Conference adjourned with the benediction.

THIRD DAY.

Friday Morning, September 1, 1871.

The Conference was opened with the usual exercises of the prayer-meeting, conducted by Dr. Briggs, and in which Revs. W. I. Fee, C. H. Lawton, and J. Verity led the devotions of the Conference.

Rev. A. Meharry then read the Ninety-fifth Psalm, and announced the 679th hymn, after the singing of which, Rev. S. B. Smith addressed the Throne of Grace, and several verses were sung.

Bishop Scott then took the chair, and the journal of yesterday's session was read and approved.

Dr. Briggs was appointed by Bishop Scott to conduct the prayer-meeting to-morrow morning.

Dr. Lowrey presented the application of George Jacob Conner, an elder of the Episcopal Methodist Church South, and moved that he be received into full membership and full orders in this Conference. Brother Conner was presented to the Conference, and duly represented, after which, the motion was carried.

Dr. Howard, President of the Ohio University, Dr. Holliday, of the South-Eastern Indiana Conference, R. Toby, of the North Indiana Conference, and brother Ians, of the Christian Church, were introduced.

J. L. Grover presented the report of the Committee on the Bible Cause.

On motion of L. F. Van Cleve, the report was amended so as to include the appointment of Rev. J. L. Grover as County Bible Agent, after which, the report was adopted.

Dr. Moody moved that the Committee on Bible Cause inquire of the Parent Bible Society at New York, why discrimination is made against us as a denomination in the distribution of Bibles in the South. Adopted.

The Eleventh Question was then taken up.

L. F. Van Cleve, presiding elder of East Cincinnati district, read an interesting report of his district, and his character was examined and passed. Also that of the following brethren in the district: A. N. Spahr, M. C. Briggs, C. W. Ketcham, A. Hamilton, C. A. Brooke, A. B. Wambaugh, C. F. Thomas, James Murray, D. C. Vance, G. F. Weaver, Wm. Runyan, R. K. Deem, W. Q. Shannon, Wm. B. Jackson, N. C. Parrish, and J. F. Wright, who presented a brief statement of his labors as Conference Evangelist during the year. Each of the above brethren reported the amount of their collections when their names were called.

On motion of W. I. Fee, the report of Dr. Wright was ordered published in the Western Christian Advocate and Minutes.

Dr. Moody moved that J. C. Maddy be placed upon the list of Conference Claimants. Carried.

On motion, the order of the day, the election of Delegates to the General Conference, was taken up, and the election ordered to be by ballot; and on motion, a majority of all the votes cast to be necessary to a choice, and should more than five receive a majority, the first five highest be elected. J. T. Bail, S. Weeks, A. N. Spahr, and Wm. Fitzgerald were appointed tellers.

The ballot was then taken, and on motion, the tellers were ordered to retire and count the votes, accompanied by one of the Secretaries.

L. F. Van Cleve moved the continuation of A. F. Hixson on trial. Carried.

Brother W. Herr moved that the present year be considered the first year of brother Hixson in the Conference. Carried.

The report of the Camp-Meeting Committee was presented by brother M. P. Gaddis. The report was adopted, and the following brethren appointed to carry out its provisions: Dr. Briggs, C. Ferguson, M. P. Gaddis, Dr. Lowrey, and S. D. Clayton.

The Eleventh Question was resumed, and the characters of the following brethren passed: J. M'K. Shultz, J. M. Walden, R. S. Rust, and Erwin House.

Dr. J. F. Chalfant, presiding elder of the West Cincinnati district, represented his district, and his character was passed.

A. U. Beall was granted a superannuated relation.

On motion, it was resolved not to read the names of members who had received less than five votes for Delegates to General Conference; and the tellers reported that on the second ballot 137 votes were cast, of which, J. M. Walden received 76. Bishop Scott announced the election of Dr. Walden, (no one else having received a majority,) and directed the Conference to ballot for three Delegates.

After receiving the votes of the members, the tellers again retired.

The orders of Mathias P. Greensword, a local elder in the Wesleyan Methodist Church, were recognized in our Church.

Leave of absence was granted J. L. Grover.

On motion, the Conference was adjourned after the giving of notices, with the benediction by Rev. J. C. Bontecou.

FOURTH DAY.

Saturday Morning, September 2, 1871.

Conference was opened at eight o'clock, with the exercises of the prayer-meeting, conducted by Rev. S. D. Clayton, who read a part of the twelfth chapter of Romans, and led in prayer. Revs. J. F. Loyd, E. P. James, and M. G. Baker also led in prayer. After the singing of the doxology, Bishop Scott took the chair, and appointed Rev. M. Kauffman to conduct the religious exercises on Monday morning.

The journal of yesterday afternoon was read and approved.

The tellers submitted their report of the third ballot, which was read by the Secretary.

Whole number of votes cast 125, of which Rev. J. F. Marlay had received 75. Bishop Scott declared the election of J. F. Marlay, and directed the Conference to ballot for two Delegates to General Conference.

After the brethren had generally come in, the tellers collected the ballots and retired.

The following were introduced to the Conference: Rev. brother Martindale, Agent of the American Bible Society, Rev. brother Shultz, of the Methodist Church, and Rev. C. C. M'Cabe, of the Church Extension Society.

The Eleventh Question was resumed, and the characters of G. M. Edgar, S. W. Edmiston, M. P. Zink, James Armstrong, J. S. Gregg, W. J. Thurber, and D. Copeland were passed; and James Armstrong was granted a superannuated relation.

W. N. Williams offered a resolution relating to the Couference Anniversaries. Brother Shultz offered a substitute, proposing to discontinue the holding of the Anniversaries excepting that of the Missionary Society. A motion to lay the substitute on the table failed, and the substitute of J. P. Shultz was adopted.

J. W. Weakley presented a resolution on the relation of G. Parrott, which was adopted. (See Resolutions.)

Leave of absence from the seat of Conference was granted to J. C. Deem.

The case of Isaac Neff was referred to his presiding elder, for the ensuing year, for investigation.

On motion, leave was granted to brethren who had not voted, to deposit their ballots through the Secretary.

D. Copeland reported, in part, from the Committee on Education, which was adopted.

The tellers presented the following report of the fourth ballot: Whole number of votes cast, 133; necessary to a choice, 67. The highest number received by any one being 55, there was no election, and Bishop Scott directed the Conference to ballot for two Delegates. After the Conference had voted, the tellers again retired.

Dr. Trimble, Agent of the Ohio Wesleyan University, and Dr. Moody, addressed the Conference in behalf of that part of the report of the Committee on Education which relates to that institution.

Certain documents relating to the cause of Education, were referred to the Committee on that subject.

The tellers submitted their report of the fifth ballot, which was as follows: Whole number of votes cast, 129; necessary to a choice, 65. The highest number received by any one being 43, there was no election, and the Bishop instructed the Conference to ballot for two Delegates.

On motion of J. Kendall, the Secretary was directed to furnish J. L. Gregg the documents of the Conference relating to his case, brother Gregg pledging to return them intact to the Secretary.

On motion, a collection was ordered and taken in behalf of Rev. A. U. Beall, whose health had failed during the year, amounting to $165.65. Rev. W. I. Fee was appointed to hand it over to brother Beall, with assurance of the sympathy and prayers of the Conference.

A communication from Rev. S. Brown, a superannuated member of the Conference, containing $1.50 for his Advocate, was read by the Secretary, and the money was handed to Dr. Walden, for the Book Concern.

On motion of L. F. Van Cleve, the vote fixing the relation of L. P. Miller was reconsidered, and he was made effective.

Recommendations of local preachers for deacon's orders were called for. J. F. Chalfant presented the case of John Russell, from Lockland quarterly conference; M. Dustin presented the case of Jas. E. Gilbert, of Grace Church quarterly conference; Jas. Kendall presented the case of Sandford Burba; A. Lowrey presented the case of Wm. Rayner; and L. F. Van Cleve that of C. R. Stuntz, all of whom, after due representation by their presiding elders and examiners, were elected to deacon's orders. The Secretary was directed to furnish brother Stuntz a certificate of his election.

The tellers presented their report of the sixth ballot, which was read by the Secretary as follows: Whole number of votes cast, 126; necessary to a choice, 64. Dr. R. S. Rust having received 70 votes, was declared elected, and the Bishop directed the Conference to ballot for the remaining Delegate.

Recommendations of local deacons for elder's orders were called for, but none were presented.

Dr. Weakley presented the recommendation of Rev. Peter Harrison, a local preacher of the Wesleyan Church, and asked that his orders as an elder be recognized in the Methodist Episcopal Church. The request was granted.

The tellers reported the seventh ballot as follows: Whole number of votes cast, 124; necessary to a choice, 63. The highest number received by any brother being 62, there was no election, and the Conference proceeded to ballot again for one Delegate.

The Committee to whom was referred the application of the Missionary Society for a special collection of $3,000, from the Cincinnati Conference, submitted their report. (See Reports.)

Dr. Weakley moved the acceptance of the report, and that it be acted upon seriatim. Carried.

The tellers presented the following report of the eighth ballot: Whole number of votes cast, 120; necessary to a choice, 61.

J. F. Chalfant, having received 71 votes, was declared elected, and G. C. Crum and A. Lowrey, having received the next largest vote on the last ballot, were, by vote of the Conference, chosen as the Reserve Delegates. The time of the session was extended.

On motion, the first, second, and third resolutions of the report of the Special Committee on the above Missionary Collections were adopted, and the fourth resolution, recommending that the publication of the Detailed Missionary Report be discontinued, was laid on the table, and a motion requiring the preachers to furnish such a Detailed Report for publication, according to the provisions of the Discipline, was adopted. The Committee presented an amended report of the distribution of the amounts to be raised by the respective districts of the Conference, which was adopted, and the whole report, as amended, was adopted.

D. J. Starr presented a resolution signed by G. Moody, W. Fitzgerald, W. H. Sutherland, D. J. Starr, and W. Simmons, requesting the Stewards to consider and report upon the advisability of publishing a Detailed Report of the Collection for Conference Claimants in the Conference Minutes. It was adopted, and leave to retire was granted the Board of Stewards.

W. Fitzgerald presented the report of the Committee on the Bethel Cause, which was adopted. He also presented the report of the Committee on Parsonages, which was adopted.

After the giving of notices, Conference adjourned with the benediction.

FIFTH DAY.

Monday Morning, September 4, 1871.

Conference opened with the usual religious services, conducted by Rev. M. Kauffman; Rev. James Armstrong also led the devotions of the Conference in prayer.

On motion, the Conference adjourned to meet at 2 o'clock, P. M., in pursuance of an arrangement previously made, to accept the kind invitation extended by the managers of the Soldiers' Home to the Conference, to visit that institution. The benediction was pronounced by Rev. J. C. Bontecou.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

Monday Afternoon, September 4, 1871.

Conference met, according to adjournment, this afternoon at 2 o'clock; devotional exercises conducted by Rev. James Armstrong.

Bishop Scott presented his certificate of the ordination of six to the order of deacon, and four to the order of elder, on yesterday.

The journal of Saturday, and of this morning's session, was read and approved.

Bishop Morris presented papers relating to the transfer of Rev. John Seys, D. D., to this Conference. After a few remarks from Bishop Morris his transfer was requested by a rising vote, and he was granted a supernumerary relation, having assured the Conference in writing that neither he nor his family would ever be claimants on the funds of the Conference. Bishop Scott announced the transfer of Dr. Seys.

J. F. Chalfant announced the Missionary Appropriation to districts of the Conference, which had been made by the Committee on Missions, and approved by the President of the Conference.

The Committee on Camp-Meetings presented their report, which was adopted.

The Conference Stewards presented their final report, which was read, after which they were granted leave of absence.

D. Copeland presented the remaining part of the report of the Committee on Education. The items relating to the Cincinnati Wesleyan Female College, the Hillsboro Female College, and the Xenia College, were adopted. The item relating to the Garrett Biblical Institute was adopted after amendment.

Lemon, of the North Indiana Conference, Van Horn, of the Reformed Church, Dr. Merrill, Editor of the Western Christian Advocate, brother Washburn, and Dr. Flood, and Rev. O. P. Stevens, Fraternal Messengers from the Ohio Conference of the Methodist Church.

Dr. Flood and Rev. O. P. Stevens briefly and impressively addressed the Conference on the subject of their missions, assuring it of the unity of the respective bodies in doctrine, sentiment, and purpose, and expressing the hope of their early union in organization and effort.

On motion of S. D. Clayton, it was resolved that the usual Missionary Anniversary be dispensed with, in order that an evening session of the Conference may be held.

The Committee on the Freedmen's Aid Society presented their report, which was adopted.

A. Lowrey presented the recommendation of Wesley Rector, for admission into the traveling connection, and after representation he was admitted.

On motion of James Kendall, it was resolved that Isaac Neff be left without an appointment. At the request of Bishop Scott, Wm. Young took the chair. On motion, Conference proceeded to fix the place of its next session. Eaton, and Central Church, Springfield, were put in nomination, and, after due representation, Eaton was agreed upon, and the vote of acceptance was made unanimous.

Dr. Briggs presented the report of the Committee on Temperance, which was adopted, and ordered to be printed in the Conference Minutes and in the Western Christian Advocate.

The Conference authorized the Treasurer of the Conference Missionary Society to pay to the Secretary $300, or so much thereof as may be necessary to pay for the publication of the Detailed Missionary Report in the Conference Minutes.

Dr. Briggs presented the report of the Committee on the Observance of the Sabbath, which was adopted, and ordered to be printed in the Minutes and in the Advocate. The Committee were requested to furnish copies for publication in those papers, to the editors of the Cincinnati Daily Gazette, Commercial, Enquirer, Times and Chronicle, Volksblatt, and in the Apologist; and members of the Conference were directed to read it to their congregations.

On motion of Dr. Moody, at the request of the presiding elder, leave was granted, by the Conference, to the Trustees of Independence Church, on Winchester circuit, Hillsboro district, for the sale of that property.

The Stewards of Dunbarton circuit were directed, by vote of the Conference, to pay over the proceeds of the sale of their parsonage, to be equally divided between the Stewards of Sinking Springs and West Union circuits.

Consent was also given to the Trustees of Raper Chapel, Cincinnati, to sell their property, the proceeds to be re-invested. Like privileges were also granted to the Trustees at Eaton for the sale of their parsonage and old church property, and re-invest the proceeds.

On motion of W. Fitzgerald, the vote fixing the relation of E. F. Hill was reconsidered, and he was granted a supernumerary relation, without appointment, at his own request.

A collection was ordered, and taken, for the sexton of the church, who had faithfully served the Conference, which amounted to $19.19.

On motion, the Treasurer of the Conference Missionary Society was ordered to read his report at the evening session. W. Herr presented the report of the Conference Trustees. The officers recommended in the report were elected. It was adopted as a whole, and ordered to be published in the Minutes.

On motion of W. Simmons, the report on the Freedmen's Aid Society was ordered to be published in the Minutes, at the expense of the Society.

C. W. Ketcham presented the report of the Committee on Periodicals, which was adopted.

On motion, Conference adjourned to meet at 7½ o'clock, with the benediction, by Dr. J. F. Wright.

EVENING SESSION.

Monday Evening, September 4, 1871.

Conference opened this evening at 7½ o'clock, the devotional exercises being conducted by Dr. Lowrey.

The journal of the afternoon's session was read and approved.

The First Question, "Who are admitted on trial?" was taken up.

L. F. Van Cleve presented the recommendation of Lucian M. Davis; M. Dustin presented the recommendation of Prof. James E. Gilbert; S. Bennett presented the recommendations of Charles J. Wells, of Lafayette Young, of Daniel L. Hayward, and of Charles H. Kalbfus. After due representation by their respective presiding elders, these brethren were all received by the Conference.

D. Copeland nominated the following as Trustees of the Hillsboro Female College, and they were elected by vote of the Conference: Revs. A.

Meharry, James F. Chalfant, L. F. Van Cleve, S. D. Clayton, John T. Wilson, James Kendall, T. S. Cowden, and C. Ferguson.

W. A. Robinson read the report of the Committee on the Sabbath-School Cause, which was adopted.

J. F. Chalfant presented the reports of the Secretary and Treasurer of the Sunday-School Union, and Tract Society. They were accepted, and ordered to be published in the Minutes.

J. M. Walden presented the report of the Committee on Popular Amusements, which was adopted by a rising vote of the Conference, the Bishop requesting the privilege of joining in expression of his warm approval of the sentiments of the report.

The report, together with the action on the same subjects, taken by the Conference at Ripley and Piqua, was ordered to be published in the Minutes, and in the Western Christian Advocate.

On motion of W. I. Fee, the officers of the Church Extension Society of the Conference were re-elected, with M. A. Richards as Treasurer, in place of J. J. Thompson.

On motion of W. L. Hypes, that resolution, and the circular adopted last year, were ordered to be printed in the Minutes.

W. I. Fee presented the report of the Committee on the Tract Cause, which was adopted.

J. F. Conrey read the Treasurer's Report of the Missionary Society of the Conference.

J. W. Weakley presented the report of a Special Committee appointed last year to inquire into the condition of the Springfield Female College. After the reading of the report, a motion to continue the committee prevailed, and J. F. Chalfant and A. B. Wambaugh were added to it.

On motion, L. P. Miller was granted a superannuated relation.

Dr. R. S. Rust, from the committee appointed to prepare a minute for the Conference journal in relation to the decease of Bishop Davis W. Clark, presented his report, which was adopted; the Conference testifying its respect by a rising vote, and Bishop Scott testifying to the high regard in which Bishop Clark was held by the Episcopal Board, and the great bereavement its members feel in his removal from their number. (See Report.)

John F. Marlay read the memoir of Rev. D. D. Davisson, which was adopted by a rising vote.

W. N. Williams read the memoir of Rev. John Wesley Fowble, and, after some verbal changes, the report was adopted by a rising vote.

W. L. Hypes read the memoir of Rev. Eli Kirk, which was adopted by a rising vote.

The reading of these touching memoirs was followed by the singing of a part of the 1,083d hymn, which was announced to the Conference by Bishop Scott.

Affecting remarks were made by W. Herr in relation to D. D. Davisson, on whose behalf he presented to Dr. J. F. Wright the walking cane which Dr. Davisson had bequeathed to the oldest member of the Conference in succession. Dr. Wright received the testimonial, and in touching words accepted the trust, in accordance with the dying wish of Dr. Davisson.

On motion of G. Moody, Conference adjourned, to meet a eight o'clock to-morrow morning, with the benediction by Dr. J. F. Wright.

SIXTH DAY.

Tuesday Morning, September 5, 1871.

Conference opened this morning at eight o'clock with the usual religious services conducted by Rev. E. H. Field.

The journal of last evening's session was read and approved.

Bishop Scott announced the Committees of Examination; and appointed Jas. Kendall—with A. N. Spahr as alternate—to preach the Missionary Sermon.

Bishop Scott presented the consolidated report of the Book Agents at New York and Cincinnati, which were received and ordered to be placed on file.

D. J. Starr presented resolutions of respect and sympathy toward Bishop Scott, and of thanks to the citizens of Dayton, the Managers of the Soldiers' Home—Payne, Holden, and Herr—and to certain railroad companies for favors. (See Resolutions.)

A. Lowrey tendered to the Conference some blank books of the Centennial Records, which, with the consent of Conference, he disposed of for $3.50, and presented the proceeds to E. H. Field.

A. N. Spahr presented the report of the Committee on Finance, which was adopted and ordered to be printed in the Minutes.

On motion, M. P. Gaddis, at his own request, was granted a supernumerary relation with appointment.

Dr. Lowrey returned $75, unused Missionary money, which had been appropriated to Lockington. Dr. Weakley made a similar announcement of $100 from the Xenia district. These amounts to go to the Treasury of the Parent Society.

N. M'Donald presented a letter, which was ordered to be placed on file, with the testimony in the case of J. L. Gregg. Conference also ordered that J. L. Gregg, in whose hands they now are, furnish to the prosecutor in the case the findings in the preliminary trial.

The Conference Stewards announced their final appropriations, and distributed their funds. (See paper marked K.) Their resolutions were also presented and adopted.

A. Hamilton, from the Committee on Post-Offices, reported that some of the districts had made no report, for which reason his report must be incomplete. The report was adopted, and ordered to be published in the Minutes.

G. Moody presented a resolution providing for the publication of the address of the widows of deceased members in the Post-Office department of the Conference Minutes. Carried.

A. Meharry offered a resolution favoring the Ladies' and Pastors' Christian Union. It was adopted.

On motion of A. Lowrey, the Conference, by a rising vote, in which Bishop Scott desired to join, expressed its gratitude to the Secretary and his Assistants for faithful services.

L. Clark presented a resolution relating to the transfer of W. W. Ramsay, which was adopted.

W. H. Sutherland offered a resolution respecting the publication and distribution of the Conference Minutes, and another referring the unpaid account of preachers for Minutes to their respective presiding elders for collection. They were adopted. (See Resolutions.)

The following brethren were appointed to secure advertisements for the Minutes: Dayton, S. Scott; Hamilton, D. J. Starr; Springfield, J. W. Gunn; Urbana, J. White; Piqua, W. Legg; Eaton, J. Chambers; Xenia, A. Conwell; Troy, N. Smithers; Hillsboro, J. Saylor; Cincinnati and Ripley, W. H. Sutherland; Greenfield, S. D. Clayton; Lebanon, Wm. B. Sellers.

Rev. brother Allen, of the Central Ohio Conference, was introduced.

On motion of W. Herr, the Conference gratefully acknowledged the enterprise and valuable services rendered by the ladies of Greene-Street Church, Piqua, in sustaining a boarding-tent at the National Camp-Meeting, the profits to be applied on their church debt.

On motion of Dr. Briggs, J. F. Chalfant was added to the Committee on Camp-Meeting.

W. Runyan was elected Secretary of the Conference Missionary Society, at the request of S. D. Clayton.

J. F. Loyd was excused from the Camp-Meeting Committee, and J. W. Weakley was elected to fill his place.

The journal of the morning session was read and approved, after which Bishop Scott in brief, but deeply affecting remarks, returned his thanks to the Conference for its uniform courtesy and kindness toward him, and requested James F. Chalfant to read the appointments.

After the appointments were read, the Conference joined in singing the 221st hymn, and was adjourned with the benediction by Bishop Scott.

CONFERENCE RESOLUTIONS.

Conference Minutes.

1. Resolved, That Conference authorize the Secretaries to issue an edition of 5,000 copies of our Minutes for the present year, and send them to the presiding elders, to be by them distributed to the preachers in their respective districts, at the rate of one copy to each six and a half of our total membership; the presiding elders to collect the money from the preachers and settle with the Secretaries.

2. Resolved, That all outstanding dues of our preachers, for our Minutes of 1868, '69, and '70, be referred to their respective presiding elders for collection.

WM. H. SUTHERLAND,
D. J. STARR,
G. H. DART.

National and Conference Camp-Meeting.

Resolved, That a committee of seven be appointed to consider the propriety of inviting the "National Committee" to hold their ninth National Camp-Meeting, for 1872, within the bounds of the Cincinnati Conference; and also to report to this Conference the expediency of holding a Conference Camp-Meeting.

M. P. GADDIS, SEN.,
C. F. THOMAS.

Fraternal Greetings.

Whereas, it is of the utmost importance that all Christians, but especially the different branches of Methodism and kindred bodies, should labor together in Christian harmony; and, whereas, fraternal greetings between the annual and quadrennial Conferences of different Methodist Churches have recently and happily been exchanged; therefore,

Resolved, That we elect one delegate, and one alternate delegate, from our Conference, to extend in person our brotherly greetings to the annual Conferences of the other Methodist Churches and kindred bodies within our bounds, namely: To the Conference of the Methodist Church now in session at Bellbrook; the Ohio Conference of the African Methodist Episcopal Church, to be held next Spring in Chillicothe; and the Conference of the United Brethren in Christ, to be held next Summer.

C. H. LAWTON,
S. B. SMITH,
M. A. RICHARDS.

Ladies' and Pastors' Christian Union.

Whereas, the Ladies' and Pastors' Christian Union proposes the systematic employment of the women of the Church, under the direction of the regular pastorate, in the Home Missionary work; therefore,

Resolved, That we will co-operate with the society by organizing such societies in our several charges where practicable.

A. MEHARRY,
M. DUSTIN.

Conference Stewards' Resolutions.

1. Resolved, That a sum equivalent to ten per cent. of the salaries paid in each presiding elder's district shall be the amount expected from the same, and the District Stewards are hereby requested to distribute the same to the respective charges, according to the ability of each.

2. Resolved, That we hereby pledge ourselves to present this claim to our people as early in the year as practicable, giving it that prominence its merits demand.

3. Resolved, That in the passage of character, each pastor shall be requested to report the amount of his collection.

4. Resolved, That any pastor who may neglect to present this claim to his charge, or shall lightly excuse himself therefrom, will thereby expose himself to just censure.

5. Resolved, That Estimating Committees, in complying with the Discipline, page 270, request claimants to furnish to the Estimating Committee appointed by the quarterly conference, and to the Board of Stewards of the Annual Conference, a full statement, in writing, annually, on the first day of Conference, of their financial condition, and that no claim be considered without such financial statement.

6. Resolved, That we do not deem it best to recommend to the Conference to order the publication of a detailed report of the collection for Conference claimants, for the ensuing year, and refer the question to the careful deliberation of the members of Conference until the next session.

W. RUNYAN, Chairman.

SYLVESTER WEEKS, Secretary.

Post-Office Address of Preachers' Widows.

Whereas, the Methodist minister's wife shares with him the hardships and labors peculiar to our itinerancy; and, whereas, most of the wives of the living members of this Conference are known to the Church generally, it is a lamentable fact that but few of the widows of our deceased brethren are known; therefore,

Resolved, That we request the Conference Stewards to furnish to our Secretary, for publication in the annual Minutes, the name and post-office address of each widow on their list.

N. C. PARRISH, JAMES STEPHENSON,
TRUMAN S. COWDEN, J. J. HILL,
E. H. FIELD, JAS. ARMSTRONG,
R. A. ARTHUR, GRANVILLE MOODY.

Conference Anniversaries.

Resolved, That the Conference Societies, except the Missionary Society, hold their anniversaries in the afternoon instead of at night, as heretofore.

J. P. SHULTZ.

Transfer of Rev. W. W. Ramsay.

Resolved, That in the transfer of Rev. W. W. Ramsay from this Conference, we part from him with sincere regret, and hereby assure him of an interest in our prayers in his new field of labor; and that we will cheerfully welcome him to our Conference fellowship again whenever the interests of the work of Christ may require his return.

LUCIEN CLARK,
W. RUNYAN.

Relation and Appointment of Rev. Geo. Parrott.

Resolved, That the relation of Rev. Geo. Parrott be changed from a supernumerary to an effective relation, and that having been re-elected as Principal of the Preparatory Department of Vincennes University, the Bishop be requested to appoint him to the said position.

JAS. F. CHALFANT,
J. W. WEAKLEY,
W. HERR.

COMPLIMENTARY RESOLUTIONS.

Of Respect to Bishop Scott.

Resolved, That we are devoutly thankful to the Great Head of the Church, that he hath preserved our beloved Bishop Scott, and brought him to this, the twentieth, session of the Cincinnati Conference, in the twentieth year of his Episcopal office; that we assure Bishop Scott of our Christian sympathy in his recent bereavement; and that we will cherish a grateful memory of his presence and Presidency at our sessions; and that we will attend him in his arduous labors with our earnest prayers.

D. J. STARR, JAS. F. CHALFANT,
W. H. SUTHERLAND, JOHN W. WEAKLEY.

Of Thanks.

Resolved, That the thanks of the Cincinnati Conference are hereby respectfully tendered to the citizens of Dayton for their generous hospitality; and to the officers and members of Grace Church for the use of their beautiful and commodious edifice for the purposes of the Conference; to the ladies for its tasteful decoration with flowers; and to the pastors of the various Churches for Christian and ministerial courtesies.

Resolved, That the thanks of the Conference are hereby tendered to the Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton Railroad with its branches, to the Pittsburg, Cincinnati and St. Louis Railroad with its branches, to the Cincinnati, Sandusky and Cleveland Railroad, and to the Cincinnati and Marietta Railroad, for the favor of transportation at half fare.

Resolved, That we duly appreciate the enterprise of the Cincinnati and Dayton papers that have furnished Reporters and published our proceedings.

J. P. SHULTZ, JAS. F. CHALFANT,
J. W. WEAKLEY, W. H. SUTHERLAND.
S. D. CLAYTON,

Resolved, That we respectfully recognize our indebtedness to the Managers and Officers of the Soldiers' Home for their kindness in extending to the Conference the facilities of visiting that excellent institution as a body; and that from our observation of the management of the institution, in its various parts, we commend it as every way deserving of confidence and praise, and that we recognize the institution itself as a standing proof that our Republic is not ungrateful.

GRANVILLE MOODY,
DAVID JUDSON STARR,
JOHN M. WALDEN.

Resolved, That we fully appreciate the delicate kindness of Messrs. Payne, Holden, and Herr, in their thoughtful provision of a writing table, and furnishing stationery for the gratuitous use of members of the Conference.

D. J. STARR,
R. S. RUST.

RULES OF ORDER.

1. AFTER the usual opening religious exercises, the Secretary shall read the minutes of the previous session.
2. No motion shall be entertained by the Conference till such motion shall have been seconded.
3. All motions shall be reduced to writing, if desired by any member of the Conference.
4. Every member desiring to speak on any subject before the Conference, shall rise and address the President.
5. The member who first rises and addresses the President shall be entitled to the floor.
6. No member shall speak more than once on the same subject till all who may desire to speak shall have spoken; nor more than fifteen minutes at a time without leave of the Conference.
7. All questions of order shall be decided by the President, subject to an appeal to the Conference, without debate.
8. When any question is under debate, no motion shall be received but to adjourn, to lay on the table, to postpone, to commit, or to amend; but a motion to adjourn shall always be in order; and this, as well as a motion to lay on the table, shall be decided without debate.
9. If the question before the Conference be capable of division, upon the call of any member, such question shall be divided.
10. The business of the Conference shall be conducted with open doors, unless otherwise ordered by the Conference.
11. Any question may be reconsidered on the motion of any member who may have voted with the majority.
12. If any member call for the previous question, and such call shall be sanctioned by a two-thirds' vote of the Conference, the main question shall then be put.
13. Each Committee of the Conference shall choose its own chairman, unless the chairman be designated by the Conference or the President in the appointment of the committee.
14. The members of the Conference shall assemble in the Conference-room punctually at the hour to which the Conference adjourned, and no member shall absent himself from the place of Conference session without leave of absence.
15. In all practicable cases, when charges are preferred against a member of Conference, notice shall be given to the President on the first day of the session, that, if it be judged proper, his name may be called, and the case referred to a committee.
16. No member of Conference shall be subject to arrest of character without having been timely furnished, wherever practicable, with a written copy of the charges and specifications against him.
17. The vote on any question shall be taken by ayes and noes, upon the call of fifteen members.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES.

DAYTON, OHIO, September 5, 1871.

I HEREBY certify that the following Reports were adopted by the Cincinnati Annual Conference at its session in 1871.

WILLIAM H. SUTHERLAND,
Secretary of Cincinnati Annual Conference.

REPORT ON EDUCATION.

THE Committee on Education respectfully submit the following Report on the Educational interests of the Cincinnati Conference:

Ohio Wesleyan University.

Notwithstanding the protracted illness of the revered head of this institution, President Merrick, the past year has been one of great prosperity. Under the efficient management of Dr. M'Cabe, all the interests of the University have been carefully and successfully attended to. No previous year has required less discipline, witnessed better order, or secured better application to study. At the late commencement forty-six promising young men went forth to bless the world in the various walks of life. The moral power of the college has never been more marked. Another year has been added to the course of study, and an additional professor elected for the department of Natural History—Prof. E. T. Nelson. Brothers Wright and Mast are continuing their improvements on the grounds, and the endowment of the Thomson Professorship is being secured under the earnest labors of Dr. Trimble.

The assets and liabilities of the institution remain about as heretofore. The great and imperative demand, in order to make it a first-class University, is a larger endowment. This must be secured or it will inevitably fall far in the rear of similar institutions.

The Committee recommend for your adoption the following resolutions:

1. That we will co-operate with the other patronizing Conferences of the Ohio Wesleyan University in an effort to endow additionally said

University, by endeavoring to raise, on an average, one hundred dollars annually from each charge for the next five years.

2. That we respectfully ask the Legislature of Ohio to enact the Bill proposed by the Alumni of the University, empowering them to elect five Trustees and two Visitors additional to those now elected by the several Conferences.

3. That Rev. L. F. Van Cleve be elected Trustee to fill the vacancy caused by the expiration of the term of Rev. Granville Moody, D. D.

4. That the presiding Bishop be requested to appoint Rev. L. D. M'Cabe, D. D., Professor of Philosophy in the University.

5. That Revs. W. H. Lawder and Lucien Clark, A. M., be appointed Visiting and Examining Committee to the University for the next year, and Revs. R. S. Rust, D. D., and S. A. Brewster be the alternates.

6. That we recommend the Ohio Wesleyan University to our people, believing it to be worthy of their highest confidence and most liberal patronage, and that we ask for the University and its faculty the sympathy, the prayers, and the liberal contributions of the Church, that they may successfully accomplish the work intrusted to them.

Cincinnati Wesleyan College.

This institution has just closed the twenty-ninth year of its history. It has graduated nearly four hundred young women to positions of social honor and usefulness. At its re-organization, in 1868, it enlarged its courses of study and entered upon a career of greater usefulness and more extensive plans, in order to increase the facilities for the solid and superior culture of woman.

It stands now in the front rank of Colleges for the education of young women. Its building is unsurpassed by any single educational structure in Methodism. Its grounds are kept in the best of order, and as to its home and boarding advantages we give the language of the Committee of Visitation, appointed by this Conference: "The boarding department is as much like a well regulated home as the necessary order of so large a family admits; good fare, good nature, and good manners characterize the establishment;" and in concluding the Report the Committee add: "In a word, we know of no place where parents or guardians, who wish to educate their daughters and wards, can find more enlarged facilities, with less that is dubious and dangerous, than in the Cincinnati Wesleyan College."

The Trustees are among the noble men of Methodism of our State. They have shouldered and carried forward this great enterprise without involving the Church or Conferences in their financial responsibility, and yet all has been done for the greater advancement and credit of the Church. It is an institution for the whole Church rather than for any special section. It promises—in its patronage for the next year—to have pupils from at least fifteen different States. Large improvements have been in progress during the vacation. The walls of all the rooms have been painted, the ceilings calsomined, the wood-work varnished, and the south and east fronts repainted. The rooms and building are entirely furnished, and the expenses, per annum, are as low as in any other school with equal advantages. There are eighteen Professors and Teachers in actual employment, who have been secured and continued with reference to their long experience and marked success in teaching.

The Committee request the Bishop to re-appoint Rev. Lucius H. Bugbee, D. D., as President of the College.

The Committee also request the appointment, as a Board of Visitation, the following brethren: Rev. R. S. Rust, D. D., Rev. Lucien Clark, Rev. A. B. Wambaugh, Rev. R. M. Hatfield, D. D., and Rev. G. H. Dart.

Hillsboro Female College.

This institution has, during the past year, increased its reputation for thoroughness in every department of education. Experienced teachers only are employed in the solid and ornamental branches. The department of Music is under the charge of a German Professor of thirty years' experience, and that of Painting under the instruction of an Artist of superior qualifications. Education, discipline of mind, and culture, and not extravagant dress and fashionable folly, are sought for in this school. As a home-school it possesses an enviable reputation. The young ladies are under the personal supervision of the President and his wife, who exercise watchful parental care over them. For the time being they become their daughters and are cared for as such. Domestic comforts, refined manners, and a salutary religious influence distinguish the college family.

The location of this institution is in a beautiful town, only sixty miles from Cincinnati, situated on one of the highest points of land in the State. An abundance of pure air and a beneficial climate are the result. The grounds are large, and the building of fine architecture. The school offers a quiet and healthful retreat for study to young ladies from both the city and country. The advantages of this institution are furnished at as low rates as in any other of equal merit. The prospects for the coming year are better than ever before. We unhesitatingly recommend the Hillsboro Female College to the confidence and patronage of the Church.

The Committee request the presiding Bishop to re-appoint Rev. David Copeland, A. M., President of the College, and ask the Conference to appoint, as a Visiting and Examining Committee, the presiding elder of Hillsboro district, and the pastors of the Churches at Hillsboro, Greenfield, and Wilmington.

Xenia College.

This institution has had another prosperous year, having enrolled one hundred and seventy-six students. The College is open to both ladies and gentlemen. Under the efficient management of President Wm. Smith, A. M., this arrangement has worked well. Its excellent Board of Instruction, commodious buildings, beautiful grounds, and healthful location, entitle it to a generous patronage.

We recommend that Revs. A. B. Wambaugh, Jas. Stephenson, the presiding elder of Xenia district, and the pastors of Xenia, be the Visiting and Examining Committee for the next year, and that they be instructed to report upon the financial condition of the College and its legal relation to the Conference.

Garrett Biblical Institute.

Whereas, the Garrett Biblical Institute is the only regularly chartered and established Theological School in the West; and,

Whereas, its history and success have been such as to secure the confidence of the whole Church; therefore,

1. Resolved, That we most heartily commend this Institute to the support and patronage of the Church within the bounds of this Conference.

2. That we recommend the appointment of Revs. W. I. Fee, A. M., and L. H. Bugbee, D. D., as Visiting and Examining Committee from this Conference.

The Committee would further report that more earnest effort to promote the education of the youth of our Church is greatly demanded. It is manifest that the influence and success of our Church depend largely upon a highly educated ministry and an intelligent and cultivated membership. We, therefore, recommend the adoption of the following resolutions:

1. That we most earnestly request young men feeling themselves called of God to preach the Gospel to spend one or more years in one of our theological schools in preparing for their work.

2. That we will as pastors do all we can, by personal effort, to persuade parents to educate their sons and daughters at some one of the institutions under the care of our Church.

3. That we each will heed the rule of our Discipline, which directs pastors to preach a sermon on education to their congregations at least once a year.

4. That we recommend an Educational Anniversary at our next Annual Conference, and thereafter to be held upon the third afternoon of the Conference session.

5. That we recommend to the General Conference, at its ensuing session, in Brooklyn, to erect our educational work into a Conventional Society upon such basis as their wisdom shall dictate.

At a late hour certain documents from the Board of Education, of the Methodist Episcopal Church, were presented to the Committee, asking the organization of an Auxiliary Educational Society in this Conference. The papers were referred to a sub-Committee to elaborate a plan of organization, and present the same to the Educational Committee appointed by the next Conference.

Respectfully submitted to the Conference.

REPORT ON FREEDMEN'S AID.

WE are debtors to all men, but above all others to the colored people of the South. They are among us; it is not necessary to cross the ocean, and go to the ends of the earth, and learn foreign languages, in order to convey to them the Gospel, and proffer to them Christian education. They are at our very doors. They are not here, however, as the people of other nationalities are. Others have come of their own choice, seeking liberty; these have been forced by our race to come in slavery.

They are ignorant and poor, but it is no fault of theirs; it is no cause of reproach to them, no result of their own indolence, and no evidence of their inferiority. By the cruelty of our own race, they have been debarred from intellectual culture, and their earnings have been wrested from them. They are becoming a mighty element of power, either for weal or woe, in our Government. If left in ignorance and abasement, they will ever be a curse to the land that has cursed them.

If there have ever been doubts in our minds as to their willingness, and capability, to come up from their degradation, and take their places beside the cultured and the prosperous, the results of our experiments are sufficient to dispel those doubts forever. Hence, justice, and patriotism, and religion, and every other noble sentiment, call on us to extend a helping hand to this downtrodden race. We hail with joy the success of the Freedmen's Aid Society of our Church, which, with the limited means placed by the Church at its command, has accomplished wonders in carrying forward the cause of education among the colored people.

Believing that the Church is loudly called upon by these facts to give increased attention to this work, and devise more liberal things in its favor, we present the following for your consideration:

Resolved, That the success of the Freedmen's Aid Society in sustaining schools in the South, and in preparing young men for the ministry, and for teachers, warrants us in giving it our hearty and liberal support, and demands of us increased contributions to this cause.

Resolved, That we regret that so few of our churches have taken collections for this Society, and that we will urge upon our people more earnestly the claims of the colored people of the South.

Resolved, That it is the sense of this Conference that the Freedmen's Aid collection is frequently omitted on account of the multiplicity of our annual collections, and that the general interests of the cause would be better subserved if the General Conference would unite this with our other educational work, and thereby reduce the number of collections.

Resolved, That we request the presiding Bishop to re-appoint Rev. R. S. Rust, D. D., Corresponding Secretary of the Society.

Resolved, That we request the appointment of W. Simmons as Agent for the Freedmen's Aid Society.

Respectfully submitted. A. B. WAMBAUGH, Chairman.

REPORT ON FINANCE.

THE Committee on Finance are persuaded that the financial plan which has been adopted for several years by this Conference is one of great excellence. Faithfully used, it has always worked well. The envelope plan has been introduced in a few charges, and is reported to have worked well. This plan provides for the apportionment of the claim, and then provides that the stewards and leaders shall present such apportionment to the membership, and ascertain how much each one will agree to pay weekly. Each subscriber is then furnished with numbered envelopes for each Sabbath in the year. These, bearing the names of the subscribers, and containing the weekly subscriptions, are thrown into the basket collections, received, and regularly credited. In this way many are led to pay, in small sums in the yearly aggregate, a much larger amount than they would give in any other mode.

The Committee incline to the opinion that this plan, heartily indorsed by the financial meeting, would do good service, but as our old plan is better known, and when faithfully used invariably secures success, they recommend its re-adoption, and urge the presiding elders, pastors, and financial boards to see that its provisions are faithfully followed.

1. It shall be the duty of the last quarterly conference of each year to fix the time and place of holding the financial meeting for the next ensuing year, to which the Estimating Committee shall present their estimate for the pastor's support. The meeting shall be composed of the preacher or preachers of the charge, the stewards, leaders, and Estimating Committee. The meeting shall then apportion the amount to the several societies within the circuit. The stewards and leaders of each society in the circuit shall be a committee to apportion the claim upon that society to the individual members. If the charge be a station, the financial meeting shall directly assess the estimates upon the members according to their ability, severally. Or, if any society prefer, the stewards and leaders shall see that voluntary subscriptions are made by all the members.

2. When the estimates are provided for by apportionment, the stewards shall ask each member to accept such apportionment, or a modification of it if necessary, to be paid in four equal quarterly installments, before or at each quarterly conference. Such accepted sum shall be entered upon a suitable book and collected promptly by the stewards and class-leaders. We earnestly urge these collectors to such diligence, and the members to such promptness, as not to carry embarrassing deficiencies from one quarter to another. As sons of Wesley, we should do this as every thing else, "at the time."

3. The Estimating Committee shall consult the preachers as to the amount necessary for their support; and the presiding elder shall inquire, at the first quarterly conference, before putting the estimate of the committee on its passage, if such consultation has been had.

4. In the judgment of the Conference, the obligation to pay the preacher's salary in full is as binding upon the congregation and its individual members as the payment of promissory notes in banks, and should be met promptly.

5. We earnestly recommend to ministers and members to take up the Conference collections as early in the year as possible, distributing them at proper intervals, so that they will not be crowded together or embarrass the close of the year.

6. The presiding elders shall present this plan to the first quarterly conference in each charge, and shall cause it to be read to the congregations of the first quarterly-meetings. And on circuits the pastors shall cause it to be read as soon thereafter as possible, in each of their congregations.

REPORT ON THE OBSERVANCE OF THE SABBATH.

The Committee on the Observance of the Sabbath, appointed by the Cincinnati Conference, respectfully submitted the following resolutions, which were passed unanimously:

1. Resolved, That the Sabbath is enforced upon the conscience by the authority of God, and commended to the affections by the love and glory of the resurrection.

2. Resolved, That the Sabbath is the center and support of the principal agencies of moral instruction, and with it will stand or fall say sixty-one thousand houses of religious worship; the weekly offices of an equal number of recognized religious teachers, who constantly stimulate thought and restrain vice by the sublimest motives known to mankind; eight-tenths of the higher institutions of learning, which are sustained by the munificence of Christian patronage; the far-reaching influence of the religious press in its weekly and Sunday-school issues; the gratuitous and invaluable instructions of nine hundred and seventy thousand Sabbath-school teachers; the weekly training and careful religious education of six millions of Sabbath-school scholars; the constant circulation of sixteen millions of volumes of Sabbath-school books, the largest and purest circulating library on the globe; and the repose, order, prayerfulness, and pious counselings of four millions of Christian homes.

3. Resolved, That experience has stamped the Sabbath with incomputable value as a civil institution, and installed it forever as a fit subject for the recognitions and safeguards of law.

4. Resolved, That it is the poor man's refuge from the exactions of avarice, and the oppressions of capital; his day of rest, and peace, and free-flowing affection, and home's delightful interchanges; his day for cleanliness, and thought, and aspiration; a day when the din of the shop and the roar of the street give place to sweet Sabbath-bells, and the songs his children sing; a day when the law should neither permit him to be forced to toil, nor tempted to dissipation.

5. Resolved, That the world will not reverence the Sabbath till the Church evinces an enlightened veneration for its sanctity, and a genuine delight in its services. The world will not keep the Sabbath from polluting it until the Church, with unbroken front, shows how to keep it.

6. Resolved, That the Church must have clean hands and a stainless record in this thing; for Christ's sake her members must cease to encourage Sabbath-breaking, at their camp-meetings, by opening the gates to whistling trains and rolling carriages; by authorizing soda, cigars, candy, fruit, and daguerreian stands within the law-protected limits; and at their homes, by inviting the rattle of the Sunday milk and ice wagons; the shrill cry of the Sunday news-boy; and the down-lighting Sunday newspaper to their doors; and by Sunday visiting and Sunday riding to the country, under pious but misconceived pretenses; by a style of dress and equipage calculated to leave the impression that they go to the sanctuary to show their finery; by door-step visiting on Sabbath evening, instead of going to God's house of prayer; by strolling about the parks and fields; by avoidable Sunday riding in the street cars; by making the Sabbath a day of greedy feasting and needless sleeping; by suffering their children to run the streets instead of taking them to the house of the Lord, as they pledged themselves to do when they consecrated them to God in baptism; and, in a word, by indulging in any thing gross, or puerile, or out of keeping with the spirit and design of the day which God has made a sign of covenant between him and his people forever.

7. Resolved, That when there is no sacred Sabbath there is no living Christianity; and there the civil Sabbath will inevitably fall into disuse and contempt, and police, espionage, and the confessional usurp the place of conscience-power and Christian morality.

8. Resolved, That we will hereafter fully and faithfully bring the Sabbath, with its uses, abuses, and desecrations, before the minds of our congregations, and will unite with them, and all other good citizens, in every just effort to enforce the law of the civil Sabbath, while we gratefully sanctify and hallow the holy day in our own hearts and homes.

REPORT ON TEMPERANCE.

YOUR Committee on Temperance respectfully submits the following resolutions:

1. Resolved, That no language can exaggerate the evils of the drink traffic, whether viewed as a cause of physical disease, domestic misery, social disorder, civil crime, political corruption, or of imminent peril to constitutional liberty and the admirable institutions of our country.

2. Resolved, That Christian citizens, while obedient to human law, are not content with the measure of righteousness which it enjoins, but accustom themselves to view and measure business, pleasure, duty, and crime, in the more perfect light of the Divine law.

3. Resolved, That it is an instant and urgent duty of Christian citizenship to grapple with the insolent and cruel liquor traffic, and, in the name of humanity and God, press existing laws to a general and faithful enforcement.

4. Resolved, That the certain and honorable way to procure more stringent legislation is to enforce the present laws till both their strength and their weakness are demonstrated in practice.

5. Resolved, That we have reached a period in the history of the Temperance Reformation when an imperative moral necessity is laid upon the Church in all its branches, and especially upon the Methodist Episcopal branch, to renew its pledges of fidelity with a zeal and purpose far surpassing any thing in its past history. There is such work to be done as demands the conscience and courage of consecrated men, who fear God too filially to fear his enemies, and love souls more than ease or office—men who are ready to brave a thousand deaths rather than dishonor the high behests of duty.

6. Resolved, That we pledge ourselves, individually and collectively, before God and men, without equivocation, mental reservation, or secret evasion of mind, to exert our utmost influence, personally and through our congregations, to procure the speedy and entire suppression of the manufacture, sale, and use, as beverages or medicines, of all kinds and quantities of intoxicating liquors. REPORT ON THE AMERICAN BIBLE SOCIETY.

THIS Society occupies a prominent place among the great benevolent agencies of the age. Every Protestant Church is interested in sustaining it, for without its co-operation no Church can successfully prosecute its work at home or abroad. The ministry would be an utter failure unless sustained by the authority of God's Word, and so far as the missionary work is concerned, it would be as well to send an army to the battle-field, without supplying it with weapons offensive and defensive, as to send the missionaries to heathen lands, unless they take with them the Bible in the language of the people they go to serve. This want is fully provided for, by the American Bible Society, which, in the fifty-five years of its existence, has issued about twenty-eight millions of copies of the Scriptures in fifty-eight of the living languages of the world.

A great deal has been done in supplying the destitute with the Bible, but a far greater portion of the work remains to be done. There are still seven hundred millions in heathen lands who remain unsupplied. In this Christian land of ours recent canvassings have disclosed the fact that one in ten of the families is without the Bible, and in Mexico, and Spain, and Austria, and France, and Italy, where its circulation, for ages, has been obstructed by the Papal power, so that the Bible has been to a great extent unknown among the masses, that power is now broken, and Bible depositories are established in their great centers of influence, and the Bible is freely circulated, and the people are gladly receiving and reading the Word which is able to make them wise unto salvation. God has wonderfully prepared the way for the sowing of the precious seed, and the demand is upon us for greater zeal in occupying the fields whitening to the harvest.

The past year, in the Southern District of Ohio, of which Rev. Wm. Herr, of this Conference, is the General Agent, has been one of abundant labors and marked success. He has delivered 142 sermons and addresses; traveled, on official duty, 9,424 miles; written 845 letters, circulated 3,655 Bible documents, and reports receipts to the amount of $40,234. During the year, 31,765 families were visited within this district, 1,494 of whom were found to be destitute of a Bible.

The Committee submit, for the adoption of the Conference, the following resolutions:

1. That the demands of the times call upon us for increased efforts in sustaining and enlarging the operations of the American Bible Society.

2. That we will cordially co-operate with the accredited agent in our respective charges, and, in his absence, attend to the collection, so that, as far as practicable, we can make report to the anniversary of the auxiliary societies in the counties in which we operate.

3. That we request the re-appointment of Rev. Wm. Herr as Agent, and Rev. J. L. Grover as County Agent of the Society, for the Southern District of Ohio.

REPORT ON THE TRACT CAUSE.

WE are impressed with the fact that the Tract Cause does not receive that attention which it deserves. The distribution of tracts is an agency which, in silence, works its way, sowing seed unobtrusively beside all waters. It lifts not up its voice, neither is its cry heard in the streets, yet it exerts an influence mighty for good. Other enterprises of the Church are more demonstrative, make more noise, attract more attention, enlist more fully the sympathies of the Church. There is every reason to believe that the Tract Society is carried on with great economy, and those whose duty it is to care for its interests deserve much commendation for their fidelity. Your Committee are satisfied that if all our Churches would take hold of this enterprise, respond to its claims, and scatter its tracts, great good to the cause of Christ would be the result.

REPORT ON PERIODICALS.

YOUR Committee respectfully submit the following report:

1. We regard denominational periodical literature as vitally essential to the development and piety of the Church.

2. We have no hesitation in saying that our Church papers and magazines are worthy of the confidence and earnest support of all our people. If all the profits of our publishing houses could be retained and used in improving and cheapening our periodicals, instead of being drawn out and diverted to other purposes by order of the General Conference, a much heavier editorial force could be employed, the very best writers secured, and new life thrill through all our issues. Our journalism would then stand prominent among the secular and religious weeklies throughout the land. But, if this change can not occur, the much-needed funds could be had if our people would conscientiously rally to their support, and give them the indorsement they deserve and are entitled to expect.

3. We believe that, with suitable effort on the part of the preachers, at least one of our periodicals could, and ought to be, taken by every family in the Church; and, if all our preachers would personally urge their claims, and attend to their circulation, the subscription lists might quickly be doubled.

4. We would respectfully suggest to those in authority, that less space be given to advertising, and more to family reading and piety, and that patent nostrums and humbugs generally be forever excluded.

5. We incline to believe that independent or unofficial journalism is on the increase—that there is a growing laxity in regard to the support of Church papers; and we believe the only way to resist this tendency is to make our publications more attractive than others. They must be enterprising, rich in thought, racy in style, and adapted to the wants of the people and the progress of the times.

6. We would earnestly commend the Quarterly Review to every minister and cultivated layman, the Ladies' Repository and Golden Hours to every family, and the Western Christian Advocate to every member of the Church in the Conference. Observation has taught us that those members who take and read our periodicals have a deeper sympathy with the Church, and can be safely depended upon when in need of help and support.

7. In view of the connectional character of our work, and the demand made upon our publishing houses to support General-Conference officers, servants of the entire Church, it is in bad taste, if not a breach of faith, to supplant our own papers by originating, patronizing, or circulating outside and antagonistic publications, the profits of which never, in any way, contribute to support our Church interests. Common business honor demands that those portions of the work thus operating should, by contribution or collections, make good their part of the support of General-Conference officers and interests.

Respectfully submitted. C. W. KETCHAM, Chairman.

E. T. WELLS, Secretary.

REPORT ON THE SABBATH-SCHOOL CAUSE.

WE recognize, in the rapid growth of the Sunday-School Cause, and the multitude who have been brought to Christ through its influence, the fact that the favor of God rests upon it, and that therefore we should use every possible means to increase its efficiency—believing which we most cordially recommend the following:

1. Resolved, That the success of the Conference Sunday-School Convention, held at Hamilton the past year, was such as to justify the convening of another, at such time and place during the coming year as may be determined by the officers of the Sunday-School Union of this Conference.

2. Resolved, That this Convention be hereafter authorized to fix the time and place of its own sessions.

3. Resolved, That the subject of Temperance be more earnestly and frequently presented by superintendents and pastors in our Sunday-schools.

4. Resolved, That, in the judgment of the Committee, it is the duty of adults and parents to be in the Sabbath-school studying the Scriptures with the children, and of the children to be in the congregation with the parents.

5. Resolved, That we most earnestly recommend more general and thorough catechetical instruction in our Sunday-schools.

6. Resolved, That we recognize the importance of a uniform lesson, and do most cordially recommend the Berean Series.

7. Resolved, That the salvation of the children should ever be kept in view by teachers and officers as the great end to be accomplished; and that whatever does not contribute to this should be banished the schools.

Respectfully submitted. W. YOUNG, Chairman.

W. A. ROBINSON, Secretary.

CONFERENCE SUNDAY-SCHOOL UNION.

SECRETARY'S REPORT.

ANOTHER year has passed away, and another anniversary of our Conference Sunday-School Union has returned. The labors of the year are over—its successes gained—and, so far as the present Conference year is concerned, the campaign ended.

We come from our various fields of labor to review the work we have done, the record we have made, and to gather wisdom for the future. The Sunday-school army of the Methodist Episcopal Church is a large one, and its work is one of the great interests of the Church. We need not repeat our former declarations of the importance of this enterprise. The action of the Church declares emphatically our sense of the greatness of the work. Its growing importance demands that we should give it greater prominence in our annual deliberations, as well as in our individual labor in our respective charges.

During the year just closing, the officers of the Sunday-School Union, as per order of the last session of the Conference, prepared a programme of exercises, and fixed the time and place for the first session of the Cincinnati Sunday-School Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

This Conference was held at Hamilton on the first and second days of May last, and was well represented by a majority of the charges within our bounds. Fifty-seven of the ministers of the Conference were present.

Your Secretary would beg the indulgence of the Conference in calling attention to the collections for our Sunday-School Union. We annually declare, by resolutions, our approval of the Union, and our purpose to aid it by collections, and yet do almost nothing for it. Our statistics this year show the following: That in one hundred and sixteen charges, but forty-five have reported collections, leaving seventy-one charges where the direction of the General Conference, requiring collections to be taken, has been totally disregarded. We conclude that the great fault is with ourselves—we fail to present to the people the claims of the Union. This is a disciplinary collection, as much so as for the Missionary Society or the Superannuated Fund, and if the Union deserves material aid, let us walk by the same rule, and make collections for it; and if it is not a proper object of the Church's beneficence, let us say so, and not present the inconsistency of approving and promising, and always failing to perform. Respectfully submitted.

REPORT ON THE BETHEL CAUSE.

YOUR Committee beg leave to report that the Cincinnati Union Bethel is accomplishing a good work under the general superintendence of Rev. Thomas Lee. The great object is to improve the moral and temporal condition of the poor and destitute; to help them out of their embarrassments, and place them in a position where they can help themselves, and be useful members of society. The following are the departments of labor and usefulness by which it is hoped to accomplish this benevolent design:

1. A mission school, in which are enrolled 3,500 scholars, of whom there were present at one time, last Winter, 2,526.
2. The regular preaching of the Gospel.
3. Systematic visitation of poor families by volunteer Christian men and women, who seek out the poor and afflicted, and minister to their pressing wants.
4. A free circulating library.
5. A home for destitute newsboys and bootblacks, where lodgings are furnished free, and where 2,920 lodgings were furnished during the last year.
6. A cheap dining-room, where meals are furnished at cost, and given free in case of necessity. Here, 2,300 meals were given to destitute persons during the last year.
7. A relief department, managed by the Ladies' Bethel Aid Society, which furnishes every comfort in its power to the poor and needy. To this department is added a Boatmen's home, where our boatmen can find cheap lodgings free from the demoralizing tendencies of low boarding-houses and liquor saloons. During the year, a voluntary missionary band has been formed among the teachers of the school, so that every month twenty-five missionaries visit from house to house, ministering aid and comfort to the sick, the poor, and the needy.

The religious services are held on Sabbath, 10, A. M., and 7½, P. M., and also on Wednesday evenings. During the year a large number have joined the Bethel Church, and several are said to have transferred by letter to various other denominations. This Church may be considered more in the light of a recruiting office for the regularly organized Churches of the land, than as an independent ecclesiastical institution, and is, therefore, entitled to the sympathy and prayers of all.

In view of the above facts, we recommend the adoption of the following resolutions:

1. Resolved, That we heartily approve the organization, design, and noble work of Cincinnati Union Bethel, and do hereby commend it to the sympathy and prayers of all friends of humanity and lovers of Christ.
2. Resolved, That we hereby recommend to our presiding Bishop the re-appointment of Rev. Thomas Lee as General Superintendent of the Bethel, in accordance with the request of its Board of Directors.

Respectfully submitted.

REPORT ON PARSONAGES.

YOUR Committee respectfully report that we find 116 charges in this Conference where married men are stationed, and hence where parsonages are needed; that 69 of these charges have parsonages, leaving 47 unsupplied. In 1865 we had 64, and have built only 5 since. The total value of parsonage property, according to the report of last year, is $163,300, making the average value of $2,364 each. The charges having no parsonages paid out during the last year, for house rent, the sum of $7,664; making an average of $163, which, in less than fourteen years, would build a house in each charge now without one, worth $4,855. The cost of moving the preacher's furniture will average $40 to the charge, and hence cost the 116 charges $4,640 for one move alone. This certainly points in the direction of providing good, substantial furniture for every parsonage. It is an old saying, that three moves are equal to one fire. This being true, many of our preachers have been burned out several times during their lives, and that, too, at their own expense.

If the preachers are required to endure the sacrifice of moving from place to place at the end of every two or three years, for the general good of the Church, the membership should see to it that the sacrifice to the preacher should be made as light as possible. This can be done to a great extent by having a well-furnished parsonage in each charge. We believe the laity will do it if the matter be brought properly before them. We have great confidence in the laity.

We recommend for adoption the following resolutions:

1. That every pastoral charge having no parsonage be requested to adopt means to procure one as soon as convenient.

2. That in every charge where there is no parsonage, the trustees be requested to provide a house for the preacher, and thus save him the frequent trouble and anxiety of procuring one for himself.

3. That we recommend that those charges having parsonages without furniture, shall provide good, substantial furniture for the same.

4. That the presiding elders and the preachers in charge be, and are hereby requested, to co-operate in the accomplishment of the end in view by these resolutions. Respectfully submitted.

REPORT ON FAIRS AND POPULAR AMUSEMENTS.

THE Committee to which these subjects were referred respectfully report the following for adoption:

Whereas, the obvious design of the Gospel is to call out of the world a people for the name and praise of God; and,

Whereas, God's people are specifically styled "a peculiar people"—a people not of the world, and yet in the world—the media of gracious and saving influences; and,

Whereas, the world is infectious, and assimilation with its principles, spirit, and peculiar amusements is injurious to Christians, as it tones down their piety, chills the holy ardors of their souls, compromises their position, and produces that friendship with the world which is enmity to God; and,

Whereas, our excellent Discipline forbids "the taking of such amusements as can not be taken in the name of the Lord Jesus;" and,

Whereas, at this juncture it is proper to assure all Christians that our Church firmly adheres to these principles of the fathers, which have guarded the homes of Methodism from demoralizing amusements; and,

Whereas, it is the duty of the pastors of the Churches, in Conference assembled, and in their several charges, to lift the warning voice against all those diversions which may compromise Christian character and influence; therefore,

1. Resolved, That we affectionately warn our people against giving approval, by their presence, to fairs where horse-racing is permitted; base-ball contests; circus-shows; traveling minstrels; theatrical performances; parlor or assembly dances; masquerade balls; games of chance; raffling of all kinds.

2. Resolved, That the music of our domestic circles is too worldly, while sacred songs are too generally excluded. Our voices and our pianos should be sanctified to the praise and glory of God.

3. Resolved, That we hope our people will provide innocent and harmless recreations for the young in our homes, that they may have such "diversions as may be taken in the name of the Lord Jesus."

4. Resolved, That we re-affirm the following declaration adopted by us at Ripley in 1866, namely: "That the Cincinnati Annual Conference regards dancing as one of those diversions which can not be taken in the name of the Lord Jesus; and that we affectionately admonish the membership of our Church to abstain from all participation in this amusement and earnestly entreat them to use all their social influence to discourage it;" and that we re-affirm the following resolutions adopted at Piqua, in 1870, namely:

"1. Resolved, That we look upon County and State Fairs legitimately and properly conducted as worthy encouragements to the agricultural and mechanical industries and the stock-growing interests of the Commonwealth, and in no sense injurious to sound morality and religion.

"2. Resolved, That we are deeply grieved at the growing demoralization of these Fairs, arising from racing, trotting, betting, drinking, etc., and we are fully satisfied that the interests of morality and religion demand that the race-track and all its accompaniments should be banished from these Fairs.

"3. Resolved, That we respectfully and earnestly request for this subject the attention and prayerful consideration of members of the Church of God who may hold office in these Societies, and consequently must be in some measure responsible for these things."

REPORT OF SPECIAL MISSIONARY COLLECTIONS.

YOUR Committee to whom was referred the appeal of the Missionary Secretaries for a $3,000 special collection to relieve the Missionary Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church from its crushing embarrassments, hereby report for adoption the following:

1. Resolved, That we, the pastors of this Conference, hereby pledge ourselves to use our utmost efforts in our several charges, to raise the sums allotted to us by our presiding elders for the aforesaid special missionary collection.

Your Committee hereby report the assessment of the following sums to the several districts, namely:

East Cincinnati District	$650 00
West Cincinnati District	700 00
Dayton District	400 00
Xenia District	400 00
Hillsboro District	300 00
Springfield District	400 00

REPORT OF THE CAMP-MEETING COMMITTEE.

YOUR Committee beg to report, after careful consideration, the following resolutions:

1. Resolved, That we deem it expedient to establish a Conference Camp-Ground within our bounds.

2. Resolved, That we recommend the appointment of a committee to select, purchase, and superintend the preparation of a Conference Camp-Ground, and to make arrangements to hold a camp-meeting during the coming Summer.

3. Resolved, That we recommend the Conference to appoint a committee of five to nominate a committee to carry out the foregoing resolutions.

4. Resolved, That the question of inviting the National Camp-Meeting Committee to hold their next session in our midst be referred to the Camp-Meeting Committee, as provided for in resolution 2.

A YEAR'S EVANGELISM.

Rev. J. F. Wright's Report to the Cincinnati Conference.

DEAR BRETHREN,—I present to you a brief statement of my labors during the past Conference year:

I commenced my work the first Sabbath after Conference, at Walnut Hills, September 4th, and for thirteen consecutive weeks I averaged to preach twice for every Sabbath. A mild temperature, good roads, and favorable weather, all contributed to secure a large attendance at church. I think I never passed an Autumn so pleasantly. The pastors and their congregations gave me a cordial welcome wherever I visited. The people, in nearly all the charges where I labored, seemed to be enjoying a good state of spiritual life, and to hear the Word preached with much apparent interest, intense thought, and unremitting attention. I trust, through the agency of the Divine Spirit, some good was accomplished.

In December and January the weather was not so favorable, several weeks being intensely cold. My usual Winter cough set in, and threatened to be severe. I deemed it prudent to seek a more uniform and milder climate, and on the 18th of January I started for the Southern border of Louisiana, near the Gulf of Mexico. Here I was cordially received at the Orphans' Home, where I served as temporary pastor, for the most of the time, for three months. We had nearly one hundred at the services every evening, consisting of reading a Scripture lesson and prayer, and often a brief address. I frequently preached on Sabbaths, and assisted in the Sunday-school. A good many who were converted and brought into the Church in 1870 are holding fast the beginning of their confidence. There is an important week-day school connected with the Home.

In proximity to this institution is the germ of our Thomson University. A good school has been there since January 3, 1870; Miss S. A. Smith commenced it. She was a competent and very successful teacher. The last year Rev. S. L. Beiler has had charge of the institution, and has given ample proof that he was an excellent educator, and a skillful teacher. Having some knowledge of the teachers who have served this school, and the excellent proficiency the students have made, I can scarcely express my solicitude that the school be supplied with a good teacher, and one who loves his work.

I returned to my own Conference in April, and helped my brethren in their charges, as far as I had invitations and opportunity. The whole number of times I have preached amounts to fifty-six. I think my position as evangelist can be sustained, to some extent, by Scriptural authority. In Acts xv, 36, we read: "Paul said unto Barnabas, let us go again and visit our brethren in every city where we have preached the word of the Lord, and see how they do." Now this is just what I have been trying to do the three years I have been your Conference Evangelist; and I assure you it affords me great pleasure to meet my beloved friends whom I knew in the days of other years, especially when I see that they are doing well.

But I find in those places where I served as presiding elder, only twenty years ago, many of my friends are missing—have gone on before; absent from the body, and present with the Lord, where there is no sorrow. Their sons and daughters have grown up, and are now "set in families." I esteem it a great privilege to preach the Gospel to the children and grandchildren of my endeared friends. Some of those dear loved ones I dedicated to God in Christian baptism, and they now remember how glad father and mother were to receive me at my coming to be their guest, and how they ministered to the preacher something more than a cup of cold water, and that shall not go unrewarded. If I meet with any of those loved descendants of the hospitable and kind parents, who know not Jesus, I will pray them in Christ's stead to be reconciled to God, and love and serve the Jehovah whom their fathers and mothers delighted to worship, and who never forgets how they earnestly prayed for the salvation of all their children. Can we imagine how often the loving Christian mother, in pressing the infant babe to her bosom, has prayed, "Lord, forbid that I should ever raise a child for the devil!"

If I ever have the privilege to pray in any of those families or their descendants, I shall be sure to pray that religion, in all its simplicity, purity, and power, may never wear out in that family, but that it may continue with increased life and power in all their generations to the end of time.

I have much pleasure in visiting the venerable veterans of the Cross of Christ. They sometimes teach me how to be old to advantage. I love to hear them talk of the way along which they have traveled, and how they feel as they are nearing the crossings of Jordan. I love to hear them sing,

"On Jordan's stormy banks I stand,
And cast a wishful eye
To Canaan's fair and happy land,
Where my possessions lie."

If it would not lessen their joy, I would venture to say this much, "At evening time it shall be light."

In conclusion, I desire to say I have had a very happy Conference year, and think I can not express my state more in accordance with my own consciousness, and the witness of the Divine Spirit within me, than in the following words of the song:

"I have entered the valley of blessings so sweet,
And Jesus abides with me there,
And his Spirit and blood make my cleansing complete,
And his perfect love casteth out fear."

If there is any thing in my heart contrary to love, I confess my diligent search has failed to find it. Jesus and his love seems to fill all the space. To dwell in unmixed love, and to be filled with perfect love, must be the state St. John sets forth and so beautifully and sweetly describes: "God is love; and he that dwelleth in love dwelleth in God, and God in him." My fixed purpose is to show forth the praises of my merciful and almighty Savior, who hath called and brought me out of darkness into his clear and MARVELOUS light. To him be glory and dominion forever and ever. Amen. J. F. WRIGHT, Conference Evangelist.

REPORT OF TRUSTEES OF CINCINNATI CONFERENCE.

THE Trustees of the Cincinnati Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church met in the lecture-room of the Presbyterian Church, Dayton, Ohio, August 31, 1871, the following members being present: A. B. Wambaugh, President; A. Meharry, Treasurer; W. Young, W. L. Hypes, W. Simmons, J. W. Dale, and W. Herr, Secretary.

The meeting proceeded to business. The Secretary read the minutes of the last meeting, which, on motion, were approved.

The Treasurer presented the following report, and, on motion, it was adopted:

The surplus on hand in the treasury last year, namely, $104.42, having been placed in the hands of the Treasurer of the Preachers' Relief Society for safe-keeping, on motion, the Treasurer was directed to obtain and hold it, together with other funds now in the treasury, subject to the call of the Board of Stewards of the Cincinnati Conference, to be disbursed for the benefit of the needy claimants of the Conference.

On motion, the election of Trustees for the ensuing year was had, which resulted as follows: A. B. Wambaugh, W. Herr, A. Meharry, W. Simmons, W. L. Hypes, W. Young, and J. W. Dale, Esq.

The Board organized by the appointment of

A. B. WAMBAUGH, President.
W. HERR, Secretary.
A. MEHARRY, Treasurer.

WM. SIMMONS, W. L. HYPES, W. YOUNG, J. W. DALE, ESQ., Trustees.

The Secretary was instructed to ask the Conference to confirm the above election and the organization of the Board.

On motion, the following resolution was adopted:

Resolved, That the Treasurer be, and he is hereby instructed and authorized to sell the United States bonds now on hand, $1,500, provided he can safely invest the proceeds at eight per cent. interest.

It affords the Board great pleasure in calling the attention of the Conference to the benevolent and liberal bequest of Mrs. Rebecca Townsand, late of Milford, Ohio, amounting to five thousand dollars, to be called the "Kugler Bequest," and to be safely invested, the proceeds to be annually disbursed by the Board for the benefit of the needy claimants of said Conference. The following is an abstract of the will:

"CLAUSE No. 24.—I give and bequeath to the Cincinnati Conference the sum of $5,000, to be under the control of the Trustees of said Conference, and by them put out at interest, the interest to be perpetually used by them for the relief of superannuated and worn-out ministers, and widows and orphans of deceased ministers of said Annual Conference. This to be known as the 'KUGLER BEQUEST.'"

Copied from the will of Mrs. Townsand, late Mrs. Kugler, of Milford, Ohio. EMIL HOFFMAN, Deputy Clerk.

At the last session of the Cincinnati Conference, held in Piqua, Ohio, August 24, 1870, the following clause in the Report of the Trustees of the Cincinnati Conference was adopted, namely:

"The attention of the Board was called to the will of Robert Singleton, late of Urbana, Champaign county, Ohio, in which are bequests of several hundred dollars each to the American Bible Society, the Missionary Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church, the American Tract Society, and the First Methodist Episcopal Church, in Urbana, Ohio; whereupon, on motion, W. Herr was appointed to give such attention to said bequests as may be necessary to secure the payment of them to the Societies contemplated in the will."

The Board takes pleasure in informing the Conference, that recently Mrs. Mary Singleton, executrix of Robert Singleton, deceased, through her accredited agent, Mr. Wm. C. Stephenson, has paid one thousand dollars of the bequests, $500 to the American Bible Society and $500 to the Missionary Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church. Other payments will be made in due time.

There being no further business, on motion, the Board adjourned.

Respectfully submitted.

A MINUTE

IN REGARD TO THE DEATH OF BISHOP CLARK.

THE Committee appointed to prepare a Minute for the journal of the Cincinnati Conference, in reference to the death of our beloved Bishop Clark, respectfully submit the following:

Davis W. Clark, D. D., commenced his labors in the West as editor of the Ladies' Repository, about twenty years ago. As the successful editor of that periodical, he became widely and favorably known all over the land. As a resident within our bounds, he identified himself with all the great interests of Methodism, especially those pertaining to education and Church extension, and we gratefully record our high appreciation of his services in behalf of the Wesleyan Female College and the Ohio Wesleyan University.

When called to the office and work of a Bishop, we recognized his eminent fitness for the position, and cordially welcomed him at our Conference sessions. While we bow submissively to the will of God, in the death of our beloved Bishop, we can not but deplore the loss of one so eminently fitted to serve the Church in that relation. We would hereby express to the bereaved widow and her family our sincere condolence with them in their great loss; and we further direct that this Minute be entered upon the journal of this Conference, and a copy of it be forwarded to the bereaved family.

MEMOIRS.

REV. DANIEL D. DAVISSON.

DANIEL D. DAVISSON was born near Clarksburg, Harrison county, Virginia, in the year 1786. In his twenty-first year, he attended a camp-meeting in Botetourt county, on Craig's Creek, not far from Fincastle. His brother, James Davisson, was preacher in charge of the circuit in the bounds of which the camp-meeting was held, and Jacob Gruber, the eccentric but zealous and indefatigable minister of Christ, was presiding elder of the district. At this camp-meeting he preached many powerful and stirring sermons, and the Word took effect on the hearts of large numbers who had been attracted out of curiosity to visit one of these annual gatherings of "the people called Methodists."

As the result of the meeting, many were converted to God, and among that happy number was Daniel D. Davisson. Not long after his conversion, young Davisson felt strongly impressed that it was his duty to call sinners to repentance; and, having found pardon himself, he fully believed there was mercy for all through the precious blood of Jesus.

While thus exercised, the Church thrust him out into the field, and from the hands of the now sainted Gruber he received license to exercise his "gifts and graces" as a local preacher. In the year 1811 he was sent by the presiding elder to travel the Greenfield circuit, and, at the expiration of nine months, was recommended by the quarterly-meeting conference to the Baltimore Annual Conference as a suitable person to be received into the traveling connection. He was accordingly received, and appointed to the Beaver circuit. His next appointment was to the Delaware circuit, which threw him into the Western Conference, with which he was identified, with the exception of a few years, during the whole of his extended ministry. He received, in all, forty-one appointments, and very few of his brethren in the ministry have toiled, for a longer term of years, on more difficult and laborious fields, or with a more unfaltering step, than did he.

The Delaware circuit, at the time of which we write, embraced the town of Columbus—now the Capital of Ohio—where he preached in a school-house to a very little flock. Columbus, like all the Western towns of that primitive period, was in its infancy, and where now are beautiful avenues, lofty dwellings, magnificent public buildings, and elegant churches, there was naught then but a ridge of woods, and a deep morass, with here and there a humble dwelling.

The Methodist preacher of that period was in "labors oft," but he loved his work, and God was with him. Though he had to travel from three to five hundred miles often in order to complete the circuit of his immense field of labor, and had, sometimes, thirty appointments in four weeks, with deep swamps to wade through, and rapid rivers to cross, he had souls for his hire, and much comfort in the Holy Ghost.

In 1814 Mr. Davisson traveled the Hinkston circuit, in Kentucky. During this year he was married to Miss Sarah Bridges, in Clark county, in that State, and soon afterward it became expedient for him, as he believed, to engage in some secular business for a support. He had already devoted some time to the study of medicine, and his brother, Dr. James Davisson, being a popular and successful practitioner, at that time, in Urbana, Ohio, he concluded to finish under him the study of medicine, and engage in that profession. But, alas! how vain are all human calculations! Scarcely had he finished his medical course, and entered upon his laborious work as a physician, when his beloved wife, for whom all this had been undertaken, sickened and died. Regarding this dispensation of Providence as a loud call, he gave up his business at once, and applied, through the Rev. Jas. B. Finley, for re-admission to the traveling connection.

The Conference was held that year, 1817, in Louisville, and at its close Mr. Davisson received his appointment to Chetauque circuit. After traveling six hundred miles he reached his field of labor, and entered upon the work without a colleague. It was a year of great peace to his own soul, and much prosperity to the Church—two hundred souls were gathered into the fold.

The limits of a brief biography, such as this must necessarily be, will not allow a detailed account of his various fields of labor. In 1819, while traveling the Erie circuit, Dr. Davisson was married to Miss Elizabeth Smith, of Crawford county, Pennsylvania. His subsequent fields of labor were as follows: 1820, Pickaway; 1821, Paint Creek; 1822, London; 1823, Piqua; 1824, White Oak; 1825, Oxford; 1827, Hockhock-ing; 1828, Miami; 1829, Milford; 1831, Darby; 1832, Union; 1833, Piqua; 1834, Sidney; 1836, Supernumerary; 1837, Milton; 1839, Greenville; 1840, Milton; 1842, Germantown; 1843, Franklin; 1845, Germantown; 1846, Fletcher; 1847, Lewisburg; 1849, Venice; 1850, New Carlisle; 1852, Germantown; 1853, Concord; 1855, Supernumerary; 1856, Fairfield, his last charge.

As a preacher, Dr. Davisson was logical, methodical, and eminently Scriptural. He has, fortunately, left to the Church two small volumes of sermons, prepared for the press during the latter part of his ministry. It must occur to the reader of these excellent sermons, that a diligent, prayerful study of the Bible was the main reliance of the author in their preparation. In doctrine they are thoroughly Wesleyan, evincing throughout an ardent love of the distinctive articles of faith held and taught by the Methodist Episcopal Church. They are written in a neat, forcible style, with occasional passages of that fervid eloquence for which the Doctor was well known in the early years of his ministry. Father Davisson, as he came to be universally and affectionately called, was, for many years, the senior member of this Conference. As his name stood first on our roll, it is hardly too much to say that he stood first in the affections of his brethren. As the patriarch of his Conference, sitting near the President, with his pure, loving, saintly face, how vividly is his image impressed on our memories! When he arose to speak, every eye was fixed, every ear open, every noise hushed; and when his eye kindled and his clarion voice rang out, his speech was in demonstration of the Spirit, and with power to the very last. In the long list of faithful, self-denying men, who, during the present century, have toiled with such marvelous success to establish Methodism upon a firm foundation, there is not one who stands out more pre-eminently for purity of heart and life than father Davisson. He was a man in whom was "no guile." Conscious always of the purity and rectitude of his own motives, he never impugned those of others. He scorned the artifices by which too many, even among good men, seek to accomplish their ends. His was emphatically a transparent character. He wore no mask. He was what he seemed—as upright in his principles as in his person. Few men, probably, have lived so long and so conspicuously before the public who have uttered so few words which, dying, "they could wish to blot." It seemed to be the rule of his life never to put a bad construction on an action that was capable of a good one; and so he refused to listen to tales of slander, always doubting injurious reports concerning his brethren. He delighted, on the other hand, to speak well of others, especially his brethren in the ministry. If there are men in our holy calling who are willing to build themselves up by pulling others down, Dr. Davisson was as far removed as possible from such a character. He loved his brother-ministers, especially those of his own Conference, with a love that was wonderful.

I need not add that he was a man of unaffected humility. For nearly half a century he performed the arduous work of an active, efficient itinerant, never seeking place or preferment. Always content with the fields of labor assigned him, he wrought cheerfully at his appointed duties, esteeming it an honor to be a co-worker with Christ. The history of his long, and sometimes difficult and dangerous journeyings, of his hardships, exposures and sufferings, can never be known fully in this world—it is an unwritten history, and he seldom referred to these things himself. He much preferred to sing:

"Happy, if with my latest breath
I may but gasp his name;
Preach him to all, and cry in death,
Behold, behold the Lamb!"

He was a holy man. And yet it was rather by his life than by his words that he proclaimed the power of the blood of Jesus to cleanse from all sin. He lived so that men took knowledge of him that he had been with Jesus. He always spoke with the greatest humility of his personal attainments in religion—but his daily walk, his conversation, his spirit, were more eloquent than words.

He was a cheerful Christian. It is the misfortune of many old persons, that amid the restless activities of the present they dwell too much in the past, and lose sympathy with the progressive movements of the times, becoming often peevish, censorious, and fretful. Father Davisson did not belong to that unhappy class of old people. He rejoiced in all healthy progress, and kept his heart young—insomuch that he was an agreeable companion for young people in his extreme old age. He ruled his own spirit perfectly. He indulged in no fits of despondency. He had learned, in whatsoever state he was, therewith to be content.

For the last few years Dr. Davisson was an invalid, utterly prostrated in body and mind. It pleased God in mercy to spare him from much physical suffering, and above all to infuse in his heart a degree of docility, resignation, and patience, that rendered it a pleasure to all to minister to his wants. Notwithstanding his mind was sometimes beclouded, rendering it impossible to converse on ordinary subjects, yet, on the subject of religion and his own personal acceptance with God and his hope of heaven, he was always clear and satisfactory. When his attention was called to the subject, he invariably testified, that "the God of Abraham was his friend; that the everlasting arms of Jehovah were around and about him; that Christ was his Savior; that he had a clear witness of his present acceptance, and when he should fall in death he hoped to rise and live with God forever in heaven." His was a present appropriating and triumphant faith, enabling him to trust implicitly in the wisdom, love, and grace of his Redeemer. It was truly a privilege to witness the serenity of his mind, and his calm, patient waiting for the Lord.

It is due to the memory of our departed and now sainted brother that we should add that he not only manifested his love for God and his Church by consecrating nearly sixty years of his life to the ministry, but by his will, after the death of his widow, he bequeathed all his property to the cause of benevolence. To a friend whose father many years ago showed special kindness to a now deceased brother of Dr. Davisson, he bequeaths $100; to Davisson Chapel, in Dayton, Ohio, $500, with interest since 1855; to the Preachers' Relief Society, Cincinnati Conference, $500; and the balance of his estate, amounting to several thousand dollars, to the Missionary Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church, "for the propagation of the Gospel among the heathen." Thus, "though dead, he yet speaketh," and will continue to proclaim, to the end of the world, the "glad tidings of salvation," for it was a favorite idea with Dr. Davisson that after he was dead he would still be preaching "Christ and him crucified." May his worthy and noble example be followed by many others!

REV. JOHN W. FOWBLE.

JOHN WESLEY FOWBLE was born in the city of Baltimore, Maryland, on the 5th day of November, in the year 1814. There were, doubtless, instructive incidents in his early history, call to the ministry, etc., but no traces of that portion of his life are left behind.

He came to Ohio, as he expressed it, to seek his fortune, and in 1838 was united in marriage to Miss Susan L. Quinn, daughter of the late Rev. James Quinn, of the Ohio Conference, and settled in the town of Rushville, O., where he engaged in the drug business. He enjoyed the society of this excellent lady but for a brief period, for on the 15th day of December, 1839, death claimed her, and the house of our brother was desolate. About this time, perhaps, he had his first convictions as to the duty of entering the ministry. Here he received his first license to exhort, signed by M. P. Kellogg, preacher in charge of the Rushville circuit. This license is dated Rushville, O., February 23, 1840. Here, too, on July 24, 1841, he was licensed as a local preacher by the quarterly conference, R. O. Spencer presiding elder. His license, as a local preacher, was renewed by the quarterly conference of Newark station, and bears date July 23, 1842, R. O. Spencer presiding elder. In the same year, on the 28th day of September, he was received into the Ohio Annual Conference, which held its session at Hamilton, and was appointed to Granville circuit. Subsequently he received the following appointments: 1843, Charleston; 1844, Marietta; 1845, Barlow; 1846, Charleston; 1847–48, Highland; 1849, Wilmington; 1850–51, Amelia; 1852–53, Ninth-Street, Cincinnati; 1854–55, Christie Chapel; 1856–57, Amelia; 1858, Batavia; 1859, he was appointed presiding elder on Georgetown district, which name it retained till 1861, when it was changed to Ripley. He remained on the district till 1862, the full term; 1863, he was appointed to the East Cincinnati district, where he remained four years; 1867, he was appointed to Xenia, where he remained two years; 1869–70, M'Kendree Chapel, Cincinnati, where he closed his life and labors. He was once honored by a seat in the General Conference of 1856.

April 28, 1845, he was married a second time, to Miss Lucy Crawford, of Harmar, who became at once the sharer of the toils and privations of itinerant life. For twenty years they walked the path of life together. On the 8th day of June, 1865, she, too, was transferred from the Church militant to the Church triumphant. Four children remain as the fruits of that marriage—two sons and two daughters—all having attained majority except the youngest daughter. September 4, 1867, he was again united in marriage to Mrs. Lizzie Townley, relict of the late

Rev. Mr. Townley, of the Cincinnati Conference, who is now left to mourn his comparatively early death.

It is to be regretted that so little is left to guide us in the preparation of his memoir. Yet such doubtless were his life and earthly labors, that his record is on high. If he had labored to establish a posthumous character, he might have left us a rich experience in the things of God; but he chose rather to labor for God and the Church, and leave the results with Him whose high commission he bore, and who had spoken to him in the depths of his soul, "Go preach my Gospel." It is difficult to sketch a character such as he possessed. He was a preacher far above mediocrity. His discourses were always sound, practical, and instructive, and sometimes he would rise to thrilling eloquence. He was possessed of a sound judgment and discriminating mind. With him there was a degree of positiveness that did not always please those not intimately acquainted with him. He was, moreover, an original and independent thinker. When he embraced a theory he was not soon shaken in mind, but with wonderful tenacity would cling to his own conceptions of what was right.

The disease which terminated fatally was pronounced by his attending physicians, softening of the brain. He was not overtaken suddenly, but by slow and insidious marches the foe came upon him, completely undermining his constitution, till his once active and vigorous mind became a wreck and life a blank. Whatever his hand found to do he literally did with his might. He seemed intent on having a resting-place when he could no longer endure the labors and fatigue of itinerant life. There were some moments in his sickness when the intellect seemed to brighten and recollection return, but it was of short duration, then all was vacancy. Whenever interrogated in regard to his spiritual condition his answers were always satisfactory, giving assurances of his willingness to depart and be with Christ.

A few days before his death two of his ministerial brethren called to see him. He appeared somewhat rational. To the question "Is Christ precious?" he answered, "Yes." Prayer was then offered, and two stanzas of the hymn commencing, were sung, which he seemed to appreciate. On Friday, preceding his death, I called to see him, when he appeared more rational than for many days, instantly recognizing me, as also brothers Hall and De Graw, who entered the room soon after, inviting them in his usually kind way to be seated. At all times, when able to recognize any one, he seemed pleased with the visits of his brethren, though the remembrance of it soon faded from his memory. His mind seemed filled with religious thoughts. He desired at one time to know if any religious persons visited there. His wife replied in the affirmative, and endeavored to call his attention to the visit and prayer of brother A. N. Spahr, but he could not recall the circumstance.

"Jesus, lover of my soul,"

It is proper to say that all in the way of medical skill was done that could be to save him. In addition to the experience and unremitting attentions of the family physician, Dr. J. E. Jones, other and experienced gentlemen of the profession were summoned to his aid. But learning and skill were vain, the earthly life and labors of the sufferer were closing. His sun of life was setting, to rise beyond the mountains in resplendent beauty. From the Sabbath previous to his death he was entirely unconscious, never changing his position nor taking the least nourishment. He lingered till Thursday, July 6, 1871, when, at twenty minutes past four o'clock, death struck him with his wing, and the soul of Rev. John Wesley Fowble was with its God.

W. N. WILLIAMS.

REV. ELI KIRK.

REV. ELI KIRK was born January 12, 1831, in Baltimore county, Maryland, and emigrated with his parents to Ohio, and settled in Brown county. He was converted and joined the Methodist Episcopal Church under the labors of Rev. Wesley Rowe, at Mount Carmel, Georgetown circuit, in his fifteenth year. He went to the Wesleyan University, at Delaware, Ohio, in 1855, where he remained till the Fall of 1857, when he was admitted on trial in the Cincinnati Conference, and received his first appointment to Lewisburg circuit, with Rev. William Fitzgerald, who was in charge. He traveled consecutively Red Lion, Concord, Germantown, Camden, Seven Mile, Bethany, Spring Grove, Addison, Catawba, Tremont, and New Burlington circuits. On the last circuit, to which he had just been re-appointed, death closed his ministry.

Brother Kirk was married to Miss Ruth A. Moore, of Miami county, Ohio, May 22, 1866, who made him a devoted and affectionate wife. Loving the work of her husband, she was a help and a comfort to him in his duties and trials as a minister. He was a kind and loving husband, thoughtful and provident, patient, sacrificing, and true; never forgetful of his wife in her cares, nor his two little boys whom he had from their birth consecrated to God. That little family, unexpectedly bereaved, deeply feel and mourn the irreparable loss of a husband and a father. May they always realize the blessing and the guidance of the widow's God and the orphan's Father!

Brother Kirk was one of the most modest, diffident, and retiring men in our ministry, and yet marked in all the solid and substantial elements of zeal, manhood, and Christian excellence. When aroused under the anointing of the Spirit—and he seldom prayed or preached without this unction—he spoke as one having authority, delivering his message with boldness, as just received from the mouth of God, and as in his presence. Intrinsically he was worth more than he ever received credit for, on account of his great diffidence. His mind was more than ordinary in strength, compass, grasp, and the power of pursuing a consecutive train of thought. He looked under the surface of things, sought their rationale, and had remarkable facility for apprehending and illustrating them. As a preacher he was not an effort man, seeking to glitter, but rather to do good. He was sensible, plain, logical, devout, earnest, pressing home the great truths of the Gospel upon saint and sinner, as he only can who has felt their power, and knows their preciousness. He was useful, and had fruit in his ministry. Hundreds, no doubt, from his various fields of labor, will rise up and call him blessed. On his last circuit—New Burlington—he was abundant in labors and successful in winning many souls. At Mount Zion, and the town of Burlington, he had two very precious revivals. We expected much from his re-appointment to this work, with his young and active colleague, Rev. C. T. Crum. Man proposes, but God disposes. God had another field of usefulness for him in a higher sphere of action.

He had just returned from Conference at Piqua, where, twelve years before, he was admitted into Conference, on Tuesday evening, September 6th, and on Wednesday night he was taken violently with pneumonia, and Saturday morning, September 17th, he died. His sufferings were of short duration, but very severe. On Monday after he was taken, he said to the writer of this notice: "I have not preached an unknown or an unfelt Christ." He bore his sufferings with Christian fortitude and resignation. All that seemed to bear upon his mind with weight, was his little family, but with confiding trust he said he could commit them to the keeping of their Heavenly Father, and then was quiet and composed. A short time before he died he attempted to sing, "Heaven, sweet heaven," but could not. A sweet radiance kindled upon his pale face, and almost with his last breath he said: "How sweet to go home to rest! 'Let me die the death of the righteous, let my last end be like his.'"

J. W. WEAKLEY.

CORRECTION—W. B. JACKSON.

By oversight, the name of J. Vance appears in the List of Appointments as preacher in charge of Port Union circuit, West Cincinnati District, instead of W. B. JACKSON, who was regularly appointed to that work.

"Common-Sense Book!"

FOR EVERY BODY.

MEDICATED INHALATIONS

For Treating Diseases of the Nose, Throat, and Lungs.

THIS new system for treating diseases of the Pulmonary Organs has won its way so much in public favor, that a Book, explaining the principles of the treatment in a common-sense language, seems to be a necessity at this time.

Such a volume I now offer to the public. It has just been published by the "WESTERN METHODIST BOOK CONCERN," for the Author, by whom it will be sent to all parts of the United States, postage included, for FIFTY CENTS A COPY, OR THREE COPIES FOR ONE DOLLAR. It will be sent to CLERGYMEN AND THE POOR FOR TWENTY-FIVE CENTS.

The Common-Sense Book teaches that medicines intended for the lungs, when swallowed into the stomach and mixed with the food it contains, do no good, but frequently a great deal of harm to the pulmonary invalid. It also, per contra, teaches that medicines may exert a healing influence in the lungs and along the whole respiratory structure, if they are first reduced to a condition of vapor, and inhaled with the common air we breathe.

If your lungs are suffering with Consumption, send for this Book!

If you have Bronchitis, with a dry, hacking cough, send for this Book!

If you have Nasal Catarrh, with unpleasant breath, snuffing and hawking to remove depraved secretions from the head, send for this Book!

If you have habitual Nose Bleed, or have Bled from the Throat or Lungs, send for the Book!

If you have Asthma of any kind, or Hay Fever, or short breath, with Palpitation of the Heart, send for the Book!

If you have Sore Throat or Loss of Voice, or Relaxed Uvula, send for the Book!

If you have General Debility, Dumb Ague, Fever, or Night-Sweats, send for the Book!

EVERY BODY

should have a copy of this valuable Book! In the providence of God it may avert much suffering, and save many valuable lives. Address

REV. S. HOWARD, D. D., LL. D., President.

THIS venerable Institution of learning, though a State College, is now, and has been for nineteen years, virtually a Methodist Institution. The President and all the Professors, except one, are Methodist preachers, and members of Conferences in Ohio.

Boarding in good families may be had at reasonable rates. Many of the students board themselves.

The following persons are admitted free of Tuition: 1. One student from each county of the State, to be selected by the County Commissioners and Auditor; 2. Any honorably discharged volunteer who entered the service as a minor, for as long a time as he was in the service under age.

All students are, however, charged for room rent and contingencies.

Purify your Blood!

DR. CROOK'S

Compound

SIRUP OF

POKE ROOT.

Wherever Poke Root grows, it has a local reputation as a Blood Purifier, and for the cure of Rheumatism. With all this local reputation, and the praise of distinguished physicians, (Drs. Coe, Lee, King, Wilson M. Hunt, Griffits, Copland and others,) who have tested its medical powers, it has been neglected by the profession at large, as much through a want of a proper appreciation of its merits, as a knowledge of the proper way to prepare it for medicinal use. Dr. Oliver Crook, (a physician who devotes his entire time to the duties of his profession,) has fully tested the active medicinal qualities of Poke Root during the last twenty-five years, and unhesitatingly pronounces it to have MORE MERIT—for diseases depending on a depraved condition of the blood—than any and all other articles named in the Materia Medica. Under his instructions, our Chemist has combined the active medicinal qualities of Poke Root with the best Tonic Preparation of Iron, and we offer this preparation to the public under the above name.

DR. CROOK'S SIRUP OF POKE ROOT

Cures Scrofula, Scrofulous Tumors, Scrofulous diseases of the Eyes, or Scrofula in any form.

DR. CROOK'S SIRUP OF POKE ROOT

HAS PROVED

DR. CROOK'S

Wine of Tar

To have more merit than any similar preparation ever offered the public.

It is rich in the medicinal qualities of Tar, and unequaled for diseases of the Throat and Lungs, performing the most remarkable cures. Because of the great success which its merit has entitled it, other Tar preparations are and will be offered the public upon the reputation of Dr. Crook's Wine of Tar. Remember it is Dr. Crook's Wine of Tar which has performed these remarkable cures, and that this is the remedy to use, unless you wish to waste your money and experiment on your health, by seeing if the other preparations have any merit whatever.

SCOVILL'S

Compound Extract of Sarsaparilla and Stillingia,

OR

BLOOD AND LIVER SIRUP,

Is the Greatest Blessing of the Age

TO THE AFFLICTED!

IT secures health and strength, increases the flesh, improves the complexion—rendering it clear, smooth, and beautiful, and is the most reliable remedy ever offered to the public for the cure of Chronic Constitutional Diseases, whether acquired or inherited. All diseases having their origin in impurity of the blood, or in any corruption or taint in the system, whether scrofulous, cancerous, or mercurial, will yield to the wonderful curative virtues of this unrivaled remedy. It excels all other preparations in the cure of Scrofula, White Swelling, Ulcers, Goiter or Swelled Neck, Chronic Rheumatism, Scrofulous Inflammations and Discharges, Indolent Tumors, Ulcers, Sores, Blotches, and Eruptive Diseases of the Skin, Diseases of the Womb and Urinary Organs, Liver Complaint and Epilepsy. It is composed of the active properties of the most powerful agents of the vegetable kingdom, selected in their proper season, and so combined as to produce a remedy of unequaled power and efficacy for renovating the system and cleansing it from impure and noxious humors, for building up weak and broken-down constitutions, and for the cure of inveterate and long-standing diseases.

The LADIES will find it the greatest blessing. Chlorosis, Chronic Leucorrhœa, Retention of the Catamenia, as well as other irregularities, are frequently the result of a depraved state of the blood and a loose and flabby condition of the tissues of the system; and the

will be found a never-failing remedy, and a more effectual cure than any thing else. Mothers who desire healthy offspring should take the Blood and Liver Sirup to purify and enrich the blood and eradicate any existing taint or virus in the system, and prevent the transmission of disease to the next generation. Thousands of cases of astonishing cures of scrofulous and other constitutional diseases by the use of prove that it possesses beyond any known preparation the peculiar virtue of changing morbid and diseased action and growth into one of health and vigor. There is no latent poison lurking in the system, contaminating the blood and corrupting the sources of life, whether Scrofulous or mercurial, that can withstand the eliminating and purifying influence of this powerful agent. It stimulates the liver, kidneys, and skin to throw off effete and decomposing matters, that if suffered to remain engender disease; and it supplies the blood and fluids of the system with those life-giving elements necessary to the formation of new and healthy structure. The Blood and Liver Sirup is a certain cure for all Uterine difficulties, Disorders of the Kidneys and Urinary Organs, and excels all remedial agents yet discovered in the cure of chronic and constitutional diseases, from whatever cause produced.

READ THE FOLLOWING TESTIMONIALS.

MR. PETER ARCHER, East Union, Ohio, writes us, January 1, 1869:

"My wife has been afflicted severely for sixteen years with the tetter, so that in the Winter season she could not have any peace. I had tried many physicians and various remedies, but with no effect until I was persuaded to try your Blood and Liver Sirup, and it has effected a perfect and permanent cure, for which she is extremely grateful to you. I give this testimonial hoping others who are thus afflicted may be benefited."

MR. N. H. VOSBURGH, Coxsackie, N. Y., writes, August 31, 1867:

"I was troubled with pimples and blotches on my face for a long time, and after trying nearly every thing, with no benefit, I finally used one bottle of Scovill's Blood and Liver Sirup, and am happy to say that I have been entirely free from every thing of the kind ever since. I would cordially recommend it in all cases of impurities of the blood."

DR. ROGERS'

Indian Fever and Ague Cure.

FOR THE CERTAIN CURE OF Fever and Ague, Chills and Fever, Intermittent Fever, Bilious Remittent Fever, Dumb or Masked Ague, Hemicrania, Brow Ague, Sun Pain, and Periodical Neuralgia of Every Kind.

IT is the most reliable ANTIPERIODIC ever discovered, and is a sure antidote to the morbific influence upon the system of that subtile, unseen, specific poison to which the term malaria, or marsh miasmata, has been applied. It not only speedily cuts short the paroxysms of ague, but it fortifies the system against that strong disposition to recur after a short respite, which these diseases manifest, especially upon exposure to the inclemencies of the weather or to any unusual exertion. Our agents repeatedly write us that it never fails. We do not, however, claim this much for it, as infallibility lies not within the domain of man's power or intelligence, but we do know that it has been so uniformly successful as to impress those who have used it with the conviction that it is a never-failing remedy for chills and fever, and malarious diseases. It is perfectly safe, and leaves the nervous system and general health unimpaired, being entirely free from those ordinary antiperiodics, such as quinine, arsenic, zinc, or other poisonous mineral agents, upon which most of the secret remedies for malarious diseases rely for their curative virtues.

Read the following Testimonials to its Great and Permanent Curative Powers.

MR. HIRAM KEELER, Boston, Highland county, O., writes us:

"After suffering with the ague for four years constantly, and after using various ague and fever medicines without success, I was at length induced to try your valuable DR. ROGERS' INDIAN FEVER CURE, and by the use of only one bottle was entirely cured."

MR. JAS. L. WELCH, our agent at Pulaski, Lawrence county, Penn., writes us:

"DR. ROGERS' INDIAN FEVER CURE is gaining a great reputation here, never having failed to cure in a single instance. One gentleman got a bottle at nine o'clock, and the chill was to come on at ten o'clock. He took a double dose, had no chill, but some fever, and has had none since—about three months. I could enumerate other instances of actual cures, but time and space will not permit."

It does not Fail to Cure in a Single Instance.

MR. CHARLES E. KANTS, Easton, Talbot county, Me., writes us, Jan. 24, 1868:

"I send you this to let you know that I have suffered a great deal from chills and fever, and have tried a great many remedies, none of which did me much good, till at last I happened to get one of your Almanacs, and saw the recommendation of DR. ROGERS' INDIAN FEVER CURE. I immediately sent to Easton and procured some of it, and it cured me at once; I also used it in my family last year, and it did not fail to cure in a single instance. Send me half a dozen bottles, for I do not wish to be without it in my family."

THE GREAT AMERICAN CONSUMPTIVE REMEDY.

BALSAM FOR THE LUNGS.

FOR more than a quarter of a century this valuable remedy has been before the public, and its great merits have been fully recognized. Many thousands during that time have been relieved of Lung Diseases, and in many cases have been restored to health and life when the skill of physicians, and all other remedies have failed. A few doses will relieve, as if by magic, a recent Cold. If you are strained and racked by a persistent Cough, no other remedy ever offered will afford such speedy relief. It contains no opium, and the most delicate child can take it with perfect safety. As a remedy for Croup it has no superior. Its remarkable efficacy in relieving Hooping-Cough, and abating the severity of the symptoms of this most harassing disease, almost warrant us in recommending it as a specific. Persons afflicted with Bronchitis and Asthma, should give it a trial. Innumerable testimonials can be furnished as to its great efficacy in the cure of these diseases. It has demonstrated beyond question that Consumption is curable. Those who have experienced its great virtues in this fatal disease can be found in every town and hamlet throughout the land. Many have been rescued from the very brink of the grave by its truly marvelous powers. Physicians in all parts of the country have resorted to it in combating this fearful destroyer, when the ordinary remedies of their books have failed. It is adapted to the cure of all diseases of the Throat, Lungs, and Respiratory Organs, of whatever kind, from a recent cold to the most deeply-seated affections of the pulmonary structures. So wonderful is its curative effects, that any one using it freely according to directions for twenty-four or forty-eight hours will be fully convinced of its merits. No remedy ever brought to the notice of the public can show such a mass of incontrovertible evidence as to its wonderful curative virtues in all lung diseases, as Dr. Wm. Hall's Balsam for the Lungs.

A Remarkable Cure of Consumption.

MR. JAMES D. LANE and MR. ROBERT W. LANE send us the following statement from Madison, New York:

"In the year 1862, Mrs. Mary E. Baily, residing near Glen Harbor, Michigan, was sick with consumption, and confined to her bed with pain in her lungs, side, and back, cough, night-sweats, and all the symptoms of deep-seated consumption. It being in the Winter season and one hundred and fifty miles from public conveyance, her Eastern friends had given up all hope of seeing her again; and they having known of the salutary and healing effects of Dr. Wm. Hall's Balsam for the Lungs, sent her a quantity in sealed cans by mail, and on her taking it as prescribed, the effect exceeded all expectations, so that she was raised up from a bed of sickness, and was enabled to visit her friends in the East. We think it was a remarkable cure, and give it for the benefit of the afflicted. Our brother walked one hundred and fifty miles in Northern Michigan to take her a quart of the Balsam."

It has been the Means of Saving Her Life.

MR. H. SISSON, at Alexandria Bay, New York, sends the following testimonial:

"Three years ago, a young lady had been given up by three physicians, who said it was impossible for her to live, as she was in the very last stage of consumption. I sent her a bottle of Dr. Wm. Hall's Balsam for the Lungs, and she began to get better under the use of it immediately; and since that time she obtained more, and by its use she has been entirely restored to health. She claims that Dr. Wm. Hall's Balsam for the Lungs has been the means of saving her life."

HAIR RESTORATIVE!

THE MOST SUCCESSFUL DISCOVERY OF THE AGE

For Restoring Gray Hair to its Original Color, for Promoting a Healthy and Luxuriant Growth, and imparting a Soft, Silken, and Luxurious appearance to this Crowning Beauty of the Person.

THIS preparation keeps the scalp clean and entirely free from scurf and dandruff, and drives away humors and eruptions of every kind, prevents the hair from falling out, restores gray hair to its original color, changes all the varieties of light, sandy, and carroty hair to a beautiful auburn, and crowns the head with a rich, luxuriant growth of hair, dark, lustrous, and beautiful. Read the following testimony:

MRS. AMANDA BARTHOLOMEW, Stockwell, Tippecanoe county, Ind., writes our agents, B. R. U. Wilstach & Co., of Lafayette, Ind., Feb. 18, 1867, as follows:

"Allow me to say that in the Winter of 1865 I was afflicted very severely with the erysipelas in my face and head—so much so that I was blind for several days, and my hair almost all fell off. My husband procured a bottle of Circassian Hair Restorative from you, which I used according to directions. The result was a fine growth of hair—finer and softer, if any thing, than before. I did not use quite one bottle."

DR. MOTT'S

Vegetable Liver Pills.

THE BEST CATHARTIC OF ANY AGE OR COUNTRY.

DR. MOTT'S VEGETABLE LIVER PILLS are made of extracts and resino-extractive substances, each having its specific effect, and therefore fulfilling a different indication, and yet their relative proportions so combined as to produce a general and harmonious action throughout the whole alimentary canal, entirely free from nausea, vomiting, and griping pains, those disagreeable concomitants of most cathartics.

They possess that peculiar power of invigorating the stomach, exciting the liver and pancreas to increased action, and stimulating the torpid bowels, which render them of unequaled efficacy in cleansing from the blood all impurities, and imparting new life and vigor to the whole system. On account of their safety, mildness, and efficacy, we recommend them to all who desire a for all those ordinary and frequent diseases arising from errors in diet and living. They should be found in every family, and by the bedside of the sick throughout the land.

MR. DAVID PORTER, Cleveland, Ohio, gives the following evidence of their merits:

"I have been afflicted with the Liver Complaint for more than four years, attended, the most of the time, with constipation of the bowels, and at other times with diarrhea. During the last year I had a constant pain about the liver and shoulder-blade, and in my left side, with great uneasiness when I lay upon it. I took Dr. Mott's Liver Pills, according to the direction, for three months, and am now a different man. I had taken them but a short time before I felt great relief. I am able to do as much work as most men. My health is now restored."

THE

Eclectic Educational Series,

PUBLISHED BY WILSON, HINKLE & CO.,

137 Walnut-Street, Cincinnati.

THE following testimony is corroborative of the fact, now generally admitted by our most intelligent and successful teachers, that the Eclectic Series of School-Books, embracing M'GUFFEY'S NEW READER and SPELLER, RAY'S ARITHMETICS, ALGEBRAS, and GEOMETRY, and PINNEO'S GRAMMARS, are among the best and most popular ever issued.

These books are more extensively introduced than any other Series published in America, and have successfully stood the severest tests of the school-room, winning the warmest approval of thousands upon thousands of our best educators.

From Bishop D. W. Clark, D. D., late Editor of the Ladies' Repository, and of Books at the Western Book Concern.

I have had frequent occasion, during the past few years, to examine and re-examine the ECLECTIC EDUCATIONAL SERIES OF SCHOOL-BOOKS. Taken as a whole, it is unquestionably the best series issued by any house in America.

Prof. Ray was a mathematician of high order. His practical good sense, and his large and successful experience as an educator, as well as his enthusiastic devotion to the science of mathematics, eminently fitted him for the production of text-books in this department; and his Arithmetics and Algebras form a regular and complete series, beginning with the elements, and ascending to the higher principles of the science. I regard this as the best mathematical series extant.

M'GUFFEY'S NEW SERIES OF READERS, ascending from easy lessons in spelling and reading to the highest forms of rhetorical delivery, making seven successive gradations in the art of reading and delivery, must satisfy every reasonable demand in this department. In the range of the series, in the care of selection and adaptation, in the explanations and illustrations, as well as in the high moral and religious sentiment pervading the work, we have evidence of the fidelity and ability of the author.

In DR. PINNEO'S PRIMARY AND ANALYTICAL GRAMMARS there is remarkable simplicity of arrangement and clearness of definition. The Primary is admirably adapted to the beginner. It will enable him to understand the science. The Analytical, designed for more advanced students, is unsurpassed in its complete adaptation to its design. The popularity enjoyed by these works rests upon the substantial basis of merit.

OF THE Cincinnati Annual Conference.

1872.

FIRST DAY.

EATON, OHIO, Wednesday, Aug. 28, 1872.

THE CINCINNATI ANNUAL CONFERENCE OF THE METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH began its twenty-first session in St. Paul's Church, Eaton, Ohio, this morning at nine o'clock, Bishop I. W. Wiley presiding.

The Bishop opened the session by reading a part of the fifth and sixth chapter of second Corinthians, and announcing the 219th hymn, after the singing of which, Rev. William Herr led in prayer the devotions of the Conference. A part of the 292d hymn was then sung, and the sacrament of the Lord's-supper was administered to the ministers and laity present.

Bishop Wiley then repeated, in concert with the Conference, the Lord's Prayer, and made a brief and appropriate address.

The Secretary of the last session called the roll, and ninety-nine members responded to their names.

William H. Sutherland was re-elected Secretary, William B. Moler, George H. Dart, D. C. Vance, and R. E. Smith, Assistant Secretaries; Absalom M. Griffith, Statistical Secretary.

H. M. Keck was recognized as reporter for the Times and Chronicle, Thomas Lee, reporter for the Commercial, J. F. Loyd, reporter for the Enquirer, and Samuel Scott, for the Dayton Journal. Dr. Moody was appointed reporter pro tem. for the Gazette.

On motion, it was ordered that the Conference open with a prayer-meeting, to commence at eight o'clock, and continue three-quarters of an hour, and that the Conference adjourn at a quarter before twelve o'clock.

The Rules of Order of last session were adopted.

The Secretary offered a new Journal—a present from Wilson, Hinkle & Co., of Cincinnati—which the Conference accepted, returning their thanks to the donors by a rising vote.

The holding of the anniversaries was referred to a special Committee on Public Worship. Dr. Briggs, Dr. Moody, J. W. Cassatt, William I. Fee, William Runyan, Dr. Weakley, H. C. Middleton, and J. T. Bail were appointed said Committee, and they were instructed to arrange for preaching and anniversaries.

Standing Committees as follows were appointed:

On Missions—The presiding elders.

On Education—R. S. Rust, L. H. Bugbee, G. C. Crum, J. Kendall, J. Stephenson, T. S. Cowden, J. M. Robinson, M. Dustin, J. F. Marlay, and G. Moody.

On Printing Conference Minutes—Thomas Lee, S. B. Smith, and D. J. Starr.

On Church Extension—W. L. Hypes, G. Moody, William Young, F. M. Clemens, T. J. Euans, S. W. Edmiston, and J. Armstrong.

On Observance of the Sabbath—J. F. Loyd, E. M'Hugh, T. Collett, J. Pearson, G. W. Kelley, William Fitzgerald, and W. E. Hines.

Conference Postmaster—J. T. Bail.

On Memoirs—G. Moody, S. A. Brewster, W. Fitzgerald, M. Dustin, J. F. Hull, J. Murray, J. F. Marlay, A. Bowers, E. Burdsall, D. C. Vance, J. F. Wright, and W. I. Ellsworth.

Bishop Morris, Dr. Nast, Dr. Hatfield, Dr. Jordan, and Rev. R. L. Vickers were introduced.

Conference adjourned, with the benediction by J. C. Bontecou.

SECOND DAY.

THURSDAY MORNING, Aug. 29, 1872.

THE Conference was opened with the usual exercises of a prayer and experience meeting, conducted by Rev. William N. Williams.

At 8.45, Bishop Wiley took the chair, and the names of those absent yesterday were called. The Journal of yesterday was read and approved.

Prayer was offered by the Conference for brother Nichols, of Laurel Circuit, who is dangerously sick.

George H. Dart was excused as Recording Secretary, and D. J. Starr was elected to that office.

W. Herr moved that the Bible collections be put in our Minutes. Carried.

J. W. Peters was appointed to receive the money collected for the support of the Bishops.

George H. Dart was appointed to prepare a list of the Conference Committees.

Bishop Wiley announced that the Conference was authorized to draw on the Chartered Fund for $35. The draft was ordered.

Bishop Wiley presented the certificate of transfer of James E. Gilbert.

The Third Question, "Who remain on trial?" was taken up.

Wesley Rector, Lucien M. Davis, James E. Gilbert, Charles J. Wells, Lafayette Young, Daniel L. Hayward, and Charles H. Kalbfus, were continued on trial.

Bishop Merrill was introduced to the Conference.

The Sixth Question, "Who are the Deacons?" was taken up.

Oliver A. Brown, T. De Witt Peak, Seron N. Marsh, William A. Robinson, and James E. Gilbert are deacons of the second class.

William A. Robinson having been a traveling deacon for three years, was elected to elder's orders.

The Seventh Question was taken up, "Who are elected and ordained Elders?"

Harrison Wren withdrew from the traveling connection, and his parchments were returned to the Conference.

Nathan Prince, J. Raper Hunter, and Seron N. Marsh were elected to elder's orders.

RESOLUTIONS ADOPTED BY THE CINCINNATI CONFERENCE.

Triers of Appeals.

Resolved, That A. B. Wambaugh, S. B. Smith, J. W. Cassatt, R. K. Deem, Thos. Collett, M. Kauffman, and J. G. Black be appointed to try appeals.

W. HERR,
W. I. FEE,
S. F. CONREY,
Nominating Committee.

Request to Newspapers.

Resolved, That we respectfully, through our reporters, request the Cincinnati Commercial and the Cincinnati Enquirer not to publish our proceedings in their Sunday issues.

J. F. CHALFANT, A. LOWREY,
R. M. HATFIELD, W. H. SUTHERLAND.

Record of Benevolent Collections.

Resolved, That we respectfully request the several charges of this Conference to procure a well-bound book, and record therein, from time to time, a detail of the various Conference collections as they are taken in the charge.

JNO. PEARSON, J. F. LOYD,
THOS. LEE, L. CLARK.

Xenia College.

Resolved, 1. That a committee of three be appointed to confer with the Board of Trustees of Xenia College, at as early a day as possible, with regard to the present indebtedness of said College, and for the purpose of providing for the payment of the same.

2. That said committee be vested with full power to act in the premises, yet not so as to involve this Conference in any pecuniary liability.

3. That whereas, we secured and paid to the trustees of said College about $9,000—that being $3,000 more than the amount originally asked for by them—we respectfully insist that our right of property in said College be increased in proportion to that excess, by regular assignment of stock therefor, and also for the sum to be raised upon the present principal debt; and that our entire stock therein be put in possession of the Secretary of the Conference.

Change of Time.

Resolved, That we respectfully ask the Board of Bishops to put the time of holding this Conference in the last week of September, if their work will possibly admit of it.

A. W. TIBBITS,
E. F. HILL.

Estimates of Salaries.

Resolved, That should the Bishops fix the time of our next session as requested, we hereby request all our Estimating Committees to add one month to their usual estimates, and that our presiding elders call their attention to the matter.

JAS. F. CHALFANT,
J. F. LOYD.

Members Residing Abroad.

Resolved, That the Secretary be instructed to notify our brethren, the members of this Conference who live beyond our bounds, that we desire and expect to hear from them at each of our sessions, as provided for in the Discipline.

J. M. WALDEN,
JAS. F. CHALFANT.

Explanatory.

Resolved, That the vote by which the Cincinnati Conference laid on the table the resolution requesting the presiding Bishop at the present session to enlarge the districts, was not intended to embarrass the Bishop in the arrangement of the districts according to his godly judgment.

J. F. CONREY,
L. CLARK.

Appointment of Preachers.

Resolved, That the Bishop be requested to appoint Rev. A. B. Wambaugh, agent of the Preachers' Relief Society, Cincinnati Conference, and Rev. Thos. Lee to the Cincinnati Union Bethel.

W. HERR,
J. F. CHALFANT.

Fraternal Correspondence.

Resolved, That the Secretary of our Conference, in reply to the letter received from Rev. R. A. Johnson, be instructed to convey by letter our fraternal greetings to the President and members of the Ohio Conference of the African Methodist Episcopal Church, at its session to be held next April, in Zanesville, Ohio. C. H. LAWTON.

Society Treasurers.

Resolved, That the treasurers of the various Conference societies be authorized to retain sufficient funds to pay for publication of their reports in the Minutes. S. B. SMITH.

Conference Stewards' Resolutions.

1. Resolved, That a sum equivalent to ten per cent of the salaries paid in each presiding elder's district shall be the amount expected from the same; and the District Stewards are hereby requested to distribute the same to the respective charges, according to the ability of each.
2. Resolved, That we hereby pledge ourselves to present this claim to our people as early in the year as practicable, giving it that prominence its merits demand.
3. Resolved, That in the passage of character, each pastor shall be requested to report the amount of his collection.
4. Resolved, That any pastor who may neglect to present this claim to his charge, or shall lightly excuse himself therefrom, will thereby expose himself to just censure.
5. Resolved, That Estimating Committees, in complying with the Discipline, request claimants to furnish to the Estimating Committee appointed by the quarterly conference, and to the Board of Stewards of the Annual Conference, a full statement, in writing, annually, on the first day of Conference, of their financial condition, and that no claim be considered without such financial statement.

S. WEEKS, Secretary. J. C. BROOKE, Chairman.

Book Concern Accounts.

Whereas, we learn by the exhibit of the Western Book Concern that the amount of outstanding debts due it is about a quarter of a million of dollars, and a large proportion of this is due from preachers for periodicals and books; and,

Whereas, this is a larger debt than any business house can safely carry; therefore,

Resolved, That it is the sense of this Conference that the preachers should collect all accounts promptly, and at once forward to the Concern, not allowing any account to run beyond Conference, and thereby come to a cash basis as soon as possible. T. COLLETT,
JAS. T. BAIL.

Rev. Joseph A. Reeder.

Whereas, Joseph A. Reeder became an itinerant minister in our Church in 1829, and retained that relation until 1847; when, although enfeebled and a superannuated member, he voluntarily retired to the local ranks; and now, together with his aged wife, is in necessitous circumstances, both being in old age and near the grave; therefore,

Resolved, That the Rev. Joseph A. Reeder, a local elder, be readmitted as a member of this Conference, in a superannuated relation, and put upon the list of Conference claimants. CONFERENCE STEWARDS.

COMPLIMENTARY RESOLUTIONS.

Of Respect to Bishop Wiley.

Resolved, That we highly appreciate the ability with which our beloved Bishop Wiley has presided over this, his first annual conference; that we congratulate the Church upon his elevation to the episcopal office; and that we shall always be gratified to welcome him among us.

J. F. MARLAY, L. H. BUGBEE,
D. J. STARR, J. KENDALL,
JAS. F. CHALFANT, J. W. WEAKLEY.

Transfer of Dr. Briggs and Rev. J. F. M'Clelland.

Resolved, That, as a Conference, we highly appreciate the efficient services of Rev. M. C. Briggs, D. D., and of Rev. J. F. M'Clelland, since they came amongst us; and that we now learn of their transfer to the Rock-river Conference with sincere regret. Should the providence of God ever call them back to our Conference fellowship, we assure them of a hearty welcome.

J. F. MARLAY,
G. MOODY.

Of Thanks to Railroads.

Resolved, That the thanks of the Conference be returned to the several railroad companies that have extended favors to the ministers, members, and visitors attending the Conference sessions.

J. F. CHALFANT,
L. F. VAN CLEVE.

Of Thanks to Citizens and Churches of Eaton.

1. Resolved, That the cordial thanks of this Conference, and of the "Itinerant Woman's Union," together with the visitors to the Conference, be tendered the citizens of Eaton for their generous hospitality; and while we shall ever cherish a grateful remembrance of their kindness, hoping in due time to share again, as a Conference, their hospitable homes, our prayers shall carry them to the Throne of heavenly grace, for God's richest benediction to rest upon them, with the ultimate hope that we shall all meet in our Father's house above.

2. Resolved, That the thanks of Conference be, and they are hereby, extended to the officers of the various Churches in Eaton for the use of their pulpits.

Of the Cincinnati Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

The Trustees of the Cincinnati Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church met in the lecture-room of the Methodist Episcopal Church, Eaton, Ohio, August 30, 1872, the following members being present: A. B. Wambaugh, President; A. Meharry, W. Young, W. L. Hypes, John W. Dale, Esq , and W. Herr, Secretary.

After prayer, the Secretary read the Minutes of the last meeting, and, on motion, they were approved.

The Treasurer presented the following report, which, on motion, was approved and adopted:

Treasurer's Report.

A. Meharry, Treasurer of the Trustees of the Cincinnati Conference, would respectfully report as follows:

1872.	August 29,	Received draft and interest on the same, per W. Herr, Mears s bequest	$72 80
"	"	Check, per W. Herr, Mears's bequest	67 72
"	"	Interest on L. F. Van Cleve's note (Kessler bequest), $1,635	109 00 $249 52

Contra—Cr.

1872. August 30, By amount paid to S. Weeks, Secretary of Conference Stewards, as per order of Trustees of the Cincinnati Conference..... .....$249 52

Respectfully submitted. A. MEHARRY,
Treasurer of Trustees of the Cincinnati Conference.

The Treasurer was directed to pay the amount in the treasury, $249.52, to the Stewards of the Conference for disbursement among the needy superannuated preachers, widows, and orphans of the Conference.

On motion, an election of Trustees for the ensuing year was had, with the following result: Ministers—A. B. Wambaugh, W. Herr, A. Meharry, W. L. Hypes, W. Young. Laymen—John W. Dale and J. C. Brooke, Esqs.

The Board reorganized by the appointment of

A. B. WAMBAUGH, President.
W. HERR, Secretary.
A. MEHARRY, Treasurer.
W. L. HYPES, W. YOUNG, JOHN W. DALE, J. C. BROOKE, Trustees.

Upon investigation of a certain note and mortgage, the property of the Trustees, being found defective, it was ordered by the Board that the President and Treasurer give attention to the matter, and rectify the defect.

It affords the Board great pleasure to inform the Conference that the Secretary, to whom was intrusted at a former meeting the business of bequests received from the estate of Robert Singleton, late of Urbana, Ohio, the sum of $500 for the American Tract Society, which was paid to the proper officer of said Society, the receipt whereof is on file.

The Board would also inform the Conference that, since the opening of the session, the Secretary has received from Mr. W. C. Stevenson, agent of Mrs. Mary Singleton, executrix of Robert Singleton, deceased, a second bequest-payment for the benefit of the Missionary Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church, $600, which amount has been paid to Rev. J. F. Conrey, Treasurer of the Cincinnati Conference Missionary Society.

We regret the necessity of informing the Conference that, in consequence of litigation among some of the legatees, the bequest of Mrs. Rebecca Townsend, late of Milford, Ohio, of $5,000, known as the "KUGLER BEQUEST," has not yet been realized; and, though payment has been delayed, we have reason to believe it will be paid in due time, and that, too, we hope, with interest.

On motion, the Secretary was directed to report to the Conference the foregoing proceedings, and respectfully ask the confirmation of the election of the Trustees and the reorganization of the Board.

There being no further business, on motion, the Board adjourned.

Respectfully submitted,
A. B. WAMBAUGH, President of the Board.
W. HERR, Secretary.

The foregoing report, on motion, was adopted by the Conference, and the election of the Trustees and the reorganization of the Board was confirmed.

Attest. D. JUDSON STARR, Secretary Cincinnati Conference.

J. FORD CONREY.

REPORT ON CHURCH EXTENSION.

YOUR Committee is impressed with the fact that this Society does not receive the attention from ministers and people which its great utility deserves. It is classed among the infant societies, and the great heart of the Church, as yet, has not been brought to feel its vast importance. Yet, through the faithfulness and liberality of a small minority, it has done much in establishing our beloved Church in remote parts of our land. In the past six years it has aided, by loan or grant, in the erection or purchase of six hundred temples of worship, scattered over thirty-six states of our Union.

This institution is established upon a wise financial basis; her officers and agents are men of tact, ability, and piety. Her object is to aid worthy necessitous cases. In some instances a donation is made; in other instances a loan is granted, with or without interest, according to the nature of the case. The money loaned, in due time is collected, and applied elsewhere in building sanctuaries for the Lord. And so on, these means may be applied until the Church of Christ is established in all the world.

If we consider a few facts, we will see the vast importance of speedy action upon the part of the Church in this noble cause. The revolution in the South has opened the way for this enterprise. The struggling Churches in all her borders are calling for help. The great railroad of our country has opened up our continent even to the Pacific Coast, and in all parts of the West the country is being peopled with the different tribes of earth. These people will have some kind of religion, and whatever form is first offered the masses will accept. Other Churches and fraternities, many of which are antagonistic to evangelical religion, are at work, and are anxious to take the field. The Papal Church is taking advantage of the occasion, and sending her missionaries and erecting her churches. Infidel doctrines of every phase are taught, and the unbeliever would claim the land as his. And even heathen temples have been erected upon American soil. Now is the time to work. "Let us go up and possess the land, for we are fully able."

The practical question with this Conference is, What can we do to aid in this noble enterprise? We answer, Let us furnish the means. Let every pastor bring this subject before his congregation, and plead for it till the people are awake to its interests. The common excuse offered, "We have so many collections," is no reason for neglecting this. No man gives too much to the Lord. Our people need to be taught benevolence; and many have yet to learn that giving is a means of grace, and that every institution which has for its object the advancement of the Redeemer's kingdom has a claim upon our liberality. When the whole Church reaches this point, it will come to pass that the mountain of the Lord's house shall be established in the tops of the mountains, and shall be exalted above the hills, and all nations shall flow into it.

REPORT ON THE SUNDAY-SCHOOL CAUSE.

THE increasing interest manifested by ministers and people in the Sunday-school work indicates that it is regarded by the Church as a most efficient means of bringing souls to Christ. It is gratifying, also, to know that the large number of beautiful Churches which have recently been erected among us have all been constructed with special reference to the services of the Sunday-school, and the time is not far distant when the minister who neglects the Sunday-school will not be an acceptable pastor.

Your Committee would recommend the adoption of a uniform lesson system in the Sunday-school, and we know of none so good as the Berean Series, edited by Dr. Vincent; but they would earnestly protest against the use of lesson papers in the school to the exclusion of the Bible. Let not these modern facilities supplant the time-honored custom of memorizing portions of God's Word and learning the Catechism.

Your Committee are of the opinion that great good has been done by County Sunday-school Unions of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and that the work would be better performed if Methodists would organize a Union of their own in each county. It is hoped that the preachers will do all they can to secure such an organization in each county.

It is to be regretted that no Conference Sunday-school Convention was held during the past year. This failure was due to the fact that the Conference neglected to elect officers of the Sunday-school Union at its last session, and also that the General Conference was in session at the time when the convention should have been held. Your Committee recommend that a convention be held this Fall, at such time and place as the officers of the Sunday-school Union of this Conference shall name.

Above all, let us remember that, with all our facilities and organizations, our success in winning souls to Christ depends upon the baptism of the Holy Spirit, on ministers and officers, and teachers and children, and with this we may hope to see many souls converted during the coming year.

Respectfully submitted. L. CLARK, Chairman.
J. W. PETERS, Secretary.

REPORT ON TRACT CAUSE.

IT is the sense of your Committee that there is a great lack of attention to this cause on the part both of ministry and laity. The General Conference has thought it of sufficient importance to place it on the list for Conference collection, and yet we find that very few of the charges report any collection at all. Out of one hundred and seventeen charges, only forty took collections last year for this enterprise, the collections amounting in all to only two hundred and twenty-three dollars and twenty-seven cents; and where they have been taken, they are very meager; but if all the charges would give, even in this small proportion, we should have nearly three times the amount of money now contributed to expend in the distribution of religious tracts that would silently but surely bring many hearts to Jesus. Out of one hundred and seventeen charges, thirty-six have taken collections this year. We learn from the report of the Corresponding Secretary that "it is proposed, during the current year, to revise our list of tracts, to republish many of them in a new form, to destroy plates which can no longer be useful, and to add a large number of fresh, vigorous, and practical tracts to our catalogue. Several plans have been already inaugurated by which the efficiency of the Tract Department will be greatly increased." Therefore, we recommend the adoption of the following resolution:

Resolved, That we request the pastors to take a collection for this cause early in the Conference year and use a portion of it in home distribution.

REPORT ON FREEDMEN'S AID.

THE Freemen's Aid Society has been successfully engaged in elevating the character and condition of the colored people of the South. It devotes especial attention to the preparation of teachers and preachers; and, by the employment of these, aims at the general education and salvation of this people. The Society has accomplished all that could have been expected with the limited means hitherto at its command. As yet but a small part of this great field has been cultivated. Large sections of country, teeming with thousands and tens of thousands of ignorant and degraded people, are to-day without a single school. Multitudes, thus perishing in ignorance, appeal, in the most heart-rending manner, to us for help. As patriots, as philanthropists, as Christians, can we, dare we, be indifferent to the claims and cries of a race struggling in our own beloved land for intelligence and pure religion? The fate of this long oppressed people, and the future destiny of our nation, depend very largely upon our efforts in their behalf. The American Church has not discharged its whole duty to these children of Africa. While we expend millions of dollars upon foreign fields, let us not forget that the work at home, at this crisis, demands attention, and that our loyalty to Jesus and humanity call upon us to meet this demand like men. No appeal to Methodism is more imperative than this; and no field promises richer harvests than the one occupied by the Freedmen's Aid Society.

Impelled by the importance of this work, the last General Conference fully recognized this Society, and elected a member of this Conference its Corresponding Secretary, and made it the duty of our preachers to present the claims of the Society, or to have them presented, and take up a collection annually in its behalf in each society. In view of this action, and of the fact that the Church has been called upon to raise one hundred thousand dollars for this Society, and that the Cincinnati Conference is called upon to raise three thousand dollars of this sum, your Committee submit the following resolution:

Resolved, That we will earnestly labor to secure an average contribution of ten cents per member, from our respective charges, for this cause.

PREACHERS' RELIEF SOCIETY.

SECRETARY'S ANNUAL REPORT.

Dear Brethren, Members of the Preachers' Relief Society of the Cincinnati Conference:

ANOTHER brief year has sped by—a year especially to impress us with the thought of our mortality—and to show us the value of the Bible and of our holy Christianity; for, by these, life and immortality are brought to light. Since our last anniversary, death has borne from us some of our dear yoke-fellows in the Gospel,—Revs. L. P. Miller, John Shinn, Isaac Neff, and John Seys, D. D. The last named crossed the Atlantic some sixteen times, principally in the interests of the Church, as a missionary to Africa. We sorrow on account of our loss, but not as they who are without hope, for these our brethren died gloriously with the victor's shout upon their lips; and we, to-night, can almost hear them, as we stand upon the shore, echoing back from the farther side of the stream, "Be faithful unto death, and you, too, shall have a crown of life." We devoutly implore the protection and daily benediction of the God of the widow and of the fatherless to abide with the stricken widows and families of the departed, and to help us to emulate their fidelity, and to be ready when we shall be called, that it may be from labor to reward, from toil to rest.

Preachers' Relief Societies found their necessity in the fact that the support of the Gospel ministry is generally meager and insufficient, and that by loss of health and by the infirmities of age many are liable to be overtaken by the dark clouds of poverty, and finally to die, leaving helpless widows and children in the same condition of distress.

These societies are a standing reproof and charge against the Church for neglecting one of her plainest Bible-imposed duties, and through them an appeal is made, in hopeful confidence that a Christian public will assist in providing against the pressure of so great a wrong.

Our Society dates its origin at the Xenia Conference, in 1837. Among its founders were the venerable men of old-time Ohio Methodism, James B. Finley, James Quinn, Greenberry R. Jones, David Young, John C. Brooke, Wm. H. Raper, Charles Elliott, R. O. Spencer, L. L. Hamline, Wm. B. Christy, Geo. W. Walker, and nearly all who then were members of the Ohio Conference.

Most of those revered men rest in heaven, and have been awarded a crown of life. Within the last few years our Society has been made more capable of efficiency by assuming a chartered existence and powers under the laws of the State.

"The object of the Society is to accumulate a fund, the proceeds of which shall be to secure a comfortable support for the needy beneficiary members, and for the widows and children of deceased members."

This Society being incorporated, it has all the elements of perpetuity and stability which commend it to the confidence of a generous public, from which it solicits contributions to its funds.

It also offers peculiar inducements to those who need a regular and satisfactory income from their money or property for a given period, and yet, at the same time, would dedicate the remainder to the aid of one of the most worthy and noble objects. We call especial attention to this feature of our Constitution: "This Society will take and hold as trustee any sum not less than fifty dollars, upon which it will pay a reasonable annuity to the donor, or his order, during his life, or during any specified time, the principal or residue to become the absolute property of the Society at the expiration of an agreed term."

"The Society has been doing a good work in an unobtrusive way; but it were well and seemly that it should come forth before the whole people with its appeals, founded, as they are, upon justice, in behalf of the aged and worn-out ministers, self-sacrificing men, God's heroes, who did not even count their lives dear unto them, so that they might with joy finish their course and the ministry they had received of the Lord Jesus, to testify the Gospel of the grace of God."

These (a few only linger to keep fresh before us our duty), together with the widows and orphans of those who have passed on before us, deserve and must have our sympathy and support. The Lord help all to do their duty!

Respectfully submitted. A. B. WAMBAUGH, Secretary.

REPORT ON PARSONAGES.

YOUR Committee reports the gratifying intelligence that in several parts of the Conference there is evidence of increased attention to the importance of providing suitable homes for our preachers—those men of devoted piety who, for Christ's sake, have entered the itinerancy, not counting their lives dear unto them, or asking whether, more favored than their Master, they shall have even a place to lay their heads? It is cause for devout thanksgiving that the Gospel preached by these men is so winning the world and laying tribute upon its wealth, that, while suitable churches are erected in which it may be proclaimed, its heralds are recognized as worthy, for its sake, of comfortable homes even here. A larger number of parsonages have been built during the past than during any former year of our history; while the commodious and even elegant style of several of these structures is very marked.

But while much has been done, much is yet to be accomplished. It is said that Mohammed, viewing Damascus from a distance, failed to enter it because he believed it the privilege of man to have but one paradise, and he preferred his in the next world. Not very many of the ministers of this Conference are deterred from entering their parsonages from like reasons; while some of them, so far as any provision made by their charges is concerned, are supposed to count it all joy to be like their Lord—homeless.

To many, the wide difference in the character of our parsonages is a matter of serious regret, but is beyond the control of this body. Probably no one is to blame because the valuation of the parsonages built this year ranges from $1,000 to $28,000. The charge building the cheaper house did the best it could; the other has not exceeded its means, or the style of its church.

We respectfully call attention to the report of last year on the subject of furniture. There is great need of a thorough change in the policy of our charges on this subject; and we earnestly recommend that all our parsonages, especially those in the parts of the Conference where moving must be done by wagons, be supplied with all perishable articles of furniture.

We recommend the following resolutions:

1. That each circuit and station destitute of a parsonage should immediately inaugurate measures to secure one.

2. That we recommend the supplying of all our parsonages with suitable furniture.

3. That trustees of parsonages be, and hereby are, respectfully requested to put the property in good condition before their pastor moves into it, thereby saving the labor and inconvenience of moving from room to room, while with his own hands, and too often at his own expense, he labors to make the house a comfortable home for his family.

4. That if indebtedness has been incurred by improvement made under the direction of the trustees, and the money is due the pastor, he having advanced the same, we urge the brethren, and especially the parsonage trustees, to pay the amount immediately, and save him from financial embarrassment.

5. That the presiding elders be requested to call the attention of destitute charges to the foregoing resolutions, and to lay them before their quarterly conferences at the earliest practicable period.

Respectfully submitted.

REPORT ON FINANCE.

1. We know of no more sacred obligation resting upon Christians than the duty of supporting the Gospel of the grace of God.

2. We think there need not, and ought not, to be a single deficiency in the Cincinnati Conference; and if the preachers cultivate and enlighten the conscience of the Church on this subject, and the people prayerfully consider their duty, there will not be.

3. While we are of opinion that no plan can be adopted by the Conference that will apply equally to all parts of the work, and that we must rely chiefly upon the good sense and enterprise of the stewards of each charge, yet we heartily recommend the "envelope plan," which works admirably in many charges.

4. The Committee would suggest that in every charge all the expenses for the support of the Gospel for the year be aggregated, and then, as early as possible, a subscription be taken in the public congregation (or privately) to meet the entire amount needed; said subscription to be paid in weekly, monthly, or quarterly installments; and, also, that a report be made, before the congregation or society, of the several amounts subscribed, and of the amounts paid by each individual during the quarter.

5. We also recommend the readoption of the "Financial Plan" so long in use in this Conference, as follows:

(1.) It shall be the duty of the last quarterly conference of each year to fix the time and place of holding the financial meeting for the next ensuing year, to which the Estimating Committee shall present their estimate for the pastor's support. The meeting shall be composed of the preacher or preachers of the charge, the stewards, leaders, and Estimating Committee. The meeting shall then apportion the amount to the several societies within the circuit. The stewards and leaders of each society in the circuit shall be a committee to apportion the claim upon that society to the individual members. If the charge be a station, the financial meeting shall directly assess the estimates upon the members according to their ability, severally. Or, if any society prefer, the stewards and leaders shall see that voluntary subscriptions are made by all the members.

(2.) When the estimates are provided for by apportionment, the stewards shall ask each member to accept such apportionment, or a modification of it, if necessary, to be paid in four equal quarterly installments, before or at each quarterly conference. Such accepted sum shall be entered upon a suitable book, and collected promptly by the stewards and class-leaders. We earnestly urge these collectors to such diligence, and the members to such promptness, as not to carry embarrassing deficiencies from one quarter to another. As sons of Wesley, we should do this, as every thing else, "at the time."

(3.) The Estimating Committee shall consult the preachers as to the amount necessary for their support; and the presiding elder shall inquire, at the first quarterly conference, before putting the estimate of the committee on its passage, if such consultation has been had.

(4.) In the judgment of the Conference, the obligation to pay the preacher's salary in full is as binding upon the congregation and its individual members as the payment of promissory notes in banks, and should be met promptly.

(5.) We earnestly recommend to ministers and members to take up the Conference collections as early in the year as possible, distributing them at proper intervals, so that they will not be crowded together or embarrass the close of the year.

(6.) The presiding elders shall present this plan to the first quarterly conference in each charge, and shall cause it to be read to the congregations of the first quarterly-meetings. And on circuits the pastors shall cause it to be read, as soon thereafter as possible, in each of their congregations.

Respectfully submitted. C. W. KETCHAM, Chairman.
R. R. MEREDITH, Secretary.

REPORT ON TEMPERANCE.

WE believe the temperance reformation is steadily advancing to a triumph, which will secure all that is demanded by its advocates. It has made such progress within the last forty years that the sentiment of the Church and the general community will now sustain a strict administration of both ecclesiastical and civil law. It is high time not only to pronounce the manufacture, sale, and use of alcoholic intoxicants as crimes, but to treat them as such. To procure the enactment of prohibitory laws, and to enforce them when enacted, are among the first and most imperative duties of Christian citizenship.

But without consuming space with general statements, we respectfully submit the following resolutions, as expressing some of our convictions on this grave and urgent subject:

1. Resolved, That we deprecate the pernicious practice, on the part of physicians, of prescribing intoxicating liquors as medicines, except in cases of extreme necessity, fully believing that the result is injurious to the health and perilous to the habits of their patients.

2. Resolved, That we exhort all chewers and smokers to put away the filth and shame of using tobacco, that their example may no longer neutralize or greatly impair their usefulness in the drink reform.

3. Resolved, That every owner of real estate who rents or leases his property knowingly in the interests of the liquor-traffic, and every person who furnishes grain to the distiller for the manufacture of liquor, is guilty before God, and is particeps criminis with the vender and maker.

4. Resolved, That we are grateful to Almighty God for the continuance of the "Adair Liquor Law" upon the statute-books of Ohio, notwithstanding the recent attempt to displace it, and that we will do all in our power to secure its enforcement.

5. Resolved, That the recent articles published by Rev. J. F. Loyd, on the important question, "Do the Scriptures allow the Use of Fermented Wines as a Beverage?" are such a clear presentation of the subject that we recommend their publication in temperance tract form.

REPORT ON THE OBSERVANCE OF THE SABBATH.

YOUR Committee on the Observance of the Sabbath respectfully submit for your adoption the following preamble and resolutions:

Whereas, Experience has stamped the Sabbath with incomputable value as a civil institution, and installed it forever as a fit subject for the recognition and safeguard of law; and whereas, where there is no Sabbath, there will be no living Christianity, and then the civil Sabbath will inevitably fall into disuse and contempt, and police espionage and the confessional usurp the place of conscience-power and Christian morality; and whereas, the world will not reverence the Sabbath till the Church evinces an enlightened veneration for its sanctity and a genuine delight in its services, nor "keep the Sabbath, from polluting it," until the Church with unbroken front shows them how to keep it; therefore,

1. Resolved, That the Church must have clean hands and a stainless record on this subject. For Christ's sake, her members must cease to encourage Sabbath-breaking at their camp-meetings, by opening the gates to whistling trains and rolling carriages, and by allowing soda, cigars, candy, fruit, and daguerrean stands within law-protected limits; at their homes, by inviting the rattle of Sunday milk and ice wagons, the shrill cry of the Sunday newsboy, or the down-lighting at their doors of the Sunday newspaper; by Sunday visiting or riding, by railroad, street-car, or otherwise, except in cases of necessity or mercy; by door-step visiting on Sabbath evenings, instead of going to God's house of prayer; by strolling about parks or fields; by suffering their children to run the streets or range the woods, instead of taking them to the sanctuary, as they vowed to do when they consecrated them to God in baptism,—in a word, by indulging in any thing out of keeping with the spirit and design of the day which God has made a sign of covenant between him and his people forever.

2. Resolved, That we will hereafter fully and faithfully bring the Sabbath, with its uses, abuses, and desecrations, before the minds of our congregations, and will unite with them and all other good citizens in every just effort to enforce the law of the civil Sabbath, while we gratefully sanctify and hallow the holy day in our own hearts and homes.

3. Resolved, That we hereby respectfully yet earnestly entreat all camp-meeting associations within our bounds to use their utmost diligence,—1. To prevent the running of railroad-trains, steamboats, and other public conveyances on the Sabbath, for the purpose of carrying persons to or from camp-meetings; 2. To prevent the sale on Sabbath of any and all articles, save meals at the regular boarding-tents; 3. To cause the gates, in every case where camp-grounds are inclosed, to be shut throughout the entire Sabbath.

REPORT ON THE BIBLE CAUSE.

THE American Bible Society is recognized, not only by the Methodist Episcopal Church, but by Protestant Churches generally, as one of the efficient agencies established under the providence of God for the moral and spiritual enlightenment and salvation of the world. The continued growing success of the Society in the publication and distribution of the Word of God can not fail to awaken gratitude in every pious heart to the God of the Bible. A few facts will show what was accomplished during the fifty-sixth year of the Society's operations:

"The receipts for the year were $689.923.47; including $361.274.64 for publications, $39,510.84 from rents, $140,212.49 from legacies, $137,-474.31 from donations, and $11,451.19 from sundry items."

"Volumes issued, 1,100,871, including 921,389 from the Bible-house in thirty-nine languages, and 179,482 abroad; the latter representing about sixty different languages and dialects.

"Entire number of volumes issued during fifty-six years, twenty-eight millions, seven hundred and eighty thousand, nine hundred and sixty-nine.

"The gratuitous work for the year amounted in value to $242,727.02. Of this sum, $67,420.12 were cash expenditures on foreign fields, besides more than 23,500 volumes sent from this country.

"Number of auxiliaries reported as engaged in supplying their fields, 550.

"The distribution of the Scriptures in the United States during the year, apart from ordinary sales by auxiliary societies, so far as reported, is shown by the following figures:

Number of families visited	598,664
Number of families found destitute of the Bible	73,732
Destitute families supplied	41,459
Destitute individuals supplied in addition	17,391
Sabbath and other schools supplied	1,835

"To the distribution effected directly by the Society and its auxiliaries must be added the thousands of volumes circulated through other benevolent institutions to which grants of books have been made."

Our own Church has shared, to a large extent, in the benefactions of the Society, both in money and books, for the home and the foreign missionary field.

It is proper to speak of the labors and success of Rev. W. Herr, the agent appointed to the Bible work by this Conference during the past year, and this can not be done any better than in the following extracts from his recent annual report:

"This district of Southern Ohio remains in territorial limits as last year, embracing forty-three counties, with an increase of three new auxiliaries, making, in all, eighty-three auxiliaries, an increase of sixty-eight branches; total, 516; and an increase of 518 local unpaid agents; in all, 2,518, all under the supervision of five regular county agents, and six employed part of the year. The new auxiliaries organized are Blue Ball Female, Covington Female, and Brown Township Female; the former of Warren County Bible Society, and the latter of Piqua

Female Bible Society; and, with God's blessing, it is hoped these societies shall prove to be 'daughters as corner-stones, polished after the similitude of a palace.'

"Personal Labors.—My personal labors are indicated by the following summary:

Number of	Bible sermons and addresses delivered	143
"	official letters issued	771
"	official documents issued	8,974
"	miles traveled on official duty	10,729
"	auxiliaries and branches visited	134
"	auxiliary societies and branches organized	18

"Co-laborers.—I desire to make grateful mention of the efficient aid afforded by my regular county agents, Rev. Messrs. Scott, Fribley, Grover, and Cochran, and Mr. Jones, and Rev. Messrs. Clancy, Schoonover, M'Connell, Thacker, and Creath, and Mr. Orpwood, who have been employed parts of the year. Their work has been supplemented by the labors of 2,518 voluntary local agents, and has had the sympathy and co-operation of the clergy of the various Churches, and of the officers of auxiliary societies, in working out the following results of

BIBLE VISITATION AND SUPPLY.

Number of	families visited	84,286
"	families found without the Scriptures	3,954
"	destitute families supplied	3,032
"	destitute individuals supplied in addition	1,362
"	volumes donated to "Soldiers' and Sailors' Orphans' Home," Xenia, Ohio, by Troy Female Bible Society	100
"	Sabbath and other schools supplied	23

RECEIPTS.

Receipts from	Churches and individuals	$20,896 57
"	" sales of books	15,219 43
"	" legacies	4,845 74
	Total receipts from all sources during the year	$40,961 74

"The contributions of Sunday-school branch societies were between one and two thousand dollars. It is due to add, that, had the treasurers of two societies in the district been prompt in forwarding their funds before the Bible year closed, the total receipts would have amounted to upward of forty-four thousand dollars, showing an increase over last year of more than four thousand dollars. As it is, there is an advance on last year; and when we remember the abounding sympathy and liberality of the people in behalf of the sufferers by fire in Chicago and the Northwest, it becomes a matter of devout thanksgiving to Almighty God, that the friends of the Bible have manifested such persistent fidelity and beneficence to the cause.

"During the year more than ordinary attention has been given in some parts of the work to the supply of hotels, infirmaries, common schools, and other public institutions, with the Bible. Recently the attention of auxiliary societies has been called to the work of supplying passenger and other railroad cars with the Word of God; and I am happy to say that the measure is regarded with favor."

"This work will be prosecuted until every leading railroad in the field shall be supplied with the Bible.

"The receipts from Ohio were $60,742.03. Books sent to the State, 92,578 volumes.

"Ohio stands second in contributions to the American Bible Society."

In view of the above facts, the Committee submit to the Conference for adoption the following resolutions:

1. That we rejoice in the growing prosperity of the American Bible Society, and while we are thankful to God for past success attending our efforts in behalf of the cause, we renew our pledge of fidelity in taking an annual collection in all the Churches of our respective pastoral charges.

2. That, as far as may be practicable, the collection for the Bible cause shall be taken in harmony with the time of the anniversary of the auxiliary society within the limits of our charges.

3. That we respectfully request the presiding Bishop to reappoint Rev. W. Herr Agent of the American Bible Society for the District of Southern Ohio, and Rev. J. L. Grover, County Agent of the Bible Cause.

J. F. MARLAY, Chairman.

E. F. HILL, Secretary.

REPORT ON PERIODICALS.

THE Committee on Periodicals would submit, as their report, the following resolutions:

Resolved, 1. That we recommend to our people a more liberal patronage of our Church periodicals, the Quarterly Review, Ladies' Repository, Western Christian Advocate, and Golden Hours.

2. That it is the sense of this Conference that our preachers should use due diligence, from year to year, to increase the circulation of our periodicals in their several charges.

3. That in view of the action of our late General Conference, relieving the Book Concern from a large item of expense, we would respectfully suggest to our Agents the propriety of reducing the price of the Ladies' Repository and Western Christian Advocate.

4. That we hereby pledge to our new editors, Drs. Wentworth and Hoyt, our hearty co-operation and support.

N. C. PARRISH, Chairman.

M. DUSTIN, Secretary.

REPORT ON EDUCATION.

THE Committee on Education respectfully submit the following report on the educational interests of the Cincinnati Conference:

Ohio Wesleyan University.

Your Committee were present during the examination of classes in the University at the close of the College Year, and desire to report that they found the institution in a healthy condition, and doing well the work which the Church expects of it. The standard of scholarship has been raised so as to prevent indolent and unscholarly students from entering the higher classes and graduating. The examinations evinced the fact that the Faculty have been successful in securing thoroughness in the branches studied. It is also a gratifying fact that a deep religious interest pervades the institution.

At the last Commencement, forty-seven young men were graduated, and a large number of these will enter the Christian ministry. This Conference annually receives accessions from those who come from the halls of this University; therefore we can not but feel a deep conviction that our Church, in this region, owes it a hearty support in the form of financial aid at this critical period in its history.

The Legislature of Ohio has granted the request of the patronizing conferences, and enacted a bill proposed by the Alumni, empowering them to elect trustees and visitors from their own body; and, in accordance with this provision, five trustees and two visitors were elected in June. This provision has secured a deeper interest in the prosperity of the institution among the Alumni.

The trustees have adopted a plan for the sale of scholarships, to secure to the University a larger endowment; and your Committee would recommend that this Conference give its approval to this plan, and heartily cooperate with the trustees in securing by this method the funds so much needed at this time.

The Committee recommend for your adoption the following resolutions:

Resolved, 1. That Rev. R. S. Rust, D. D., be elected trustee to fill the vacancy caused by the expiration of the term of Bishop Thomas A. Morris.

2. That the presiding Bishop be requested to appoint Rev. L. D. M'Cabe, D. D., Professor of Philosophy in the University.

3. That Revs. James Stephenson and J. Kendall be appointed Visiting and Examining Committee to the University for the ensuing year.

From the Auditor's Report.

W. G. WILLIAMS,
Secretary of the Board of Trustees.

Cincinnati Wesleyan College.

THIS institution has just closed the thirtieth year of its history. Each year since its reopening, in 1868, has served to perfect the organizations of both the Academic and Collegiate Courses.

The three parallel Courses—two Classical and one Scientific—though somewhat differently constructed, contain about the same amount of science, literature, philosophy, and language, as compose the regular courses of our best colleges for young men; and young women completing either of these Courses receive the degrees of A. B. or B. S. at graduation.

During the Academic Year of 1871–72, sixteen instructors have been employed. There are seven departments, namely: Preparatory, Academic, Collegiate, Modern Languages, Music, Art, and Sunday-school Normal Department. About forty recitations are heard daily. The facilities in these seven departments are superior, both in the teachers employed and the modes of instruction used.

The Sunday-school Normal Department should be of special interest to the Church. The course of study comprises one year, and may be pursued by any diligent, earnest young lady while she is accomplishing her regular course of study. Already between thirty and forty pupils have been graduated from this department, and have become most efficient Sunday-school teachers in the Sunday-schools of the city and at their homes. The course of study is laid down in the Annual Catalogue.

The religious interests of the students are looked after with great care. Bible-classes, comprising all the pupils, are heard Sabbath mornings by the several teachers. On Tuesday evening a religious lecture is given, either by the President, a professor, or by some of the clergymen of the city. On Saturday evening a students' prayer-meeting is held. There have been a number of conversions each year. There is also a Missionary Society formed, auxiliary to the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society.

The number of students each year has been two hundred and thirty. This number should be swelled to three hundred, and more direct efforts should be made to fill this and our other ladies' institutions with the daughters of Methodism.

The character of the new edifice is now generally known to the Church. No other school-building in the Church is better, and it is thoroughly furnished and fitted for the work to be done. The property is valued at $225,000. The trustees are among our best men, and earnestly devoted to the educational interests of the whole Church. The location is on Wesley Avenue, between Court and Clark Streets, and is among the finest and most desirable squares of the city. The college is ample for purposes of recreation, and is kept in most excellent condition.

The Board of Visitors take great pleasure in reporting the institution to be in excellent condition. The Board of Instruction is distinguished for ability, culture, experience, and success in training the young. Dr. Bughee, the President, is an educator of rare ability, and the late examination reflects the highest credit upon his administration and the qualifications of the teachers.

Rare advantages are here afforded in Music, Modern Languages, and Art, and we commend the institution most earnestly to all our people desiring to place their daughters where they may enjoy the best facilities for a solid and ornamental education.

We recommend the adoption of the following resolutions:

Resolved, 1. That the presiding Bishop be requested to reappoint Rev. Lucius H. Bugbee, D. D., as President of the College.

2. That Revs. R. R. Meredith, J. W. Peters, C. W. Ketcham, O. A. Brown, Granville Moody, and G. C. Crum be appointed as a Board of Visitors for the ensuing year.

Hillsboro Female College.

We find this institution to be in a healthy and encouraging condition. Its patronage during the past year has been considerably increased, and the prospects for the future are brighter than ever before. Its building is substantial and commodious; its grounds large and inviting, offering a quiet and healthful retreat for study to young ladies from both the city and country. Its social, literary, and religious character is of the highest order. The trustees have elected Rev. J. M'Dowell Mathews, D. D., President of the institution, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the resignation of Rev. David Copeland, A. M.

The following resolutions are proposed by the Committee for adoption:

Resolved, 1. That the presiding elder of the Hillsboro District, and the preacher in charge of the Hillsboro Station, and the stationed preachers at Wilmington and Greenfield be appointed a Visiting and Examining Committee for the ensuing year.

2. That we highly appreciate the laborious and self-sacrificing services of the Rev. D. Copeland, A. M., during his Presidency of the Hillsboro Female College, and that while we regret the necessity which caused him to retire from that position, heartily commend him to the Conference and institution to which he has gone.

3. That we welcome the return of Rev. J. M'D. Mathews, D. D., to the Presidency of the College, and pledge him and the institution our continued confidence and support.

4. That the presiding Bishop be requested to appoint Rev. J. M'D. Mathews, D. D., to the Presidency of the College.

Xenia College.

This institution, which is open to both ladies and gentlemen, has had a prosperous year. The buildings are ample and well arranged for school purposes, the grounds large and well shaded with beautiful forest-trees, and the location one of the most accessible and healthful in the State.

Experienced teachers are employed in all the departments. The advantages enjoyed by the pupils of this school, for the acquisition of a thorough musical education, are unsurpassed, that department being in charge of the Miami Academy of Music, located at Xenia, and one of the most prosperous and successful institutions of the kind in the land.

Professor Smith, who has conducted the Xenia College for a number of years past, is one of the ablest and most indefatigable educators in our denomination. Parents who put their daughters under his care and tuition may rest assured that body, mind, and heart will be well provided for. The boarding-house is as thoroughly home-like in all its appointments as the President and his accomplished wife can make it. No boarding-school provides better fare, or offers better facilities for out-door exercise and recreation.

Special attention has been given in this institution to the training of young ladies and gentlemen for teaching. The Normal Department is under the immediate supervision of Professor Smith, whose thorough practical knowledge of all the details of the profession fits him admirably for such work. A special Normal Class has been taught in the college buildings during the Summer vacation, and a large number of teachers availed themselves of its advantages.

We warmly commend the Xenia College to the confidence and patronage of the public.

We recommend that the presiding elder of the Xenia District, and the pastors of Xenia, be the Visiting and Examining Committee for the next year.

Resolved, That the recent efforts of the Alumnæ and other friends of Xenia College to pay the existing debt of the institution is deserving of the highest commendation.

Garrett Biblical Institute.

THIS theological school, located at Evanston, Ill., has been greatly blessed of God during the past year. In October last its chief means of support were cut off in the destruction of the Garrett Block in Chicago. Notwithstanding the almost certain prospect of little or no compensation, the Professors went bravely forward in the discharge of their duties, looking confidently to the Methodist Christian public for their support. Only to a slight extent have they realized this.

One hundred and eighty pupils have been in attendance the last year. Nine young men were graduated, and are entering the ministry in the different Conferences. In view of the emergency of this institution, and of its location in the West, we submit for your adoption the following resolutions:

1. That we appreciate the necessity of liberality on the part of the Church, that the salaries of the professors of this Institute be met, that the entire work of the Institute may go forward without interruption.

2. That the nearness of this Institute to our Conference, and the ability of the professors, as also its other facilities, make our patronage of it highly appropriate, and that we recommend our young men preparing for the ministry to avail themselves of its privileges.

3. That Revs. R. M. Hatfield, D. D., and J. F. Wright, D. D., be appointed visitors for this Conference.

The following resolutions are offered for your adoption:

1. That we earnestly commend all our literary institutions to the patronage of the Methodist public.

2. That we emphatically protest against our members sending their daughters to Romish convents, where their education will be inferior, and where they are certain to be won to the Church of Rome, or poisoned against the Protestant Church.

3. Resolved, That we recommend the formation of a Conference Auxiliary Education Society to the Board of Education of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

In pursuance of the above resolution, such an organization was made on Saturday, P. M., August 31, 1872. A committee on the nomination of officers was appointed. The committee reported the following brethren, as per requirements of the Constitution presented by the Board of Education for Auxiliary Societies, namely:

President, LUCIUS H. BUGBEE.
Vice-Presidents, { JAMES STEPHENSON, GEORGE C. CRUM.
Secretary, JOHN W. PETERS.
Treasurer, R. S. RUST.

BOARD OF MANAGERS.—Ministers: L. D. M'Cabe, J. M'D. Mathews, Lucien Clark. Laymen: C. W. Rowland, Col. W. R. Warnock, S. M. Sullivan.

The Committee now ask the adoption, by the Conference, of this Education Society, as thus formed.

4. Resolved, That we are of the opinion that the growing needs and importance of our educational enterprises demand an educational anniversary at each of our Conference sessions, and that the Auxiliary Education Society be instructed to so provide.

5. That we recommend the appointment, by the Bishop, of Rev. Geo. Parrott as Professor of English Literature in the Indiana State University at Bloomington, Indiana.

R. S. RUST, Chairman.
L. H. BUGBEE, Secretary.

REPORT ON URBANA CAMP-GROUND.

THE Committee appointed to consider the proposition made by the trustees of the Urbana Camp-ground to the Cincinnati and other Conferences of the State of Ohio, having considered the object set forth in the communication put into our hands, respectfully recommend that this Conference appoint a special committee of two ministers and two laymen, who shall be authorized to confer with such similar committees as may be appointed by the other annual conferences within the State, upon the same subject, and to report the result of their deliberations at the next session of our Conference.

We desire, also, further to recommend to the Conference the appointment of Rev. Wm. I. Fee, Rev. Silas Bennett, Harvey DeCamp, and Judge I. Corwin to constitute the above-named Committee.

T. COLLETT, Secretary.

REPORT OF CAMP-MEETING COMMITTEE.

YOUR Committee appointed at Dayton, in 1871, to select, purchase, and prepare a Conference Camp-ground for the Cincinnati Conference, respectfully submit the following report:

We found it much more difficult to discover a ground combining the requisites of shade, water, healthfulness, and railroad facilities than we had anticipated. While many men imagined that they had the ground we desired, and every fifth minister had heard of a very desirable spot, we found, on inspection, that the imagination was less ballasted by judgment, and the information was less reliable than we could have desired. We believe we have personally visited every ground respectably commended to us, within the bounds of the Conference, at much cost of time and labor. The result of our efforts has been the selection of a ground located on the Little Miami Railroad, and conveniently near to the Marietta Road, at a point on the Little Miami River, between Branch Hill and Loveland. The grove is owned by two men, both of whom contracted to sell on very reasonable terms. Mr. Aaron Apgar, who owns the larger part, agrees to sell at one hundred and fifty dollars per acre, one-third down, and the remaining two-thirds in two equal annual payments, at six per cent. Mr. John F. Johnston contracts to sell at one hundred and seventy-five dollars per acre, one-fourth in hand, and the remainder in three equal annual payments, at six per cent.

The grove is located on an elevation perhaps eighty or a hundred feet above the river, with facilities for a broad and easy grade. The shade is high, and the situation beautiful, sightly, and salubrious in an unusual degree. The timber is young, vigorous, strongly rooted, and of many kinds. The river, fronting the grounds, and extending above toward Loveland, a distance, probably, of a mile and a quarter, is broad and deep enough for boating, and shaded on both sides. The two railroads, with depots on opposite sides of Cincinnati, cross each other at Loveland, and open up extensive and populous territories within convenient distances from the ground, thus affording very rare and valuable facilities of transit both to worshipers and to Summer residents. The soil and natural drainage are such as to forestall the necessity for artificial means. The grove is both ample and convenient for two encampments, one for the American, and one for the German brethren; so located as not to molest each other in their worship or their domestic arrangements.

It cost us no little time, labor, patience, fertility in expedients, and resolute perseverance, to procure suitable contracts with the two railroad corporations. The substance of the contract with the Marietta Road was early agreed upon. That with the Little Miami was very recently consummated. In procuring this contract, we have been specially indebted to the generous co-operation of Hon. Geo. H. Stuart, of Philadelphia; Mr. George Wolff, of Brooklyn, N. Y.; Chas. H. Wolff, Esq., Hon. Stanley Matthews, and Judge M. B. Hagans, of Cincinnati; and General T. T. Heath, of Loveland.

The terms of the contracts, respectively, are as follows: The first, with the Marietta Road, is perpetual, and binds the Company to convey material for public improvements free; passengers for half-fare, giving out of that half-fare one-half cent per mile, counting one way, Committee; all personal baggage free; gives commutation rates persons who wish to spend the whole or any part of the year ground; and run no Sunday trains (under heavy penalty) witho written request of the Committee having charge of the grounds. contract with the Miami Road runs for ten years, and binds the pany to carry material for public improvements free for three to convey passengers at sixty per cent of the local fares, giving t cent of that to the Committee; to convey personal baggage free; commuters' rates to Summer residents; and to run no Sunday without the written request of the Committee having charge.

These terms appear reasonable and satisfactory to your Com with the single exception of the ten-years' limit in the second co This limit is not unusual in such cases, but we had hoped to ov the law of usage and secure a perpetual obligation. The obj whatever may be its intrinsic importance, is largely neutralized perpetual contract with another road, by the power which the Me denomination possesses in the state of Ohio, and by the complet trol which the Committee will always have over the gates and grou

As the year lapsed without the actual effectuation of a purchas Committee deemed it suitable to the proprieties of the case, as wel their own desire, to submit the results of their labors to the Conf and solicit its united judgment and farther instruction.

The Committee, through a very able sub-committee, has devised for a joint-stock association, the principal features of which are t lowing: It is proposed to issue stock to the amount of fifty th dollars, to be paid up as needed, and never to draw more than t cent, and that on the paid-up stock only. All revenue in exces go to such charity as the Conference may designate. The stock i assessed on the membership pro rata, when each charge, as suc take its share, or permit individual members to take it, or remit it Committee, who will then dispose of it elsewhere.

What now remains to be done is to complete the work whicl Committee has carried to its present stage of forwardness. To this—if the Conference desires to effect it with expedition—we r fully suggest the appointment of a nominating committee of three, duty it shall be very carefully to select nine ministers and eight l who, with the sanction of the Conference, shall constitute a commi have the entire matter in charge, with adequate power to purcha prepare the ground, and make all necessary arrangements for a meeting next Summer, with the hearty sanction and co-operation Conference. Your Committee feels assured that great success an fulness will attend the enterprise.

MEMOIRS.

REV. JOHN SEYS, D. D.

REV. JOHN SEYS, D. D., was born March 30, 1799, in the island of Santa Croix, West Indies, of a family that had been for many years resident of the islands, and that occupied many positions of honor and trust under the Danish and Dutch Governments. Subsequent to his marriage, and in the same year (1821), he became a member of the Wesleyan Methodist Church, in the island of St. Eustatius, a Church which at that time was deemed by the dominant race as only belonging to and doing mission work among the negroes; but, finding nothing like vital religion in the Established Church, he did not hesitate to cast his lot among these despised followers of the precious Savior, whom he had learned to love.

At this time, with the exception of the English missionary, he was the only white man belonging to the Methodist Church in the island, and that, too, in a community from which his uncle, Governor Runnels, had banished the Rev. Dr. Coke for preaching Methodist doctrines to the negroes. We mention this fact simply to show how deep were the convictions and how genuine was the conversion of this young man. Soon, notwithstanding all the opposition of friends and the obstacles in his way, he became the superintendent of the Sabbath-school, class-leader, licensed exhorter, and, in 1825, local preacher; and, in 1829, he was ordained and called upon to take the place of an English missionary who had died in the island of Tortola, being the first white West Indian who became a preacher in the Methodist Church.

Circumstances, in this year, directed his attention to this country; and, with full testimonials and credentials from the chairman of the district, the governor of the island, and many other gentlemen, he came to the United States in 1829. Soon after his arrival, he joined the Oneida Conference, and was appointed to Ogdensburg Station, New York. From there he went to Canton Circuit, in 1832. In 1833, he was appointed missionary among the Oneida Indians. In 1834, the Methodist, Baptist, Presbyterian, and Moravian missionaries in Liberia, West Africa, had all died from the African fever, or had been compelled to fly for their lives. Dr. Seys was selected, at this critical time, by the Bishops of his Church, to try once more to plant the banner of Christ in that inhospitable climate; and, if he failed, the mission was to be given up. He sailed for his post of duty as superintendent of the Methodist Episcopal Church missions in West Africa, in the Summer of 1834, locating at Monrovia, Liberia, one of the deadliest points on the coast, and which had been abandoned by all the white missionaries who had not fallen. The white man could not live there.

In 1835, he returned for his family, they having been left in this country, and in the same year returned to Monrovia, taking with him his wife and three children.

Having fully established the mission, planting Churches and schools at all points within his reach, he, with his devoted wife, both shattered in health, returned to this country in 1841, leaving four of their children buried in Africa. After his arrival in the United States, for one year he traveled extensively, visiting the Churches and taking up large collections in aid of the mission. Compelled by the ill-health of his family, in 1842, he abandoned his mission work, and was appointed to Wilkesbarre Station, Pennsylvania. In 1843, he was requested by Bishop Waugh to return to Liberia in his old capacity, the white men of his Church having again all died or been compelled to leave in order to save their lives.

In 1845, he again returned to this country, and resigned his connection with the mission, and, joining the New York Conference, was connected with various charges until 1850, when, still having the interest of the colored race at heart, at the earnest request of the Maryland State Colonization Society, he became their traveling agent, locating at Baltimore, where he remained six years.

In 1856, he came to Springfield, Ohio, having been appointed agent for the Colonization Society in the States of Ohio, Indiana, and Illinois. In the same year (1856), he was requested again to go to Africa, to select and locate a settlement back from the coast, and away from the malarious influences of the tidal rivers.

This work he accomplished, after much dangerous toil and privation, founding Careysburg, erecting there, as the first building, a chapel, and calling, every day, every one of the inhabitants, colonists and natives, to prayer. From this time until 1870, he was almost uninterruptedly connected with the country and work in which he had spent so many years of h s remarkably active life in one capacity or another.

As United States Agent for recaptured Africans taken from the slave-ships, he has had on his hands at one time, demanding of him food, shelter, clothing, and protection, four thousand of these unfortunates, and he acted at the same time in the capacity of United States Consul—the white man occupying this position having died.

In 1866, having returned to this country, and being desirous of devoting all his energies and life to benefit the race which, for over two hundred years, men of his own family had held in bondage, he took charge of Clark Chapel and colored school, at Nashville, Tennessee. Before he had been there one year, President Johnson—the white man having died at his post—requested him to return to Africa as United States Consul and Minister Resident to the Republic of Liberia. This office he filled with great acceptance to his Government and that of the Republic of Liberia, which most gladly received him as the tried and true friend of the black man, until 1870, when he returned for the last time to this country, to spend his declining days in the society of his family, whom he loved so fondly, and who now mourn their loss.

Dr. Seys, at the time of his death, February 9, 1872, was a member of the Cincinnati Conference, having been transferred to the same in accordance with the request of the Conference, expressed at its last session by a rising vote.

As intimated already, Dr. Seys died at home. This was a remarkable and wonderfully kind providence, in view of the perils to which he had been exposed by sea and by land—he had crossed the ocean twenty times—for half a century. But God, who "withholdeth no good thing from them that walk uprightly," permitted him, after so many transatlantic trips, and after having lived so long in places where "destruction walketh in darkness and pestilence wasteth at noonday," to return home, that he might fall asleep in Jesus in the midst of family and friends, and find a resting-place for his ashes in a Christian graveyard. This was not only a gracious favor to the sojourner himself, but a great blessing to the social and religious circles among whom he spent his superannuation and last hours. He gave to us the golden sunset of his heroic career. It was the largess of a good example, a holy experience, and a triumphant death.

As distinctive traits, the following will be recognized by all who knew our lamented brother, as a true, though faint, picture of him. He was a man of exquisite neatness and grace of person and manner. To him politeness was natural, and courtesy a spontaneity. He was gifted with handsome talents and a ready and agreeable utterance, while his soul was charged with impassioned feeling and sympathy. To this was added education, culture, and general intelligence. These qualities and endowments of mind and heart made him a very successful minister of Christ. In social intercourse he impressed all as a gentleman of modest pretensions, refined tastes and feelings, amiable disposition, and a magnanimous nature. Envy seemed to have no place in his heart, and his lips were not allowed to breathe the mildew of detraction. His communications to, and on behalf of, his brother ministers were full of kindness and encouragement. As a man in trust, he was true and heroic. Like Livingstone, he seemed to delight in deeds of noble daring and bold adventure. Like Paul, he continually said, by life and action, "Neither count I my life dear unto myself." When he was sent as missionary to Liberia, it was generally understood that Africa could only be redeemed by an immense sacrifice of life. The dying words of Melville B. Cox, his predecessor and the proto-martyr, were prophetic: "Let a thousand fall before Africa be given up." When, therefore, Dr. Seys sailed for that malarious coast, it seemed that he deliberately sailed into the jaws of death. He had reason to believe he would be required to preach to Africa more by the tender eloquence of his grave, and the buried ashes of his wife and children, than by his life and lips.

As a Christian, Dr. Seys was deeply spiritual. He loved the subject and enjoyed the experience of personal holiness. Having a loving nature, full of tender sensibilities, his enjoyments were highly emotional, and yet deep, uniform, and constant. For several months before his death, Dr. Seys was a great sufferer, but he was enabled, by grace divine, to bear his sufferings patiently, and to rejoice in the midst of the keenest, "with joy unspeakable and full of glory." It was my privilege to be with him often during these months of suffering, and listen to his words of cheer and holy triumph. About an hour before the angels came for his spirit, full of glorious expectancy, I said to him, "What is now the outlook?" He replied, with all the emphasis he could command, "Bright, glorious!" The last intelligent expression of his life was, "Though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil, for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me." The venerable Bishop Morris said at the funeral service, "I never saw a more perfect triumph over the terrors of death than was exhibited by Dr. Seys a few days since." Dr. A. Lowrey said on the same occasion, "His death-scene was a victorious transition into heaven." "Thanks be to God, which giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ!"

REV. LEVI P. MILLER.

Rev. Levi Pilkiton Miller was born in Union County, Pennsylvania, January 8, 1809. His parents were worthy members of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and he was brought up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord.

In his sixteenth year he joined the Church on probation, and diligently sought justification by faith in Jesus Christ and the promised renewing of the Holy Ghost. The ensuing August he walked thirty-six miles to attend a camp-meeting, hoping that in the tented grove he would be aided in finding him of whom the prophet spake as "the Healer." With blistered feet and burdened heart he entered the shade of the consecrated grove, with the momentous inquiry upon his lips, "What must I do to be saved?" But he returned to his home still burdened with his guilt and grief, a prisoner of hope, and could never fix the date or circumstance of his transition into the kingdom of our Lord Jesus Christ.

He was wont to say that his deliverance was like that of a man ascending a steep and rugged road burdened with a bag of sand, which, grain by grain, departed, till all was gone; and complete relief became a joyous consciousness, on that Alpine route where

> "Ether pure surrounds us,
> And Elysian prospects rise."

After this happy assurance of faith, and the accompanying attestation of the Holy Spirit to his filial relationship to God, he thirsted for Scriptural knowledge, that he might be prepared to proclaim the unsearchable riches of Christ to others, when God should open the way into that ministry to which he even then felt that God had separated him. He asked his father to give him the privilege of gleaning the wheat-fields, so that he might procure religious books; and after his daily work was over, he raked those fields by moonlight, to gather the means to procure religious books to qualify him for his life-mission. With these earnings he procured "Clarke's Commentary," that mine of Gospel truth, with which he enriched and prepared himself for usefulness.

In 1828, his parents settled in Ashland County, Ohio and encountered the trials of pioneer life; and, after a season of toil, young Miller returned to Pennsylvania, and entered, as a student, the academy in Milton, the county-seat of the place of his nativity. The principal, Dr. Kirkpatrick, was a scholarly man, and with him our theologue studied Latin and Greek, and the higher branches of a liberal education.

While he was at Milton, he was appointed a "class-leader," and received license as an "exhorter," and his profiting appeared unto all. His labors were signally blessed of the Lord, and the Church saw that he had those great marks of every one called of God to this honor; namely, "gifts, grace, and usefulness."

In consequence of failing health, he returned to his father's house, to die, as he stated to his friends in Milton at his departure; but the sickness was not unto death. The journey, home influence, agricultural pursuits, restored his health, and he made an unconditional surrender of himself to the work to which God had called him. He was licensed as a local preacher, and at the same time recommended to the Ohio Conference as a proper person to be received on trial into that body, by the action of the Quarterly Conference in Ashland, Ohio.

In September, 1830, he was admitted into the Conference aforesaid, and was appointed to Athens Circuit, under the care of that apostolic and saintly man, Rev. John Ferree, who left the impress of his virtues on the sensitive and impressible nature of this eminently conscientious young preacher. The following year he was appointed to Norwich Circuit; the ensuing four years were spent in West Virginia. He was then successively appointed to Georgetown, Madisonville, Sidney, Chester, New Haven, South Charleston, Wilmington, Franklin, White Oak, Madisonville, Amelia, Williamsburg, Lockland, West White Oak, Amelia, Milford, New Carlisle, Raysville, Batavia, Madisonville, Miami, Jamestown, Moscow.

In 1864–5, he entered the army as chaplain of the One Hundredth Regiment, O. V. I., and accompanied the regiment to Nashville. Subsequently he served on the North-western Railroad, and afterward served his regiment in Columbia, Tenn. After fourteen months of service, he was honorably discharged, at Benton Barracks, St. Louis, and returned to his family on New-Year's day, 1865. He proved one of the best of chaplains.

In 1871–2, he served five months in the Buckeye Mission, in Dayton, with great acceptance and efficiency. He boarded with Rev. A. Bowers the greater part of the time spent in Dayton, and of his daily devotion and holiness of life brother Bowers bears fullest testimony. Last Spring brother Miller undertook to cultivate the small farm of some twenty acres which his wife inherited. With the noble purpose "to provide for his own house," he toiled along through the Summer. But he had given his strength to the cultivation of Immanuel's heritage, and daily manual labor proved almost as fruitless as it was oppressive. To brother D. C. Vance he often said, "I have to work so hard for a living that I am unfitted for preaching;" "I must keep along with my crop, as I am too poor to hire any help." While wearily toiling in his corn-field, some two weeks before his death, he trod on a sharp bone, which pierced his foot and proved to be the instrument of his death. Inflammation terminated in lock-jaw within a fortnight, and amid the convulsions of this disease he was wonderfully sustained; and, he gave the clearest evidence of that faith in God which conquers all. Near the closing scene, he said to brother Vance: "I have attended my last Conference. Please express my respect and love for the dear brethren of the Cincinnati Conference, with whom I have labored so many years;" "Give my love to brother Moody;" "As to the future, all is bright." Alluding to the fact that some of his children were unconverted, he said, "If my children were all converted, I could ask no more; but, though my house is not so with God, yet he hath made with me an everlasting covenant, ordered in all things, and sure; and this is all my hope and all my desire, though he maketh not my house to grow." Near midnight of Sabbath, July 28th, the last agony broke the silver chord, and his blood-washed spirit passed to that world where every month is Summer; and we know that he is

"Serene amid alarms,"

"Blest, unutterably blest,
Where the wicked cease from troubling,
And the weary are at rest."

Brother Miller was a symmetrically developed Christian. The great law of progression into Christian completeness was gloriously illustrated in his case, and compelled the universal commendation, "Behold an Israelite indeed, in whom there is no guile." The characteristic humility, modesty, and conscientiousness kept his profession quite within the circle of his attainments, while the children of God

> "Could clearly trace
> Their Father's likeness in his face."

He was an amiable, faithful, prudent, magnanimous colleague, and a patient toiler in the Master's vineyard. He joined the serpent with the dove, and cast the sting away. His ministry was successful, and thousands will rise up and call him blessed.

In his superannuated relation, and in his commerce with the world, his garments were neither spotted nor sullied, and the weeping funeral throng of those in whose midst he had made his home for a third of a century, declared the high appreciation in which he was held by those who knew him best.

He finished his course with joy, and, having "overcome by the word of his testimony and the blood of the Lamb," he is now

> "A pillar in God's temple fixed,
> And to go out no more."

GRANVILLE MOODY,
D. C. VANCE,
A. BOWERS.

REV. ISAAC NEFF.

REV. ISAAC NEFF was born in Pennsylvania, September 9, 1824. He joined the Methodist Episcopal Church at Palmer Chapel, what was then known as Troy Circuit, on the night of the third Sabbath of January, 1842, under the labors of Rev. A. Musgrove. He was appointed class-leader, October 21, 1845; was licensed to exhort, June 20, 1846, W. H. Raper, Presiding Elder; and was licensed to preach, September 9, 1848, G. W. Walker, Presiding Elder. At the session of the Ohio Conference, which was held at Dayton, September, 1849, Brother Neff was received on trial, and appointed to Ironton, as junior preacher. His next appointments were to Lewisburg and Eaton, in each of which he served one year. In September, 1853, he was appointed to Goshen, where he remained two years, during the latter of which he was married. He was married to Miss Jennie Bruner, who shared with him the joys and sorrows of an itinerant's life until God called her home. In the Fall of 1855, he was appointed to New Richmond; 1856, to Germantown and Springboro; 1857, to Winchester, where he remained two years. His next appointment was to Venice; here he remained two years, and where he was married to his second wife, Miss Parmelia E. Smith, August 23, 1863. His next appointment was to Harrison, where he labored one year. The two following years he labored on North Bend Circuit; Sharonville, one year; Lynchburg, the two succeeding; Sinking Springs the last two years of his life. He entered upon the last-named work with more than usual interest, laboring earnestly for souls. This labor was not in vain—more than two hundred were converted. During the Winter, little Charley, an only son, who had been an invalid for two years, becoming worse, brother Neff always returned home from his appointments, riding six or eight miles after night service, to administer to his wants. This caused nervous prostration that disqualified him for labor during the Spring and part of the Summer. While our Conference was in session at Piqua, little Charley bade farewell to earthly friends, to join those in heaven. On my return from Conference, I found him sinking beneath the weight of affliction. Recovering again from the shock, he entered upon another year's labor, which also was a year of success. He also became an earnest seeker of the blessing of holiness; and, to the joy of his heart, on the night of February 14th, while all alone, returning home from his appointment, the great blessing came, and he was enabled to rejoice in a full salvation. After this, he spoke freely upon this subject, exhorting the members to take higher grounds, until March 12th, when, in the midst of a sermon, his physical strength gave way, and he was compelled to quit the field. From that time until his death he was able to preach but few times.

Brother Neff was an earnest Christian, always at the post of duty when health would permit. Although a timid man, he never shunned to declare the whole counsel of God. In his earnestness for souls he was often heard to say, "I never want to be a superannuated man; when I cease to be able to preach, I want to cease to breathe, and go home to rest." Inspired with this feeling, he often preached when truly unable. Prior to the last session of our Conference, his friends urged him not to take work, but to rest for a year at least. But his reply would always be, "I think I shall be able to attend Conference and take work." Alas! when Conference came, he was unable to attend. He had visited his last Conference on earth. On my return, he inquired of me about his work. On being informed that he was left without an appointment, turning over in his bed, he said, "What shall I do?" In a moment more, he said, "The Lord doeth all things well."

Disease had already fastened itself upon his vitals, and although suffering extreme pain, he would say, "All is well; all is well." In a few weeks after this, he was removed to Lebanon, where he received all the medical aid that could be given him, but in vain. His disease, softening of the brain, had already passed the skill of the physicians, and it was evident he must die. But this did not quench the pure love of God that flowed so freely in his heart, even when he was so near the river that he was unable to converse aloud. Brother Murray, Pastor at Lebanon, asked, "Does the religion you have preached to others sustain you now?" He whispered in his ear, "Yes." Reason now began to totter, and he was unable to converse more. His holy life and his last testimony are to his friends sufficient ground for assurance of his entrance into rest.

As the Sabbath was the day selected to join the Church, so also was the Sabbath the day when his spirit took its flight to join the Church triumphant, "where the wicked cease from troubling, and the weary are at rest." He died, October 29, 1871. He leaves a wife and three daughters, with numerous relations and friends, to mourn.

E. BURDSALL.

REV. JOHN SHINN.

REV. JOHN SHINN was born in Warren County, Ohio, March 2, 1824, and died at West Mansfield, Logan County, Ohio, September 26, 1871. His father, Wm. Shinn, removed, with his family, from Warren to Shelby County, Ohio, in 1834. Here for many years he was well known as a class-leader of excellent character and great usefulness. His children were brought up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord. At the age of fifteen, the subject of this memoir united with the Methodist Episcopal Church as a seeker of religion, at a protracted meeting held near his father's house. Continuing earnestly to seek religion in the diligent use of the means of grace, it was not long until he received the assurance of the Divine favor, and had peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ.

A year afterward, he removed to Cincinnati. During his residence in that city he was an earnest and zealous Christian, and a useful member of the Church. He was called into the work of the ministry in the year 1853, and traveled under the authority of the presiding elder, Rev. John F. Wright, from Christmas until the session of the Cincinnati Conference in 1854, when he was received into the traveling connection. At that Conference he was appointed to Venice Circuit; in 1855, to West Union Circuit; in 1856, to Moscow. On the ninth of October, this year, he was married to Miss Mary C. Tuttle, of Cincinnati, who shared with him the duties and trials, as well as the joys, of itinerant and ministerial life, until he was called to his reward on high. In 1857, brother Shinn was sent to Sinking Springs Circuit, serving there two years; in 1859, Clarksville, two years; in 1861, Highland, two years; in 1863, Sinking Springs again.

Before the close of this Conference year, he went into the service of the Christian Commission. While in this work, in Georgia, he met, in the Eighty-Ninth Regiment, Ohio Volunteer Infantry, a number of young men from his former fields of labor. Through the influence of these young men, he was elected chaplain of that regiment. He remained with the regiment until the close of the war. After the war was over, he was appointed County Bible Agent, in which office he served one year. In 1866, resuming his pastoral work, he was appointed to New Lexington Circuit, where he served two years. In 1868 he was appointed to Centenary Circuit. Here, on the thirteenth of June, 1869, he received his first stroke of paralysis.

At the ensuing session of the Conference his presiding elder endeavored to persuade him to rest a year; but loving his work and dreading superannuation, he was unwilling to do so. He was now sent to North Lewisburg Circuit. Here he struggled hard to do the work of a Methodist preacher, while his colleague, his family, and the people saw plainly that it was too much for him to do. His colleague, Rev. H. M. Currey, begged brother Shinn to let him do all the work of protracted meetings himself; and not getting his consent thus to rest, he would not let him know where and when the meetings were held. But brother Shinn would get on his horse, and ride about the circuit, hunting the protracted meetings, determined to spend his last bit of strength in the work of saving souls.

On New-Year's day, 1871, he received the second stroke of paralysis, which put an end to his ministerial labors. Yet as long as he could, by the greatest exertion and the assistance of others, make his way from his house to the Church, he was always found in his place as a worshiper. His organs of speech were paralyzed to such a degree that very little could be understood of all he would attempt to say. He was comparatively free from physical suffering until the last three weeks of his life, when he was confined to the house almost entirely.

On Thursday before he died, he was heard to articulate, with unusual distinctness, the words, "A brighter world than this;" and after a pause these words, "Jesus, Jesus, Savior!" Later in the day, he exclaimed, "Higher, higher!" On Friday morning, as his wife approached him, she heard him say, "Father! mother! angels!" A few moments afterward, he said distinctly, "Jerusalem." Several times he said: "Halleluiah! Glory in the highest! Jesus is worthy!" On Monday he exclaimed, "Mother! mother!" and these were his last intelligible utterances. He died at half-past six o'clock on Tuesday morning.

A marked characteristic of Rev. John Shinn might be described by a single term—MANLINESS. And yet this term describes but feebly that noble, generous, and magnanimous spirit which gave form and shape to all his words and actions. One who knew him, long and intimately, said, "A nobler man than John Shinn never lived." This was said by one of his colleagues. And it is fitting that we should say that, in the relation of a colleague, some of the excellencies of his character shone conspicuously. Willing and prompt to do his full share of the work, even the hardest part of it, he was at the same time generous and unexacting toward his co-laborers. Magnanimity, Christian courtesy, and true gentlemanliness marked all his intercourse with his fellow-laborers in the vineyard of the Lord.

Brother Shinn was a very kind and affectionate husband and father. Love, tenderness, and joy dwelt in his household. His home seemed like a paradise dropped down from heaven. One of his severest trials, near the close of life, seemed to be to part with the loved ones who were to be left behind.

For two years or more before his death, Brother Shinn was a constant and earnest seeker of the blessing of perfect love, and during that time, when able to preach at all, his preaching was almost wholly on that subject. He loved the work of preaching the Gospel, and even when completely broken down in health, he thought he ought to live and labor yet twenty years in the Lord's vineyard. The zeal of the Lord's house consumed him; but he rests from his labors and his works follow him.

MRS. CATHERINE LAWDER.

THIS gentle and sweet-spirited woman, who, for forty years, bore cheerfully the privations of the itinerancy, entered into rest on Wednesday, July 17, 1872. She was born near Mt. Holly, New Jersey, May 7, 1810, so that the days of her pilgrimage were three-score and two years. Part of her life was passed in the city of Philadelphia, where her parents resided several years; but they finally moved to Ohio, and settled at the Rapid Forge, in Ross County. Here, before she was twelve years old, she was converted, and united with the Methodist Episcopal Church, under the ministry of the Rev. Henry Fernandez. For fifty years did this saintly woman serve God on earth, and in all that time her life was pure and blameless. She was married to Rev. William H. Lawder, February 9, 1832. None save those who have experienced them can ever know the hardships of the early ministers of our Church in the West, or how large a proportion of the burdens of the position fell to the lot of the wife and mother. That Mrs. Lawder faithfully performed her duties to her family and to the Church, is well known in all the fields of labor to which her husband was appointed. The care of five sons and two daughters devolved largely on her, in the necessary absence of her husband from home; and, as a true woman and mother, her first and chief work was in the sacred sphere of the domestic circle. Although the multiplicity of her home cares prevented her from taking any very active part in Church work, she was, nevertheless, a most ardent lover of the means of grace, and no one prayed with more fervor or faith for the peace and prosperity of Zion. Mrs. Lawder was a peculiarly sensitive and modest woman, and her piety was of the type that is seen more than it is heard. If she talked less than some do, no one ever more cheerfully worked and suffered in the Master's cause. She was a charitable Christian, always putting the best construction on the acts of others, though she would often write bitter things against herself. She was, in the language of her stricken husband, "a devoted and faithful wife, a tender and indulgent mother, and a sincere and abiding friend." During her last sickness, she was, for the most part, in a peaceful, happy frame of mind; but, about a week before her death, as often occurs with the purest Christians, she was sorely tried by doubts and fears. These fiery trials, however, could not shake her faith in Christ, and the clouds soon passed away. To her husband she said: "I rest sweetly in Jesus. He will save me. He saves me now! Blessed be his name!" Soon after, as if she had foretaste of the coming glory, her countenance glowed with a serene, sweet joy, and she exclaimed:

"O, Jesus, what delicious fare—
How sweet thine entertainments are!
Never did angels taste above
Redeeming grace and dying love."

At the funeral, on Thursday evening, July 18th, which was attended by a very large concourse of citizens, every one seemed to be a mourner. She had evidently a very strong hold upon the affections of all classes, both in and outside of the Church.

"Thus star by star declines,
Till all are passed away,
As morning high and higher shines
To pure and perfect day;
Nor sink those stars in empty night—
They hide themselves in heaven's own light."

J. F. MARLAY.

MRS. LUCY PUMPHREY.

MRS. LUCY PUMPHREY, whose maiden name was Joseph, was the only daughter, by her first husband, of Mrs. G. W. Large, now of Yellow Springs, Ohio, and was born in West Liberty, Ohio, March 15, 1845, and after a brief illness, departed this life in Harrison, Ohio, November 20, 1871, aged 26 years, 8 months, and 5 days.

She was converted to God and joined the Methodist Episcopal Church at Yellow Springs, under the labors of Rev. M. P. Gaddis, Sr., in the Winter of 1865, and was joined in marriage to Rev. John S. Pumphrey, of the Cincinnati Annual Conference, October 11, 1866, and, with her husband, was successively assigned to Fairfield and Bethany Circuits, and to Harrison Station. In these she rendered herself very useful as organist and chief chorister in the Sabbath-school and in the public worship of God. Nor were these the only spheres in which her influence was felt for good; but at the bed of sickness, in the social circle, and in all the social means of grace, she exerted a mild and cheerful influence, by comforting the sick, lighting up the social circle with her pleasant smiles and her sweet voice of song, and bravely, yet meekly, laboring by the side of her husband in all special efforts to promote the work of salvation and urge on the triumphs of the Redeemer's kingdom. Such a woman gave promise of extensive usefulness to the Church, being in full sympathy with all its enterprises. This fact was clearly recognized by all the charges in which she lived and labored. Gladly would the people have retained her longer; for deeper and stronger became their attachment to her, as they became acquainted with the qualities of her mind and the genial nature of her heart. As an illustration of this, the official board of the last charge in which she lived, unanimously adopted and presented, on the day of her funeral, a preamble and resolutions not only of sympathy for the bereaved husband, but of their high appreciation of her piety and usefulness while among them.

Sister Pumphrey was not surprised by the approach of death. She believed, from the first attack of her last illness, that she would die, and so assured her mother, her husband, and attending friends. Though she suffered much, she was patient and triumphant; for her soul was trustfully resting upon its God. She seemed even anxious for the end to come, and told her friends on the day before she died, "If I die, all is well. My peace is made with God." To her physician she said, "I am going to die; but I wish it distinctly understood that I am prepared." Frequently, she said to her friends, "I shall go straight to heaven." Though severe had been her affliction and sufferings for several days, yet the last few hours found her on a more calm and quiet sea. The storm had spent its force; she had braved the fury of the deep; the wail of the tempest was dying in the distance, and she was permitted to gently glide into the harbor, fanned by celestial breezes, illumed by the Sun of Righteousness; and doubtless, amid the shouts of welcome by friends upon the golden shore, she was escorted to one of the many mansions in our Father's house above.

Thus lived faithfully, and passed from earth triumphantly, a loving wife and a devoted child of God. Though removed from the arena of battle, she has not lost her interest in the contest; but, inspired by the raptures of personal victory and the cloudless visions of the Divine glory, she lives to mingle her voice with the shouts of the increasing millions before the throne at each successive conquest of our God. We may miss her here, but we 'll find her there, while her active, though brief life, shall illustrate the Divine truth, "The righteous shall be in everlasting remembrance."

RULES OF ORDER.

1. AFTER the usual opening religious exercises, the Secretary shall read the Minutes of the previous session.

2. No motion shall be entertained by the Conference till such motion shall have been seconded.

3. All motions shall be reduced to writing, if desired by any member of the Conference.

4. Every member desiring to speak on any subject before the Conference, shall rise and address the President.

5. The member who first rises and addresses the President shall be entitled to the floor.

6. No member shall speak more than once on the same subject till all who may desire to speak shall have spoken; nor more than fifteen minutes at a time, without leave of the Conference.

7. All questions of order shall be decided by the President, subject to an appeal to the Conference, without debate.

8. When any question is under debate, no motion shall be received but to adjourn, to lay on the table, to postpone, to commit, or to amend; but a motion to adjourn shall always be in order; and this, as well as a motion to lay on the table, shall be decided without debate.

9. If the question before the Conference be capable of division, upon the call of any member, such question shall be divided.

10. The business of the Conference shall be conducted with open doors, unless otherwise ordered by the Conference.

11. Any question may be reconsidered on the motion of any member who may have voted with the majority.

12. If any member call for the previous question, and such call shall be sanctioned by a two-thirds vote of the Conference, the main question shall then be put.

13. Each Committee of the Conference shall choose its own chairman, unless the chairman be designated by the Conference or the President in the appointment of the committee.

14. The members of the Conference shall assemble in the Conference-room punctually at the hour to which the Conference adjourned, and no member shall absent himself from the place of Conference session without leave of absence.

15. In all practicable cases, when charges are preferred against a member of Conference, notice shall be given to the President on the first day of the session, that, if it be judged proper, his name may be called, and the case referred to a committee.

16. No member of Conference shall be subject to arrest of character without having been timely furnished, wherever practicable, with a written copy of the charges and specifications against him.

17. The vote on any question shall be taken by ayes and noes, upon the call of fifteen members.

NEWPORT, KY., August 20, 1871.

To the Christian Public:

"Grace Methodist Episcopal Church," in this city, has used the "Unfermented Wine" called "Tirosh," prepared for use in "The Lord's-supper," by Mr. James Reynolds, of Ripley, Ohio, during my pastorate in said Church, and with entire satisfaction to the officers and members of that Church.

I am personally acquainted with Mr. Reynolds. His statements are entirely reliable. I have no hesitancy in recommending the pure juice of the grape which he furnishes for communion purposes, as the "desideratum" of the Churches.

CINCINNATI WESLEYAN COLLEGE,

(FOR YOUNG WOMEN,)

Rev. Lucius H. Bugbee, D. D., President,

ASSISTED BY EIGHTEEN PROFESSORS AND TEACHERS.

THE THIRTY-FIRST YEAR opened September 18th. The First Session will end January 30, 1873.

THE SECOND SESSION will open January 31st, and close June 12, 1873.

THE NEW COLLEGE EDIFICE is now the best educational structure in Methodism. The entire outlay in building, and grounds, and furniture, is $225,000. The Building is completely furnished. The College has some four hundred Alumnæ, and a vigorous Alumnæ Association.

THE ENTIRE EXPENSE OF A YOUNG LADY, including board, with heat, light, washing—twelve pieces per week—and tuition in the Academic or Collegiate Department, from $310 to $330 per annum.

Deduction of twenty-five per cent from the above to the Daughters of Ministers in the Pastorate.

COLLEGE HOME—The Table, the Rooms, the Parlors, and all the appointments of the College are made to contribute to a most Pleasant Home.

EXPENSE OF MUSIC, either Instrumental or Vocal—according to Department—from $30 to $50 per session.

DRAWING AND PAINTING, $10, $20, and $30 per session—according to Department.

FRENCH AND GERMAN, and the elements of Music and Penmanship, are taught free of charge, and by the ablest teachers.

THE LITERARY COURSES OF STUDY are three, and parallel. Young women completing either, receive the regular degrees conferred by our American Colleges.

THE WORK OF INSTRUCTION is thoroughly done. The aim of the College is to furnish our young women a solid and thorough education—equal to our best Colleges.

THE CONSERVATORY OF MUSIC is unsurpassed in the city.

Correspondence attended to at once. Catalogues sent promptly upon application to the President.

ABSTRACT OF THE DAILY JOURNAL.

FIRST DAY.

SPRINGFIELD, OHIO, Wednesday, Aug. 27, 1873.

THE CINCINNATI ANNUAL CONFERENCE OF THE METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH began its Twenty-second Session in the Central Methodist Episcopal Church, Springfield, Ohio, this morning at nine o'clock, Bishop E. R. Ames presiding, and our venerable senior Bishop Morris being present.

Dr. John F. Wright read selections from the 20th Psalm and the 4th chapter of Ephesians, and announced the 707th hymn; after the singing of which, by the congregation, he led the devotions of the Conference in prayer.

The sacrament of the Lord's-supper was then administered to the ministers and laity present.

The Secretary of the last Conference called the roll, and one hundred and three members answered to their names.

J. M. Walden was granted leave of absence for to-morrow.

The Rev. W. J. Shuey, Fraternal Delegate from the Miami Conference of the United Brethren Church, being invited, briefly addressed the Conference, in a very appropriate and happy manner; and, on motion, Bishop Ames was requested to appoint a responding delegate to the Miami Conference.

By request of Bishop Ames, Bishop Wiley took the chair, and the Stewards made their preliminary report.

On motion of W. Herr, the Conference Trustees were directed to pay over to the Conference Stewards whatever funds may be in their hands.

T. Lee presented $50, which had been given him to be distributed to needy preachers. On motion, he was requested to hand it over to the Stewards for distribution.

A resolution in relation to the examination of preachers before the Conference by the Bishop, on careful administration of Discipline, was read and laid on the table.

The Tenth Question was taken up, and the examination of the characters of effective elders began. Jas. F. Chalfant, Presiding Elder of the East Cincinnati District, represented his work. Dr. Lowrey, Presiding Elder, represented his work on the West Cincinnati District, the time having been extended for that purpose.

On motion of G. Moody, Bishop Ames, at the request of Conference, appointed a Committee, consisting of G. Moody, M. Dustin, J. F. Marlay, M. A. Richards, and A. N. Spahr, on the administration of Discipline, to whom the paper presented by Dr. Lowrey on that subject was referred.

After the giving of notices, the Conference adjourned, with singing the Doxology, and benediction by C. Ferguson.

THIRD DAY.

FRIDAY MORNING, Aug. 29, 1873.

CONFERENCE opened at eight o'clock with the services of a prayer-meeting, conducted by Wm. I. Fee.

At a quarter to nine, Bishop Ames took the chair, and the Journal of yesterday was read and approved.

A communication from Dr. E. O. Haven, Secretary of the Board of Education, was received, and referred to the Committee on that subject.

C. W. Ketcham, J. T. Bail, and W. L. Hypes were appointed a Committee on the subject of the Ladies' and Pastors' Christian Union.

J. W. Weakley moved a reconsideration of the motion by which D. H. Sargent was located, and he was made effective.

L. H. Bugbee was added to the Committee on Education.

The Tenth Question was resumed, and J. W. Weakley, Presiding Elder, represented the state of the Church on Dayton District.

A. Meharry, Presiding Elder, represented the state of the Church on Springfield District.

S. D. Clayton, Presiding Elder, represented the state of the Church on Hillsboro District; and the characters of these elders were passed.

W. Herr, from the Committee on Memorial Services of Rev. A. B. Wambaugh, made a report, which was adopted.

G. Moody presented a resolution on the subject of Presiding Elders' Work, which was adopted.

Bishop Ames introduced to the Conference Rev. brothers Bradley and Fry, of the Ohio Conference, and L. F. Van Cleve, of the Kentucky Conference.

On motion, the Committee on Statistics were instructed to ascertain how many copies of the Minutes the preachers will be responsible for, and report to the Conference as soon as practicable.

On motion, the preachers were instructed to report, with their other collections, the amounts raised for the Church Extension Society. Leave of absence was granted W. H. Lawder and J. C. Bontecou.

The Tenth Question was resumed, and the characters of A. N. Spahr, D. H. Moore, A. Bowers, W. L. Hypes, Geo. T. Weaver, D. C. Vance, M. Kauffman, T. J. Euans, W. B. Moler, C. T. Crum, A. D. Raleigh, W. P. Jackson, James Murray, H. C. Middleton, W. J. Thurber, E. C. Smith, J. F. Loyd, J. F. Wright, J. M. Walden, R. S. Rust, E. House, and T. Lee were passed, those in charge having reported their collections.

Dr. Wright presented a very interesting report of his work as Conference Evangelist, which was ordered to be published in the Western Christian Advocate.

The names of the preachers in the West Cincinnati District were called, and the characters of R. M. Hatfield, A. Hamilton, W. A. Robinson, G. Moody, E. M'Hugh, J. S. Pumphrey, J. W. Peters, S. B. Smith, W. B. Jackson, R. L. Vickers, W. Q. Shannon, D. J. Starr, T. J. Harris, F. Hypes, R. K. Deem, S. W. Edmiston, J. W. Cassatt, M. G. Baker, J. F. Hull, N. Prince, L. H. Bugbee, and A. B. Mathews were passed, those in charge having reported their collections.

J. W. Weakley rose to a question of privilege, and referred to an anonymous communication in the Gazette of this date, in which he, as the author of a resolution offered in Conference in reference to camp-meetings, was charged with hostility to the National camp-meetings. He disavowed all such feelings, and wished to be so understood.

Rev. Mr. Bennett, Pastor of the Congregational Church, and Revs. Newton and Farley, of the Central Ohio Conference, were introduced by Bishop Ames.

The time having been extended, the Stewards presented and read their report.

W. Herr moved that James Armstrong's name be restored to the list of Conference claimants.

A similar motion was made concerning the name of Mrs. Marlay; and, on motion, the whole subject was referred to the Stewards, with reference to their special consideration of these cases.

After the giving of notices, Conference adjourned, with singing the Doxology, and the benediction by M. Kauffman.

FOURTH DAY.

SATURDAY MORNING, Aug. 30, 1873.

CONFERENCE opened at eight o'clock with the usual services of a prayer-meeting, led by Rev. Wm. Young. At its close, Bishop Ames took the chair, and the Journal of yesterday was read and approved.

W. I. Ellsworth was added to the Committee on Education.

The Seventh Question, "Who have been elected and ordained Elders this year?" was taken up.

O. A. Brown was reported as having been transferred to the Troy Conference.

On motion of M. Dustin, it was ordered that, in all cases where an undergraduate fails to pass his examinations, in whole or in part, he shall be required to pass an examination on the omitted studies next year.

After the presentation of favorable reports in their respective cases by the examining committees and the presiding elders, and the report of their collections, the characters of T. DeWitt Peak, Wm. Mahon, Henry Miller, and Jas. E. Gilbert were passed, and brothers Peak and Gilbert were elected to elders' orders, the others having been ordained last year.

The Sixth Question, "Who are the Deacons?" was taken up.

W. M. Boyer, J. Wilson, J. S. Whitney, Edward Burdsall, and E. C. Smith, an elder of last year, reported their collections, and their characters passed.

None of the class had studied Whately's Logic.

Leave of absence was granted A. M. Griffith for to-day.

Dr. Eddy, being obliged to leave, briefly addressed the Conference.

The Fourth Question, "Who are admitted into full connection?" was taken up, and Lucian M. Davis, J. E. Gilbert, C. J. Wells, Lafayette Young, Daniel L. Hayward, and Chas. H. Kalbfus were called forward, and addressed by Bishop Ames in a very suggestive and impressive manner. Having satisfactorily answered the usual Disciplinary questions, and having, with one exception, assured the Conference that they are not addicted to the use of tobacco or opium in any form, they were admitted into full connection, and, excepting J. E. Gilbert, who had been previously ordained, were elected to deacons' orders.

Bishop Wiley took the chair, and leave of absence was granted E. C. Smith, H. M. Keck, and J. P. Shultz.

The Bishop called for recommendations for local elders' and deacons' orders.

Ralph S. Hagerman, having been properly recommended from the East Cincinnati District, and favorably represented by his presiding elder and examiners, was elected to local elders' orders.

John C. Ambrose, from Hillsboro District, was, upon like representation, elected to local deacon's orders.

Joseph I. Taggart and David Gaddis, from Hillsboro District, were, on like representations, elected to local elders' orders.

A. Bowers presented a resolution relating to the time of some of the Conference examinations, which was adopted.

On motion of J. Pearson, a committee was appointed, consisting of one member from each class of examiners, to devise a uniform plan of examination.

G. Moody offered a resolution, which was adopted, requesting the transfer of Rev. W. H. Black from the Kentucky to the Cincinnati Conference.

J. F. Marlay and others presented a resolution expressive of the gratification of the Conference in having Bishop Foster as a resident Bishop within its bounds. The resolution was unanimously adopted by a rising vote.

G. Moody offered a resolution expressive of the deep and keen regret felt by the Conference for the necessity of the removal of Bishops Wiley and Merrill from our midst. Adopted also, by a rising vote.

Dr. Rust, from the Committee on Education, reported in part, and Dr. Trimble, Agent of the Ohio Wesleyan University, was invited to address the Conference; but, in order to secure sufficient time, this was made the order of the day for Monday at ten o'clock.

The stewards made their revised report, which was adopted as the basis of distribution.

The Secretary requested the appointment of a committee to audit his accounts for the publication of the Minutes of 1871, and D. H. Moore and J. T. Bail were appointed for that purpose.

J. T. Bail was appointed by Bishop Ames to conduct the opening services Monday morning.

E. T. Wells was appointed, in place of J. T. Short, on the Committee on Post-offices.

The time was extended, and Monday afternoon at three o'clock was fixed upon as the time for holding the Conference memorial services.

After the giving of notices, Conference adjourned with the Doxology and benediction.

FIFTH DAY.

MONDAY MORNING, Sept. 1, 1873.

CONFERENCE opened at eight o'clock, with a prayer-meeting conducted by Rev. J. T. Bail.

Bishop Ames not having arrived, and the time for the transaction of business having come, W. Herr was requested, by vote of Conference, to take the chair, and the Secretary began the reading of Saturday's Journal. During the reading, the Bishop entered, and the Minutes were approved.

Bishop Ames presented a certificate of yesterday's ordinations.

On motion, it was resolved that when Conference adjourn, it be to meet at three o'clock for memorial services.

W. J. Thurber, having asked it, was granted a location.

W. I. Ellsworth was granted a superannuated relation.

On motion, the trustees of Pleasant Hill Church, Centenary Circuit; of Wesley Church, Moorefield Circuit; of Bethel Church, Oxford Station; of High-street Church, Ladies' Home Mission, Cincinnati,—were granted permission to sell such property for reinvestment of the proceeds, according to the Discipline.

The Third Question, "Who remain on trial?" was taken up.

Joseph C. Acomb, John W. Sutherland, John N. Irvin, John T. Short, Wm. N. Brodbeck, John C. Ambrose, Joseph C. Boltin, Wm. H. Smith, Daniel L. Aultman, David V. Ross, having been represented by their presiding elders and examiners, and those in charge having reported their collections, their characters were passed, and they were continued on trial. John N. Irvin was reported to have sustained a satisfactory examination also on the studies of the second year. W. H. Smith was reported deficient in his studies, not having been prepared on Psychology, Church History, and Homiletics.

Bishop Wiley took the chair.

The order of the day was taken up; and that part of the report of the Committee on Education relating to the Ohio Wesleyan University was presented, and Dr. Trimble addressed the Conference in behalf of that institution.

Brothers P. P. Mast, R. S. Rust, and J. M. Walden followed with remarks on the same subject; after which, the resolutions of the Committee on Education, regarding the University, were adopted by a rising vote.

G. Moody presented the report of the Committee on Camp-meetings.

J. F. Conrey moved that the resolutions be considered seriatim. Carried.

On motion of J. M. Walden, the first resolution was amended; after which, it was adopted.

The second resolution was read, and, after some discussion, a substitute offered for it, by D. J. Starr, was adopted.

Bishop Ames appointed Dr. Rust to preside at the afternoon session; and Dr. J. F. Wright to lead the devotional exercises to-morrow morning.

On motion of S. B. Smith, R. Brandriff was added to the Committee on Memoirs.

The time having expired, after the giving of notices, Conference adjourned with the Doxology and benediction.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

MONDAY AFTERNOON, Sept. 1, 1873.

PURSUANT to adjournment, Conference reassembled at three o'clock, Dr. R. S. Rust in the chair. Religious services were conducted by Rev. George H. Dart. The Journal of this morning's session was read and approved.

Fifteenth Question, "Who have died this year?" was taken up.

The memoir of Rev. A. B. Wambaugh was read by Rev. W. N. Williams; the 1077th hymn was sung, and Rev. William L. Hypes offered prayer. Touching remarks were made by Revs. William Simmons, William L. Hypes, William Herr, J. M. Walden, W. N. Williams, W. I. Ellsworth, J. F. Wright, and G. Moody, and the report of the Committee was adopted.

RESOLUTIONS ADOPTED.

Work for Presiding Elders.

WHEREAS, there is general dissatisfaction among our people with the present size of our presiding elders' districts; and whereas, there is within the bounds of the Conference much territory unoccupied by Methodism; therefore,

Resolved, That it be understood by this Conference that those who are appointed presiding elders shall give special attention to the occupation and cultivation of our unoccupied territory.

J. P. SHULTZ, W. Q. SHANNON,
J. G. BLACK, GRANVILLE MOODY, and twenty others.

Bishop Foster.

WHEREAS, the Rev. R. S. Foster, D. D., one of the recently elected Bishops of the Methodist Episcopal Church, has, in accordance with the provision of the General Conference for the distribution of episcopal residences, selected Cincinnati, within the bounds of our Conference, as his future home; and whereas, Bishop Foster was born, converted, and spent the first years of his able and useful ministry in Ohio; therefore,

Resolved, That we, the members of the Cincinnati Conference, hereby extend to Bishop Foster a most hearty welcome to our midst, and sincerely trust that his residence among us may be mutually pleasant and profitable.

J. F. MARLAY, W. HERR, L. D. M'CABE,
J. F. WRIGHT, J. W. WEAKLEY, W. I. FEE,
S. D. CLAYTON, WM. H. SUTHERLAND, JAS. F. CHALFANT.
R. M. HATFIELD, A. LOWREY,

Bishops Wiley and Merrill.

RESOLVED, That we deeply feel and keenly regret the necessity for the removal of Bishops Wiley and Merrill from our midst; that we greatly miss their genial presence, wise and godly counsel; that we learn without surprise of their usefulness in their respective episcopal districts, and that we hope often to meet them within our bounds.

The Daily Press.

ON motion of A. Lowrey, a committee of five was appointed to consider and report upon the immoral character and corrupting tendency of much of the matter introduced into the daily press, and flung into Christian homes.

Time for Examinations.

RESOLVED, That we fix the day for the examination of Conference classes and the candidates for admission on trial on the day preceding the first day of the Conference session annually, and the examination of local deacons and elders on the Friday of each session, and that we publish the same in our Conference Minutes.

A. BOWERS, M. DUSTIN,
A. HAMILTON, M. P. GADDIS, SR.
GEO. C. CRUM,

Society Treasurers.

RESOLVED, That the Treasurers of Sunday-school, Tract, Educational, and Church Extension Societies be authorized to pay for the space in the Minutes occupied by their financial reports.

Bishop Ames.

RESOLVED, That the visit of our venerable Bishop E. R. Ames has been a source of great pleasure and spiritual profit, both in Conference session and the cabinet, and we assure him that we will always give him a most cordial welcome, while we shall pray that his life and health may long be spared to bless the Church with his wise counsel.

JAS. F. CHALFANT, GRANVILLE MOODY, DAVID J. STARR,
J. W. WEAKLEY, W. I. FEE, WM. H. SUTHERLAND,
WM. HERR, J. F. MARLAY, R. M. HATFIELD.

The late Dr. John Seys.

WHEREAS, the late Dr. John Seys was a member of the Cincinnati Annual Conference at his death; and whereas, he was, from the commencement of his ministry to almost its conclusion, connected with our mission-work, having led our first and oldest foreign missionary enterprise in Liberia, west coast of Africa, to a successful issue in the formation of an annual conference, with its bishop, its schools and press, for aggressive work; and whereas, he led the first expedition of emigrants from the United States of America into the interior of Africa, to test the question whether a more safe and speedy acclimation could not be found on the highlands of the interior than on the lowlands of the coast, and it being found that the little colony of forty-five almost universally escaped the coast-fever, and accordingly commenced their settlement on Mount Cary, where now rises a city in miniature, with its church and church-going bell, calling the surrounding natives to the worship of the true God; and whereas, from his Christian integrity, his general intelligence and varied experience among the African race, President Pierce appointed him Commissioner of Recaptured Slaves on the coast of Africa, and was continued by Mr. Buchanan, under whose administration four thousand recaptured Africans were thrown on his hands within ten days in a state of nudity and starvation, involving great responsibility and outlay of four hundred thousand dollars, in all of which he was faithful; and President Johnson, selecting him as the prominent and best man for Minister Resident from the Government of the United States to the Republic of Liberia; and whereas, he filled all these stations of trust and honor, with fidelity to the Church and honor to the country; be it, therefore,

Resolved, By the Cincinnati Annual Conference, that we advise the Book Agents of Cincinnati to negotiate with Mrs. Doctor Seys for the publication of his journals, and such of his correspondence and papers as may in their judgment be useful in the general history and missionary literature of the Church.

G. MOODY, H. M. KECK,
L. D. M'CABE, J. C. BONTECOU.

Conference Stewards' Resolutions.

1. RESOLVED, That a sum equivalent to ten per cent of the salaries paid in each presiding elder's district shall be the amount expected from the same; and the District Stewards are hereby requested to distribute the same to the respective charges, according to the ability of each.

2. Resolved, That we hereby pledge ourselves to present this claim to our people as early in the year as practicable, giving it that prominence its merits demand.

3. Resolved, That in the passage of character, each pastor shall be requested to report the amount of his collection.

4. Resolved, That any pastor who may neglect to present this claim to his charge, or shall lightly excuse himself therefrom, will thereby expose himself to just censure.

5. Resolved, That estimating committees, in complying with the Discipline (sec. 482), request claimants to furnish to the Estimating Committee appointed by the quarterly conference, and to the Board of Stewards of the Annual Conference, a full statement, in writing, annually, on the first day of Conference, of their financial condition, and that no claims should be considered without such financial statement.

J. C. BROOKE, Chairman.

S. WEEKS, Secretary.

Ohio Wesleyan University.

RESOLVED, That if the Bishop does not make an appointment of an agent for the Ohio Wesleyan University, we will welcome any agent whom the Executive Committee of the University may employ.

Woman's Foreign Missionary Society.

WHEREAS, the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society seems to bear the seal of an inspiration from God; and whereas, it has done, and is doing, a large work of evangelism; and whereas, it proposes not to interfere with the larger collections on behalf of the Parent Society, but, Ruth-like, to glean after the reapers; and whereas, the operations of the Society have had the effect to develop and appropriate the grand and beautiful gifts of many women which have heretofore lain dormant; and whereas, those sisters who have identified themselves with missionary activities are the most ardent promoters of all our social institutions and spiritual means of grace; therefore,

1. Resolved, That we hail with peculiar satisfaction and thankfulness the organization of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society.

2. Resolved, That we recognize in it an efficient and timely auxiliary of our missionary enterprise and general redemptive work.

3. Resolved, That we cordially invite the officers and members of this Society to visit our charges severally, that they may carry out the objects of their institution and every-where shed their mellow and hallowing light, and make their benedictions and usefulness universal.

4. Resolved, That we hereby pledge ourselves to facilitate their appropriate work, and promptly aid them in every place to "gather up the fragments that remain, that nothing be lost." A. LOWREY.

Rev. W. H. Black.

Resolved, That we recommend the transfer of our dear brother, Rev. W. H. Black, of the Kentucky Annual Conference, to the Cincinnati Annual Conference, believing that such transfer will be for the good of the general work of our midst.

GRANVILLE MOODY,
W. FITZGERALD,
JOHN F. WRIGHT.

FINANCIAL PLAN.

WE recommend an intelligent assessment of the amount necessary to meet the claims of the presiding elder and pastors on the several societies of a circuit, and on the individual members of the Church.

Let this assessment be presented to each member for his approval, increase, or diminution, as each one may determine, and then return said amount to the stewards, as the assets of said Board of Stewards.

Divide these accepted or amended assessments among the class-leaders and stewards—say twenty names, more or less, to each one—and make it the duty of these to collect these amounts weekly or monthly, and to furnish each member with a monthly statement of his account, and make final report of each member to the stewards before each quarterly conference.

Let the recording steward make written report of the class-leaders and stewards to the quarterly conference, and to the love-feast of each quarterly conference, exhibiting the deficit belonging to each class-leader's or steward's division of twenty, as aforesaid.

Request the presiding elder to use his influence in keeping the finances paid up each quarter, so that deficiencies shall not accrue, to be carried forward from quarter to quarter.

Should any charge prefer the envelope plan, they are at liberty to use it.

We also recommend the prompt removal of inefficient or neglectful stewards and class-leaders.

CHARLES FERGUSON,
WILLIAM L. HYPES,
GRANVILLE MOODY,
JOHN M. EDGAR.

REPORT ON TEMPERANCE.

1. RESOLVED, That unfermented wine alone should be used in the administration of the sacrament of the Lord's-supper.

2. Resolved, That we are more than ever convinced that legal prohibition of the manufacture, sale, or use of intoxicating liquor for a beverage, is a condition of the removal and cure of the evil of intemperance; and we hereby pledge our utmost endeavor to inaugurate so wise and salutary a dispensation.

3. Resolved, That we most earnestly entreat our people to contribute to this end by ceasing at once to encourage the traffic, whether by the sale of grain or materials to be used in the manufacture, or by themselves manufacturing wines, cordials, or any drinks whatever that are in any degree intoxicating.

4. Resolved, That drunkenness is no excuse for crime, but is itself a crime forbidden by the law of God under high penalties, and should be so regarded and treated in both civil and criminal jurisprudence.

5. Resolved, That while we can never be satisfied with any thing less than the entire destruction of the liquor-traffic, yet we can but regard as a step toward that end the enactment of laws making this vast system of iniquity responsible for the losses and woes which have been so recklessly inflicted upon a long-suffering and too patient people.

6. Resolved, That we not only regard the manufacture, sale, or use of intoxicating drinks as a beverage, morally wrong, but we also most earnestly protest against our members giving any encouragement to the liquor-traffic, by signing petitions for license, by voting to grant licenses, by renting property for such purposes, or by directly or indirectly helping in any other way to promote intemperance.

7. Resolved, That we, as a Conference, hereby petition the present Constitutional Convention of Ohio to incorporate in the proposed new Constitution of our State an article prohibiting the traffic in intoxicating liquors as a beverage.

8. Resolved, That we should make special effort to secure the nomination and election to office of strictly temperance men; and we hereby urge both ministry and laity to scan carefully the ballots they deposit at the polls, and purge from them the names of all candidates who either publicly or privately use intoxicating drinks, or wink at the evil.

9. Resolved, That we utterly despair of the general enforcement of temperance laws in our towns and cities by the efforts of police officers.

10. Resolved, That it is the duty of all good citizens to aid in enforcing these laws, wherever opportunity occurs, by personally entering complaint before proper officers against offenders.

11. Resolved, That we hereby urge upon our ministers, and commend to our people, the importance of forming organizations for the purpose of enforcing our wholesome temperance laws, by informing against, and promptly and fearlessly bringing to justice, all who violate them, that we may not only promote the peace and prosperity of our people, but may also open the way for a more rapid extension of Christ's kingdom.

12. Resolved, That since the traffic in intoxicating liquors, and their use as a beverage, is an evil affecting our whole country, the time has fully come when our National Legislature should brand such traffic and use as a pernicious evil, and enact prohibitory laws for the District of Columbia and the Territories, and cause them to be enforced.

REPORT ON CHURCH EXTENSION.

YOUR Committee is impressed with the fact that this Society does not receive the attention from ministers and people which its great utility deserves. It is classed among the infant societies, and the great heart of the Church, as yet, has not been brought to feel its vast importance. Yet, through the faithfulness and liberality of a small minority, it has done much in establishing our beloved Church in remote parts of our land. In the past six years, it has aided, by loan or grant, in the erection or purchase of six hundred temples of worship, scattered over thirty-six states of our Union.

This institution is established upon a wise financial basis; her officers and agents are men of tact, ability and piety. Her object is to aid worthy necessitous cases. In some instances, a donation is made; in other instances, a loan is granted, with or without interest, according to the nature of the case. The money loaned, in due time is collected, and applied elsewhere in building sanctuaries for the Lord. And thus these means may be applied until the Church of Christ is established in all the world.

If we consider a few facts, we will see the vast importance of speedy action upon the part of the Church in this noble cause. The revolution in the South has opened the way for this enterprise. The struggling Churches in all her borders are calling for help. The great railroad of our country has opened up our continent even to the Pacific Coast, and in all parts of the West the country is being peopled with the different tribes of earth. These people will have some kind of religion; and whatever form is first offered, the masses will accept. Other Churches and fraternities, many of which are antagonistic to evangelical religion, are at work, and are anxious to take the field. The Papal Church is taking advantage of the occasion, and sending her missionaries and erecting her churches. Infidel doctrines of every phase are taught, and the unbeliever would claim the land as his. And even heathen temples have been erected upon American soil. Now is the time to work. "Let us go up and possess the land, for we are fully able."

The practical question with this Conference is, What can we do to aid in this noble enterprise? We answer, Let us furnish the means. Let every pastor bring this subject before his congregation, and plead for it till the people are awake to its interests. The common excuse offered, "We have so many collections," is no reason for neglecting this. No man gives too much to the Lord. Our people need to be taught benevolence; and many have yet to learn that giving is a means of grace, and that every institution which has for its object the advancement of the Redeemer's kingdom has a claim upon our liberality. When the whole Church reaches this point, it will come to pass that the mountain of the Lord's house shall be established in the tops of the mountains, and shall be exalted above the hills, and all nations shall flow into it.

W. L. HYPES, Chairman.

J. F. MARLAY, Secretary.

REPORT ON THE SUNDAY-SCHOOL CAUSE.

THE Sunday-school Cause manifests no abatement of interest in its peculiar work. On the contrary, it exhibits encouraging progress in extending its organization and perfecting the means of instruction. Sunday-school concerts, unions, county, district, and state conventions, are so frequently held as to arouse and keep alive the spirit of Sunday-school enterprise. The Berean Series, containing the International Sunday-school Lessons, so extensively adopted, gives such unity and interest in searching the Scriptures as to promote advancement in religious instruction.

The direction of future progress in this work we conceive to be the greater interest of the entire Church in the Sunday-school, and the conversion and addition of the entire school to the Church. Their true relation is, the Church in the Sunday-school and the Sunday-school in the Church.

We call attention to the fact that the Methodist Episcopal State Sunday-school Conference meets at Chillicothe, on the 4th, 5th, and 6th of November next. The citizens are making extensive preparation to entertain the delegates. An interesting programme has already been arranged, and experienced teachers engaged to give specimen Bible-class and infant-class lessons on the blackboard, and other matters pertaining to the Sunday-school.

Dr. Vincent recommends that our Sunday-schools observe the 19th and 20th of October next as days of special prayer for the prosperity of the Sunday-school cause; and that the order of exercises published by the London Sunday-school Union be followed as far as it may be adapted to our schools, without, however, omitting any of the ordinary Sabbath lessons.

Your Committee would renew the recommendation of last year, that county Sunday-school or district Sunday-school unions of the Methodist Episcopal Church be organized whenever necessary or expedient.

Attention is also requested to the addition of a new monthly publication to our Sunday-school periodical literature. The Classmate is a publication designed to be a grade higher than the Sunday-school Advocate, and to supply the reading for the advanced scholars. It has already fifty thousand subscribers, and we recommend its introduction into all our schools. Finally, we would submit for adoption, with this report, the following resolutions:

1. That the members of this Conference, so far as practicable, have their charges represented in the ensuing State Sunday-school Conference, which will be of the nature of a mass-meeting, no basis of representation being given.

2. That we approve the appointment of a time of special prayer for the Divine blessing on the Sunday-schools, and request the schools to observe the days referred to in this report.

3. That our ministers and people acquaint themselves well with our Sunday-school literature—our books, tracts, and especially periodicals—and patronize it heartily.

4. That every preacher should endeavor to perform the obligation imposed upon him by the Discipline, to take up annually, without fail, a collection for the Sunday-school Union.

REPORT ON TRACT CAUSE.

YOUR Committee believe that every agency calculated to secure the conversion of sinners and instruction of believers ought to receive our hearty approval. We believe the Tract Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church to be one of those agencies. In its silent way, by millions of pages, scattered among the masses by loving hands, it has worked efficiently for the Master.

We are glad to see from a notice of Dr. Vincent that important changes are to be made in the appearance and matter of our tracts.

We would recommend the following:

Resolved, 1. That we will present to our people the claims of the Tract Society of our own Church.

2. That we will encourage our young people to work for the Master by systematic tract distribution.

REPORT OF THE FREEDMEN'S AID SOCIETY.

YOUR Committee find, from reports made to the Conference, that collections have been taken for the Freedmen's Aid Society in seventy circuits and stations, during the past year, amounting in the aggregate to one thousand five hundred and eighty-one dollars and twenty-five cents ($1,581.25). This showing is hardly satisfactory, especially in view of the action taken by this Conference at its last session. At that time we resolved, with hearty unanimity, that we would "earnestly labor to secure an average contribution of ten cents per member from our respective charges for this cause." It is greatly to be regretted that this resolution has been so generally disregarded or forgotten. We are of the opinion that no work in which our Church is engaged is more important than that to which this Society devotes its means and energies. It aims to make good citizens and intelligent Christians of the millions of freedmen of the South. With its meagre income of only about fifty thousand dollars a year, it supports twenty schools and sixty teachers among the colored people. Every consideration of humanity, patriotism, and piety urges us to an increase of liberality, and to redoubled exertions on behalf of this people, so recently delivered from the degradation and wretchedness of slavery. We are verily guilty concerning these our brethren, in that we have done so little for their intellectual and moral improvement since, in the providence of God, they were liberated and enfranchised. And, unless we enter with more zeal into the work of saving this people to republican institutions and to a pure Christianity, many of them will fall under the corrupting influence of the Church of Rome. This Freedmen's Aid Society has been fully indorsed by the General Conference, and has been specially commended to the liberality of the Church by our Board of Bishops. The managers of the Society, in accordance with the provisions of the Discipline, have apportioned three thousand dollars as the amount to be raised by the Cincinnati Conference during the present year. The Discipline makes it the duty of each annual conference to apportion the amount assigned to it among the circuits or stations within its bounds. Your Committee recommend the passage of the following resolutions:

1. Resolved, That the presiding elders be, and are hereby, instructed to apportion the sum of three thousand dollars among the circuits and stations of the Conference, and report their action to the several quarterly conferences at their earliest convenience.

2. Resolved, That we pledge ourselves to an honest and earnest endeavor to raise every dollar of the amount assigned to our several charges.

M. DUSTIN, Chairman.

R. M. HATFIELD, Secretary.

REPORT ON PARSONAGES.

YOUR Committee find, from statistics of last year, that we have seventy-six parsonages; their aggregate value, $172,850. The best is worth $20,000; the least valuable, $400; the average value, $2,274.34. We find forty-four charges without a parsonage. These charges paid last year $6,476 for house rent; an average of $147.18.

Is it good financiering to continue this plan? With perhaps few exceptions, we answer, No. Then let the preachers, with the advice and aid of the presiding elders, take subscriptions in such charges, and prosecute the work to completion, and, ere another year passes, most, if not all, these charges will be blessed with a good home for their pastors.

Where we have parsonages, we deem it the duty of the preachers occupying them to see that they be kept in good repair, and beautified, if possible. We therefore offer the following resolutions:

1. That charges without parsonages should secure them immediately.

2. That our people should supply all our parsonages with at least heavy furniture.

3. That we are assured that this good work can be done by following the example of the charges which have already accomplished the task.

4. That it is the duty of all, preachers and people, to do this work, and rest not until it is accomplished.

Respectfully submitted. A. N. SPAHR, President.

F. HYPES, Secretary.

REPORT ON OBSERVANCE OF THE SABBATH.

YOUR Committee on the Observance of the Sabbath submit for adoption the following resolutions :

Resolved, 1. That we hold with the utmost tenacity to the sacredness of the Christian Sabbath, and that we most sincerely believe it to be the duty of all men to abstain from all labor on that day, unless it be such as stern necessity or the relief of suffering may demand.

2. That we disapprove and condemn the practice of the General Government, in carrying the United States mail; of railroads, in the running of trains; of express companies, in the shipment of goods; and of corporations of whatever character, in carrying on their regular business on the Sabbath-day.

3. That we deplore the manifest purpose of many citizens, under the influence of customs transplanted to this from foreign lands, to utterly ignore and recklessly trample upon the laws already enacted for the proper protection of the Sabbath, and to make it a day of dissipation and crime rather than of rest and devotion.

4. That we condemn all processions, parades, and picnics on the Sabbath-day, whether under the patronage of Romish or Protestant Churches, or secret or social orders of whatever kind.

5. That, as ministers and laymen, we call upon the regularly constituted officers of the law to enforce, without fear or favor, the statutes now in existence for the protection of the Sabbath, and promise them our hearty support while in the performance of this duty.

6. That we earnestly request our people every-where to refrain from all social visiting, pleasure-riding, street-promenading, reading of secular and trashy literature, and labor not absolutely required; and to adhere to a more strict observance of the holy Sabbath, by making it, as God has designed, a day of rest from all merely secular pursuits, and devoted to religious meditation, instruction, and worship.

7. That we will, upon all proper occasions, defend the sanctity of the Sabbath, and, both by precept and example, lead our people to a more consistent observance of this Divine institution, believing that the progress and perpetuity of Christianity, and stability of our civil institutions depend largely upon our success in leading our people to deeper convictions, clearer views, and a more consistent practice on this subject.

REPORT ON THE BIBLE SOCIETY.

YOUR Committee, to whom the consideration of the claims and work of the American Bible Society were submitted, after careful investigation, beg leave to submit, for adoption, the following resolutions:

1. That we reaffirm our confidence in the administration of the American Bible Society, and recognize it as accomplishing for the cause of Christ a great and good work.

2. That we commend it to the confidence and sympathy of our people, and its work as eminently worthy of their benevolent contributions; and that the collections, when practicable, be taken in harmony with the anniversary of the Auxiliary Society within the limits of our charge.

3. That we respectfully request the presiding bishop to reappoint Rev. W. Herr, District Superintendent of the American Bible Society for the District of Southern Ohio. C. KALBFUS, Chairman.

REPORT ON EDUCATION.

Ohio Wesleyan University.

THE University is in a prosperous condition, and is accomplishing, with fidelity and success, the great work intrusted to its care. The grade of scholarship is improving; and the class of the present year was in advance of that of any former year in number, and equal at least in scholarly attainments and general culture. The professors are Christian gentlemen, fine scholars, successful educators, and are devoting themselves, with an enthusiasm worthy of all praise, to the grand work of building up a university where our young men may be trained for Christ and usefulness, and which shall be, for all coming time, an honor to Ohio Methodism, and a fountain of moral and intellectual power.

The trustees have been singularly fortunate in securing Rev. Fales H. Newhall, D. D., of Massachusetts, as President of the University. He will enter upon his duties at the commencement of the next year; and will bring to the office great learning and eloquence as a divine, eminent abilities and attainments as a scholar, long experience and success in educating young men, and unusual enthusiasm and love for the work. With President Newhall, and our present able corps of professors, we anticipate a brilliant career of usefulness for the Ohio Wesleyan University.

The Committee ask the careful consideration of the Conference to the communication from the secretary of the Board of Trustees, and our action in reference to it.

After mature deliberation, in view of the embarrassed financial condition of the University, and the necessity of its immediate relief, it was voted to recommend the following resolutions to the consideration of the Conference:

Resolved, That we will make a vigorous effort to raise thirty thousand dollars, within the bounds of this Conference, for the endowment of a professorship in the Ohio Wesleyan University.

Resolved, That we request the Presiding Bishop to appoint an agent for the accomplishment of this work, and we hereby pledge such agent our hearty co-operation in raising the endowment.

Resolved, That the Presiding Bishop be requested to appoint Rev. L. D. M'Cabe, D. D., Professor of Philosophy in the University.

Resolved, That P. P. Mast, Esq., be elected trustee, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the expiration of his present term of office.

Resolved, That Rev. James F. Chalfant, D. D., and Rev. S. B. Smith, be appointed Visiting and Examining Committee to the University, for the ensuing year.

Resolved, That Rev. J. M. Walden, D. D., and Rev. M. A. Richards, be appointed Visiting Committee to the Garrett Biblical Institute.

From the Auditor's Report.

W. G. WILLIAMS,
Secretary Board of Trustees.

Cincinnati Wesleyan College.

WE gather from the current Catalogue of this institution, that the annual attendance has been two hundred and thirty-two. This is an increase of thirty-two over the previous year. The Academic Department has numbered sixty-seven. The Collegiate Department has had unusual prosperity. The classes number as follows: Freshman, thirty-seven; Sophomore, twenty-three; Junior, twenty-eight; Senior, twenty-two. At the last Commencement, nine young ladies were graduated to the degree of A. B., and nine to the degree of B. S. Four were graduated from the College of Music. There have been one hundred and five in the Department of Music during the last year, and thirty-one in the Academy of Design. The general order of the pupils and their habits of study have never been better. Sixteen teachers have been employed, and fourteen lecturers have favored the College with addresses upon literary, scientific, and religious subjects. Six departments—namely, Preparatory, Academic, Collegiate, College of Music, Academy of Design, and Sunday-school Normal—are in operation. Two other departments are projected; namely, College of Accounts (to be opened in September), and a Woman's Medical College, which is under advisement.

The trustees of the College have assumed the entire control and management of all of its affairs, business and educational, beginning from the close of the present Academic Year, in June. Hereafter, any profits accruing after the payment of the regular and prescribed salaries of the president and teachers, and expenses, will remain in the treasury of the Board, to apply upon the business or educational interests of the College. Rev. Lucius H. Bugbee, D. D., who has been the successful president since the reorganization and opening of the new edifice, has been re-elected by the Board.

The Faculty are laboring persistently to enlarge the number of the departments of instruction, so that pupils can not only graduate from the College of Arts and Literature, but also be able to enter such post-graduate courses as shall prepare them for any employments and positions Providence may call them to. The trustees of the College are pledged to this development of its departments and facilities. Should the result of their conjoined labors be the establishment of a real university for women, it would signalize the Church and the age. We recommend—

1. That the Bishop be requested to reappoint Rev. L. H. Bugbee, D. D., as President of the College.

2. That Revs. T. Lee, J. Pearson, A. B. Leonard, James Stephenson, and J. E. Gilbert be appointed as a Board of Visitors for the ensuing year.

Hillsboro Female College.

A COMMUNICATION from the Board of Trustees informs us that the College is free from debt, except what can be met by the subscriptions of members of the Conference, made four years ago.

The trustees plead for a liberal endowment of one hundred thousand dollars. Then the scholarships issued in the past can be honored, and a vigorous and continued life be secured to the institution. Without this, they believe, it can not long be sustained. They desire the Conference, by an agent or otherwise, to secure this endowment, since it is a Conference institution.

Your Committee, after careful consultation, conclude as follows:

1. We, as a Conference, are much interested in the prosperity of the College, and will give it all aid and patronage that may be practicable.

2. With other educational interests that demand our attention and efforts, we can not enter upon the work of endowment at present.

3. That the presiding elder of that district, and the preachers in charge of Hillsboro, Wilmington, and Greenfield, be the Examining Committee for the ensuing year.

4. That we request the Presiding Bishop to reappoint Rev. J. M'D. Mathews, D. D., to the presidency.

5. That such members of this Conference as have not paid their subscriptions, made four years ago, and due one year since, and do not make payment within six months, shall be required to answer before the Conference for such delinquency; and that such unpaid subscriptions be put into the hands of the presiding elders for collection.

Xenia College.

THIS institution completed its twenty-third year in June last.

It was at first organized for ladies only; but, for the last ten years, gentlemen have also been admitted. The trustees and Faculty regard this change a decided advantage.

The past year has been one of prosperity. There have been in attendance two hundred and fifty-two pupils, including sixty-two students in the Normal-school of last Summer.

The examiners appointed by the last Conference, Rev. M. Dustin and Rev. J. F. Marlay, attended faithfully to the duties assigned them, and published their report.

We commend this institution to our people for a continued and extended patronage.

We recommend the appointment of Revs. J. F. Marlay, D. J. Starr, and Dr. G. C. Crum, as examiners for the current year.

SPECIAL REPORT.

THE Committee appointed at our last Conference on the Legal Relation of the Xenia College to the Cincinnati Conference, find themselves embarrassed, in view of the recent and sudden death of their Chairman, Rev. A. B. Wambaugh, who had carefully examined this subject, and was, no doubt, prepared to make a full and exhaustive report.

The Committee, as now constituted, are not familiar with all the details in this case; but the substantial facts are these: In 1852, the trustees of the Xenia Female Academy (now the Xenia College), a joint-stock company, offered to transfer to the Cincinnati Conference a majority of the stock of that company; thereby giving the Conference the control of the institution, provided the Conference would raise six thousand dollars for the purpose of erecting another building, and perhaps making other improvements, which were deemed necessary.

The Conference accepted the offer, on the terms specified, and appointed seven commissioners to act on its behalf, in providing ways and means to raise the six thousand dollars. These commissioners, through their agents, Rev. A. Lowrey and Rev. W. I. Ellsworth, succeeded in raising the full amount required; and the trustees, conceding that the condition had been complied with, ordered the transfer of one hundred and twenty shares of stock to the Cincinnati Conference—the whole number of shares being 217½.

The trustees say that a certificate for this stock was issued to the Cincinnati Conference; but as that certificate can not now be found among the papers of the Conference, they have issued a duplicate, which is herewith presented.

As to the claim, which this Conference made last year, of certificates of stock representing three thousand dollars more, on the ground that the agents raised nine thousand dollars for the College, your Committee take leave to state—

1. That there was no agreement on the part of the trustees at any time to transfer to the Conference more than a majority of the stock; namely, six thousand dollars' worth.

2. The trustees state that, though three thousand dollars additional may have been subscribed, much of it was not collected, and that, after paying expenses of collection, there was little or nothing left.

No evidence has been presented to your Committee showing that the Conference can justly claim, up to this time, any additional stock.

A debt of some twenty-two hundred dollars, of long standing, still remains against the College, and the trustees earnestly desire the Conference to aid them in providing ways and means for the liquidation of that debt as speedily as possible.

M. DUSTIN,
J. F. MARLAY, } Committee.

Springfield Female College.

THE Committee on the Springfield Female College, after having duly considered the present status of the institution, desire to submit the following as their recommendation for adoption by the Conference; namely, that the Board of Trustees be instructed to expend the money which has accrued, and may yet accrue to them as rent, in putting the building and premises into good repair during the present year, so that the building may be ready for the opening of a school at the beginning of another year, when the present lease of the premises will have expired. And the Committee further recommend that the trustees be instructed to provide some competent person to take charge of the institution one year from this time. And we further recommend that Rev. W. I. Ellsworth, the Presiding Elder of the Springfield District, and the pastors of the city of Springfield, be appointed a Committee of Conference to co-operate with the Board of Trustees of the College in carrying out the above plan, if it be practicable. If not, then to co-operate with the trustees in making such disposition of the institution as shall, in their united judgment, best subserve the interests of education. All of which shall be subject to the approval of Conference at the next session. Very respectfully submitted by Committee.

T. COLLETT, Secretary.

Garrett Biblical Institute.

THIS institution has had a good year. Finances have turned out well, and the halls have been full of students, and many spiritual blessings have attended the school.

Through the timely aid of the Church, the recently consumed property in Chicago has been rebuilt.

Rev. W. X. Ninde has been elected Professor of Practical Theology.

Special lecturers have been engaged for the coming year.

The library is to be increased.

The next Anniversary will occur in the last week of May, 1874. It is intended to organize at that time a Theological Union, by which visiting ministers, young or old, may be favored with class instruction and lectures, after the Anniversary Exercises are closed.

We are requested to appoint two visitors, to be in attendance at the next Anniversary.

We recommend that Revs. Dr. Walden and N. A. Richards be appointed a Visiting Committee for the ensuing year.

Dr. Hatfield, one of the visitors for last year, attended, and makes a very satisfactory report.

BOARD OF EDUCATION.

OUR last General Conference provided for a Central Board of Education and annual conference auxiliaries. Dr. E. O. Haven, Secretary of the Board, communicated with the Conference with reference to the Church interests in his department, which document was before your Committee.

The objects of the Board are to aid young men in preparing for the ministry; to aid theological schools, universities, colleges, or academies which are under the patronage of the Church, and to aid meritorious

Sunday-school scholars in securing a more advanced education; in short, the promotion of theological and general education in the Methodist Episcopal Church.

An Auxiliary Society has been formed in this Conference.

We would call attention to the fact that the Discipline makes it the duty of each preacher-in-charge to preach on the subject of Education, and take up a collection in aid of this cause, once a year, in each society.

It also recommends that the second Sabbath in June be observed as "Children's-day," and that a collection be taken in the Sunday-school in aid of the "Sunday-school Fund" of the Board of Education.

We suggest that the treasurer of our Conference Auxiliary Society be hereby directed to forward the funds raised for Education to the Board of Education of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

REPORT ON PERIODICALS.

YOUR Committee, having duly considered all the facts that have been before them relating to the interests of our several publications, respectfully recommend for your adoption the following resolutions:

Resolved, 1. That, considering their high order of excellence, no reasonable objection can be urged against the prices of our respective periodicals; and we would be glad to have our people remember that whatever profits may arise from these publications belong to the Church, and are used to lessen the amounts necessary to be raised by direct collections in the congregations.

Resolved, 2. That, while we can not suggest any improvement in the editorial department of the Quarterly Review, it is our belief that, in the choice of contributed articles, a greater variety and more popular treatment of subjects should be secured.

Resolved, 3. That inasmuch as our members look to our denominational press for information concerning all the operations of the Church, it is the duty of the official editors to publish, in a full and frank manner, whatever facts are of general interest in its expenditures and management.

4. Whereas, our Missionary Advocate, as now edited, is, even to the general reader, a most interesting paper, and possesses peculiar value to the lover of Christ's cause, in the information it conveys of the missionary operations of the Churches; therefore, resolved, that we can not regard any pastor as having done his whole duty to the missionary cause who does not carry out the disciplinary plan for its general circulation.

5. Whereas, in many of our households and Sunday-schools, our own publications have been supplanted by those of other Churches, resolved, that our preachers should judiciously call the attention of such subscribers and patrons to the superior denominational claims of our own periodicals and Sunday-school publications, and use great diligence to introduce them into all our families and schools.

Resolved, 6. That each preacher-in-charge be required to furnish to the Committee on Education, at the Annual Session of Conference, a statement of the name and number of our periodicals taken within the charge.

REPORT ON THE SECULAR PRESS.

YOUR Committee, appointed to consider the immoral tendency of the secular press, desire to report:

The secular newspaper has an important mission—to record passing events and discuss questions touching the public welfare. Entering almost every home, as the medium of communication with the outside world, furnishing material for thought, creating sentiment, and, to a great extent, stimulating and controlling action, it is a courier, an educator, an advocate, whose freedom and intelligence are dangerous, without purity and honesty. Hence editors and publishers have obligations that can not be measured by the policy of parties or the principles of gain. Whenever they employ profane or indecent language, publish falsehood for truth, excuse crime and corruption, or defend the violators of law; whenever they caricature good and true men, to the destruction of their influence; whenever they invade the sanctity of private life, disclosing what ought to be forever secret; and, above all, whenever they cater to the tastes of the depraved and vicious, by giving detailed accounts of revolting social sins, or by exposing the Christian religion to ridicule, through the infidelity of individual professors, then they betray their trust, and forfeit the confidence and support of all good people. One of the most famous pulpit orators of the day has said that "a man is no better than his daily newspaper." Whether this sweeping declaration be true or false, we are convinced that no one can daily read a corrupt sheet, or receive it into his home, without incurring a fearful risk of contaminating his own soul and the souls of his children. Therefore, we affectionately, yet earnestly, urge all our people to a prayerful discrimination in favor of those prints whose tone and matter accord with pure morality and a correct faith.

JOHN F. MARLAY, Secretary.

REPORT ON CAMP-MEETINGS.

RESOLVED, 1. That we condemn all Sabbath desecration connected with camp-meetings, as unchristian, as a direct violation of our General Rules, and as demoralizing to the community at large.

2. That we earnestly advise and admonish our people and preachers to hold no camp-meetings over the Sabbath where the gates of the grounds can not be closed from Saturday night until Monday morning; and that, as preachers, we will give no countenance to camp-meetings held in complicity with Sabbath desecration.

3. That we earnestly advise and direct all our people to conform to the authority of the Church in the organization, location, and management of such meetings, known as camp-meetings of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

4. That we heartily approve of camp-meetings of our members, held for the promotion of the interests of Christ's kingdom, and shall ever rejoice with those who labor therein for the conversion of sinners, and the edification of believers, till, by the use of all means of grace, we receive the end of our faith, even the salvation of our souls, believing that the Christian ministry, and all the means of grace, were given by Christ "for the perfecting of the saints," "for the edifying of the body of Christ: till we all come, in the unity of the faith, and of the knowledge of the Son of God, unto a perfect man, unto the measure of the stature of the fullness of Christ;" and "speaking the truth in love, may grow up into him in all things, which is the Head, even Christ, from whom the whole body, fitly joined together, and compacted by that which every joint supplieth, according to the effectual working in the measure of every part," shall make "increase of the body unto the edifying of itself in love." GRANVILLE MOODY, Chairman.

REPORT ON CONFERENCE EXAMINATIONS.

YOUR Committee, to whom was referred the subject of a uniform method of reporting the Conference Examinations, present the following

The several committees of examination in the "Course of Study" shall report to Conference the standing of the candidates in the following manner:

On the books prescribed, in figures ranging from 1 to 10.

On the sermon, by the terms, Deficient, Medium, Good, and Very Good.

W. Q. SHANNON, J. F. LOYD,
JNO. PEARSON, THOS. J. HARRIS.

REPORT ON DISCIPLINE.

WHEREAS, wholesome discipline is indispensable to the prosperity of the Church, and as many of the requirements of our "Book of Discipline" which are therein made conditions of membership, are disregarded by many of our members, and are treated in the administration of some pastors as if they were merely advisory and optional, and therefore some of the most spiritual institutions of Methodism are falling into disuse, and vices are creeping into the Church; therefore,

1. Resolved, That we urge all our members to pay special attention to the distinguishing features of our economy, and duly consider the utterances of our excellent "Book of Discipline," on the design of "Class-meetings;" and remember their engagements with the Church, as recorded in items numbered 30, 72 to 76 inclusive—item number 339, in connection with the Pledge item, which they gave when they were received into full connection in the Methodist Episcopal Church, in which they covenanted that "they would cheerfully be governed by the rules of the Church aforesaid."

2. Resolved, That pastors should mildly but firmly administer the Discipline in the enforcement of our "General Rules," and in regard to "attendance upon class-meetings," and in regard to those "popular sins and amusements" which the General Conference has forbidden, upon pain of expulsion if persisted in after due disciplinary treatment, especially beginning with immoral practices where they exist.

3. Resolved, That we will steadily sustain each other in the mild and firm administration of our wholesome discipline, against all who violate the Discipline of the Methodist Episcopal Church, in her "prudential rules and moral obligations."

4. Resolved, That our presiding elders can aid these interests greatly, by making the prescribed inquiries on the subject of discipline in their several quarterly conferences.

G. MOODY, M. A. RICHARDS,
M. DUSTIN, A. N. SPAHR.
J. F. MARLAY,

REPORT ON PASTORS' AND LADIES' UNION.

BELIEVING that there is a pressing need of more laborers among the people in our own midst, among the sick and poor and irreligious, as well as among our own members, especially the lambs of the flock; believing that the women of our Churches may be systematically employed, in co-operation with the pastors, in the extension of the Redeemer's kingdom by works of religion and charity; and whereas, the last General Conference, recognizing the valuable services of the Ladies' and Pastors' Christian Union; and whereas, the Board of Managers appointed by the General Conference adopted a plan recommending the prosecution of the work by conference organizations; therefore,

Resolved, That the Ladies' and Pastors' Christian Union be, and is hereby, recognized as a regularly constituted society of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

Resolved, That the Cincinnati Conference organize a Pastors' and Ladies' Union, in compliance with said recommendation.

REPORT OF AUDITING COMMITTEE.

YOUR Committee on the accounts of W. H. Sutherland have examined the same, and find them correct, showing a balance due him of one dollar and sixty cents. We also find that some brethren have been, since 1868, indebted to the Publishing Committee, for Minutes, in sums aggregating fifty dollars. In the opinion of your Committee, honor and piety demand the immediate settlement of such accounts.

J. T. BAIL,
D. H. MOORE.

RULES OF ORDER.

1. AFTER the usual opening religious exercises, the Secretary shall read the Minutes of the previous session.

2. No motion shall be entertained by the Conference till such motion shall have been seconded.

3. All motions shall be reduced to writing, if desired by any member of the Conference.

4. Every member desiring to speak on any subject before the Conference, shall rise and address the President.

5. The member who first rises and addresses the President shall be entitled to the floor.

6. No member shall speak more than once on the same subject till all who may desire to speak shall have spoken; nor more than fifteen minutes at a time, without leave of the Conference.

7. All questions of order shall be decided by the President, subject to an appeal to the Conference, without debate.

8. When any question is under debate, no motion shall be received but to adjourn, to lay on the table, to postpone, to commit, or to amend; but a motion to adjourn shall always be in order; and this, as well as a motion to lay on the table, shall be decided without debate.

9. If the question before the Conference be capable of division, upon the call of any member, such question shall be divided.

10. The business of the Conference shall be conducted with open doors, unless otherwise ordered by the Conference.

11. Any question may be reconsidered, on the motion of any member who may have voted with the majority.

12. If any member call for the previous question, and such call shall be sanctioned by a two-thirds vote of the Conference, the main question shall then be put.

13. Each committee of the Conference shall choose its own chairman, unless the chairman be designated by the Conference or the President in the appointment of the committee.

14. The members of the Conference shall assemble in the Conference-room punctually at the hour to which the Conference adjourned, and no member shall absent himself from the place of Conference session without leave of absence.

15. In all practicable cases, when charges are preferred against a member of Conference, notice shall be given to the President on the first day of the session, that, if it be judged proper, his name may be called, and the case referred to a committee.

16. No member of Conference shall be subject to arrest of character without having been timely furnished, wherever practicable, with a written copy of the charges and specifications against him.

17. The vote on any question shall be taken by ayes and noes, upon the call of fifteen members.

MEMOIRS.

REV. WESLEY RECTOR.

REV. WESLEY RECTOR was born near Tremont, Champaign County, Ohio, May 31, 1837. He was the son of Conoway and Anna Rector, zealous Christians and members of the Methodist Episcopal Church. In this faith young Rector was faithfully instructed by his godly parents, and grew to manhood a moral youth, with the fear of God before his eyes, and a constant attendant on the means of grace.

About the 1st of February, 1856, Rev. E. H. Field commenced a series of meetings at Tremont, which resulted in the conversion of about sixty souls, among them the subject of this memoir. The date of his conversion is the seventeenth of the above month. He immediately commenced to exercise in public, by testifying to the power of Divine grace to save, praying in public, and in his father's family. Wesley soon gave promise of usefulness to the Church. For more than two years after the above meeting, there was a constant service, both in Summer and in Winter, in the church at Tremont. It was no uncommon thing to have from five to fifteen at the altar for prayers, at the Wednesday night prayer-meeting; and souls were converted and added to the Church almost every week.

Young Rector was ever active and zealous at all these meetings, frequently exhorting with power and signal success. He was licensed to exhort January 2, 1858, and to preach, by Rev. J. F. Chalfant, March 24, 1863, and in both relations, as an exhorter and local preacher, he was diligent. He was married to Miss Sarah Kiblinger in the Autumn of 1858, with whom he lived happily for ten years, when she passed into the unending joys above, leaving a young daughter, who still lives to mourn the loss of both her parents. In the years 1864–5, brother Rector was employed by Dr. Marlay, Presiding Elder of the Urbana District, as a supply on Addison Circuit. Here he was useful and highly esteemed by all. Subsequently, he served the Catawba Circuit as a supply, giving very general satisfaction to all.

Soon after the death of his wife, he determined to devote his life to the work of the ministry. He accordingly disposed of his temporal interests, and entered the University at Delaware, Ohio, that he might better qualify himself for the work of God. He spent two years in college, applying himself with earnestness and fidelity to his studies. During this time his soul went out after sinners; and frequently, on Saturdays and Sabbaths, he would go out into the regions around about, seeking for the lost; and he was made the honored instrument, in the hands of God, in bringing many to a knowledge of salvation by faith in Christ.

At the annual session of the Cincinnati Conference, held at Dayton in August, 1871, Wesley Rector was admitted on trial, and appointed to Lockington Circuit. In this field of labor he was eminently successful, bringing it up to a spiritual and financial point never occupied by it before. At the close of this, his first and only year in the Conference, a very unanimous request was made for his return, and he received his second appointment accordingly.

But he never returned to his work. He went from the session of Conference, held at Eaton, in apparent good health, to his father's home, to make the final arrangements for a second marriage with a most estimable young lady, every way worthy of him. But God ordered otherwise; for almost immediately on his return home, he was stricken down with typhoid fever, which did its work rapidly and surely. In about one week of great, patient suffering, nature yielded, and death entered.

On September 26, 1872, about two o'clock in the morning, he requested his mother and aunt, who were watching with him, to leave him alone for a few moments; which wish was immediately complied with. After an absence of less than two minutes, his mother returned to his chamber, and immediately discovered that he had left the room. Search was instituted without delay; neighbors alarmed, and came to the assistance of the family. Near half an hour elapsed before he was discovered. When at last his aged and anxious father found him, it was about three hundred yards east of the house. On leaving the room, he had passed out of the door-yard, and, after going two hundred yards or more, opened and passed through a large gate, and thence across the road, and after taking down a pair of bars and laying them carefully on the fence, he went near one hundred yards farther, where he was first discovered by his father, quite dead. His almost unexpected death, and in this tragical manner, produced a profound sensation in the community.

During his sickness, he frequently spoke of his peace and prospects in the most satisfactory manner; and while we are not permitted to record any words of triumph from his dying lips, we can look to his life for his testimony of the power of the blood of Christ to save. For more than a year before his death he was a constant and living witness to the doctrine of entire sanctification. His last sermon was preached, during the session of the Conference at Eaton, from Hebrews vii, 25: "Wherefore he is able to save," etc. A most appropriate testimony with which to close the work of so devoted a life as his.

Brother Rector was a preacher of more than ordinary ability, a genial friend, and a faithful pastor. His personal appearance was attractive, and he possessed a fine address. He was healthful and vigorous; but with all these noble qualities, he has suddenly passed from among us, loved most by those who knew him best; and in his early death we are timely admonished to "be also ready, for in such an hour as ye think not the Son of Man cometh."

J. G. BLACK.

REV. GEORGE J. CONNER.

REV. GEORGE J. CONNER was born in Frederick, Maryland, April 9, 1829, and died at Rainsboro, Ohio, April 1, 1873. When fourteen years of age he was converted, and joined the Methodist Episcopal Church, under the labors of Rev. Robert Emory. At that time none of his family were Methodist, his father being a Roman Catholic and the mother a Lutheran; yet, in his own words, "I went home that night, and asked mother if I might pray with the family; and she, loving me tenderly, obtained my father's consent. I kneeled, and offered a weak, trembling prayer; but God accepted it, and ever after we had a family altar." Brother Conner was instrumental in leading his father, mother, and sisters to Christ, and witnessed the triumphant death of both parents a few years after his own conversion.

Being convinced of his call to the work of the ministry, he entered Dickinson College, Carlisle, Pennsylvania, in his eighteenth year, and prosecuted the regular collegiate course, graduating with credit to himself and the institution. While attending college, he led a class of students, and was also superintendent of the Sabbath-school of the Methodist Episcopal Church in Carlisle. He also studied medicine, and received the degree of M. D., and also a diploma from the Dental College of Baltimore.

Brother Conner was the successor of Rev. K. Pierce, as Principal of Cassville Seminary, a position which he gave up after eighteen months' successful operation, and became a member of the East Baltimore Conference. In 1859, he joined the Virginia Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, and at the commencement of the war was stationed in Spottsylvania; but, finding that hostilities were inevitable, he removed with his family to Parkersburg, West Virginia. There he opened a seminary for young ladies, which gave fair promise of a successful career until death bereaved him of his much-loved wife.

Again he entered the ministry of the Church, South, under the direction of the West Virginia Conference. His appointments were Catlettsburg and Ashland, Kentucky. At the latter place, in addition to filling the position and performing the duties of a pastor, he undertook the conducting of an academy with nearly a hundred pupils. As the Winter advanced, brother Conner found that he had so much overtasked his physical powers that some of these labors must be given up, and therefore abandoned a lucrative and interesting school, to continue his calling as a preacher of the Gospel.

In 1870, he came to the Cincinnati Conference, and was appointed as a supply on Vienna Circuit. In 1871, he was admitted into the Conference in full connection, and assigned to Venice Circuit, and in 1872 to Highland Circuit, where he labored faithfully until near Christmas, when, by disease, he was forced to retire from active service. For nearly four months he suffered intensely, but patiently, being wonderfully sustained by Divine grace.

His death-scene was one of holy triumph and ecstatic joy. To his sister-in-law he said, as she bent near to catch his whispered words: "I am going soon; I am resting, resting sweetly on the Rock—the Rock of Ages. All my hope is in Christ; he keeps me; every moment his grace is sufficient for me—my stay, my comfort." At another time he said: "I rest in Jesus; I feel secure in the atonement; from this my mind does not waver; but I have had a great conflict with the enemy, in striving to plead for the blessing of perfect love. I did enjoy that blessing once." One evening the family gathered in the parlor for worship, conducted by his wife. As that wife, with a crushed and aching heart, pleaded, in earnest prayer and with unwavering faith, for God's sustaining grace and Heaven's richest blessing on her dying husband, her prayer was heard and answered in her behalf. The holy baptism descended upon him, and, as she entered his room, he exclaimed: "Glory! glory! glory! while you were engaged in prayer the blessing came. I have had sweet peace all day; now I am fully satisfied." To Rev. Martin Redkey, a local preacher of his charge, he said: "I have had such a glorious vision of my heavenly home; but I am most impressed with the NEARNESS of it. O, to think I am so near the end of all my sorrows, all my sufferings—so near to my eternal home—while you in point of time may be so far away! I would not exchange places with you for the world." In this pleasant frame of mind, washed in the cleansing blood, and filled with the fullness of a Savior's love, he lingered until about two o'clock A. M., April 1st, when, without a struggle or a groan, he sweetly fell asleep in Jesus.

In the death of Rev. George J. Conner, the Church has lost an efficient minister and faithful pastor. Earth is poorer, heaven is richer. He left a wife and four children, to sorrow and weep at his grave; but not "as others which have no hope." They expect to meet again "on the banks beyond the river," where scattered groups are gathered, where broken families are reunited, and where all who die in Jesus live together with the Lord.

As a preacher, brother Conner was careful and methodical in the preparation of his sermons, and, with a pleasant, well-trained voice, was able to deliver his messages impressively. Naturally reserved, yet capable of the most devoted friendship; a man of noble, generous impulses, with a mind clear and quick in its perceptions; thorough in his attainments; of extensive, elevating culture,—he possessed the qualifications of an influential minister of Christ. In public life, or in the retirement of home, he was ever the same high-toned Christian gentleman—unassuming, yet dignified—illustrating in his life and death the divine and saving power of that Gospel which he preached to others.

REV. ABRAHAM B. WAMBAUGH.

REV. ABRAHAM B. WAMBAUGH was born in Huntington County, New Jersey, October 26, 1815. When but two years old, his parents carried him to Ohio, where he had resided, with some short intervals, ever since.

At the age of thirteen years, he united with the Methodist Episcopal Church, and soon felt it his duty to enter the ministry. Thirty-five years ago, on the 6th of September, 1838, at a quarterly-meeting, of which Rev. J. B. Finley was presiding elder, and Judge Chambers secretary, held in the woods, Twin Township, Preble County, Ohio, A. B. Wambaugh was unanimously recommended to the Ohio Annual Conference as a suitable person to be admitted on trial in the traveling connection, and was duly received at the ensuing session of the Conference. His fields of labor were the following: 1838–39, Jamestown; 1839–40, Bellefontaine; 1840–41, East Liberty; 1841–42, Jamestown; 1842–43, Columbus; 1843–44, Circleville. During this year he was married to his present bereaved widow, then Miss Sarah P. Sells, of Columbus, Ohio—a graduate of Worthington Female Seminary, and a most excellent Christian lady.

At the close of the year, on account of failing health, he located, and studied law, and began its practice in the courts of the State, and for some six years he pursued this calling. All this time, however, his mind was ill at ease—he felt it his duty to be about his Master's work.

In 1861, the pastor of the Church at Milford entered the army, and brother Wambaugh was sent there as a supply. The next year, a vacancy occurring at Ripley, he was sent there as a supply, and at the end of this year he was readmitted into the Conference, and returned to Ripley.

His next appointment was High-street, Springfield, where he remained three years. In this charge, his quiet, unobtrusive spirit won all hearts, and his continuance in the charge for three consecutive years is evidence of the high esteem in which he was held by the people.

His next appointment was Asbury Charge, Cincinnati, where he remained two years. His next field of labor was Avondale, then Mt. Washington, where he labored only one year. He was not removed from that charge because the appointment was not pleasant to him and the people whom he served, for they gave him up with great reluctance. At the last session of the Conference, 1872, held at Eaton, the Preacher's Relief Society determined to send an agent into the field, and A. B. Wambaugh was chosen as peculiarly adapted to the position. His well known sympathy with the objects of the Society induced the managers to ask his appointment. With his consent, the bishop granted the request of the Society, and brother Wambaugh, making very serious sacrifices, entered at once upon the work assigned him. He traveled extensively through the territory of the Conference, preaching where he had opportunity, advocating the claims of the Society, and creating in almost every place a deep sympathy in the hearts of the people for the worn-out preachers, and the families of those who were destitute. The record of his year's labor is with his brethren.

But it is in the closing scene the living feel the deepest interest—that supreme moment which brings to view in clear lines the peculiar characteristics of the man.

He had made a previous arrangement to accompany the writer, on Saturday, the 16th of August, to Gordon, Darke County. He did so, and we lodged together at the house of brother G. H. Post. He talked far into the night about the Church and her various enterprises. He rose on Sabbath morning with buoyancy of spirits, congratulating himself on having found such a pleasant temporary home. He attended Sabbath-school in the morning, and at the request of the superintendent delivered a very touching address. He was requested to preach in the morning; but declined on the ground that it was the pastor's last visit, and that it was fitting he should occupy the pulpit at that hour. "But," said he, "I will supplement that by preaching in the afternoon." This he did, to the delight of the congregation. His text was 1 John i, 9: "If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness." When he came to speak of the faithfulness and justice of God, there was a fervid eloquence that fastened the attention of the audience; "and frequently," says the informant, "a superhuman or heavenly smile played over his countenance."

On Sabbath morning, in company with the writer, he returned to Brookville. On the way he was particularly interesting, and expressed the hope that his pleasant visit to Gordon would result in good. Arriving at the parsonage, it was proposed to drive over to his father's; but he promptly declined the offer, and, springing out of the buggy in his happiest mood, passed up street. He had arranged to visit Delaware on Tuesday, and had his trunk all ready; but not feeling well, he deferred starting till evening. When evening came, he thought he would be out most of the night, and he would not start till morning. In the morning he found himself unwell, and did not start. Between eight and nine o'clock in the evening, I called to see him. He was lying on the lounge, but rose, and said he had been feeling badly, but hoped the simple remedies he had been using would soon check the disease, and seemed very hopeful, and even cheerful. He alluded to the fact of having made a partial engagement with brother J. F. Loyd to attend the Shiloh camp-meeting, but had about concluded to spend the Sabbath with me at Brookville.

At one o'clock, Thursday morning, I was summoned to his room, taking Dr. Connor with me. It was apparent then that he was struggling with that fearful disease, cholera. He said to the doctor on entering, "I have not given you a fair chance; it is too late." He soon began to suffer from cramping in his lower limbs; but no murmur escaped his lips. He cheerfully took all the remedies offered him, and contended manfully with the fearful disease. His wife and children were absent at Ripley. He expressed a desire to see them, and they were summoned by telegraph. When satisfied that the message had been sent, he was comforted. He desired some water; having drunk it, he said, "That is one of God's gifts. That," said he, "is a great text—the water of life." Then he quoted, "On the last day, that great day of the feast, Jesus stood and cried, If any man thirst, let him come unto me and drink." At another time he said: "I think I have finished my course: I have kept the faith; henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness. It is all right whichever way this may terminate."

His sister arrived from Dayton soon after ten o'clock A. M. He at once recognized her, and seemed gratified. He desired to be raised up in his bed, but he was too weak to bear it. "Has it come to this?" said he. "Is it possible I am reduced to this in so short a time?" About this time his arms began cramping, and the dew of death to settle on his brow; the monster was conquering. Dr. C. Gish had been called in the morning as counsel, and both physicians labored manfully to arrest the disease, but all in vain. At three o'clock P. M., August 14, 1873, Rev. A. B. Wambaugh ceased at once to work and live. He quit the world in great composure, without a struggle or a sigh.

Brother Wambaugh, as a preacher, possessed more than ordinary ability. He was dignified, yet earnest; chaste in his expressions, yet free from pedantry. With a clear understanding of his subjects, his discourses were always instructive and entertaining. He was among the safest counselors in the Cincinnati Conference. His legal knowledge made his services at times exceedingly valuable.

In person, brother Wambaugh always presented a dignified appearance, having a keen sense of Christian propriety; and this characteristic was preserved as long as consciousness lasted. He was reserved in the company of strangers, but with intimate friends he was extremely social and very agreeable. To love him, one had only to know him.

His genial and quiet spirit rests on the bosom of his God, and his body in Woodland Cemetery, near the city of Dayton, till summoned by the trump of God to join that disembodied spirit. May God comfort the hearts of the bereaved widow and orphans!

W. N. WILLIAMS,
W. HERR.

MRS. SARAH A. RUST.

MRS. S. A. RUST, wife of Rev. R. S. Rust, D. D., Corresponding Secretary of the Freedmen's Aid Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church, departed this life January 28, 1873.

She was born in Middletown, Connecticut, and, in very early life, gave herself to Christ, and united with the Congregational Church of that city—entering with the zeal of her youthful piety every open door of usefulness. For several years she was assistant superintendent of the Sunday-school of this Church, and labored most earnestly in gathering poor and neglected children, and pointing them to Him who says, "Suffer the little children to come unto me, and forbid them not: for of such is the kingdom of heaven."

In the year 1841 she was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Rev. R. S. Rust, then a member of the New England Conference, and for thirty-two years bore the burdens and made the sacrifices peculiar to the families of itinerant Methodist preachers. She was a cheerful co-worker with her husband in every field of labor which he was called to enter in the order and economy of the Church, leading souls to Christ and consoling by her presence and active sympathy those who were in distress. It can be said of her in truth, she was a "help-meet" to him who chose her as the companion of his joys and sorrows, never hindering, but ever helping, him in the office and work of the ministry. Her piety was deep and positive in its character, and yet unobtrusive. Love for the Holy Scriptures and private prayer was a marked peculiarity of her Christian life. Daily were hours thus spent in searching the mind of the Spirit and holding communion with God. She took great delight in the house of the Lord, and was never happier than when worshiping in the beauty of holiness.

For several years preceding her death, she devoted herself with great earnestness to the work of God in connection with the "Cincinnati Union Bethel," an institution that directs its efforts especially to the poor and neglected of the city. In teaching a class in that great mission Sunday-school, in visiting the poor in their wretched homes, and in making garments for the destitute, she took great delight; and when her health, which had been failing for many years, gave way, so that she felt compelled to desist from labor, it was to her a great trial. But in the feebleness of ebbing life she was able to say, "Father, not my will, but thine be done."

A few days before her death, the remark was made in her hearing that her youngest son was under religious awakening, and had re-entered the Sunday-school of Trinity Church. She calmly remarked, "I have been praying for him from his birth, and believe God will answer my prayers, and convert my son." Thank God! the mother's prayers have been answered. Mrs. Rust's faith and love for the Scriptures never forsook her; and, though very feeble for days before she fell asleep in Jesus, yet she would call for the Bible, and try to trace its hallowed lines. A short time before she breathed her last, she asked the nurse who waited on her for her mother's Bible, and opened at the twenty-third Psalm; and while her eyes grew dim in death, her fingers were tracing the beautiful words: "Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil, for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me." Thus sweetly and calmly this saint of God fell asleep in Christ.

THOMAS LEE.

MRS. MARY SUTHERLAND.

MARY SUTHERLAND was born September 8, 1823, in Lancaster county, Pennsylvania. In her eighth year she emigrated with her parents to Springfield, Ohio. Here, in April, 1840, under the ministry of Rev. Wm. Young, she was converted and baptized, and joined the old Columbia-street Church. August 28, 1845, she was united, by Rev. W. Herr, in marriage with Rev. Wm. H. Sutherland, now of the Cincinnati Conference. For more than twenty-five years she shared with him the toils, the trials, and the joys of the itinerancy. She was a dutiful daughter, an affectionate wife, a devoted mother, a faithful friend. Truth, prudence, purity, and benevolence were predominant traits in her character. In all her life she never uttered an untruth. She avoided that outward adorning of putting on apparel, but chose rather "the ornament of a meek and quiet spirit." Naturally timid, she shrank from conspicuity; and few, even of her intimate friends, were fully aware of the gift of God which was in her, until it was developed in the reception and influence of the blessing of perfect love. This "pearl of great price" she sought and obtained, February 19, 1870, at the altar of prayer. Of this "great grace" she was ever a humble, a prudent, and yet a courageous confessor. She never offensively obtruded the subject on any; and yet never "hid her light under a bushel." "A godly walk," "a holy conversation," a life abounding "in every good word and work," evinced to all the sincerity of her profession and the divinity of her religion. Her fatal illness was fibroid tumor of the throat. Her sufferings, which at times were excruciating, were protracted for ten months. During these weary months she was unmurmuring, submissive, serene, and cheerful—willing to live, and yet ready, even desirous, "to depart and be with Christ," which she was assured would be "far better." She would frequently exclaim: "I never appreciated so highly as now this blessing of full salvation. What should I, what could I now do, without the support and comfort of God's perfect love?" To the writer she often said, "I am waiting—waiting for the rumbling of his chariot-wheels." To her husband and relations it seemed deeply mysterious that one so innocent and so useful should be so great a sufferer. A single remark of hers was sufficient to resolve the mystery. Her husband had been reading to her about those white-vestured ones before the Throne, who came out of great tribulation, and "who had washed their robes, and made them white in the blood of the Lamb," when she exclaimed, "I know what it is to be washed in the blood of the Lamb, yet I have had but little tribulation in my life, and I suppose I am receiving my portion now." Her triumph over death was complete and glorious. "Jesus loves me!" "Jesus is precious!" "All is well!" "I see my way clear to glory!" "Not a cloud, not a shadow!" were among her dying declarations. Her last intelligible words, uttered while her features beamed with unearthly radiance, were, "Farewell! Farewell!" Thus, on Monday morning, October 28th, passed away from earth to heaven our beloved sister, one of the purest, gentlest, and most unselfish of beings. Her husband, her children, and the large circle of her relatives and friends, miss her—O how sadly! But they sorrow in hope of a happy reunion in the better land. A. MEHARRY.

MRS. LUCINDA BOUCHER.

MRS. LUCINDA BOUCHER, the subject of this memoir, and the wife of the Rev. Joshua Boucher, was born in Cincinnati, March 31, 1800, and departed this life on the 2d of October, 1872, at Kingston, Caldwell County, Missouri. The example and counsels of a pious mother made a deep impression upon her young and tender heart, and it may be said in truth, she feared the Lord from her childhood. But it was not until 1817 that she was made happy in the consciousness of sins forgiven. Immediately she connected herself with the Methodist Episcopal Church. On the 2d of April, 1820, at Hopkinsville, Kentucky, Miss Munsell became the wife of brother Boucher, from which time to the close of life she joyfully fulfilled the duties, patiently endured the trials, and courageously met the responsibilities incident to the life of a Methodist preacher's wife.

Born in the West, and for nearly three-quarters of a century identified with its rapid and astonishing growth, and for more than half a century connected with the historic scenes and events of Methodism, she beheld with gratitude the displays of the Divine power in the spread and upbuilding of the Church of her love, and the wonderful achievements of man in subduing the "wilderness," and making it "blossom as the rose."

For a number of years after her marriage, brother Boucher's fields of labor were in the South-west, and were distributed through Kentucky, Tennessee, Alabama, and Mississippi. The circuits in that day were large, the rides were long, and the work laborious. They were days of self-sacrifice, and demanded moral heroism. Sister Boucher cheerfully accompanied her husband to his different fields of labor. Personal ease and comfort were never sought at the expense of duty. It was her delight to aid him in his great work, and much she rejoiced when souls were saved.

Removals were not then made with the ease with which they are now effected. Travel was mostly performed on horseback. An incident in sister Boucher's experience, while in the South, will illustrate the difficulties then encountered, the self-denial then practiced, in itinerant life. After a ride of two hundred miles on horseback, with an infant in her arms, in order to reach the appointment to which her husband had been assigned, she was compelled to abide with strangers, while he went to the forest, felled the trees, and built a parsonage for her reception.

Thus it was that Methodism pioneered the Gospel over the West. Its mission was often fulfilled in suffering, but its labors were crowned with glorious success. The writer is not apprised in what year brother Boucher removed to Ohio. As a consequent of this removal, his fields of labor were less extended, and his family enjoyed increased comforts. The law of freedom was written on the soil of Ohio. The skill and energy of free labor was rapidly developing the resources of the state, and the moral field was whitening for the harvest. Here was work for the toiler; and sister Boucher, that her husband might be untrammeled in the discharge of his public duties, assumed the principal care and management of her growing family. And well she discharged the duties of the wife and mother. She guarded the reputation of her husband, sought the spiritual and temporal good of her children, and had their confidence and affection. The burden of domestic cares, though great, was not suffered to interfere with the cultivation of personal religion. She loved the public means of grace, and was prompt in her attendance upon them on every available occasion. Her piety was calm, deep, and uniform; her walk was with God; her conversation such as became the Gospel. One who knew her well has said, "She was never known to speak an unkind word, or be guilty of an imprudent act." There are those yet living, at Troy, Piqua, Urbana, and Springfield, who can testify to the light and force of her example. But her love for the Savior shone pre-eminently in her kindness and humanity to his poor and suffering representatives in the days of trial and of darkness, and that Savior was present and precious in the final conflict of his handmaid with the last enemy; for her daughter writes that, in response to a question as to her prospects, though unable to speak, she raised her hand in token of victory, and pointed toward heaven as her happy home.

MRS. ELIZABETH S. DAVISSON.

MRS. ELIZABETH SMITH DAVISSON, widow of Rev. D D. Davisson, Cincinnati Conference, was born in Crawford County, Pennsylvania, in 1786. Of her early life no data is accessible, except the fact that, while young, she consecrated herself to Christ, and joined the Methodist Episcopal Church. In 1819, she became the wife of that noble, holy itinerant minister, Rev. Dr. Davisson, and thereafter shared with him, upward of fifty-two years, the changes and trials incident to the traveling connection. Though naturally of a desponding temperament, yet encouraged by the cheerful, patient spirit and holy example of her husband, and sustained by the grace of God, she held on her way until deprived of his companionship, in 1871. At the time of the death of Dr. Davisson, Mother Davisson was very feeble, and few thought she would long survive him. In the good providence of God, she was soon removed from her residence, in Dayton, to the home of her niece, Mrs. Sullivan, near West Liberty, Ohio. Her beautiful new rural home, the fresh air, and the tender, watchful care of her niece, seemed to inspire her with renewed vitality and vigor. Hence she lingered longer than was anticipated. But, some months before her death, nature began to fail, and, without suffering, she was reduced to the condition of extreme feebleness, both physically and mentally. Her trust in God remained as long as she had capacity to comprehend the subject of religion and express her personal experience. At length, on Wednesday, May 7, 1873, aged eighty-seven, the "weary wheels of life stood still." Her remains were brought to Dayton, and, after appropriate religious services by her pastor, Rev. T. Collett, in Raper Chapel, she was buried in Woodland Cemetery, by the side of her husband, Dr. Davisson, the sacred resting-place of whom, in due time, will be adorned with a beautiful monument.

REPORT OF REV. J. F. WRIGHT, CONFERENCE EVANGELIST.

MY DEAR BRETHREN,—Since we met at our last annual session I have entered into the seventy-ninth year of my natural life, the sixtieth of my spiritual life, and fifty-ninth of my itinerant labors. Having mentioned these epochs in my history, it seems natural for me to retrospect the pathway along which I have traveled. I find the lights of my itinerant career have been far more than its shadows. Truly, Jehovah hath been with me, and crowned my life with loving kindness and tender mercies.

One of the early duties in the work of a Methodist preacher is that of dedicating children to God in Christian baptism. These are the lambs of the fold. It is affirmed of the Chief Shepherd, "He shall gather the lambs with his arms, and carry them in his bosom." Surely, they ought to receive the tender care, instruction, and encouragement of the under-shepherd. It is difficult to appreciate the full force and importance of the question all have to answer before admission into the Conference, "Will you diligently instruct the children in every place?"

Another pleasant duty is for us to admit persons into the Church. This is usually regarded by all individuals as an era in their religious life, and they are apt to remember the minister who was the instrument, under God, of bringing them into the Church. At a recent camp-meeting, a devout Christian woman, of many years' acceptable standing in the Church, was speaking of her experience with great rapture; her heart was full of gratitude, her eyes with tears, and mouth with praises; she looked, a short distance, directly into my face, and said, "I thank you, brother Wright, for taking me into the Church." I have often regretted I did not keep a register from the beginning, and record the names of all I ever received. I recollect, forty-nine years ago, I was assigned to a station in Ohio, not very large then. The great Head of the Church was pleased to send us a revival, which resulted in the accession of three hundred and sixty-three precious souls; many of whom are now in heaven. I received twelve annual appointments to districts. In this position I made the acquaintance of many exhorters in the Church; some of them were men of much grace and excellent gifts. They delivered their message as from God, "not with enticing words of man's wisdom, but in demonstration of the Spirit and of power." There was often an indescribable unction and power attending their ministrations, and God gave them much fruit. Many of these faithful and successful workers in the Lord's vineyard have long since closed their mission on earth; they fell at their post, and have been received to the Church triumphant in heaven. It gave me great pleasure to renew annually the license of such, when approved by the quarterly conference.

In this office I had occasion to examine a good many candidates for the ministry; and, in accordance with the decision of the quarterly conference, they were licensed to preach the Gospel; others, by our action, were recommended to the annual conference for orders. I remember when we were all of the Ohio Conference, and then, when Cincinnati was organized, of bringing a good many recommendations to the Ohio and Cincinnati Conferences for admission into the itinerant connection. I represented each case fairly and frankly, and nearly every one was admitted. Some were not received because we had not room, and their recommendations were forwarded to other conferences, and they were received. Of all those who were admitted, I am glad to report a majority are still alive, and are doing a good work in the interest of the Master. Some have died in the work. Among the deceased we must number our beloved and excellent brother, Dr. Michael Marlay, who died in the midst of our Conference session, at Ripley, in 1866. Those who survive shall have my prayers, friendship, and love, until "I put off this my tabernacle."

There is another thought connected with the ministry which you will allow me to present. For some thirty years, as one of the seniors of the Conference, I have been called to assist the bishop in ordaining the elders, so that these hands have been laid on a good many of the elders of this Conference, and others who have been transferred to other conferences, when they took the vows of God upon them, and the office and work of elders committed to them by the laying on of the hands of the presbytery. Then was that solemn, and we trust, effectual prayer offered for each one, "The Lord pour upon thee the Holy Ghost for the office and work of an elder in the Church of God." The sound of these words, perhaps, to-day, does not affect our hearts and thrill through our souls as when we were ordained. What an impressive service! What sacred vows! Can any who have taken the vows upon them in this solemn manner, lay them aside, and enter into other avocations of a secular and worldly nature? O, brethren, let us read our ordination vows frequently, and think of them much oftener. Never shall I forget the time at Oxford, N. C., Virginia Conference, in 1819, when, by the [illegible] of the death of the Rev. Bishop Robert R. Roberts [illegible] meeting. I was interested in the effort and work of an editor.

We do not think much about the immediate succession. But we highly appreciate and duly appreciate the words in which we are taught that [illegible] are nearest to the Lord's throne in present grace, faith and fruit. These are the infallible marks of the true succession, and we need no advice of commendation for with these all we can say, "To his own master he stands or falls, and that of all men."

[illegible] of the last session [illegible] has been [illegible] and life. The work of Superannuate is accomplished, above the [illegible]. When the Master sees it will be needed [illegible] and [illegible] by [illegible] whose work [illegible] and by [illegible] the [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]

Abstract of the Daily Journal.

FIRST DAY.

WILMINGTON, O., Wednesday, August 26, 1874.

THE CINCINNATI ANNUAL CONFERENCE of the Methodist Episcopal Church began its Twenty-third Session in the Methodist Episcopal church at Wilmington, Ohio, this morning, at nine o'clock; Bishop R. S. Foster presiding, Bishop E. R. Ames also being present.

The first Psalm, and a portion of the fifth chapter of Matthew, were read by the Rev. Dr. G. C. Crum; after which, the first hymn was announced and sung, and Rev. Wm. Young led the devotions of the Conference in prayer.

The sacrament of our Lord's-supper was then administered to the ministry and laity present.

The Bishop then, with much emotion, and in a deeply impressive manner, addressed the Conference, within whose bounds, in connection with the Ohio Conference, he began his ministry, thirty-seven years ago.

The Secretary of the last session called the roll of the Conference, and one hundred and twenty members answered to their names.

W. H. Sutherland was re-elected Secretary; D. J. Starr, Assistant Secretary; A. M. Griffith, Recording Secretary; F. G. Mitchell, Statistical Secretary; R. E. Smith, Assistant Statistical Secretary; and W. J. Quarry, Secretary of Railroad Passes.

Wm. Herr offered a resolution tendering to Bishop Foster cordial welcome as a fellow-laborer, and as now the President of this Conference, which was presented by Bishop Ames, and adopted by a rising vote of the Conference. The Bishop expressed his appreciation of the sentiments contained in the paper.

H. M. Keck, F. M. Clemens, T. Lee, S. Scott, and T. W. Peak were recognized as reporters for the daily secular press.

On motion, the presiding elders were appointed a Nominating Committee in the constitution of the regular committees of Conference.

On motion, the Rules of Order of the last session were adopted.

On motion, it was agreed that the daily sessions should open at eight o'clock, and close at a quarter before twelve o'clock, A. M.; the first forty-five minutes being for devotional services.

A draft on the Chartered Fund, for $35, was ordered.

The Standing Committees, of one or more from each district, were constituted as follows:

On Missions—The Presiding Elders.

On Education—R. S. Rust, T. J. Harris, M. Dustin, W. I. Ellsworth, T. S. Cowden, S. Weeks, Wm. Young, J. M'D. Mathews, L. H. Bugbee, Wm. Smith, L. D. M'Cabe, Wm. Herr, Lucien Clark, C. W. Ketcham, J. P. Porter, and T. Collett.

On Temperance—J. F. Loyd, S. B. Smith, T. A. Stevens, A. W. Tibbits, E. M. Cole, and W. J. Quarry.

On Parsonages—W. I. Fee, R. Vickers, J. B. Ellsworth, A. U. Beall, J. M'K. Shultz, and W. T. M'Mullen.

On Church Statistics—S. N. Marsh, John Irvin, C. J. Wells, J. M. Robinson, R. E. Smith, and L. M. Davis.

On Periodicals—D. H. Moore, A. B. Leonard, T. Collett, L. Clark, D. L. Hayward, and H. M. Keck.

The same were appointed the Committee on the Book Concern Accounts.

On Post-offices—G. W. Kelley, J. W. Sutherland, W. N. Brodbeck, E. Burdsall, J. H. Middleton, and M. P. Zink.

On New York Accounts—J. Verity.

On Memoirs—J. F. Marlay, S. Bennett, S. B. Smith, W. E. Hines, W. Fitzgerald, M. Dustin, S. W. Carey, and W. T. M'Mullen.

The following were appointed a Special Committee on Camp-meetings, raised on the motion of G. Moody:

J. F. Chalfant, J. C. Brooke, R. K. Deem, J. F. Forbus, J. W. Weakley, M. P. Gaddis, W. Coles, T. S. Cowden, M. Redkey, N. Prince, and J. M'Colm.

Niells M. Sandall, Charles Augustus Stenholm, and Charles John Johanson, of the Methodist Episcopal Mission in Sweden, and members of the Central Illinois Conference, were elected to deacon's orders, to be ordained by Bishop Harris, now in Europe.

C. P. Rind, Peter Olsen, Anders Olsen, and J. J. Christensen, of the Methodist Episcopal Missions in Norway, and members of the Central Illinois Conference, were elected to elder's orders, they also to be ordained by Bishop Harris.

The New York accounts were referred to the Committee on that subject.

The apportionment of the assessment on the Conference for the support of bishops was referred to the presiding elders.

A portion of the Report of the Book Concern was read, and Dr. Walden presented a statement in reference to the Western Book Concern.

Conference adjourned with the Doxology, J. C. Bontecou pronouncing the benediction.

SECOND DAY.

THURSDAY MORNING, August 27, 1874.

CONFERENCE opened, at eight o'clock, with a prayer-meeting conducted by Rev. T. Collett. At its close, Bishop Foster took the chair, and the Journal of yesterday was approved.

The roll of absentees of yesterday was called, and eleven responded to their names.

Drs. C. H. Payne, Thos. H. Pearne, and L. F. Van Cleve were introduced, and their transfer to the Cincinnati Conference announced by the Bishop. Dr. Dashiell, Missionary Secretary, and brother Davis, of the Ohio Conference, were also presented to the Conference.

J. M. Walden made explanations of the business operations of the Western Book Concern before the Conference.

Leave of absence was granted S. F. Conrey, on account of sickness in his family.

M. A. Richards was added to the Committee on Church Extension, and appointed treasurer of its funds.

The Eighth Question, "Who are the Supernumerary Preachers?" was taken up.

Proper representations having been made of their respective cases, the relations of M. J. Cramer, M. P. Gaddis, and J. S. Peregrine were continued, without appointment.

D. Warnock was given a superannuated relation, and the fixing of W. H. Lawder's relation was deferred.

Bishop Ames took the chair, at the request of Bishop Foster, and the Ninth Question, "Who are the Superannuated Preachers?" was taken up.

The relations of J.. Barton, J. C. Maddy, W. N. Maxey, R. A. Brandriff, John W. Stone, W. I. Ellsworth, B. Glasscock, S. Brown, J. A. Reeder, J. L. Grover, D. Callahan, A. Murphy, E. H. Field, P. A. Ogden, J. C. Bontecou, W. Routledge, N. C. Parrish, N. Callender, T. A. G. Phillips, W. Webster, and D. Kemper were continued.

The collection ordered and taken by the Conference for W. Routledge amounted to $66.33, and Dr. Chalfant was appointed to take charge of it, and all other moneys of Conference for this purpose, and to take any legal steps thought to be necessary for the good of the family, in his oversight of it.

The collection taken for N. Callender amounted to $52.15, of which W. Herr was requested to take charge, for the family.

A paper relating to the financial necessities of T. A. G. Phillips was read, and referred to the Stewards and Preachers' Relief Society.

On motion of S. D. Clayton, a Committee, consisting of R. S. Rust, W. B. Moler, C. Kalbfus, S. A. Brewster, and J. W. Cassatt, was appointed to inquire into complaints against R. A. Arthur, and report to Conference.

A communication from Bishop Morris was read to the Conference, and referred to a Committee, consisting of J. F. Wright, E. H. Field, M. Dustin, and J. F. Marlay, to report to the Conference a suitable response.

Bishop Foster resumed the chair.

T. S. Cowden was appointed to receive subscriptions for Hillsboro College.

Documents from the Ohio University were received, and referred to the Committee on Education.

The Fourth Question, "Who are admitted into full connection?" was taken up.

Jos. Acomb's case was considered; after which, he was discontinued.

On motion, the preachers who have been in charge were instructed to report the amounts collected in their fields for Missions, Superannuates, Church Extension, Bishops, and Freedmen's Aid Society.

J. W. Sutherland, J. T. Short, W. N. Brodbeck, and J. C. Boltin, having reported their collections, and having been favorably represented by their presiding elders and examiners, were admitted, and elected to deacon's orders.

J. N. Irvin and J. C. Ambrose, having reported their collections, and been favorably represented by their elders and examiners, were received into the Conference, they having been already ordained.

W. H. Smith reported his collections, and was represented by his examiners; after which, his case, and those of Daniel L. Aultman and David V. Ross, were laid over.

W. F. Mappin and D. D. Cheney were introduced to the Conference.

The Seventh Question, "Who have been elected and ordained Elders this year?" was taken up.

D. D. Cheney, Wm. M. Boyer, J. S. Whitney, and E. Burdsall, having been favorably represented by their presiding elders and examiners—those in charge having reported their collections—were elected to elder's orders.

Conference adjourned, with the benediction by M. P. Gaddis.

THIRD DAY.

FRIDAY MORNING, August 28, 1874.

CONFERENCE opened with a prayer-meeting, conducted by the Rev. J. C. Bontecou. At a quarter before nine o'clock, Bishop Foster took the chair. The Journal of yesterday was read and approved.

Complaint was made against S. W. Edmiston; and, on motion, a Committee was appointed to inquire into his case, consisting of G. W. Kelley, S. B. Smith, N. Prince, J. M. Robinson, S. Bennett, and M. Kauffman.

A. Lowrey moved that Sister Rapp's name be placed on the list of Conference claimants; and the subject was referred to a Committee consisting of L. F. Van Cleve, W. L. Hypes, and W. Herr.

A. Bowers offered a resolution requesting the publication of the sermon of Dr. Wentworth, delivered yesterday; which was adopted.

The Fourth Question, "Who are admitted into full connection?" was resumed.

The case of W. H. Smith was called. The Examining Committee and presiding elders reported, and his case was referred to a special Committee, consisting of J. C. Bontecou, J. Kendall, and Wm. Young.

D. L. Aultman was represented by his presiding elder and examiners and, at his own request, was continued on trial.

David V. Ross was discontinued. Wm. F. Mappin was received into full connection, and elected to deacon's orders.

J. N. Irvin, a deacon of two years' standing, was elected to elder's orders.

F. Hypes reported from the examiners in the cases of H. Miller and W. Mahon, and these brethren were relieved from further examinations.

The Seventh Question, "Who have been elected and ordained Elders this year?" was taken up. E. C. Smith's name was called, and he reported his collections, having been previously ordained.

The Stewards made their preliminary report.

An interesting communication from brother P. A. Ogden was read to the Conference.

Dr. Bugbee read a paper relating to Education, which was referred to the Committee on that subject.

On motion, it was ordered that all papers relating to the various Church interests be referred to the respective committees, without presentation to the Conference.

Rev. Dr. Dashiell, Secretary of the Missionary Society, was introduced, and addressed the Conference in relation to the great missionary cause. Dr. E. Wentworth also spoke briefly on the same interests.

Dr. Rust, T. S. Cowden, and L. F. Van Cleve were appointed to collect the subscriptions due to Hillsboro College from the brethren who have not paid.

The Tenth Question, "Was the character of each Preacher examined?" was taken up. J. F. Chalfant represented the East Cincinnati District; and his character, and those of the preachers in his district, were passed, those in charge reporting their collections.

Brothers King, Drake, and Adams, of the Ohio Conference, were introduced.

Conference closed, with the benediction by L. F. Van Cleve.

FOURTH DAY.

SATURDAY MORNING, August 29, 1874.

CONFERENCE opened at eight o'clock, with a prayer-meeting conducted by Rev. J. B. Ellsworth. At twenty minutes before nine o'clock, Bishop Foster entered, and led in prayer the devotions of the Conference. The Journal of yesterday was approved.

The report of the Special Committee in the case of W. H. Smith, acquitting him of certain allegations, was presented and adopted, and his character passed. The Examining Committee also reported in his case, and he was admitted into full connection, and elected to deacon's orders.

Calls were made for recommendations for local orders. W. H. S. Ewell, F. A. M'Cormack, Benj. F. Dimmick, A. N. Curt, Benj. F. January, Jacob Johnston, John W. Gaddis, and John F. Rapp, were duly represented, and they were elected to deacon's orders.

Calls were made for recommendations for local elder's orders. Benjamin F. Garland, Jacob S. Hopkins, Israel H. De Bruin, and M. H. Cherry were represented, and elected to elder's orders.

On motion of M. P. Gaddis, Rev. Geo. W. Parrott, who was located last year, was readmitted, and he was placed on the supernumerary list.

The Tenth Question was resumed, and A. Lowrey represented the West Cincinnati District; and his character, and the characters of the preachers in his district, were passed, those in charge having reported their collections.

The Second Question, "Who are admitted on trial?" was taken up. J. Howard Phillips, from Lancaster District, in the Ohio Conference, was represented, and he was admitted.

The class recommended for reception into full connection came forward, and were searchingly and instructively addressed by Bishop Foster, and satisfactorily answered the disciplinary questions and those presented by the Conference.

The Stewards presented their revised report; and, on motion, they were instructed to pay the bill presented for Secretary's necessary expenses.

L. F. Van Cleve, from the Committee appointed to consider the claims of Mrs. Rapp, reported against placing her name on the list of Conference claimants, for legal reasons; but expressing the highest regards for Sister Rapp, and favoring the taking of a collection for her benefit. The report was adopted, and a collection taken, amounting to $36.46, and placed in the hands of W. Herr.

A. Bowers was elected Secretary, and T. Collett President, of the Missionary Society, and they were authorized to sign certificates for the two past years.

J. M. Walden called attention to the provision in the Discipline requiring the appointment of a person to preach a National Centennial Sermon at the Conference to be held in 1876; and, on motion, the Cabinet was requested to designate such preacher and an alternate.

The Conference committees on the different subjects were requested to present the names of persons to be elected officers of the Conference societies.

On motion of J. F. Marlay, a Committee of Seven was ordered to nominate persons to serve on the standing committees at the ensuing session of the Conference. The Cabinet was empowered to nominate the persons of whom it should be composed.

Dr. Lowrey presented a request, asking the Conference to grant him a supernumerary relation, assigning his reasons therefor.

On motion, the request was granted, by a rising vote of the Conference.

A telegram was received by Bishop Foster, announcing the death of the beloved wife of Dr. J. Miley. The sad intelligence was deeply affecting to the Conference, and a season of prayer was observed, in which Dr. Moody led the devotions of the Conference.

Conference adjourned, with the benediction by Father Field.

FIFTH DAY.

MONDAY MORNING, August 31, 1874.

CONFERENCE opened at eight o'clock, with the usual religious services, conducted by M. P. Gaddis. At the usual time, the Bishop took the chair. The Journal of Saturday's session was approved.

Wm. Herr presented a paper relating to the death of the wife of the Rev. Dr. John Miley, which was adopted by a rising vote.

J. F. Marlay, from the Committee appointed to respond to the communication of Bishop Morris to the Conference, read the response prepared, which was adopted by a rising vote, and ordered to be published in the Western Christian Advocate, as was also the correspondence of Bishop Morris.

A collection was taken for T. A. G. Phillips, amounting to $42.55.

The Committee in the case of R. A. Arthur presented their report, finding no cause for charges against him. The report was adopted, and his character passed. On motion, he was continued in a superannuated relation.

J. W. Weakley represented the Dayton District; and his character, and those of the preachers in his district, were passed, the usual collections being reported.

J. C. Deem was granted a superannuated relation, and a collection was taken for him, amounting to $84.25.

On motion, permission was given to the Quarterly Conference of Lexington Circuit to sell a portion of the unused lot of Wayne Chapel, and reinvest the proceeds.

Permission was also given to the Quarterly Conference of Miami Circuit to sell their parsonage, and reinvest the proceeds.

W. H. Sutherland offered a paper respecting the change of the Conference relations of A. Lowrey, which was adopted by a rising vote.

W. Young, Treasurer of the Preachers' Relief Society, announced that he had just received from Dr. Lowrey a donation of one hundred dollars for that cause, as a memorial offering; and during the year a like donation from E. H. Field, of fifty dollars.

A Meharry, Presiding Elder of the Springfield District, represented his work; and his character, and the characters of the preachers in his district, were passed, those in charge reporting their collections.

D. H. Sargent was granted a superannuated relation.

S. D. Clayton represented Hillsboro District; and his character, and those of the preachers of his district, were passed, those in charge reporting their collections.

On motion, it was agreed that there should be held an afternoon session, beginning at two o'clock; the memorial services to take place at three o'clock.

G. Moody, Presiding Elder, represented the Ripley District; and his character, and the characters of the preachers in his district, were passed, those in charge having reported their collections.

Rev. Dr. W. X. Ninde, of the Garrett Biblical Institute, addressed the Conference in behalf of that institution. R. S. Rust presented the report of the Committee on Subscriptions to the Hillsboro College, which was adopted.

The Committee in the case of S. W. Edmiston presented their report, containing an admonition, but finding no cause for charges against him. The report was adopted, and his character passed.

Conference adjourned, with the benediction by Rev. Dr. Ninde.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

MONDAY AFTERNOON, August 31, 1874.

CONFERENCE met, pursuant to adjournment, at two o'clock; Bishop Foster in the chair. The opening religious exercises were conducted by Rev. Dr. R. M. Hatfield, special reference being had to the illness of Bishop Janes, which Bishop Foster announced as being very serious and to the death of Mrs. Durbin, wife of our venerable ex-missionary secretary.

The Journal of the morning's session was approved.

N. M'Donald was granted a superannuated relation.

Conference granted permission to the Quarterly Conference of Feesburg Circuit to sell the property at Benton; of Felicity, to sell the parsonage; of Amelia Circuit, to sell the old church at Union Chapel; of Butlerville, to sell the church at Rossville; of Clarksville Circuit, to sell property at Martinsville; of Winchester Circuit, to sell property at Russellville; and of Lockland, to sell their old church and parsonage.

The Sixth Question, "Who are the Deacons of the second class?" was resumed, and the characters of Lucien M. Davis, James E. Gilbert, Charles J. Wells, Lafayette Young, Daniel L. Hayward, and C. H. Kalbfus, were passed, those in charge having reported their collections.

On motion of S. D. Clayton, Conference proceeded to fix the place of its next session. Trinity Church, of Cincinnati, and Troy, Ohio, were put in nomination, and, by vote of Conference, Cincinnati was selected.

On motion of J. W. Weakley, A. Meharry was granted a superannuated relation.

The time for the memorial services having arrived, Rev. M. P. Gaddis announced the hymn beginning, "Why should our tears in sorrow flow?" and led the devotions of the Conference in prayer.

The Memoir of Rev. William Simmons was read by Rev. J. F. Marlay. Appreciative and very touching remarks were made by Bishop Foster, John F. Wright, and J. C. Bontecou; after which, the memoir was approved.

W. E. Hines read the Memoir of Rev. James Armstrong, which, after remarks by Dr. Moody and J. J. Hill, was approved.

S. B. Smith read the Memoir of Rev. Joshua Boucher, which, after remarks by Dr. Moody and Bishop Foster, his former colleagues, was approved.

S. Bennett read the Memoir of Rev. H. M. Curry, which, after remarks by Rev. W. H. Black and A. Meharry, was approved.

M. Dustin read the Memoir of Mrs. Dorothea Phillips, which was approved.

The Memoir of Mrs. Sarah Jane Nation was read by W. Fitzgerald, and approved.

Those members of the Committee on Memoirs who have presented sketches of deceased preachers were instructed to prepare duplicate copies for the General Minutes.

It was resolved to dispense with the prayer-meeting to-morrow morning, with a view of closing the business of the Conference by noon.

The appointment of the old Board of Conference Trustees was confirmed.

Judge E. G. Dial was appointed to look after the interests of the Church in the will of the late Jane Hodge, which contains a bequest for the Missionary Society.

The officers of the Ladies' and Pastors' Christian Union were elected.

The report of the Committee on the Tract Cause was adopted, and the officers were elected.

J. T. Bail, L. Clark, and S. B. Smith were appointed to obtain subscriptions for the Conference Minutes.

The Treasurers of the various Conference Societies were instructed to retain sufficient funds to pay the expense of publishing their reports in the Minutes, as per last year.

On motion, Bishop Foster was requested to appoint the Triers of Appeals. The following were appointed: W. Herr, W. I. Ellsworth, M. Dustin, L. F. Van Cleve, Wm. Young, A. W. Tibbits, and D. Kemper.

The report of the Committee on Missions was read by J. F. Chalfant, and adopted by the Conference.

Conference adjourned, with the benediction by R. S. Rust.

SIXTH DAY.

TUESDAY MORNING, September 1, 1874.

CONFERENCE opened at eight o'clock, the religious services being conducted by M. Kauffman; Bishop Foster in the chair. The Journal of yesterday afternoon was approved.

A. Bowers presented the report of the Committee on the Freedmen's Aid Society. Adopted.

D. C. Vance presented his report as Treasurer of the Conference Tract Society. Adopted.

D. H. Moore read the report of the Committee on Periodicals, which was amended and adopted.

J. F. Marlay read the report of the Committee on the Observance of the Sabbath. Adopted.

C. W. Ketcham presented the report of the Committee on Education. The item relating to the Springfield College was read. L. Clark offered a substitute for the item, and Judge E. G. Dial, having been invited, addressed the Conference in relation thereto. After further discussion by J. F. Chalfant and others, the substitute failed, and the report relating to Springfield College was adopted. The subsequent items relating to the Hillsboro, Xenia, and Cincinnati Colleges, and the Ohio Wesleyan University and Garrett Biblical Institute, were adopted; and the report, as a whole, was adopted.

M. A. Richards presented a paper relating to the Garrett Biblical Institute, which, together with papers relating to the Ohio Wesleyan University, presented by S. B. Smith, were placed on file.

The Treasurer's Report of the Church Extension Society was presented, and accepted.

The report of the Committee on Finance was accepted.

The report of the Committee on Parsonages was adopted.

S. B. Smith presented the summaries of the collections for the Sunday-school Union, by districts, which was accepted.

A. B. Leonard presented a paper numerously signed, relating to camp-meetings, which was amended by a motion of G. Moody and J. W. Weakley, and adopted.

Resolutions offered by the Sunday-school Committee were adopted, and the officers of the Union were elected.

The report on Temperance was adopted, the resolutions having been read.

A. Lowrey offered resolutions relating to Rev. R. L. Vickers, which were adopted, and he was given a location. (See Resolutions.)

A resolution requesting the Bishop to appoint T. Lee to the Cincinnati Bethel, was adopted.

The Bishop announced the transfer of T. S. Cowden to the Kentucky Conference, of J. Kendall to the Ohio Conference, and of Francis S. Davis from the Ohio to the Cincinnati Conference.

Resolutions respecting the transfer of J. Kendall, T. S. Cowden, and R. M. Hatfield were adopted. (See Resolutions.)

A collection was taken for the sexton, amounting to $19.19.

The report on the Church Extension Society was passed to the Secretary for publication, as also was the report of moneys collected for Bishops.

The report on the Bible Cause was adopted.

The names of the examiners, officers of the Church Extension Society, and the occasional preachers, were reported.

The names of the Committee to nominate members of the standing committees of next year were presented, and they were elected as follows: W. I. Fee, G. C. Crum, S. Weeks, L. Clark, M. Dustin, and S. B. Smith.

Resolutions of thanks were adopted expressing the gratitude of Conference to the citizens and Churches of Wilmington and vicinity for the very generous kindness shown to the body and its members and visitors. Also to railroads. (See Resolutions.)

J. F. Conrey was elected Treasurer of the Conference Missionary Society.

W. I. Fee was elected Treasurer of the Educational Society.

On motion, the correspondence of W. Herr, Fraternal Delegate to the Miami Conference, United Brethren Church, and the response of that body, were received, and ordered to be published in the Western Christian Advocate. M. Kauffman was appointed fraternal delegate to the same body for the ensuing year.

Dr. Walden was appointed to arrange with the railroad companies for rates of passage for members of Conference next year.

The Statistical Secretary reported the summaries of statistics.

W. H. Sutherland, D. J. Starr, and W. Fitzgerald were appointed a Committee to relieve the Conference trunk of unnecessary papers.

Dr. Chalfant was authorized, by Bishop Foster, to call the presiding elders together, to apportion the Conference collections.

The Second Question, "Who are admitted on trial?" was taken up, and, after being duly recommended by their presiding elders and examining committees, the following were received: Delos R. Baker, G. M. Hammel, W. J. Baker, John H. Davis, John A. Easton, John W. Gaddis, and Jas. F. M'Colm.

The bishop addressed the Conference in relation to the interests of the Church within its bounds.

The Stewards presented their final report, which was adopted, and the funds distributed. The Steward's resolutions of last year were adopted.

A resolution respecting the presidency of Bishop Foster was adopted by a rising vote.

On motion, Conference adjourned; and Bishop Foster announced the Appointments, and pronounced the benediction.

Resolutions of Conference.

Of Respect to Bishop Foster.

WHEREAS, Bishop Foster began his natural life in the West, and entered upon his ministerial career within what is now the Ohio and Cincinnati Conferences; and whereas, the venerable man who received him into the Church was a member of our Conference, and has just died; and whereas, some of us cherish pleasant recollections of his early manhood, co-labor, and companionship; and whereas, he now appears among us, for the first time, to administer the affairs of our Conference; therefore,

Resolved, 1. That we do hereby welcome him back among us, and to the scenes of his former service.

2. That we do and shall most cordially welcome him, as a man, a minister, and superintendent, to our hearts and homes, and pulpits and Conference sessions.

3. That the presidency of Bishop Foster at our Conference has given us very great pleasure.

Signed by J. F. WRIGHT,
J. C. BONTECOU,
And other senior members.

Condolence.

WHEREAS, we have heard with profound sorrow of the death of the wife of our former colleague, Rev. John Miley, D. D.; therefore,

1. Resolved, That while we recognize the wisdom of God in all the events of life, and bow with submission to His will, we would, at the same time, tender to our bereaved brother, Dr. Miley, our sincere sympathy and condolence, and commend him by prayer to the Divine Comforter, for sustaining and comforting grace in this his hour of sorrow.

2. Resolved, That the Secretary of the Conference is hereby requested to forward, without delay, to Dr. Miley, the foregoing action of the Conference.

W. I. FEE, W. HERR,
A. LOWREY, WM. YOUNG,
J. F. WRIGHT, J. W. WEAKLEY,
G. MOODY, G. C. CRUM.

Dr. Wentworth's Sermon.

RESOLVED, That we do hereby request Dr. Wentworth to furnish, for publication, the sermon preached by him before the Conference yesterday afternoon, and ask the Agents of the Western Book Concern to print it in suitable form.

A. BOWERS,
J. STEPHENSON.

Transfer of Rev. C. W. Dreese.

RESOLVED, That we respectfully request the transfer of Rev. Charles W. Dreese, a missionary in Mexico and a probationer in the Providence Conference, to the Cincinnati Conference, in the bounds of which he was born, converted, and licensed to preach.

W. I. FEE,
J. F. MARLAY,
D. J. STARR.

Respect to Dr. Lowrey.

WHEREAS, Rev. Asbury Lowrey, D. D., in view of his age and service, asked and has obtained a change of ministerial relation, in order to assume the responsibilities of editor of the Christian Standard, and to visit "Bible Lands" during the ensuing year, should Providence permit; therefore,

Resolved, That after intimate ministerial acquaintance and fellowship with Dr. Lowrey, during a period of thirty years, we esteem him very highly in love as a devoted, able, and useful minister of the New Testament; and we deeply regret the loss to the regular work of his eminently effective labors.

Our appreciation, sympathies, and prayers will follow him; and should he, at any time in the future, elect to return to the regular work, we will extend to him most cordial welcome.

GRANVILLE MOODY,
WM. I. FEE,
GEO. C. CRUM,
JOHN F. WRIGHT,
J. F. CHALFANT,
WM. H. SUTHERLAND,
WM. HERR,
WM. YOUNG,
WM. I. ELLSWORTH,
J. W. WEAKLEY.

Respect to Transfers—Rev. T. S. Cowden.

WHEREAS, we learn that the Bishop has transferred our beloved brother, Rev. Truman S. Cowden, to the Kentucky Conference; therefore,

Resolved, That highly appreciating his gifts, grace, and usefulness, we part from brother Cowden with deep regret, and implore upon him the blessing of God in his new field of labor.

Resolved, That should he at any time desire to return to this Conference, we will extend to him a cordial welcome.

D. J. STARR,
SILAS BENNETT,
C. T. CRUM,
M. KAUFFMAN,
A. M. GRIFFITH,
WM. I. FEE,
J. F. MARLAY.

Dr. R. M. Hatfield.

WHEREAS, we learn that our beloved brother, Rev. R. M. Hatfield, D. D., has been transferred to the Philadelphia Conference; therefore,

Resolved, That we express our high appreciation of the services of Dr. Hatfield during his connection with our Conference; and if, at any time, the exigencies of the work should require his return, we will most gladly receive him.

W. L. HYPES, J. F. MARLAY,
LUCIEN CLARK, D. H. MOORE.

Rev. J. Kendall.

WHEREAS, the Rev. Jas. Kendall, for many years past an able and beloved minister of this Conference, has, as we learn, been transferred to another Conference; therefore,

Resolved, That while we part from our brother with reluctance and regret, yet our best wishes and earnest prayers shall go with him to his new field of labor; and if, in the providence of God, he should ever desire to return to his Conference home, we will cordially welcome him back.

WM. HERR, J. F. MARLAY,
GRANVILLE MOODY, S. D. CLAYTON,
J. STEPHENSON, W. L. HYPES.
L. CLARK,

Rev. R. L. Vickers.

RESOLVED, 1. That Rev. Robert Lesley Vickers be, and is hereby, granted a location, by his own consent, for the reason that our work is such that we can not give him an appointment, at the present time, of such grade as he might desire or successfully serve.

2. That the Secretary is hereby requested to give him a letter, expressing our unqualified appreciation of him as a man and Christian.

On Camp-Meetings.

RESOLVED, 1. That we believe now, as ever, in camp-meetings.

2. That we believe that camp-meetings may be held on the Sabbath-day, without any violation of the law of God.

3. That we have confidence in the brethren of the ministry and laity who have charge of these meetings; and we do not fear that they will disgrace our Church, or bring reproach upon the cause of Christ, by their management of them.

4. That we rejoice that God has owned these meetings the present season, by making them the spiritual birthplace of a multitude of souls, and of the sanctification of a large number of believers.

5. That we condemn all Sabbath desecration connected with camp-meetings, such as charging admission-fees at the gates, selling soda-water, lemonade, ice-cream, etc., making merchandise of the Lord's-day.

Of Thanks.

RESOLVED, 1. That we hereby tender our thanks to the citizens of Wilmington for the very hospitable manner in which they have entertained the members and visitors of this Conference.

2. That we hereby tender our thanks to the pastor of this Church, and the Committee on Entertainment, for the liberal interest they have taken in our welfare.

3. That we express our gratitude to the trustees of the Methodist,

Friends, Baptist, and Presbyterian Churches, for the use of their buildings, and the courtesies extended.

4. That we are grateful to the Marietta & Cincinnati, and to the Pittsburg, Cincinnati & St. Louis Railroad Companies, for favors extended to members and visitors of Conference, in traveling over their lines.

J. T. BAIL, D. J. STARR,
F. M. CLEMENS, W. HERR.
A. B. LEONARD,

Conference Stewards' Resolutions.

1. RESOLVED, That a sum equivalent to ten per cent of the salaries paid in each presiding elder's district shall be the amount expected from the same; and the District Stewards are hereby requested to distribute the same to the respective charges, according to the ability of each.

2. Resolved, That we hereby pledge ourselves to present this claim to our people as early in the year as practicable, giving it that prominence its merits demand.

3. Resolved, That in the passage of character, each pastor shall be requested to report the amount of his collection.

4. Resolved, That any pastor who may neglect to present this claim to his charge, or shall lightly excuse himself therefrom, will thereby expose himself to just censure.

5. Resolved, That estimating committees, in complying with the Discipline (sec. 482), request claimants to furnish to the Estimating Committee appointed by the quarterly conference, and to the Board of Stewards of the Annual Conference, a full statement, in writing, annually, on the first day of Conference, of their financial condition, and that no claims should be considered without such financial statement.

3. REPORT ON FINANCE.

WE recognize the impracticability of applying any detailed plan of finance in all our Churches with uniform efficiency; hence, we would urge upon all our ministers,—

1. That they act freely in their right to examine the stewards' accounts, and urge upon the stewards such methods as harmonize with the partial expressions of the Discipline, and as their wide experience finds to have been most successful.

2. That, as inefficient stewards are a principal cause of embarrassment in this department of Church-work, we insist that pastors shall nominate, and quarterly conferences elect, such men only as have very special business and religious qualifications for this office. And that their responsibility for the success of our many collections be strongly enjoined upon them.

3. We believe that, as our Discipline suggests, wisely written circulars might be sent with good effect to all our members by the stewards, stating the needs of the work, the plan of raising funds, and their obligations in it, and this should be followed with a personal appeal by the stewards. And, for the fuller information of the members, the stewards should make quarterly and annual exhibits, before the societies, of all collections and disbursements of moneys.

4. We believe that an intelligent assessment of Church claims upon the members is the only safe rule of finance upon the Scriptural basis—"As the Lord hath prospered thee"—and that they should be taught to accept such assessment with the unrepining readiness with which pastors accept their allowance for living.

5. We believe that weekly collections, by envelopes or otherwise, are practicable and wise, especially in our town charges; and that in any charge for members to pay but annually, and that payment stayed till the end of the Conference Year, works great hardship and injustice to pastors.

6. We recommend that all preachers of the Conference be allowed and paid a generous support. It can not be expected that a pastor, who is embarrassed in his means of support, or who is struggling to maintain his family, can give his undivided mind or heart to his legitimate work.

W. A. RICHARDS, Secretary. GEO. C. CRUM, Chairman.

5. CHURCH EXTENSION SOCIETY.

THIS Society is yet in its infancy; consequently, its importance is not yet realized by the great mass of our people.

It is apparent to the Committee that the meagreness of the collections taken in behalf of this Society may be attributed to the careless manner in which we, as ministers, present the cause before the people.

We hear them asking: What is the Church Extension Society? What is it for? What does it do? The secret is, our people are not acquainted with its object and plans of operation.

The object of this Society is to aid the worthy societies in all directions; to procure places of worship where they are unable to do so—in some cases by donation, in others by loan, with or without interest, as the case may demand. This money, in due time, is returned and loaned again; and thus it may continue active from year to year. This feature of the Society is truly one of strong recommendation—the good done by a gift to the Society being so often repeated. The condition of the South since the close of the war affords ample opportunity, and demands immediate action. The Great West is being rapidly filled with a mixed population. Infidels of every class, from the fool who hath said, "There is no God," to the modern free-thinker, are pouring in. Rome is moving to possess the field. The Church must move to the front, and there plant the blood-stained banner of our Lord Jesus Christ.

The important question is, How is this work to be accomplished? The Church must recognize this Society, and meet its obligations. In order that this be done effectually, let the ministry present the claims and needs of the work before their respective congregations, so clearly defined that they may appreciate the situation; also, urge upon them their duty of giving to this end.

W. E. HINES, Chairman; J. C. AMBROSE, Secretary;
J. F. HULL, W. L. HYPES.
M. A. RICHARDS,

6. REPORT OF THE FREEDMEN'S AID SOCIETY.

THE nature and extent of the work of this Society entitles it to a more careful consideration and hearty support than it has received. The providential character of its mission is not less marked than that of the other connectional agencies by which our Church is meeting the special demands of the age. Its field is the South, from which, as a Church, we were virtually excluded for more than a quarter of a century. The people among and for whom it labors are those who, although living in our own land for these many years, were unaccessible to us; and, now that we may reach them, they have, in all the needs that slavery entailed, none more pressing than those which this Society aims to meet, and is meeting.

During the eight years of its existence, the Freedmen's Aid Society has planted schools in every Southern State, and maintained Christian teachers among the freedmen, who have labored faithfully for the moral and mental improvement of this people so long neglected. Some of its schools have grown into institutions for the training of teachers and preachers, and from these each year scores of young men and women, who were once slaves, go forth to engage in teaching and the work of the ministry.

With an average income of about fifty thousand dollars a year, this Society has procured, for the cause of the Church, property to the amount of nearly two hundred thousand dollars; has maintained an average of fifty teachers, and instructed thousands of pupils each year, and has aided in the support of a number of poor young men while at school, who are now doing efficient work in the ministry, among their people.

It is to be regretted that, while these glorious results are being accomplished, the Churches of our Conference have not been more liberal in their contributions to this good cause. While the reports show that the aggregate amount is about the same as last year, yet collections were taken in only sixty-seven (67) of the one hundred and fifteen (115) charges in the Conference.

Not only has the General Conference charged the pastors with the duty of instructing the people in regard to this important connectional work, but at our last Conference we were pledged by our own action to fidelity in this matter. But even without such action, we should be encouraged to an earnest effort to enlist the sympathies and aid of our whole people. There is a higher call to this than Conference resolutions, in the providence which has opened the field and prospered the movement, and thus far crowned it with signal success.

It is to be hoped that, in the year to come, something will be done in every pastoral charge. The fact that four-fifths of the three thousand dollars apportioned to our Conference was raised in sixty-seven charges, indicates that the whole amount could have been raised if an effort had been made in each charge.

Every community has an interest in the condition of the freedmen, as that condition affects the whole country; hence, every congregation is entitled to the information, in regard to this cause, that the Church has made it our duty, as pastors, to furnish; and every congregation should have the opportunity to do its part toward that mental and moral elevation of the emancipated and enfranchised thousands which is alike demanded by the welfare of the country and the progress of the Church.

Your Committee recommend the passage of the following resolutions:

1. Resolved, That the presiding elders be, and are hereby, instructed to apportion the sum of three thousand dollars among the circuits and stations of the Conference, and report their action to the several quarterly conferences, at their earliest convenience.

2. Resolved, That we pledge ourselves to an honest and earnest endeavor to raise every dollar of the amount assigned to our several charges.

JAMES KENDALL, Chairman; A. BOWERS, Secretary;

7. REPORT ON SUNDAY-SCHOOLS.

THE Committee on Sunday-schools present the following:

The Sunday-school is a primitive institution, revived to meet certain modern wants. It aims not to diminish the parent's obligation to bring up his children "in the nurture and admonition of the Lord," but to stimulate, direct, and supplement his efforts. It does not supplant the pulpit, but prepares for its more systematic and thorough ministrations. It is not merely a nursery for the young. Its relations and methods are profitable to men and women, as well as children and youth. The Sunday-school should be in the Church, and the Church in the Sunday-school.

The Sunday-school teacher is a minister of the Word, to whom is addressed the searching inquiry, "Thou therefore which teachest another, teachest thou not thyself?" followed by the command, "Study to show thyself approved unto God." He needs to drink at the fountain of truth, and to be baptized with the Spirit. Without such preparation, every effort to teach is a caricature and a travesty, an assumption and an abuse, a formality and a folly. Sanctified brains and a purified heart are essential to the teacher's success.

The Sunday-school is an integral part of the Church: the pastor is its rightful head. The officers and teachers are his assistants, whom he ought to encourage by his presence, and assist by his counsel. The pupils are part of his flock, for whose spiritual welfare he ought diligently and prayerfully to labor.

Methodist Sunday-schools should be organized and conducted according to the Discipline. Special attention should be given to the directions concerning superintendents, teachers, examinations, reports, literature, missionary collections, and normal-classes.

That these views may be more generally received and applied,—

Resolved, That the officers and managers of the Sunday-school Union, aided by the presiding elders, be requested to hold a series of district institutes during the coming year, to which our Sunday-school workers shall be invited; and that some competent persons be employed to conduct the exercises.

8. REPORT ON TRACT CAUSE.

WE feel that there is a great amount of indifference among us in regard to the Tract Cause. As ministers and people, we do not use this agency as we should. At the present time, the minds of the people are specially open to moral and spiritual truth. There is a manifest condition of receptivity in the direction of temperance truth and the higher spiritual experiences. Therefore,

Resolved, 1. That we urge upon our ministers and people the circulation of tracts upon these subjects, both among themselves and the world without.

2. That we urge our ministers to give greater prominence and attention to the collection for this cause.

3. That we are glad to learn, through Dr. Vincent, that this department of our Church work is progressing admirably, that new tracts are being added to the list, while the form and style of those that remain are being changed.

9. REPORT ON THE BIBLE SOCIETY.

YOUR Committee, to whom was referred the claims of the American Bible Society, beg leave to submit the following resolutions:

1. That we have undiminished confidence in the administration of the American Bible Society, and in its efficiency in the dissemination of the Word of God.

2. That we commend it to the Christian liberality of our people, and advise that collections be taken in all our charges in harmony with the Anniversary of the Auxiliary Society, within the limit of the charge.

3. That we recommend the reappointment of Rev. Wm. Herr, District Superintendent of the American Bible Society for the District of Southern Ohio.

J. M. WALDEN, C. W. KETCHAM,
R. K. DEEM, J. S. WHITNEY,
J. G. BLACK, S. W. EDMISTON.

10. REPORT ON PARSONAGES.

THE Committee on Parsonages are happy to report that six new parsonages have been added to the list during the past year, and a number of those already erected have been repaired and beautified; so that they have become more desirable places of residence than heretofore.

We rejoice in the disposition of our people within the bounds of our Conference to supply our parsonages with suitable furniture and fixtures; therefore,

Resolved, That we reaffirm that part of the action of the Conference last year, numbered 1, 2, 3, and 4. J. B. ELLSWORTH, Chairman.

W. T. M'MULLEN, Secretary.

11. REPORT ON THE OBSERVANCE OF THE SABBATH.

YOUR Committee on the Observance of the Sabbath would respectfully recommend the adoption of the following resolutions:

1. That we will always, and in all places, endeavor to be governed by the Divine Law: Remember the Sabbath day, to keep it holy.

2. That the general spirit of Bible teaching on this subject enjoins upon all people the observance of the day, by "not doing their own ways, nor finding their own pleasure, nor speaking their own words; but by making the Sabbath a delight, the holy of the Lord, honorable," and by abstaining utterly from secular pursuits, works of necessity and mercy only excepted.

3. That the Fourth Commandment is equally as binding upon the general and State governments and corporations as upon individuals; and all those who are charged with the enforcement of the laws should feel it to be as much their duty to punish transgressors of the civil Sabbath laws as any other class of criminals.

4. That, as Christian ministers, as far as practicable, we will use our personal influence with the proper officers to secure the enforcement of the Sunday laws.

5. That we earnestly recommend our people every-where to so conform their lives, on this day, to the specific requirements of God's Word, that they may stand forth as shining lights, in the midst of a gainsaying and disobedient world.

6. That we earnestly recommend that every member of this body preach, at least once a year, on the observance of the Sabbath.

12. REPORT ON TEMPERANCE.

THE Church is the light of the world. Its mission is the destruction of all the "works of darkness." Intemperance is the great evil that casts its dark shadow over all the interests of humanity. The Church must act for Christ, its head, and by the Holy Spirit, its life; and must antagonize this great sin every-where and always. The antagonism should seek the destruction of the evil, not its modification; its prohibition, and not its restriction merely.

We rejoice that the Church, in its various branches, has come to see its duty and to feel its responsibility, recently as never before.

Surveying the field of our labor, in this regard, we would express our convictions in the following resolutions:

1. We greatly rejoice, and render thanks to Almighty God, that the attempt to license the work of death and destruction has met with an emphatic rebuke from the people of Ohio, and that there is a majority of more than seven thousand that have not bowed the knee to Baal.

2. In this victory we recognize, as especially prominent, the agency of the Christian Church and the Christian women.

3. In the religious element of this great reform we see the chief source of power, and the greatest promise for the future.

4. We hold ourselves under moral obligation to see that our political influence is exerted in the most effective manner to secure the execution and improvement of our laws, for the suppression of the liquor-traffic, and the removal of the evils of intemperance.

5. No principles now advocated by any political party rank in importance with that of temperance; and we hereby solemnly declare that no ticket shall receive our support that does not declare for progressive legislation on this subject, and a faithful execution of the laws.

6. We rejoice that our Church, in her General Conference, has spoken in no doubtful terms; and, as especially appropriate to these times, we quote the following from the Discipline:

"Resolved, That we not only regard the manufacture, sale, or the using of intoxicating drinks, as a beverage, morally wrong, but we also most earnestly protest against our members giving any countenance to the liquor-traffic by signing petitions for license, by voting to grant licenses, by renting property for such purposes, or by directly helping, in any other way, to promote intemperance. Any one thus acting is guilty of unchristian conduct, and is subject to disciplinary action.

"Resolved, That we should make special effort to secure a nomination and election to office of strictly temperance men.

"Resolved, That we recommend the use of unfermented wine on our sacramental occasions."

A. W. TIBBITS, Chairman; S. B. SMITH, Secretary;
J. F. LOYD, W. J. QUARRY.
E. M. COLE,

13. REPORT ON EDUCATION.

Springfield Female College.

YOUR Committee would respectfully report that they have duly considered the communication of the Board of Trustees, requesting the transfer of said property to the new corporation called the "Springfield Seminary," and recommend the Conference to adopt the following resolutions:

1. Resolved, That the Cincinnati Conference respectfully declines to give its assent to the transfer, by gift, of the property of the "Ohio Conference High-school and Female College" to the new corporation entitled the "Springfield Seminary."

2. Resolved, That, as a Conference, we indorse the action of the Board of Trustees in leasing the institution to the new Board, known as the Springfield Seminary, with the understanding that either party shall have the power to dissolve said lease at the expiration of one year, or any subsequent year thereafter, by giving the other party ninety days notice previous to the close of the Academic Year.

We also recommend that L. F. Van Cleve, T. J. Harris, W. I. Ellsworth, Wm. Herr, Wm. Young, and W. H. Sutherland, be a Committee to investigate all the accounts of the trustees, and to exhibit the same to this Conference, at its next session, and also to prepare a proper method for the election of trustees, according to the charter; and, further, that said Committee be empowered to negotiate a sale of said property to such parties, and on such terms as in their judgment shall seem wise.

Hillsboro College.

YOUR Committee find that this institution is doing a good work, and is gradually rising from the depression and financial embarrassment which so recently jeopardized its existence. We regret that some $800 of the pledges made in 1869 remain unpaid. The claim is held by private parties, and against the Conference, and consequently does not directly affect the school, but if not soon met, may, in the complications possible, not only seriously injure the institution, but bring great discredit upon the Conference.

We recommend that Revs. C. Ferguson, J. F. Chalfant, L. F. Van Cleve, A. Meharry, M. Dustin, T. S. Cowden, and S. D. Clayton, be elected trustees for the ensuing year.

And, also, that the Presiding Bishop be requested to appoint Rev. J. M'Dowell Mathews as President.

Xenia College.

FROM the Report of the Board of Trustees, and also of the Committee of Visitation, we find that this institution has enjoyed a year of usual prosperity. The debt on the college is $2,200, the interest of which, for the past year, has been paid. We regard the College as worthy of confidence, and justly entitled to the patronage of the country; and we would especially recommend its Normal-school as highly deserving of extended patronage. We also recommend the appointment of the pastors of First Church and Trinity, in Xenia, and of Yellow Springs and the two charges of Springfield, as visitors and examiners for the current year.

Ohio Wesleyan University.

YOUR Committee deem it unnecessary, in this report, to refer to the origin, progress, or even usefulness of this institution. It lives, we trust, in the hearts of our people. It has done more for Methodism in Ohio than any other institution of learning. If Methodists of Ohio are true to its claims, and to their ability and responsibility to God, they will neither ignore it nor suffer its repeated calls for relief from financial embarrassments to be made in vain. We call attention to the financial exhibit for the past year, which shows a deficit of over two thousand dollars. We earnestly hope that the resolution, passed one year ago, to raise thirty thousand dollars, to endow a professorship, may at least soon be realized.

1. We suggest that the Conference urge all its members to make special efforts to call the attention of persons of means to the wants of the University, and by private application secure, if possible, large donations toward its endowment, to be paid, if need be, in annual installments.

2. Resolved, That the presiding bishop be requested to appoint Rev. L. D. M'Cabe, D. D., Professor of Philosophy in the University.

3. Resolved, That John R. Wright, Esq., be elected a trustee of the University, for the term of five years, from June 22d, 1875.

4. Resolved, That Rev. T. J. Harris and Dr. L. H. Bugbee be appointed Visiting and Examining Committee to the University for the ensuing year.

Secretary Board of Trustees.

In addition to the above, which is the customary report for the Conference Minutes, I give the items which you ask, as follows:

Actual income, 1873–4	$16,234	60
Actual expenditure	18,418	14
Deficit	$2,183	54
Estimated income, 1874–5	$16,230	60
Appropriations by the Board	16,420	00
Anticipated deficit	$189	40

W. G. WILLIAMS.

Your Committee would make honorable mention of the efficient services of Dr. M'Cabe, the acting president, and would most earnestly commend the University to all our young men seeking a thorough education as an institution caring for the moral and religious culture of its students, as well as their intellectual development.

Cincinnati Wesleyan College.

THE same uniform success has characterized this College during the last year. Two hundred and twenty young ladies have been in attendance, one hundred and fourteen of whom were members of the undergraduate classes. This shows a growing appreciation of the college, on the part of the Church and the public, as an institution for the higher education of young women. We cordially recommend the College, as worthy of the confidence and patronage of our people.

We respectfully request the Presiding Bishop to reappoint Rev. Lucius H. Bugbee, D. D., as President.

We also recommend the Conference to appoint, as a Committee of Examination for the ensuing year, the pastors of Wesley Chapel, St. Paul, Trinity, Asbury, St. John's, and Christie Churches.

Garrett Biblical Institute.

YOUR Committee recommend that Rev. L. Clark and J. W. Weakley, D. D., be appointed a Visiting Committee to the Institute for the current year.

We also recommend a paper offered by Dr. Bugbee, involving the following points: Commending, through this Conference, to the Board of Education and the General Conference, the propriety of securing organization and unity in our educational work; a code of college comity; uniform, or similar, courses of study in our preparatory and collegiate schools; uniformity of text-books, and attention to their character; and calling attention to the desirability of authorship of text-books, and the publication of the same by our own publishing-houses, and the appropriation of the profits of the same to the educational interests of the Church; and the necessity of the speedy compilation and publication of the exact statistics of our schools, and the transmission of the same to all the preachers, for their use in the presentation of the subject of education to their people; therefore,

Resolved, That a copy of this paper be sent to each of the conferences to meet this Fall, with the request that this subject receive careful consideration, and that some expression be put on record, as the indication of the sentiment of the Church.

Respectfully submitted. R. S. RUST, Chairman.

C. W. KETCHAM, Secretary.

Report on Subscriptions to Hillsboro College.

THE Committee appointed to collect the unpaid subscriptions for Hillsboro Female College, submit the following report:

The Committee have called upon all the subscribers present who have not met their pledges. Several of these have paid this year; a few have promised to pay the coming year, and others decline to pay, in view of certain unfulfilled conditions upon which they made their subscriptions. A few of the brethren have died without making provision for the payment of their pledges, and a few superannuated brethren are utterly unable to pay their subscriptions. In view of all the circumstances connected with the case,—

Resolved, That the Committee be continued another year, with instructions to collect every dollar possible of these pledges; and, at the commencement of the next session, report in open Conference the amount paid toward this assumed debt, and by whom paid, the amount of unpaid subscription at that time, and the names of the persons from whom it is due.

R. S. RUST,
L. F. VAN CLEVE,
T. S. COWDEN.

VISITORS' AND EXAMINERS' REPORT.

AT the last session of this Conference, Rev. J. F. Chalfant, D. D., and myself, were appointed Visitors of the Ohio Wesleyan University. By ill-health, Dr. Chalfant was unable to attend. I was present at the opening and remained to the close of the examinations. So far as I was able, I acquainted myself with the condition, methods, progress, and wants of the University. Every facility was afforded the Visitors to obtain the desired information. In this report I can be expected to give only the general impressions made upon my mind.

1. The Visitors and Examiners have a more important and responsible office than by many has been supposed. They are not only channels of information for the Conference, but are also representatives of the Conference, in acting upon the recommendation of candidates for degrees in Faculty meeting, and participating with the trustees in the organization of the Faculty.

2. The University has had a prosperous year under the administration of the Vice-President, Rev. L D. M'Cabe, D. D., of our own Conference. This was readily apparent, and was attested by universal testimony.

3. Professors and students seemed well to harmonize. Mutual relations seemed healthful. The former were efficient in instruction, and the latter were generally faithful in application. The use of written examinations combined with the oral, indicate an effort for more perfect scholarship.

4. The religious results are encouraging. In the love-feast on Sabbath, a number testified to the great benefits they had derived from association with the University and Churches at Delaware, recognizing these as instruments of their conversion. A goodly number of the graduates go forth to engage in the work of the ministry.

5. The University needs more money—a more liberal endowment. The trustees and Faculty are anxious to make the institution what the interests of the cause of Christ and the Church demand; but are limited in the means to execute.

In its prosperity, every patronizing conference is a party deeply interested and largely responsible. They need the benefit, and have the means to secure it. The transfer of means from individual pockets to the treasury of the University is the next work to be done. A conviction of this duty, from a knowledge of the great need, is necessary to secure it. Convictions have been produced, especially in Conference discussions, but they have been allowed to subside before they resulted in effective action. To stimulate this interest, I will give a few facts:

The actual income for 1873–4 is	$16,284 60
Actual expenditures	18,418 14
Deficit	2,133 54
Estimated income for 1874–5 is	16,230 60
Appropriations of the Board	16,420 00
Anticipated deficit	189 40

Funds are insufficient when appropriated in the most careful manner. The Faculty needs to be enlarged. Astronomical and other apparatus is needed, and other improvements are pressing; but the condition of the treasury forbids. Much has been done for the University, and the University has done much for the Church in return. Much more must be done to make it what it ought to be, and to enable it to do what it is capable of doing. Contributions in this direction will be a good investment for the Church. With continued care over this institution, and an enlarged liberality toward it, we may look upon it as a growing instrumentality for good, as an ornament to the Church, and an honor to the State.

S. B. SMITH.

14. REPORT ON PASTORS' AND LADIES' UNION.

AT the close of the war, the Christian women connected with our Churches, who had rendered most valuable assistance in the hospitals and through the Sanitary and Christian Commissions, began to consider their duties to society more nearly surrounding them. In the light of their recent experiences, this field opened up before them in a new aspect. Deeply moved by the Spirit of God, and loudly called by his providence, a few of these worthy successors of Barbara Heck, in the neighborhood of Philadelphia, began their modest efforts to assist the needy, encourage the struggling, and seek out the neglected, in the name of the Master. The work grew upon their hands. Bands of workers were organized, and an excellent monthly paper was started in the interests of the great and growing movement. The blessing of God was upon the cause. It grew in favor with the Churches, and, at the meeting of the General Conference at Brooklyn, in 1872, the following action was taken by that body:

"Whereas, the Ladies' and Pastors' Christian Union is doing valuable service by systematically employing the women of the Church, under the supervision of the regular pastorate, in religious work in the homes of the people, and especially among the neglected masses who do not come to the Church; and whereas, a large proportion of the Church are women, and there is a wide field of usefulness opened up before them in this direction, for which they are eminently fitted; therefore,

"Resolved, That the prayer of the memorialists be granted, and that the Ladies' and Pastors' Christian Union be, and hereby is, recognized as a regularly constituted society of the Methodist Episcopal Church."

This subject had so impressed itself upon the heart of the Church within the bounds of the Cincinnati Conference, that, at our last session, held in Springfield, Ohio, the Conference organized a Pastors' and Ladies' Christian Union, with the following officers: President, W. I. Fee; Vice-Presidents, W. Herr, W. L. Hypes, J. T. Bail; Recording Secretary, J. F. Marlay; Corresponding Secretary, D. J. Starr; Managers, C. W. Ketcham, W. L. Hypes, J. T. Bail. Soon thereafter the Corresponding Secretary published a brief statement, through the Western Christian Advocate, recommending to pastors the organization of societies within their charges, and offering to supply them with the necessary documents upon application. Rev. S. A. Brewster, of Franklin; Rev. F. M. Clemens, of Middletown; a few other pastors of our own Conference, and several from adjoining Conferences, sent for supplies, and organized local societies; but the number of these is not definitely known, as pastors and secretaries have not furnished full reports to date.

The regular working of these organizations, in most parts of our Conference, has been interrupted by the prominent part the elect women of our Church have taken in the great Temperance Movement; but the members are now turning their labors and developed talents more particularly into the channels of Church work. It is to be hoped that, during the coming year, a society will be organized in every pastoral charge, and that the excellent paper published under the auspices of the society at Philadelphia will find its way into each of our families.

In closing the report, I take great pleasure in acknowledging the great interest which has been manifested in the work within the bounds of our Conference, by Mrs. Annie Wittenmeyer, the general Corresponding Secretary.

Respectfully submitted. D. J. STARR, Cor. Sec.

MADISON A. RICHARDS, Treasurer.

17. REPORT ON PERIODICALS.

1. As to the Sunday-School Periodicals.

WHEREAS, our Church is largely dependent for the doctrinal instruction of the children upon the periodical literature of the Sunday-school; and whereas, we can not expect the pens and press of other Churches to teach Methodist doctrines; and whereas, our own Sunday-school publications are of the highest order of merit, and adapted to every requirement of the schools; therefore,

Resolved, That we will continue to use our influence to secure their introduction into all our schools, to the exclusion of the publications of other Churches.

2. As to the Quarterly Review.

RESOLVED, That we regard the Quarterly as a healthful mental tonic, a complete index to current theological thought, and of incalculable advantage to our ministry.

3. As to the Ladies' Repository.

WHEREAS, it is of the utmost importance that the Church retain its hold upon the affections, and mold the minds of our women to its sentiments and usages; and whereas, we know nothing that will contribute more certainly to this than the adoption, by our women, of the Repository as their choice of the monthlies; and whereas, we believe this would be their choice were they better acquainted with the constant aim and unsparing and successful effort of the editors to make it, in every department, the peer of the best American monthlies; therefore,

Resolved, That we will use greater diligence and more especial endeavor to bring the Repository to the favorable notice of our people in order that its subscription-list, for the coming year, may indicate a heartier and more general appreciation of its great worth.

4. As to the Western Christian Advocate.

WHEREAS, the Western Christian Advocate, in the freshness, variety, reliability, and convenient classification of its news, its thorough discussion of the questions of the day, religious, scientific, or social; its faithful and satisfactory exposition and vindication of Methodist doctrines and polity, and its outspoken, able, and dignified support of temperance and of Christ's cause generally, measures well up to the highest standard of a Christian weekly, proves itself a welcome and profitable visitor to our homes, and an invaluable helper in the great work of the Lord; therefore,

Resolved, That we will commend it from our pulpits, and also endeavor to introduce it into every Methodist family within the bounds of the Conference.

5. As to the Christian Advocate at New York.

RESOLVED, That while we record with genuine satisfaction the high estimate we place upon the ability exhibited in the general editorial management of the oldest and most widely circulated of our weekly papers, we, at the same time, record with sorrow the fact that it has not only failed to give, in full measure, its great influence to the Temperance Movement, in which, as a Church, we have taken so active a part, but by the course it has chosen has given no inconsiderable encouragement to those who carry on the traffic in alcoholic stimulants, and use the same as a beverage.

T. COLLETT, Chairman.

D. H. MOORE, Secretary.

19. MEMOIRS.

REV. WILLIAM SIMMONS.

WILLIAM SIMMONS was born in Mason County, Kentucky, June 24, 1798. When about one year old, his parents removed to Ohio, and settled in Clermont County, where some of the family still reside. He was converted in 1816, under the ministry of Rev. John Strange. After his conversion, he was strongly impressed that it was his duty to enter the Christian ministry; but against this conviction he struggled for four years, passing, in the mean time, to use his own strong words, through an "indescribable mental conflict." He finally yielded, however, to what he regarded as a Divine call to the office and work of an embassador of Christ, and, on the seventeenth day of July, 1820, in the house of Benjamin Penn, near the Gregg Camp-ground, was licensed to preach, and recommended to the Ohio Conference. He was received by that body at its session held in August of the same year, in the city of Chillicothe.

His first appointment was to Piqua Circuit. This charge embraced twenty-eight preaching-places, to be visited monthly. The same territory now includes four stations and nearly a dozen circuits. Besides preaching twenty-eight times a month, he always met the class after service, the invariable custom in those days. His own characteristic remark on this subject is, "We would as soon have thought of omitting preaching as to have omitted the class-meeting."

His next appointment was to London Circuit—a field of labor very similar, in extent and difficulties, to the former. It should be borne in mind that the times of which we speak were long before the railroad and steamboat and turnpike. Traveling was on horseback, often through unbroken forests, guided by marks on trees, and frequently through dismal swamps. On this circuit his horse fell under him, as he slowly and painfully toiled through a deep forest, and was dead in five minutes, leaving him without means to travel, and far from home. Through the efforts of kind friends, an amount was raised, in about six weeks, sufficient to replace the horse. If it seems to us that the time required to make up this loss was very great, when compared with the trifling sum necessary for the purpose, we must remember that "the people called Methodists," fifty years ago, were comparatively poor. This will require no stronger confirmation than Mr. Simmons's own statement, that his salary that year was just forty-eight dollars. After mentioning this fact, he adds, "I thanked God, and took courage." We cease to wonder at the marvelous success of our early itinerants, with such records as this before us. "In the fifty years of my itinerant life," said our brother, in his Semi-centennial Sermon, in 1870, "I have traveled more than one hundred thousand miles, preached more than five thousand times, and seen more than ten thousand conversions and additions to the Church." His salary, during this long period of heroic toil and glorious success, averaged four hundred dollars per year. But of this support, or rather lack of support, he never complained. His own words are, "Somehow, by rigid economy, I have kept square with the world, and have now no fear of want in my old age; for I have God's promise that my bread and water shall be sure."

Deer-creek, Scioto, and Brush-creek were successively his next appointments, in 1822–24. From Brush-creek Circuit he was sent to Detroit, in 1825, as presiding elder of that district, which included the whole of Michigan, and a part of Northern Ohio. But, in addition to the work of this immense district, he was pastor of the Church in Detroit, a town at that time of less than three thousand inhabitants, of whom but fifty were Methodists. In a small, time-stained memorandum-book, found among the papers of Mr. Simmons, are these very characteristic words, referring to this part of his ministerial life:

"DETROIT, Monday, November 21, 1825.—This day I spent principally in visiting from house to house. My judgment is, that a minister may do as much real good in this way as by preaching from the pulpit. But I have to mourn that I have such a disinclination to attend to this important duty. O God, quicken thou my soul, and enable me to be useful in this part of my work!"

The labors of this year, among whites and Indians, in that comparatively new and wild region, were very exacting, and taxed our brother's strength so severely that he was greatly broken in health when, in the Fall of 1826, he started to Conference, which assembled in October, in the town of Hillsboro. It appears, from a brief entry in the small pocket diary already referred to, that this immense district, embracing the whole State of Michigan and part of Ohio, with the help of Detroit Station, paid Mr. Simmons that year a salary of eighty-eight dollars. This fact is referred to, not to reproach those who did, perhaps, what they could, but as a striking illustration of the wonderful growth and change which forty years have wrought in that country.

Mr. Simmons was next appointed to Chillicothe Station, at that time the most responsible and important charge in the Conference, outside of Cincinnati. From the meagre records of this period, we gather that the year in this city was one of marked success, but not without its conflicts. A great ball was announced to take place on the 22d of February, and Methodists, as well as other professing Christians, were expected to participate in this exciting and dangerous amusement. Mr. Simmons preached with such power and force of argument against the sin and folly of such worldly pleasures that the ball was abandoned. Referring to this time, he says, "I preached then against dancing and balls, because I believed, as I do now, that they are methods of the devil to draw souls from Christ." This was nearly forty years ago. In the matter of conformity to the world, great changes of opinion and practice have marked the progress of Methodism; but it will occur to some, perhaps, that, had the uncompromising and somewhat stern morality of the fathers been adhered to more closely by their descendants, it would be better to-day for the purity and spirituality of the Church.

It will be impossible, of course, in the brief sketch suitable to this occasion, to go into any thing like a detailed account of Mr. Simmons's various fields of labor. To do so would require a volume; for his ministry was remarkable not only for the great number of years it of labor, will carry down through coming generations the record of his earnest, and sometimes fiery and eloquent, words of denunciation of the liquor-traffic. Recognizing the business as destructive of all the best interests of society, and as the chief hinderance to the spread of Christianity, he waged against it a war of extermination; and, in the course of his eventful and useful life, gave and received many hard blows in the great conflict with this deadly evil.

Father Simmons was an intelligent and active promoter of all the great educational enterprises of the Church. He was a firm friend of education, whether secular or religious, but especially did he favor and advocate the union of mental and moral training. He felt that it was a part, and a very important part, of the work of the Church, to educate her children; and so he endeavored, in every possible way, to sustain and encourage denominational schools. It is well known that the Xenia College has never had a more faithful friend than William Simmons. For many years he was president of the Board of Trustees, and on several occasions, when confined to his house by sickness, called that body together, and presided over its deliberations in his sick-chamber. While presiding elder of Springfield District, many years ago, his labors in behalf of the college there were incessant efficient, and very highly appreciated by the Church throughout that region.

As a minister of the Gospel, Mr. Simmons possessed largely the qualities, moral and mental, which constitute a useful preacher. His understanding was clear and discriminating, and his heart susceptible of strong and tender emotion. He was always serious, earnest, and pointed, and no one who heard him could doubt that the love of Christ and of souls were the governing principles of his ministerial life. His habit of reasoning was logical and convincing. His style was simple, neat, and dignified. His sermons were doctrinal and practical. They set forth the truths of religion in their Scriptural form, and carried them out into their practical uses. His appeals to the heart and conscience were direct and faithful, and often profoundly impressive. Taking his ministry as a whole, it was very successful, both in the conversion of sinners and the advancement of believers in Scriptural holiness.

For several years past, brother Simmons has been a great sufferer. In the small pocket diaries which he kept of late, there may be found almost daily a record of intense bodily pain. But all this he bore with the spirit and courage of a martyr-hero. I watched by his bed the night before he died, and what impressed me most deeply was the fact that, amid paroxysms of excruciating pain, not a murmur, hardly a groan, escaped his lips.

Shortly before he died, he said, in reply to a question, "I am calm, peaceful, trusting in Jesus, on the Rock."

I referred to his long, laborious, and useful life in the ministry. "I feel," said he, "that I have been an honest preacher of the Gospel. I never felt that I was a great preacher, but I know that I have tried to do good."

I then spoke of the near approach of our Conference session. "Yes," he said, "I had hoped to be able to get there, especially as one of my boys is to preside. I was traveling the old White Oak Circuit, and embraced, but also for its fruitfulness of interesting incidents and gracious results.

His appointments after Chillicothe were Miami, Milford, White Oak, Hamilton, Dayton, Lebanon, Zanesville, Portsmouth, Marietta, New Richmond, Urbana District, Bethel (Cincinnati), York-street (Cincinnati), West Cincinnati Mission, Asbury (Cincinnati), Hillsboro District, Xenia District, Old Town, Tremont, Gaddis Chapel (Dayton), Urbana District, and Jamestown. For several years past he has been agent of the Freedmen's Aid Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church, an appointment which he held at the time of his death; so that, in his long ministerial life, embracing fifty-four years, his relation to his Conference has always been that of an effective preacher.

Father Simmons was a man of one work. Equally with Saint Paul he could say, "This one thing I do." "Do you think," said his presiding elder, in the examination preliminary to his being licensed to preach, in 1820, "that it is your duty to give yourself wholly to the work of the ministry?" His reply was, "If God has called me to preach, he has called me to give up every thing else." And on this persuasion he acted throughout his whole life. Few men have had such opportunities to amass a fortune while preaching the Gospel. Out of his meagre income, fifty years ago, how easily he might have invested a small amount in real estate in such cities as Detroit and Dayton and Cincinnati, with the certain prospect of rapid accumulation! However others might, in this way, seek to gain the world and save souls at the same time, he felt that all his business here below was to cry, Behold the Lamb!

And now, when there is so much money-seeking and self-seeking and love of pre-eminence, and so much strife for influence and promotion, even in the Church—and, alas! too often among ministers—how refreshing to find one who sought not his own, but "the things which are Christ's," a disinterested, straightforward, guileless man, who seems never to have entertained a scheme for his own interest or honor!

He was a man of inflexible integrity. This trait in his character was so marked and conspicuous that he lived entirely above suspicion. The name of William Simmons was a synonym for honesty, and was associated in the public mind with a feeling of safety in regard to any interest which might be committed to his keeping. His history happily illustrates the value of a good private character, and shows, most impressively, how much power a blameless life exerts.

Mr. Simmons possessed some rare qualities for the office of presiding elder, to which he was so repeatedly appointed. He had great kindness of disposition, unusual firmness of purpose, and remarkable self-control. He exhibited politeness without affectation, dignity without pride, and, in the chair of the quarterly conference, a strict adherence to rules of order and the requirements of the Discipline, without offensive pertinacity. And he was distinguished for his skill and dispatch in business, as well as for sound judgment in the council of the bishop.

To the cause of temperance he gave a life-long and whole-hearted service. In the early days of this reform, when it was far less popular than now, he espoused it with a zeal that suffered no abatement as he advanced in life. The local newspapers, published in his various fields of labor, will carry down through coming generations the record of his earnest, and sometimes fiery and eloquent, words of denunciation of the liquor-traffic. Recognizing the business as destructive of all the best interests of society, and as the chief hinderance to the spread of Christianity, he waged against it a war of extermination; and, in the course of his eventful and useful life, gave and received many hard blows in the great conflict with this deadly evil.

I then spoke of the near approach of our Conference session. "Yes," he said, "I had hoped to be able to get there, especially as one of my boys is to preside. I was traveling the old White Oak Circuit, and present at the camp-meeting in 1832, when Randolph S. Foster was converted, while I was kneeling by his side; and, O, how he did shout!"

In reply to an earnest request from the family to conduct the funeral services, Bishop Foster sent a letter, from which we are permitted to make the following brief extract:

"MT. AUBURN, August 7, 1874.—I can not express the regret I feel that I can not be with you to-morrow, on the mournful occasion of the funeral of my venerated and life-long friend. Nothing but the most imperative necessity could keep me from you.

"I should be glad to give my testimony of affection and admiration, in honor of a life of so much beauty and worth as has thus, by death, been terminated here, to unfold in still greater beauty and perfection in realms where no death is. He needs no such testimony as mine, since God has given his. . . . R. S. FOSTER."

I asked him if he had any message for his brethren, in case he could not be with them in person. "Tell them," he said, "that I have tried to be an honest, faithful minister, and that my one work through life has been to save souls. I love them all, and hope they will all be faithful, and meet me in heaven." Soon after, he added: "Tell them I am now ready to be offered, and the time of my departure is at hand. I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith; henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day; and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing." He paused a moment, but quickly added:

"Happy, if with my latest breath,
I may but gasp his name;
Preach him to all, and cry in death,
Behold, behold the Lamb!"

In this frame of mind, and with such expressions as these, he breathed his life out, on Thursday morning, August 6, 1874, at two o'clock, so gently and sweetly that it was impossible to tell the precise moment when he was "absent from the body, and present with the Lord."

"Servant of God, well done!
Thy glorious warfare's past;
The battle's fought, the race is won,
And thou art crowned at last."

J. F. MARLAY.

REV. JAMES ARMSTRONG.

REV. JAMES ARMSTRONG was born in the county of Leitrim, Ireland, December 25, 1803. Came to the United States when about twelve years old. The time or place of his conversion has not been ascertained. Rev. E. H. Field says, "My acquaintance with him began in the latter part of the Conference year 1825–6, when he was employed by Rev. James M'Mahon, Presiding Elder of Portland District, to travel with me on Black-river Circuit."

He joined the Ohio Conference in 1827; was appointed to Monroe

Circuit, Detroit District, as colleague of Rev. G. W. Walker. The next year, 1828–9, he traveled Salt-creek Circuit. At the close of this year he was married to Miss Elizabeth Cross, who, from that time, shared with him the trials and triumphs of his itinerant life; and who survives to mourn his departure, and to rejoice in the hope of a glorious reunion.

Brother Armstrong also filled the following appointments: Burlington, Letart Falls, Gallipolis, Adelphia; Rushville, two years; Old Town, now Frankfort; Putnam, two years, Norwich, two years; Charleston, Mechanicsburg; Franklinton, two years; Worthington, two years; London, two years; Franklinton again; Frankfort, two years. After the formation of the Cincinnati Conference, he traveled Sinking Springs Circuit; Aberdeen, two years; Laurel, two years; Batavia, two years; Moscow, two years; Laurel, Hamersville; Amelia, two years; Williamsburg, two years; Moscow, two years; Laurel; Sardinia, two years. Here, from advancing age, and failing health, he closed his work as a traveling preacher, and at the Conference of 1871 took a superannuated relation. Thus he closed his public labors running through so many years—going back to the wilderness, the rude cabin, the horse and saddle-bags; years of unrequited toil. For his first year in the ministry he received twenty-five cents and one pair of socks, and for the first three years—if my memory is correct—he received $19.37.

Brother Field says in a note to me, "So far as my personal knowledge extends, brother Armstrong was an agreeable companion and colleague, zealous and faithful in the discharge of his duties, and, I doubt not, so continued to the end."

He was an agreeable companion. Being eminently social and cheerful in disposition, his presence always promoted cheerfulness.

Extremely modest, he disliked any thing like egotism or pedantry. But how many will recollect the peculiar fervency that often attended his relation of personal experience, and his prayers!

Brother Armstrong was esteemed a sound, practical preacher; yet it was perhaps in pastoral work that he excelled. He certainly possessed qualities of a superior order in this work.

In the Fall of 1867, his brethren of the Cincinnati Conference exhibited their confidence in his ability by electing him as one of their representatives to the General Conference of 1868. In that Conference, he performed his duties with the same modest thoroughness for which he was noted.

He received and went to his appointments without murmuring or complaining; always cheerful and happy in his work. Since his retirement from the regular work, he had several attacks of partial paralysis, which caused him to suffer some depression of mind. In the midst of his increasing bodily infirmities, he continued to preach among his old friends when able to do so. In the early part of June he was taken down with sickness. Nothing serious was at first apprehended: but it was soon discovered that he was rapidly sinking with typhoid pneumonia. He complained of great distress in the region of the heart.

The transition of the cheerful, active man to a condition of helplessness and extreme suffering, seemed for a time to be almost too great a shock for the mind readily to rally, and hence for a time, though expressing himself in very strong terms in regard to his faith and trust in the merits of Christ, he seemed not to be as joyful as I had often seen him. But as the end approached, the sky cleared, and his expressions to his wife and friends indicated that he was resting sweetly in Jesus, and that the "peace of God which passeth all understanding" was keeping his heart and mind. And at his home near Bantam, Clermont County, O., July 1, 1874, Rev. James Armstrong, after a long life of toil and usefulness, fell asleep, in his seventy-first year. The verdict of multitudes is: "He was a good man." W. E. HINES.

REV. JOSHUA BOUCHER.

REV. JOSHUA BOUCHER was born on the 2d of April, 1797, in Lee County, Virginia. The family removed thence to Tennessee, and in 1815 had its residence in Warren County, in that State. It was in this year that brother Boucher was converted. The human agency employed was a pious slave belonging to his father. Filled with penitential sorrow, and crushed beneath the burden of his sins, accompanied by this slave, he nightly sought the depth of the forest. There they wrestled and prayed together. Light from heaven broke upon the darkness of his soul; a sweet sense of God's forgiving love filled his spirit; and joyously he could say, "My beloved is mine, and I am his." This fact in his religious history was never forgotten. The conviction that slavery was wrong, that the slave was a man, pervaded his very being, and from that hour he hated the institution.

On the twentieth anniversary of his birth, he united with the Methodist Episcopal Church, and at Nashville, in the Fall of 1818, was admitted on trial in the Tennessee Conference. His first appointment was Henderson Circuit, Kentucky. In a letter to his friend, Rev. R. Brandriff, written in 1869, he refers to this, saying: "I went to my work weeping and praying most of the way. I asked God to give me favor with the people, and to bless my feeble labors among them." It was a year of religious prosperity. The membership of the circuit was doubled. The increase was two hundred. The next two years were spent on Livingston Circuit. A gracious revival crowned the labors of those years. From thence he went to Green-river Circuit, and at the close of the year was transferred to the Mississippi Conference. In this Conference he labored four years—traveling successively Alabama, Cedar-creek, and Tuscaloosa Circuits. He then spent one year in Tuscaloosa Station, and at its close he asked for and obtained a location. His labors had been great and successful. The circuits were large, the rides long, and preaching an every-day duty. He did not locate because the work was laborious, the support meagre, the accommodations often uncomfortable, but, in his own emphatic words, it was "to get out of the hell of slavery."

In the Spring of 1827 he removed to Ohio, and, at the earliest opportunity, united with the Ohio Conference. In this Conference his fields of labor were respectively as follows, namely: In 1828, Bellefontaine Circuit; 1829, Union; in 1830, he was returned superanuuated; 1831–32, Piqua Circuit; 1833–34, Springfield; 1835, London; 1836, Urbana Station; 1837, Troy; 1838, Westchester; 1839, Urbana Circuit; 1840, Mechanicsburg; 1841–42, Union. He had charge in each of these appointments, except Bellefontaine.

Some of the colleagues of those years are here to-day—one of whom now presides over this Conference—and others have passed to their eternal reward. On all these fields there yet lingers the memory of his labors and usefulness, and to many his name and friendship are still precious. Prior to the General Conference of 1836, the agitation of the question of slavery in the Church was begun, and, subsequent to that Conference, was continued with increased zeal and activity. This resulted, as is well known, in the organization, in 1843, of the Wesleyan Methodist Church, on strictly antislavery principles. The antecedents of brother Boucher, and his avowed antislavery sentiments, led him to sympathize with this movement, and in the Fall of 1843, he withdrew from the Ohio Conference, in order to connect himself with it. In his own language, "He felt conscience-bound to take this step." The sacrifice to him was great. In a conversation with the writer in June, 1873, he adverted with deep feeling to the mental struggles through which he then passed, and expressed the pain he felt at separating himself from his loved colaborers. "But," said he, "I had always tried to be honest, and to act from principle." Pressed by the consciousness of duty, he judged, he must stand or fall to his own Master. In the wonderful providence of God, the cause of separation has passed away. The night of slavery is ended, and we now rejoice in the glorious fact that, in all our broad land, the sun does not rise on a master or set on a slave. This bright page in our national history opened the way for a reunion of long-separated friends. It ushered in the dawn of a better day. The Church hastened to open her arms to receive and welcome her returning children. Of this disposition on the part of the Church of his early love, brother Boucher, with others, availed himself at the meeting of the Cincinnati Conference, in Urbana, in 1867. The cordiality with which he and other Wesleyan brethren were received to membership in the Conference at that time, was felt and appreciated as an act of Christian courtesy, honorable to the Conference and grateful to these brethren.

Brother Boucher's name was placed in the list of superannuates, and so continued till the day of his death. This accorded with truth. The infirmities of age were upon him. For years he had been afflicted with partial paralysis of the lower limbs. In October, 1872, the wife of his youth passed away to the better land. He felt sorely this sad bereavement, and from that time his decline was rapid. "He longed to depart and be with Christ."

In June, 1873, impelled by an intense desire to see the friends of other years, and meet once more with his brethren in the approaching Conference, he left his residence in Missouri for Piqua, Ohio, and, though wearied and exhausted, he succeeded in reaching the home of his friend, Rev. R. Brandriff. The experiment convinced him that he had made a mistake, and the necessity for his immediate return became apparent. In company with his daughter, he reached his home in Kingston, Missouri, the latter part of June; but was soon after taken very ill: so much so that, for a time, his life was despaired of. But, by the blessing of God, on medical aid and skillful nursing, he rallied once more, and till November 14th, passed the time in comparative comfort. Of his religious state during these weeks, his daughter, in a letter to Rev. R. Brandriff, of September 8th, 1873, thus speaks: "His confidence in the Lord remains unshaken, and almost daily he remarks, 'I am only waiting, waiting to go home.'" In this letter she also mentions the reception, through brother Brandriff, of an appropriation from the Stewards and the "Relief Society" of this Conference; when he was quite overcome, and "wept like a child."

The day of dependence was soon to end; for, on the 14th of November, he was taken very suddenly and dangerously ill. For some hours he suffered the most intense pain. This was followed by a stupor which lasted for several days, during which he scarcely noticed any thing. Partially roused from this state, his daughter says, "that for two days and nights his mind seemed to wander back to years gone by, and he would talk of preaching, and of carrying his saddle-bags as he rode from circuit to circuit, frequently murmuring the names of Brandriff and Raper." The day before he died he awoke to perfect consciousness, expressed his devout thankfulness for freedom from pain, and observed to his children, whom he fully recognized, "I shall soon be with your mother in heaven." To a friend who came in he exclaimed, "All is well; I will soon know as I am known." Thus, in joy and hope, closed the life of Joshua Boucher, on the evening of November 22, 1873, at Kingston, Caldwell County, Missouri, in the seventy-seventh year of his age and the fifty-fifth of his ministry. Briefly we sum up the character of our friend and brother by saying, He was a man of God, mighty in faith and prayer; a minister, both useful and faithful; a Christian of a noble type, generous in his impulses, broad in his charities, true in his friendships, and zealous and firm for the right.

"Servant of God, well done!
Thy glorious warfare's past;
The battle's fought, the race is won,
And thou art crowned at last."

P. A. OGDEN.

REV. H. M. CURRY.

REV. HIRAM M. CURRY was born in Adams County, Ohio, April 7, 1818, and died in Fletcher, Miami County, March 3, 1874, in the fifty-sixth year of his age. A mother's Christian faithfulness led him early to love the children's Savior. The sense of his acceptance in Christ was in a measure lost in youthful years, and not regained until in his twentieth year, during a revival in Ebenezer Church, Aberdeen Circuit. The impression of duty to preach the Gospel was felt long before he was reclaimed; and not until he yielded consent to this duty did peace return.

He faithfully performed the duties of a local preacher several years, two of which were spent in the service of the Church under the direction of the presiding elder.

He was admitted on trial into the Ohio Conference in 1848, and appointed to Lexington Circuit, with M. G. Purkhiser as colleague; and to East White Oak Circuit in 1849. At the Conference held in Chillicothe, he was received into full connection, and ordained deacon by Bishop Janes, September 22, 1850. His appointment this year was to Lewis Circuit, Kentucky, and to Montgomery Circuit in 1851. He was ordained elder by Bishop Simpson, at Xenia, Ohio, September 26, 1852, and returned to Montgomery Circuit, Kentucky, from which time his work in the Kentucky Conference was as follows: In 1853, No Creek; in 1854 and 1855, presiding elder of Green-river District; No Creek Circuit again in 1856; Montgomery Circuit in 1857, and Germantown in 1858; in 1859 and 1860 was presiding elder on the Covington District; and in 1861 and 1862, on the Maysville District, the two districts being consolidated. He represented the Kentucky Conference in the General Conference held in Buffalo in 1860.

In 1863 he was appointed to Brooklyn, Kentucky. During this year, brother Curry was transferred to the Cincinnati Conference, and appointed to West Union Circuit. His appointments in the Cincinnati Conference were as follows: Winchester, in 1864 and 1865; Moscow, in 1866 and 1867; North Lewisburg, in 1868 and 1869; King's Creek, in 1870 and 1871; Fletcher, in 1872 and 1873.

Brother Curry was twice married. First to Miss Louisa Craig, whose death occurred in 1857. His second marriage was to Mrs. Julia Vanduzen, of Newport, Kentucky, June 26, 1861.

While in Kentucky, opposed by pro-slavery influence, he was subjected to peculiar trials and great sacrifices in serving the Church; often "persecuted but not forsaken, cast down but not destroyed." Such heroism let the Church cherish in memory.

Brother Curry belonged to that class of men whose real worth is seldom fully recognized. Never seeking preferment, nor thrusting himself into notice, he accepted the work assigned him in the spirit of cheerfulness, and performed the duties of an itinerant fully and faithfully. Few men of his time did more hard work. His ministry was productive of good. His was depth and strength rather than brilliancy. He was a workman that needed not be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth. The doctrines of the Bible were by him ably maintained, sin fearlessly rebuked, and the Discipline faithfully enforced. He steadily and lovingly held forth the attainment of Scriptural holiness as the Christian's privilege and duty, and humbly supplemented his advocacy with his own personal experience of the cleansing efficacy of the blood of Christ. For many months it became apparent that the toil of years was developing fatal results. Disease, in complicated form, was destroying the earthly house. But with persistent energy he toiled on when he should have rested. His heart was set on his work. Though his step faltered and his attitude was unsteady, yet he stood, February 22d, at the altar of God, and delivered the message of warning and love. His work was done. A few days of unavailing effort to rally nature from the effect of that breath which chills to warm no more, brought him to his last Sabbath. It was a day of review. Cause for humiliation was deeply felt; but, upheld by triumphant grace, as memory swept through fifty years of mercy and labor, his exultation was, "I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith." But his most tender affections and touching expressions were toward his wife and children. Of their homelessness and helplessness and destitution, he spoke from a husband's and a father's heart; but with a Christian's faith, in wrestling prayer, he commended them to God. Two days more of preaching, exhorting, and praying, mind-wandering—and the weary wheels of life stood still. S. BENNETT.

MRS. DOROTHY PHILLIPS.

DOROTHY PHILLIPS was born in Licking County, Ohio, January 19, 1815, and died April 15, 1874, in her sixtieth year. She was the daughter of Thomas and Margaret Taylor, who emigrated from Northumberland, England, early in the present century, and settled near Newark, Ohio. Her father was the first class-leader in the above-named place. She was therefore blessed with early religious training. She was united in marriage to Rev. T. A. G. Phillips, her now bereaved husband, September 14, 1836, and has shared with him the toils and sacrifices common to the life of an itinerant minister. She was the mother of six children, four of whom have preceded her to their heavenly home. As a penitent at the foot of the cross, she exercised saving faith in Christ, and found the pearl of great price, which she retained through a period of forty-two years. She was never very demonstrative in her professions of Christian experience, but was decided, uniform, and consistent in her Christian life. She loved the house of God, Christian fellowship, the class-room, the prayer-circle, the precious Bible, the Sabbath-school, and her Savior better than all. She was a true, devoted, and faithful wife, an affectionate mother, a kind and accommodating neighbor, visiting and nursing the sick, and, as far as able, assisting the needy. For more than eighteen years she was a faithful and efficient teacher in the Springboro Sabbath-school, sowing in the soil of young and tender hearts the precious seed of Divine truth. Such was her interest in the cause of Christ, that at no time was she known to say to her h sband, "You leave too soon, or remain away too long," when he was laboring to win souls to the standard of the cross. For the last twenty months, her health has been giving way gradually with chronic bronchitis and affection of the lungs. Her paroxysms of coughing were at times painful to witness; but amid her afflictions she was enabled, through grace, to manifest great patience and a spirit of submission to the will of God, never murmuring at his dealings with her. For the last two weeks she failed more rapidly than before, and felt convinced that her time was very short. Her husband, impressed with this painful thought, and desirous of learning her prospects as she neared the Jordan of death, asked her these questions: "Do you now trust in Christ as your Savior?" She answered quickly, "I do." "Does Jesus save you now?" She responded, "O yes." At another time she said to her husband, on inquiry, "All is right; I love every body, and my Savior better than all." The night before she died, while suffering intense pain, she prayed, "Savior, give me grace." Being told that death was near, she said,

"Yes, I know it is the pangs of death." For several hours her sufferings seemed almost more than she could bear, and at one time she said, "How long, O Lord, how long?" In the latter part of the night she sank into a stupor, and breathed with great difficulty, and those who watched her thought her dying. Suddenly she roused up, exclaiming in a distinct voice: "I see them—the angels—the bright angels. They beckon me to come down to the bright river. They are coming for me. They want me to go with them. They are in the room—the redeemed—my relations—the children! But they are not children now; they are all angels." Then, reaching out her hands, she inquired: "Where are you? I want to bid you all good-bye. I am ready to go. I am going now." After bidding each one good-bye, and exhorting her two daughters to live right, and meet her in heaven, she said: "O, it 's sweet! What are all my sufferings? They are nothing. I am just coasting along the river." Thus did our sister, with bright visions of the future, bid adieu to friends on earth, to join the redeemed in heaven,—

"Where all the ship's company meet,
Who sailed with the Savior beneath;
With shouting each other they greet,
And triumph o'er sorrow and death.
The voyage of life 's at an end;
The mortal affliction is past;
The age that in heaven they spend,
Forever and ever shall last."

S. W. CAREY.

MRS. SARAH J. NATION.

MRS. SARAH JANE NATION, daughter of Mr. Isaac and Mrs. Nancy A. Hagle, was born in Adams County, Ohio, March 5, 1812, and departed this life in Mechanicsburg, Ohio, August 24, 1874, in the sixty-third year of her age. Her parents were members of the Presbyterian Church, and governed their family in the fear of the Lord. Sister Nation's mother dying when she was twelve years old, she became more intimately associated with members of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and became so attached to them that she was led by them to seek a saving knowledge of Christ and join this branch of the Church of God, in the fourteenth year of her age. At this early period, she gave evidence of that strong religious devotion which characterized her future years, causing her to be admired for consistency of Christian character by all who formed her acquaintance.

In the twenty-fourth year of her age, she was married to Rev. Philip Nation, a member of the Ohio Annual Conference, and then stationed on the London Circuit. The following were their fields of labor, up to the time of the decease of her husband: 1836, London Circuit; 1837–8, Kingston Circuit; 1839, Gallia Circuit; 1840, Parkersburg Station, Virginia; 1841, Kanawha Circuit; 1842, New Holland Circuit; 1843–4, Bainbridge Circuit; 1845–6, Highland Circuit; 1847–8, West Union Circuit. In 1849, brother Nation was placed on the supernumerary list. This was to sister Nation a year of deep solicitude for the health of her husband, who was a subject of deep affliction till toward the close of the year. His health having been partially restored, they were sent to North Lewisburg Circuit, and there remained during 1850; in 1851–2, Vienna Circuit, which was their final field of active labor in the ministry. At the Conference of 1852, brother Nation was placed on the superannuated list, which relation he sustained until his death, which occurred October 14, 1855. About one year previous to the death of brother Nation, he moved with his family to Mechanicsburg. Here sister Nation lived up to the time of her decease. To her was committed the charge of five children, who are still living. These she has endeavored to bring up in the knowledge of Christ, and most of them are members of the Church.

During the years of their itinerant labors, sister Nation proved herself worthy of the relation she sustained to the work; and during the remaining years of her husband's afflictions, she was as an angel of comfort, ministering to his wants, cheering his spirit, guiding the family, and sympathizing with him in his protracted sufferings.

Sister Nation's chief characteristics were gentleness, meekness, patience, sincerity, and steadiness of Christian purpose, which kept her ever in the path of life. She was a faithful wife, a fond and indulgent mother, an excellent and kind neighbor, ever ready especially to minister to the comfort of the afflicted, and a worthy member of the Church. When health permitted, she was ever at her place in the sanctuary, and no means of grace did she enjoy more, or attend more regularly, than the class-meeting. This was the last means she ever enjoyed. On Sabbath, August 2d, she attended class for the last time. Her experience was more definite and thrilling than it had been for months, and she was wondrously baptized by the Spirit. Through her affliction, which continued for only a few days, she was perfectly peaceful, and very clear in her assurance of acceptance of the Divine presence, and of a hope of immortality. In gentleness and patience she lived; in perfect peace she died; and now in glory lives, to be forever with the Lord.

Correspondence with Bishop Morris.

THE BISHOP'S LETTER.

SPRINGFIELD, OHIO, August 24, 1874.

To Rev. Bishop Foster and the Cincinnati Conference, in Conference assembled.

DEAR BRETHREN,—I wish to say a few things to you in regard to my health, and some other matters. The 28th of last April, I entered my eighty-first year. I have but little pain or sickness for one of my age. I sleep well. My digestion is excellent, and, apart from the infirmities incident to my time of life, I am very comfortable. I, however, take but little part in the active duties of life, and, having served my day and generation as God has given me ability, I am now resting in the quietude of my home. True, I am no longer able to go in and out before you, to sit in your councils, and take part in your deliberations, yet my heart and sympathy are with you; and for Zion's prosperity my tears shall fall and my prayers ascend until my release is signed, and I go to join the Church triumphant in the skies.

As to my religious enjoyment, it is not increased by exemption from labor, but rather the contrary. This, however, is what I expected; and I find it requires more grace to suffer than to do the will of my Heavenly Father. But, although this is the case, I am by no means destitute of enjoyment. No, dear brethren; I find the religion I so long preached to others is able to bring peace and assurance to the heart in retirement as well as when in the heat of the battle, leading forth the conquering hosts to certain victory. Thank God for the Christian's hope! It comforts and sustains amid all the vicissitudes of life, and to the trusting heart makes bright the future. In reviewing the past, I have only this to say, that God has been very good to me. Most of my associates in the ministry, as well as many loved ones, have passed away. I yet linger on the shore, and soon expect to cross the river. I am nearing the Jordan, and in the course of nature can not stay here much longer; but beneath me are the everlasting arms, and, through riches of grace in Christ Jesus my Lord, I hope to safely anchor in the harbor of eternal rest. In all probability this is the last time I shall address you. Before another session of your Conference I may be safely home. Therefore, in conclusion, permit me to say, dear brethren, live for God; preach Christ and him crucified; seek not the applause of men, or the honor that cometh from the world: but so live that, in the great day of accounts, you can say, "Here am I, and the souls thou hast given me." Praying the Great Head of the Church to direct in all the deliberations of the present session of Conference, I am, dear brethren,

Yours, fraternally, T. A. MORRIS.

REPLY OF THE CONFERENCE.

WILMINGTON, August 28, 1874.

BISHOP T. A. MORRIS,—Reverend and Dear Brother: The undersigned have been appointed a Committee to respond to your letter of fraternal greetings addressed to the Cincinnati Conference, and read at the opening of the present session.

We assure you that your communication was received by your brethren of this body with sincere pleasure, and listened to with profound emotion.

We congratulate you that, in the good providence of God, your life has been spared so long to the Church and the world, and that now, at fourscore years of age, you enjoy so comfortable a state of health.

Our common and fervent supplication for you is, that God may still have you in his holy keeping; that he may continue to bless you with bodily health, and keep your soul in perfect peace.

We need hardly assure you of our high appreciation of your long and faithful services to the Church. In performing the various, and oftentimes difficult and responsible, duties assigned you, you have made a record of which the whole Church feels justly proud.

No man living, probably, whose life has been so active and public, has spoken or written fewer words which, dying, he could wish to blot.

Dear and venerated Father,—we do most earnestly commend you to God and the word of his grace, which is able to build you up, and to give you an inheritance among all them which are sanctified.

Pray for us, that we, who have entered into your labors, may be worthy sons and successors in the Gospel.

The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with you always!

Signed on behalf of the Cincinnati Conference.

JOHN F. WRIGHT, M. DUSTIN,
E. H. FIELD, J. F. MARLAY.

UNFERMENTED WINE.

Warranted Pure Juice of the Catawba Grape.

— FOR —

COMMUNION PURPOSES,

— AND —

ADAPTED TO THE WANTS OF INVALIDS.

Entirely Free from Alcohol.

THIS Wine is manufactured from ripe Catawba Grapes, by a new method of preventing fermentation, which is perfectly effective, and yet does not in any respect injure the Wine. Having received great encouragement the past year, from the unusual demand for and ready sale of my Unfermented Wine, I have this season greatly extended the manufacture of it, and hope to be able to supply all orders.

EXPENSE OF MUSIC, either Instrumental or Vocal—according to Department—from $30 to $50 per session.

DRAWING AND PAINTING, $10, $20, and $30 per session—according to Department.

FRENCH AND GERMAN, and the elements of Music and Penmanship, are taught free of charge, and by the ablest teachers.

THE LITERARY COURSES OF STUDY are three, and parallel. Young women completing either, receive the regular degrees conferred by our American Colleges.

THE WORK OF INSTRUCTION is thoroughly done. The aim of the College is to furnish our young women a solid and thorough education—equal to our best Colleges.

THE COLLEGE OF MUSIC is unsurpassed in the city.

Correspondence attended to at once. Catalogues sent promptly upon application to the President.
